Judge Parrish Writes Voters

Back in August when we had an election, it was called to our attention that a number of qualified voters were not on the qualified list. On further investigation we were not able to find their cards that qualified them or what had become of the cards.

This is my advice to you: If you know you should be on the qualified list, go on and vote a challenged vote, then come into my office and we will be glad to help you get straightened out again.

I am very sorry this thing happened and I pledge the full support and cooperation of this office in getting every qualified voter back on the list.

The Registrars will be purging the qualified list right away. If you know of any who are dead and still on the qualified list, please advise the Board of Registrars or my office and we will be glad to pass this information to the Registrars.

Very respectfully yours,
W. L. PARRISH,
Judge of Probate.

No Squirrel Hunting After January 1st

Montgomery, Ala. — Emergency closing of Alabama's 1947-48 squirrel hunting season at sundown New Year's Day, January 1, 1948, to halt further depletion of the popular little game animal's population was ordered by Conservation Director Bert E Thomas in Regulation A-56 promulgated Tuesday. The closing will cut short the north Alabama zone shooting by 14 days and that of south Alabama by 30 days. these seasons originally having been scheduled to end January 15 and January 31, respectively.

"Alabama's squirrel situation has become critical. The mast shortage of the past two years has caused near starvation in some areas and seriously affected their food supply all over the state. From our field force and from hunters in every section of Alabama have come reports that the squirrel population is so low as to merit drastic action. If we are to assure hunting in the future, we must take action now to remedy the situation," Director Thomas said. "The prospects of a good mast crop this year leads us to the belief that by stopping hunting now and preserving more broodstock, we will be doing our game and our hunters a real service for next year and in the years to come."

WILLIAM PATTILLO

William Pattillo, 30, son of Mr. John Will Pattillo, died at his home in Billingsley last week end. Funeral services were held Sunday from the residence and burial was in Billingsley Cemetery. Martin & Sons was in charge.

Fire Destroys Clanton Negro Grammar School

A twenty thousand dollar fire destroyed the Negro Grammar School last Saturday night about 8:30 o'clock. The building was only partially covered by insurance and was burned completely to the ground.

It was supposed that prowlers set fire to the building as the locks on the doors and windows had been found broken several times of late.

HIGHLAND

(Too Late For Last Week)

We had a very nice sized crowd out for Sunday School Sunday. The number of young people and children were especially noticeable.

Parents are so often urged to go to church and carry their children; and this is right, but we wonder if maybe the children do not need to bring their parents to Sunday School some time. Surely we cannot expect God to be pleased with our church attendance and worship of Him, if we are able to go and only attend when the weather is pleasant. Doesn't He watch over us and bless us, and isn't He just as near in winter as in summer?

We are glad to report a splendid singing here Sunday afternoon. Singers from Jackson Chapel, Shiloh and quite a number of singers and visitors from Liberty Hill attended. There were sure some real good singing done by the singers. We also enjoyed several numbers by the Liberty Hill quartet. We appreciate the presence of every one. Do come again.

Singers from all surrounding communites, why not make it "our singing at Highland Church" every first and third Sunday afternoons?

We are very sorry Mr. Woodie Deason is sick. Hope he will soon be well and out at church soon. Woodie is chairman of the singings here. Mr. Ed Langston acted as chairman in his place Sunday afternoon.

Our deepest sympathy goes out to Mrs. Lena Armstrong, one of our Sunday School and Church members, in her bereavement over the tragic death of her brother.

As we near Christmas Day, the day celebrated as the birth of our Saviour, may we have a new sense of appreciation of what this day means to us and to all the world. May our faith be made stronger and our love for others more real. Let us celebrate it only in the kind of spirit or way He would have us to.

Everyone be at church next Sunday.—Reporter.

"Old Hoss" Sale January 15th

Some real attractive merchandise have been received and some samples of these goods will be displayed in a show window uptown soon after the New Year. Watch for this display, and further announcements in the press in the near future.

VOTE "NO" ON AMENDMENT NO. 1

On January 6th it is the duty of every voter in Chilton County to go to the polls and vote his or her conviction. Whether it be "for" or "against," you should take enough interest in your State Government to vote.

So far as merit is concerned in Amendment No. 1, (that is the Amendment that so much dust has been raised about), there is none that we can see.

First, let us say that the fight is strictly between Governor Folsom and his enemies. It seems to us purely a personal matter. If they want the Amendment passed so they can call themselves together for the purpose of impeaching him, should they deem it necessary, then it is a waste of time. The Legislature can already call itself together for that purpose. So far as their cry is concerned about guarding the State's money—that also is unnecessary. All funds are ear-marked and can only be used as the legislature has seen fit to allow them to be used.

The people have not expressed a desire for such an amendment. It is strictly a brain-child of the anti-Folsom group in the legislature.

Past Governors have called legislatures into special session. The present Governor is no exception. He will call a special session when it is necessary. He has called two special sessions this year.

They cry that the Governor misrepresents things and then go out and make the statement that the Congress of the United States can convene itself. The Congress of the United States has no power whatsoever to convene itself once it has adjourned sine die. The Constitution of Alabama follows the Constitution of the United States, which has no self-starter.

The amendment will lead to discord. If the legislature stays in session, meeting one day a week or one day a month and drawing twenty dollars a day for all those days, it will cost the taxpayers hundreds of thousands of dollars and for what? Because a small "click" of die-hards who have directed state politics for so long that they couldn't stand to see the State Government put back into the hands of the "common man."

SHOULTS

Our church attendance is growing these beautiful winter days. There is no better place to go on Sunday than to go to church. Mothers and dads, go to church somewhere next Sunday and take your children.

We invite all visitors to come to Pleasant Grove.

We want all of the members of Pleasant Grove No. 2 Church to be present January 11th. We are going to call a pastor for 1948. Rev. Paul Oden has resigned and will be moving to Kentucky very soon. We hate very much to see them go, but we ask God's blessings to go with them. Hope they will soon be back.

Rev. David Smitherman from Antioch preached for us Sunday. We enjoyed his sermon very much. He is just a young minister just started out to do the good work for our Master. Let's be very much in prayer for him.

Prayer service is still being held at the home of Mrs. Gin Nicholas each Tuesday night. All Christians are invited to attend this service. They are shut-ins and do not have a chance to attend church service.

Well, Christmas has come and gone. Every one reported a very good time, with Santa giving so many gifts and made everyone happy. Let's start this New Year off right. We should ask God to guide and direct us in all that we do.

MACEDONIA

(Too Late For Last Week)

The Rev. E. C. Hand brought us two wonderful messages last Sunday and Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Veazey and family had as dinner guests last Sunday, Rev. Hand and wife, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Gibson, Mr. Hoyt and Miss Mariah Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. Pratt Crumpton and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Oates, Mary and Joyce Oates and Mrs. Bertha Davenport.

Our deepest sympathy goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Mims in which last week they lost their little beloved daughter, Joyce Elizabeth.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Cofer and Lorene spent last Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Cofer of Jemison.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rasberry returned home last Saturday from the hospital in which now they have another little son. Both mother and son are doing fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Arlis Harris and Jimmy and Mrs. Enzo Chandler spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jones and family.

Remember everyone bring their presents to put under the Christmas tree Wednesday night, December 24th, and there will also be a children's program

ABOUT TOWN

It probably made some Negro kids happy, but the burning of the colored school in West End Saturday night was rough on the County Board of Education. What with all the schools wanting and needing new equipment and added room there isn't enough money to go around now. This added grief will not make the lot of our school officials any easier.

Received a Christmas Card from Douglas Smith. That's Billy. He's still in Morganton, N. C., and says he will miss getting back home to say hello to all his friends here this Christmas. He also pleased us mightily by saying he was enjoying the C. C. News every week. We didn't send Billy a Christmas Card, but we're wishing him the best of everything in the coming year and hope he gets to make that trip south later in the year.

Got a call from another old Chilton County Newsite during the week too. We must say much better looking than the one in the paragraph above and that ain't casting any reflection on Billy either. Doris Newell, now Mrs. I. C. Wagner, was home for the holidays with her mother, Mrs. R. D. Woodson. Mr. Wagner came down Christmas Eve to join Doris and stay a few days.

Can you imagine anyone being more surprised than the two convicts caught here last week in the blind alley behind Upchurch Drug Store? They were running from officers when they ducked up, what they thought to be an alley, but the alley only runs for about twelve or fifteen feet and stops at a blank brick wall. They were literally rats caught in a trap and surely must have been terribly angry with themselves for diving up that alley.

Rev. Hickman wants us to call attention to the devotional given every morning over Radio Station WKLF. The program starts at 8:30 and lasts for fifteen minutes. Mr. Hickman says that it is to the best interest of everyone to take time-out to enjoy this fifteen minutes. The program is given by the local ministers and is rotated

Wallace Cox and J. E. Easterling are sure flattening out South Clanton. They have cleared out all that bottom land on the south side of the creek and filled it in for building purposes. The improvement is something to look at. Before too many years you will see that street lined with business houses all the way to the top of the hill where the old R. W. Lowe store stands.

Miss Dot Wesson, our efficient secretary, celebrated the Christmas Season by getting married. Mr. Lew (Pig) Headley was the lucky guy and the couple will make their home here in Clanton. Miss Wesson, pardon, Mrs. Headley, will continue on at the News for a while and Mr. Headley will continue to call twice as much to see she still loves him. Gee-e-e-e, loves grand.

Saw Charlie Cox down at the Dixie Cafe the other morning. Mr. Cox was telling us that he would be married 47 years on the first day of January, 1948. He married on New Year's Day at the turn of the century and says he told his wife that they would try it for a hundred years and then if they got along all right they would start from there. The Column wishes for Mr. and Mrs. Cox many, many happy returns of the day and also for them a happy, prosperous New Year.

A customer sent the following note to his grocer: "Please send six dozen eggs; if good, I will send check." The grocer, however, was not doing business on such risky terms, so he replied: "Send check; if good, I will send six dozen eggs."

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

1 Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion,* thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.

2 Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.

BETTER NOTIFY FOREST RANGER ABOUT FIRES

Ranger Gay Cites Law; Notify Ranger Before You Do Any Burning

Cancer Is Deadliest Killer

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first of a series of articles on cancer, most dreaded of all diseases, furnished the Chilton County News by members of the Chilton County Medical Society. The series is presented by The Chilton County News as a public service, to place in the hands of its readers facts which will enable them to protect themselves and their families from a deadly killer. — By E. M. Moore, County Health Doctor.

Ignorance, fear, superstitution, delay. . .

These are the allies of death.

Few people realize that cancer is the second greatest killer in the United States, claiming the lives of more than 180,000 men, women and children each year. Few people are aware that more than 2,200 Alabamians died last year of cancer.

Because of almost fantastic stories about cancer which have been whispered for years, because of an unreasonable and utterly false belief that cancer cannot be cured, thousands of people are dying needlessly.

We hear of the appalling number of people who die in automobile accidents. Tragic as this is, cancer is killing about four times as many people. And even more tragic is the fact that from a third to a half of the people who develop cancer can be cured.

But they can be cured only if cancer is diagnosed and treated early.

Reduction of the cancer death toll—in the foreseeable future, at least—will depend largely on cancer patients themselves. Unlike the case of many other diseases, there is no quick, easy test which can be given to everybody to determine whether or not cancer is present in the body. Each case must be diagnosed individually after a thorough physical examination, and perhaps consultation with specialists.

The cancer patient, therefore, must present himself for diagnosis and treatment while cancer is still in its early stages. Patients must learn to recognize the rather vague symptoms which may mean early cancer and go to their doctors at once if one of these warning signs appears.

Early cancer is curable in a high percentage of cases. Late cancer is fatal.

Statistics indicate that one out of every six Americans, sooner or later, will develop cancer. No one knows where it will strike—or when. Cancer is no respecter of persons; it strikes rich and poor alike, old and young. Giving all the people the facts about cancer, so that each one of them can act intelligently if cancer strikes, can save lives.

The second article of this series will appear in the Chilton County News next week. It will explain "What Is Cancer?"

Chilton County Goes Three To One Against Self-Starter Amendment

Governor James E. Folsom won another clear-cut victory Tuesday at the polls when county and state voters voted down Amendment No. 1 almost two to one over the state. In Chilton County voters backed the governor's request by voting "no" three to one.

Unofficial returns from the county's boxes show that Chilton County voted "No" 1352 times to only 498 'yeses'.

Over the state the last report before the News went to press was that there were 76,912 'No' votes against 54,876 who voted 'yes'.

The election Tuesday climaxed a long, hard and open battle between the Governor and the legislative members who were out to ratify Amendment No. 1 giving the Legislature authority to re-convene itself.

Governor Folsom stumped the entire state as he did in his campaign for Governor urging voters to vote "No".

Wednesday morning the Governor was beaming with joy as news was still giving him a wider margin of victory. As he put it "the people win again."

The returns showed that the rural population was the deciding factor. In some urban sections and heavy industrial sections, a 'yes' vote was tabulated. Birmingham and Jefferson County voted 'yes'.

Still Good Times Our Mountain Hero Says

The News' mountain hero, Felix Mims, dodged into the News office a couple of days before Christmas to get a little relief from being pushed around by Xmas shoppers. He was asked about the "times," with all the high prices, etc. Our hero was still pretty optomistic. Says he, "Times are still pretty good. I saw a rabbit run across the cow trail and there wasn't but two men after him. When you see four and five after one rabbit, times are then getting 'tolible' ."

A few days like this and you will see our farmers hustling. The nights are cold but these bright cool days are just right to put the proper amount of zip and go into a fellow.

Hundreds are still dying on our highways and still nothing is done about it. We don't suppose the coming of spring with its bright balmy days will lessen the toll either.

Thank goodness we will now get a little rest from politics. It reminds us of a radio announcer—and now a slight pause for station identification—then come the spring elections and the din gets louder and louder.

VETERANS AND THEIR FAMILIES

The Veterans Administration estimates that war veterans and their families will make up forty-three per cent of the country's population by 1952.

Population experts believe that the veterans and their families, now numbering 46,000,000, will grow to 62,300,000 by 1952.

While the Veterans Administration estimates are used as the basis for its program during the next ten years, the public is interested in the inevitable conclusion that the veteran and his family will exert key influence on the national scene in five years' time.

AROUND THE WORLD IN 7 DAYS

It took the Magellan expedition three years to circumnavigate the globe in the sixteenth century but Pan-American Airways has inaugurated weekly services around the world in about seven days.

If any reader is interested, the total fare will be $10,700, covering all the journey, including the single gap across the United States in which the airline does not fly commercially. Incidentally, the first flight did not carry passengers because the demand from philatelists for first covers is so heavy that only mail made the trip.

The airline plans two trips around the world each week, with planes leaving New York on Friday and San Francisco on Thursday. They will meet in Calcutta, exchange passengers and cargo and fly back to their home ports.

It is noted that the journey includes stops in Ireland, London, Turkey, India, the Philippines, China, Japan, Guam, Wake, Midway, Hawaii, and the United States.

QUIT WORK AND GO TO BED

Persons who, because of their jobs, cannot quit work and go to bed as soon as they experience symptoms of influenza should at least do everything they can to protect others and should by all means go to bed, regardless of their jobs, as soon as it becomes evident that they really have this disease, according to Dr. D. G. Gill, State Health Officer.

"Influenza is one of the most infectious forms of illness known," he said. "It is particularly infectious in the early, or beginning, stage. It is most easily and quickly cured then, too. So it is good health wisdom and also an evidence of consideration for others to go home and go to bed as soon as possible after the disease develops."

STATE JERSEY WORK RANKS HIGH IN U.S.

Auburn, Ala. — How Alabama stacks up with other states in Jersey cattle work done during the past year gives plenty for owners of this breed to point to with pride.

Quoting the official report of the American Jersey Cattle Club, C. E. Teague, API extension dairyman, listed these facts which he feels show the keen interest and progress of Jersey owners:

Alabama has 797 junior members in the American Jersey Cattle Club to place third among the states. This was a move up from sixth place in 1946 and seventh place the year before.

Jefferson County with 399 registrations is exceeded by only one county in the U. S.

Marshall County has 46 new Jersey breeders to place eighth among counties, while Alabama is sixth in the nation with 475 new breeders.

The 41 herds classified during the report year puts Alabama in seventh place. Next year this will be greatly changed because 150 herds classified in the state since the report closed in March.

At the National Jersey show, Alabama had 62 representatives on hand to lead all states except Ohio.

FOLKS & THINGS

ABOUT TOWN

-By BEN

Last week when Truman Luker moved his furniture store to the new location at the old A&P store he was so busy he was talking to himself—and losing the argument. It was a lot of work, we know, but Truman has transformed the vacant store into a beautiful, modern furniture store. Truman is "uptown" now with the competition and we expect to hear a great deal from him.

The reason that you see a new "mug" at the top of the column this week is Joe Azbell. Joe is Editor & Publisher of the Central Alabama News at Selma and had occasion to look us up last week for conversation. He had a copy of Chilton County News and from the picture of "Ben" he presumed that he was a very young fellow. Well, the first thing Joe had to say was, "That picture must have been made when you were in high school." Well, it wasn't—it was made six years ago by S. E. Scott, but t save any more being said about what the thing looks like, we have one made as of week-before-last, and we would just as soon you don't express your opinion of this one either.

The Birmingham dailies are giving us some good publicity as the printers of the "Folsom Forum." This we do not mind and if you have anything you wish to have printed call 32 and either myself or Clark Headley will be their pronto to aid you in any way possible—and we sometimes get some pretty good ideas. About printing, that is.

Young Johnny was inclined to be rather frivolous and irresponsible and his father decided to have a serious talk with him. "Johnny," he said, "You're a big boy now and it's time you took things seriously. Just supposing I were to die suddenly, where would you be?" Johnny replied, "I'd be here, the question is, where would you be?"

A stranger came into the office the other night looking for a Birmingham News. We told him he could go down to Mr. Mims place below the Bus Station and get one off the rack. He told us that he had already been down there and there wasn't a paper on the rack so he dropped a coin in the box at the top and waited for a paper to come out but there didn't seem to be papers in the box either. Mr. Mims just puts the papers there to accommodate honest citizens and when the rack is empty that's all there is, there isn't any more. The next morning he must have found an extra nickle in the box and wondered.

Winston Culp will be a candidate for Commissioner when the fireworks start this spring according to no other authority than himself. Winston will run for the Second District slot now held by Mr. Ousley and is the third name mentioned for this place to date. The County Democratic Executive Committee will meet next Saturday and after that date we are expecting to hear candidates qualifying right and left. According to present indications there will be more candidates in the field (and we do mean fields) the coming spring than in many a year. Charlie Cox is wondering who is going to make the crops if all run who have been mentioned.

Saturday night in the A&P shopping the folks driving their buggies up and down the isles looked like the who's what. We been contemplating asking Cecil Ramsey, manager, if we couldn't get a job being traffic officer in his new store. Take Saturday night: we could have gotten Howard Boockholdt for parking in the center of the isle; Dick Hayes for speeding; Eleanor Craig for overloading her buggy; Oliver Esco for hit and run driving; Mary Lou Foshee for parking without lights; and various and sundry others for infraction of rules just as serious. Now it we just fined them something like a pound of butter or a bunch of celery each, we could make our groceries for the week in no time.

You notice a chorus girl never worries about getting ahead; she doesn't need one.

And then there's the one about the fellow being approached by the friend and asking him to buy a ticket for a raffle for a poor widow. No said the first, if I won her my wife wouldn't let me keep her.

DITCHES

January can be a very profitable month for farmers who have drainage jobs to be done. Ask your county agent to help make plans for this work. These plans should include location of ditches and method to be used for removal of dirt.

Citrus fruit juice is much more nutritional if it is not strained. The pulp contains considerable vitamin C.

Soap which is left in garments may show up as a brown stain, resembling iron rust. To remove this, wash the garment again is soap and water, and rinse thoroughly; then bleach in the sun.

A spool nailed onto the baseboard of the wall will make a good door stop. It will prevent the door knob from striking the wall and marring the paint or the wallpaper.

MORE MILK IS NEEDED

The milk shortage is serious in many Alabama cities and at the same time the grain shortage is acute. Therefore we need to get the highest milk production with the least possible grain feeding, sas C. E. Teague, API extension dairyman.

NEW TAX RULE HITS SNAG

Montgomery, Ala. — A temporary injunction was issued last week by the Montgomery County Circuit Court against State Revenue Commissioner Phillip J. Hamm, which challenged the constitutionality of a sales tax regulation which Hamm recently issued.

A hearing was set for January 14th to determine whether or not a permanent injunction could restrain the regulation from going into effect. The action kept Hamm's ruling from taking effect throughout the State on January 1 as scheduled.

Action to restrain the new regulation was started by McDonald-Glass Grocery Co., of Anniston, and their complaint stated that Hamm was acting without authority in attempting to levy a sales tax on wholesale sales.

Hamm, in an earlier statement, said, "The new regulation is not in any way designed to be additional taxation. It is a simple way to help wholesalers and retailers keep up with the amount of sales taxes they are required to pay." Hamm called his regulation an "administrative aid designed wholly for the purpose of helping the merchants."

Miss Euna Davis of Tuscaloosa returned home Sunday after visiting her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Mahan.

CANCER TREATMENT AVAILABLE FOR ALL

Free treatment for medically indigent patients is an important part of Alabama's Cancer Control program, according to Mrs. Ray Meade, State Commander, Field Army, American Cancer Society.

The Cancer Committee of the Medical Association of Alabama, which supervises the work of the Field Army, American Cancer Society is most anxious that the citizens of this state understand and utilize the facilities that are available for them.

Any citizen needing assistance and is unable to pay, should be referred by his doctor to the County Health Department. There he will fill out a blank, which after approval by the Welfare Department, Montgomery. However, the applicant does not need to be on the welfare rolls to secure this assistance. The application will be reviewed and if approved the patient will be notified to what clinic and on what day he is to appear. The doctors at the clinics, who give their services free of charge, will then give adequate examinations and treatment. There are two clinics in Birmingham, two in Montgomery and one in Mobile.

This is a very simple procedure, but must be followed out in this manner. Further details may be secured from the local Health Department. With over 6,600 living cancer cases in Alabama, we must make every effort to combat this dread disease.

Early diagnosis and adequate treatment are essential if we are to reduce the death rate from cancer, according to medical authorities.

French Fried Peanuts Are Excellent Treat

French fried peanuts give a treat that isn't only delicious and different, but can be quickly and easily fixed.

Mary Hulsey, API extension nutritionist, says to heat fat as for French fried potatoes. Place raw shelled peanuts—about a half pound at one time—in a wire basket and lower into hot fat. Cook until skins are slightly broken and nuts are golden brown. Drain on brown paper and sprinkle with salt.

Peanuts are healthful, plentiful and rather inexpensive and can be used in many ways, adds Miss Hulsey.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our thankfulness to the people of Chilton County, and especially those of the Baptist Church and Public Welfare for the kindness shown during my illness.—Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Scarbrough.

COURT OF APPEALS TO SURVEY RULING IN ROBBERY CASE

Montgomery, Ala. — A Jefferson circuit Judge's decision denying bail for George B. Parsons, charged with robbery of a Birmingham jeweler, was taken under advisement last week by the Alabama Court of Appeals.

Asking the lower court judgement be set aside, Parsons' attorney, G. Ernest Jones, termed the case against his client as "purely circumstantial."

Prices received by all farmers average about four per cent higher now than at this time last year, but cost of production and farm living are up more than 13 per cent.

Most farm-size septic tanks should be cleaned annually. This should be done during the winter months.

CRIPPLED CHILDREN'S CLINIC GETS $10,120 TOKEN CHECK

Montgomery, Ala. — Revenue Commissioner Phillip J. Hamm last week turned a check for $10,120 and a sack containing $135 in cash over to State American Legion Commander, Jimmy Lane, of Huntsville, who will present the money to the Crippled Children's Clinic in Birmingham.

The amount of the check was raised by redemptions of tokens collected by the Legion all over the state in its drive to provide financial aid to Alabama's crippled children. The $135 in cash came from coins that were deposited in containers along with the tokens.

Lane said that the money will be turned over to Clinic officials in Birmingham on January 1, between halves of the Dixie Bowl football game. He explained, however, that the American Legion will continue its drive to collect as many more tokens as possible for the Clinic.

The money, which Lane explained represents twice its amount in that it will be matched by the federal government, will go into the fund for a clinic building that is to be located at the University of Alabama Medical Center in Birmingham.

Over half of the time has elapsed for turning in the tokens, and to date only about $25,000 worth of the estimated $400,000 worth of tokens in circulation have been redeemed by the state.

WINTER GRAZING

The farmer who has green grazing in January is fortunate. He holds down his feed bills, saves labor and his livestock does better. Farmers who do not have green grazing should visit neighbors and attend tours or field meetings to see grazing crops. Find out what was done and how to have winter grazing next year.

DR. GALLALEE GETS UNIVERSITY PRESIDENCY

Montgomery, Ala. — At a meeting of the board of trustees of the University of Alabama in Gov. James E. Folsom's office on December 22, Dr. John M. Gallalee was named president of the University.

Dr. Gallalee, who succeeds Dr. Raymond R. Paty, who resigned last year to become chancellor of the Georgia University System, was, at the time of his appointment, serving as the director of the State Building Commission and as head of the department of mechanical engineering in the University's College of Engineering. Dr. Gallalee has been technical director of the building commission since August, 1945, during which time approximately $35,000,000 has been spent on building projects over the State. He has been a member of the University's engineering staff since 1912.

Dr. Gallalee assumes his role as president of Alabama's largest institution of higher learning on January 1, 1948. He will receive an annual salary of $12,000.

Dr. Ralph Adams, who has served as acting president since Dr. Paty's resignation, will resume his duties as Dean of Administration, at a salary of $10,000 per year.

Upon learning of Dr. Gallalee's appointment to the presidency, Dr. Raymond R. Paty said, "Dr. Gallalee's abilities in all fields have been demonstrated, and in the opinion of your committee, he can and will bring to the presidency talents and a knowledge of all that pertains to the best interest and progress of the University and the State of Alabama, thus insuring the confidence of all, as well as the advancement of our great institution."

FOLSOM STAMPS APPROVAL ON NEW LEAVE RULES

Montgomery, Ala. — Gov. Folsom last week stamped his approval on the amendments of the state personnel regulation relating to sick pay to women state employees in times of maternity and to annual leave carried over from one calendar year to the next.

One of the amendments makes it possible for women to be absent for maternity reasons and receive accumulated sick leave pay to an amount equal to 15 working days if they have been in state service long enough to accumulate this amount of sick leave.

Another amendment makes it possible for state employees to accumulate one day a month in annual leave that can be carried over from one year to the next up to a maximum of 24 whole days.

MORE ACP INTEREST SHOWN BY BIG VOTE

Interest in the agricultural conservation program is at an all-time high, returns of the recent community committeemen election ndcate to W. B. Crawley, charman of the state PMA committee.

The number of farmers voting this year double that of any previous year. Returns showed that 48,000 votes were cast, as compared with the previous high of 25,000 last year.

"This proves that Alabama farmers are seriously thinking about the future of the ACP and voted to make sure they had the best farmer-committeemen to run their program," commented Crawley.

B. L. Collins has been named executive officer of the Production and Marketing Administration in Alabama. In making this announcement the state PMA committee said Collins would have administrative responsibility for the agricultural conservation program and other activities carried on by PMA in this state.

Collins has wide experience in agricultural activities. He has been with the U. S. Department of Agriculture since 1933, first in the field of agricultural economics and later with his present organization.

Beginning his work in Alabama as statistician of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration (now PMA) in 1937, Collins was later promoted to assistant state executive officer and then to acting head of the state office.

The new executive officer is a graduate of Mississippi State College. He majored in agronomy.

CARE OF WORK STOCK URGED BY PHILLIPS

Auburn, Ala. — The average Alabama farmer probably has more money invested in workstock than any type of farm equipment.

There are now 27,000 mules and horses on farms in the state, says G. B. Phillips, API extension specialist in animal industry, in pointing out the importance of farmers taking care of work stock.

Phillips advises farmers to have horses and mules treated for bots by a veterinarian before spring plowing begins. Bad teeth should be floated, he added.

Another point Phillips suggested was that work stock should get a limited amount of cottonseed meal in their feed this winter. This is particularly true if corn and grass hay are the main feeds. The animals need protein found in the meal, he explained.

One pound of cottonseed meal a day is enough for idle stock while two are needed for animals working. One pound of this feed will take the place of two pounds of corn.

"By taking care of their horses and mules this winter, farmers can begin the spring with animals that will do more and better work," concluded Phillips.

IT'S A GIRL

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Culp (nee Betty Hocutt) announce the birth of a 9-pound baby girl born December 24. She has been named Janet Patricia.

CARNLEY AND ANDERSON SLATED TO SERVE ON NATIONAL EMPLOYMENT COMMITTEE

Montgomery, Ala. — State Industrial Relations Director S. Fleetwood Carnley and C. F. Anderson, director of the Alabama State Employment Service, have been named to key posts on several national committees which are responsible for the direction of employment security agencies.

The assignment of Carnley and Anderson to these committees will involve their participation in the 1948 annual Interstate Conference of Employment Security Agencies when administrators from every section of the country will meet to decide on the course to be followed on matters of legislative planning, finance and policies.

The industrial relations director will be a member of two committees, the legislative committee and the special subcommittee on administrative financing. The former is charged with the responsibility of legislative planning on a nation-wide scale. It is the duty of the special subcommittee to make a complete study of funds made available for state administration of the federal security program by Congress.

Anderson will serve as vice-chairman of the employment service program committee, which is presided over by John D. Davis, employment security commissioner of the state of Washington.

We have more than 3,000 cafes, restaurants, and hotel dining rooms in Alabama. "A number of them are near you," A. W. Jones, API extension marketing specialist, tells Alabama farmers. "They feed folks every day of the year. Most of them had rather get their food supply fresh and close to home if they can get the quantity and quality they want and a constant supply as they need it. Here's a good opportunity to sell produce."

SOUTHERN BELL TELEPHONE

President Hal S. Dumas, of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company, announced today that the Board of Directors has declared a dividend of 60 cents for the fourth quarter of 1947, bringing the year's dividend payments to $2.07 on each $100 share of outstanding common stock. This is the lowest dividend ever paid by the Company.

"If we are to attract the additional capital that will be required to build new plant to furnish the telephone service which the growing South both wants and needs, the low earnings which restricted our 1947 dividends to only slightly more than 2 per cent on capital stock must be improved," President Dumas said.

Southern Bell currently is seeking increased rates to meet the higher expenses incurred in rendering service to the public, and has cases pending at this time in several of the states in which it operates.

"Our 1947 dividend experience simply but forcibly confirms the fact that subscriber telephone rates of past years have become outdated by the trend of costs which we must pay in rendering the service, and clearly shows the necessity for adjusted telephone rates," Mr. Dumas stated.

SOIL CONSERVATION NEWS

Some farmers have already begun preparation of their land for spring sowing of sericea. In its place, sericea is as good for erosion control as kudzu. Besides being a wonderful crop for controlling erosion, it is the best plant known for permanent pasture on upland soil. Once established and properly maintained, it will furnish years of permanent summer grazing. If cut at the right stage, it makes excellent hay. It has often been called, "The Alfalfa of the South."

Farm plans were made last month on the farms of O. A. Posey, S. D. Posey, Napoleon Posey, Lee Robinson, Clyde Headley, J. C. Morris, C. C. Gay, Frank Allison, J. B. Allison and Henry Coelman. These people know that saving the soil is very important. They have made plans to do something about it.

Four thousand Lespedeza bi-color seedlings will be delivered to cooperating farmers of the North Central Soil Conservation District this week. Bicolor is the quail's favorite fall and winter food when they can get it. Lespedeza bi-color seed will also be made available by the State Department of Conservation for establishing wild life borders.

Twelve thousand and five-hundred kudzu seedlings were also received last week and will be distributed to farmers who will use them as a soil conserving crop in meadow outlets and field plantings to be used as temporary grazing or hay.

R. O. Williams is of the belief that no crop is worth while unless it can be utilized. R. O. is now fencing four acres of three-year kudzu for a hog pasture. The hog will get grain sorghum and corn as a grain. Kudzu will supply pasture supplement.

Mineral Springs Church Appeals To You For Aid

Church Is Completely Destroyed By Fire Last Sunday A. M.

This is to advise you all, and more especially our Baptist brothers in Christ that on the 11th day of January of this year, which was last Sunday, in the morning at the 11 o'clock hour, we, the members of our church, Mineral Springs, witnessed the sad and unavoidable burning of our church building. The fire broke out during the Sunday School hour and we were unable to control the Fire and were not able to save scarcely any of the interior fixtures.

We therefore make this appeal to all churches in both the Chilton County and Unity Baptist Associations, for what ever you may feel it your duty as a Sister Church to contribute to our efforts in rebuilding our church.

We had no insurance on our church building so you can readily see that ours is a total loss.

We are appealing to you through both our good county papers and you may perhaps hear of our appeal over the radio station at Clanton.

Should you care to contribute to our efforts you may mail your contributions to Mr. Martin Gore, Clanton, Alabama, Route 1, or to Mr. Graham Gilmore, at Jemison, Alabama, Route 1.

It is our desire to maintain and keep as well as make public a record of all contributions given in this effort.

We wish to say that contributions from any and all denominations, businesses and citizens will be equally appreciated.

Thanking you for any and all consideration that you the public may see fit to give us in this matter.

Asking that you remember us in your Devotions to God and we will of course remember you in our's.

—MARTIN GORE, Chm., Board of Deacons, Mineral Springs Church.

The library service helps open libraries in towns where none exists and assist cities to keep up their establihed libraries.

$90,000 was set aside by the 1947 Legislature for this service, which, by bringing vital information to farm people in particular, will raise the economic level of our state.

Marion W. Easterling Famous As American Song Composer

Marion Wesley Easterling, of Clanton, is deserving of honorable mention for the heights he has attained in the musical world as a song writer-composer, music teacher and music publisher.

Mr. Easterling, who was born and reared on a farm in Chilton County, was recently named in a book, entitled, "Who's Who In The South and Southwest." He was the youngest composer named in the book which covered forty-four states and there were only two mentioned in the book of several thousand names. The book was published after several years of survey and is sold for fifteen dollars.

Marion Easterling's way to the top has not been easy. As stated before, Marion was raised on a farm in Chilton County. In the summers he attended the county singing schools, studying under the Devaughns, Grants and local music teachers until he passed them up. After this he attended the Vaughn School of Music in Lawrenceburg, Tenn. Then taken lessons by mail from a Conservatory in Chicago.

In order to secure funds with which to continue his study, Marion taught singing schools for five or more years and as a result organized a singing society of Alabama and has held annual singing conventions in Montgomery for three years.

Following his schooling with the Vaughn School of Music, Mr. Easterling was signed up on a five-year contract with the Stamps-Baxter Music Publishing Company of Dallas, Texas While serving with Stamps-Baxter the songs he composed gained national fame. One of his most popular songs, or maybe it should be said, the most popular song, Marion ever composed was, "Angels Rock Me To Sleep." The song has been published in song book all over the nation and has been utilized by quartets over the nation as one of the favorites. Not so long ago, Mr. John Daniels, whose quartet appears regularly over WSM in Nashville, Tenn., says that fan mail requests this song more than any other song being broadcast over his program. Other groups that appear on radio station WSM also state that "Angels Rock Me To Sleep," is the most popular sacred song being broadcast over station WSM.

MARION W. EASTERLING

Marion Easterling wouldn't be satisfied with just writing and composing songs. Not so long ago he began a survey of leading quartets and ministers to find out what was the most popular sacred songs in America today and of yesterday. This poll cov-

Cancer Is Traitor Within The Body

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the second in a series of articles on cancer, most dreaded of all diseases, furnished the Chilton County News by members of the Chilton County Medical Society. The series is presented by The Chilton County News as a public service, to place in the hands of its readers facts which will enable them to protect themselves and their families from a deadly killer.

Cancer—used as a broad term — is unlike other diseases.

It may be described as a traitor within the body, rather than an invasion from the outside.

It is not caused by a germ. It is not contagious or infectious, nor is it directly inherited. It actually might be termed an "accident of growth," for cancer is growth . . . very rapid and uncontrolled growth of the cells of the body.

It always begins as a single, localized growth . . . a single cell, perhaps which suddenly, and for no clearly defined reason, turns gangster.

Cancer kills in one of two ways. Either it starves the normal, health cells to death by taking away their nourishment, or, as it grows larger and larger it may crowd vital organs or vital body passageways so that they are unabel to perform their narmal functions.

Added to those characteristics is one other factor . . . a factor which spells the real danger of cancer. It is true that cancer begins as a local growth, but somewhere in its development — generally in the early stages—the rapidly growing cancer cells break away from the original growth, and move through the blood stream or lymphatic system to other parts of the body where they attach themselves.

Once in their new locations they continue to grow. When that happens it is virtually impossible to stop the disease. That is the reason early treatment of cancer is so necessary

There is still much about cancer that is not known Though cancer can be induced in laboratory animals in more than 200 different ways, the fundamental cause—or causes—still are not clear Researchers all over the nation are working night and day to learn more about cancer—and about normal growth, which may furnish the clue to abnormal growth which is cancer. Better diagnostic methods, refinements in treatment techniques are constantly being sought.

Meanwhile, with no more knowledge than medical science has at the present time, from one-third to one-half of the patients who develop cancer can be saved, if they receive adequate medical treatment early.

The third article in this series will appear next week.

Not many men would mind their wife having the last word if she would ever get around to saying it.

Just as well go ahead and get married, death and taxes will get you sooner or later anyway.

Just because you don't give a hoot about others doesn't make you as wise an owl.

ANOTHER ELECTION

Yes. we are just before getting into the midst of another election. This election is among home-folks and will have much more interest for local residents than the last election.

Among those announcing this week in these columns are: Mr. Charlie Gulledge of Verbena, Mr. Jim Plott of Verbena, Mr. Neal H. Harrell of Billingsley, and Mr. Winston Culp of Clanton, all for the place of Commissioner of District Three and Four. Mr. Jack Hayes announces for Tax Collector and Mr. Pope Payne and Mr. Julius Smith announces for Tax Assessor.

We will serve notice now that the Chilton County News will support each and every Democratic Candidate announcing for the next four months and after that election we will support to the limit the candidate named by the people of Chilton County as the Democratic choice, in the general election in the Fall.

Until that time we wish each and every candidate God speed and may the best man win.

YOU THINK YOU GOT TROUBLE

The lady called the police department and it sent an officer to survey the situation. Eventually, the officer, with the help of a neighbor, carried the sofa outside the house, with the animal remaining asleep.

A slight drizzle, it is reported, caused the skunk to wake up and, to the gratification of the police department the animal made off, without taking or giving offense.

FOLKS & THINGS
ABOUT TOWN

-By BEN

"I once had a classmate named Guesser
Whose knowledge got lesser & lesser.
It at last grew so small
He knew nothing at all—
And now he's a college professor.

No sir, we absolutely did not dream that up. That is the brain child of another. It was taken from the Arizona Kitty Kat.

If the Mayor was better looking we would hug his neck. Yeah, and there's Reedie Taylor, Grady Heflin, Otto Jones and Jim Wade. Jim's pretty good looking but he's too tall to reach. The reason for the sentiment? It's this way. We have been donging on parallel parking on some of these streets for the past five years and the City Council would pay no attention Well, last week they broke down and decided to try it out on Sixth Street—and what a wonderful improvement it is. The street has plenty of room for vehicles to pass now with room to spare. The City Council is to be congratulated on their decision, it will be a great aid to traffic in that block.

A voter at the polls the other day tells us of one Mr. Horne in Beat 13, Providence, who drove a pair of mules five miles to get to the polls to vote "No" on the Self-Starter Amendment. Looks like that fellow was really against that amendment.

A man walked into the Probate Office the other day and wanted Judge Parrish to fix some papers to send a man to the insane hospital at Tuscaloosa. He said his wife wanted to send a man there and to fix the papers and he would take them to his wife. Judge Parrish told him that his wife would have to come in and fix the papers that no one else could sign them. "But," said the man, "I am the fellow that she wants to send, fix the papers."

Jack Hayes has given inspiration to hundreds that he knows not of. A gentleman high in the business—and industrial life of Birmingham was in our office the other day and told us that when he got to worrying too much he always came to Clanton to visit with Jack, his wonderful personality and vitality in spite of his handicap gave him new courage. We thought that was a mighty fine compliment and he is only one among hundreds.

Speaking of Jack Hayes his announcement for reelection as your county Tax Collector appears in this issue of the News. Jack is running strickly on his merits and we must say he has done a mighty good job for the past six years. He will have plenty to say about his campaign later on this month.

Mrs. J. W. McGinnis came in with a "beef" this week. She says she has got her C.C.N. without fail for a year and the very week she pays her subscription the paper failed to come The trouble was that when the plate was lifted to run the date up a year it was placed back in the tray at the wrong place. We can't afford to have good friends like Mrs. McGinnis mad with us.

Oh, come now, Red, you read that Farm News radio scrip like it was an obituary. Things ain't that bad.

No higher compliment can be paid a Clanton citizen than to be chosen an honorary member of the Junior Citizen Club at Clanton Grammar School. The Club consists of members of Mrs Warr's Sixth Grade and it is our sincere belief that no more democratic body could possibly be found than a group of sixth grade students. Children are naturally honest in their every motive. They are frank in their statements. They do not resort to subterfuge in anything and are completely without political ambitions What higher compliment could be paid anyone then than to be chosen by them as the citizen they would like most to pattern themselves after. Mrs Joe Mullins was chosen this year and we can heartily endorse their choice.

It was during the impaneling of a jury that the following conversation occurred:

"You are a property holder?"

"Yes, your honor."

"Married or single?"

"I have been married five years your honor."

"Have you formed or expressed an opinion?"

"Not in five years, your Honor."

The wise man says there are two sides to every question. The wiser man says there are also two sides to a sheet of fly-paper, but it makes a great difference as to which side one chooses.

GET BEST RETURNS FROM FARM WOODS

Stove wood, posts, and pulpwood are three items W. R. Barnhill, API extension forester, suggests farmers consider in land clearing. By using labor on the farm to prepare these products for sale, owners can get far more money from their woodlands.

The treating of sap posts of soft hardwoods and pine gives one of the best chances to make trees pay more. Barnhill says these posts can be treated on the farm.

When improving old buildings or constructing new ones, farmers should cut their own logs where possible and have the rough lumber sawed at local mills on a custom basis. Always be sure that lumber is properly seasoned before it is put to use, cautions Barnhill.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

1 Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion,* thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.

2 Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.

FRUIT TREES NEED DORMANT SPRAYING

Fruit trees need dormant sprays before buds begin to sweel. Scale and other pests that may be on peach, plum, apple and pear trees can be destroyed with the spray.

The spraying should be done on a fair day, when the weather is not freezing, advises W. A. Ruffin, API extension entomologist. Either liquid commercial lime sulphur or oil emulsion spray will do a good job.

Ruffin says to always follow directions on the containers to properly use the material.

CATTLE LICE

If cattle have lice on them, spray with one pound of 50 per cent wettable DDT in four gallons of water. This amount should be enough to spray about 10 cows. Be certain to spray on a sunny day.

ALABAMA HIGHLIGHTS

The famous old St. James Hotel in Selma, which was mentioned a few weeks ago in ALABAMA HIGHLIGHTS, has just been offered as a landmark to the Dallas County Historical Society. The old hotel, now in a dilapidated state, was built in 1838 and was for many years one of the show places of the South, and a great entertaining center for the rich planters and slave holders in the black belt It was revealed recently that Jesse James, while running from Federal officers, once stopped over at the St James and became the life of the party one evening, without any of the guests knowing his identity.

There are still more tenant farmers in Alabama than there are farmers who own their own land. Newly compiled figures show that 109,000 tenant croppers farm for a living in the state. while self-owned and operated farms just barely top 100,000. Another small number of farms, amounting to a few thousand, are owned by partners. A point of interest is that the tenant farmers are decreasing with each year, and the farm owners are on the fast increase.

The capitol dome from the first state capitol building at Cahaba, fifteen miles southwest of Selma, was taken from the capitol when Cahaba was flooded and the seat of government moved to Tuscaloosa, and [illegible] Church in [illegible] of many church[illegible] the town in the [illegible] church was used many years by [illegible] years later wh[illegible] the old church [illegible] who still [illegible] in the old frame building. Today, Lowndesboro with only a tiny fraction of the population it once had, still maintains seven churches for its 300-odd people.

In 1819 President James Monroe made a visit to Alabama, and was entertained at the convention hall in Huntsville where, the same year, delegates met and held the first constitutional convention which wrote the constitution for the State of Alabama. There was great rejoicing in the city, as the President helped celebrate Alabama's entry in the Union, as the 22nd state.

Hobson City is the only all-Negro town in Alabama. It was incorporated in 1899 after the city limits of Oxford had shrunk and left the people in the settlement outside. Hobson City has a mayor and councilmen, city clerk and treasurer, and a police force. The population now exceeds 600, and most of the people work in Oxford or Anniston. The Negroes boast of four denominational churches in the town

Are You Planning Marriage?

The recent legislature, under the caption, "House Bill 150," amended certain sections of the 1940 Code which provides that both parties to get a marriage license must have previously been examined by a licensed physician who must hav a laboratory report setting forth that they are free of syphilis, the test being not more than 30 days before the anticipated marriage. The laboratory will furnish the top half of the section for the anti-nuptial examination which will be returned to the examining physician, who in turn fills out the last half of the certificate that is presented to the Probate Office by the applicant for the marriage license.

The above procedure is accepted from any practicing physician as well as from the County Health Office. There will be a lapse of possibly a week between the time of the blood test and the completion of the certificate.

Save Scarce Corn In Feeding Mules

Scarce corn can be saved by feeding workstock plenty of legume hay during Winter. While mules are idle this is one of the best ways to conserve gran, suggests G. B. Phillips, API extension lvestock specialist.

Cottonseed meal, fed in limited quantities to workstock, is good. Feed one pound per day when stock are adle and two pounds daily when they are at work. One pound of cottonseed meal will replace two pounds of corn.

2. Bots, worms, and bad teeth cause large amounts of mule and horse feed to be waster. Have a competent veterinarian to check and treat workstock that need it and put them in condition for Spring plowing.

To get better service from your washing machine wringer, do not overload it. Put clothes through evenly instead of in bunches and fold buttons and zippers inside the garment before you run it through the rolls. Always remember to release the pressure on the rolls when you have finished the laundry, for if left together long, the wringers may stick and be damaged.

ALABAMA!

The Kirkpatrick Home in Cahaba is the only dwelling remaining intact in a city which once had a population of 5,000 people when it was the capital of Alabama. The only other building in fair condition today is the old Union Church, built in the early 1830's which has been brick-veneered and is used today as a Negro church.

Coosada, located 12 miles north of Montgomery, was founded in 1818 by a colony of wealthy Georgians which included some of the most prominent figures in Alabama's later history. Among the pioneers was William Wyatt Bibb who later became Alabama's first Governor, whose remains today rest in the family burial grounds. Other outstanding people in the group were Gen. John Elmore, Dixon Hall, Benjamin Pierce. Richard Gibb, and the Rives, Harris and Reese families. When Montgomery became the capital in 1846, Coosada, a town of wealth and great culture, became the fashionable summer home for many families.

Soon after the Creek War, settlers in the Alabama River bottom lands near Monroeville were repeatedly terrified by the raids of a party of Indians under the leadership of a half-breed known as "Savannah Jack', who claimed that his policy of ruthless murder of whites was to avenge the defeat of the Red Man. It is said that every man who fell under the hand of "Savannah Jack" was scalped and his body mutilated. After awhile, even the half-breed's followers tired of his savagery, and he was forced to flee to the Florida swamps where it is said that he boasted to the Seminoles in that area that, "I've killed enough women and children to swim in their blood if it were in a pool."

Cedar Lake is a Negro farming community, located near Decatur, that was founded in 1807 by Mrs. Ray Nelson in order to afford "live at home" opportunities for members of the group settling in the area that embraces 1,200 acres of fertile land. The Cedar Lake colony has been in existance for 50 years now, and the Negroes located there have learned the latest scientific methods toward maximum production. Many of the Negroes own their own land, while others rent the land they cultivate. Approximately one member in each family is engaged in some phase of industry in Decatur.

When Daniel Pratt, the founder of Prattville and the largest cotton gin manufacturing firm of its kind in the world, came to Alabama in 1833, he brought with him a tool chest, one lone dollar, and a negative idea regarding the right of one man to own another. He lived amid the practice of slavery from the time he came to Alabama until the end of the Civil War, but slavery never won his favor, even though he saw fit to furnish two companies of Confederate cavalry with uniforms and equipment with money from his own pocket and was ever ready to lend what aid he could to the Southern cause.

Easterling

ered something like 500 quartets and radio groups and hundreds of ministers from all over the nation. From this poll, Mr. Easterling compiled what this survey showed to be the most popular songs today. After this compilation was made, he began work and published these songs in book form. The song book is now on sale over the nation and is entitled, "America's Favorite Radio Songs." This was an initial printing of 10,000 copies and Mr. Easterling is expecting to have to order a reprint in the near future since the demand is so great.

To prove Marion's greatness as gospel song composer, he was just recently offered contracts by three leading Hollywood firms to let them have his compositions. He refused to make gospel music sacreligious by mixing it with any other kind.

His appearance is requested all over the country and leading radio stations have his book who are considering selling it over the air.

One other recognition Mr. Easterling has received that not a man in the nation today can claim. He is the youngest and only popular gospel song writer who can write both the music and lyrics to a song, go to the piano and play it or sing it and then set the type for the music.

No person ever connected with gospel music ever attained such high recognition at the young age of Mr. Easterling, who is now 37.

Mr. Easterling poses as "America's Youngest Popular Composer." Some of his compositions are: He Rescued Me, At The Great Reunion, Climbing The Hills, I Am Looking For Jesus To Come, Mother, Pray For Me, When The Roses Bloom For Me, What A Glad Time, Looking Beyond, In The Grand Old Way, When I See The Last Sunrise, Angels Rock Me To Sleep, I'll Sail Away Home, When They Ring The Bells Of Heaven, Lord Lead Me On, and scores of others.

In 1942 Mr. Easterling married Miss Agnes Hughes, daughter of the Rev. Ben Hughes. They have two sons, Lynn Wesley, 4, and Ray Mell, age 6 months.

Special Meeting of the Thorsby Civic Club—

A special meeting of the Thorsby Civic Club has been called for Monday night, January 19, 1948, at 7:30 [illegible] Hall, for the purpose of presenting the Club's program for 1948. Included in the program is a lighting system for the Thorsby City Park, a public rest room, and a project program for the Thorsby Public School. The American Legion, P.-T.A., Jr. Civic Club, Thorsby Improvement Society, Thorsby Business Men's Club, as well as every member of the Civic Club are urged to attend this most important meeting. Any person interested in the welfare of the community is cordially invited.

Thorsby Institute News—

The annual debate between the clubs was held Friday, January 9th, the seventh period. The subject of the debate was: "Is it to the interest of the United States to aid in the Reconstruction of Europe?" The Philomatic Club, represented by Evelyn Mims and Dewey Foshee, upheld the Affirmative. The Pushmataha Club represented by Joan Brillhart and [illegible] Feldon, upheld the Negative. The judges' decision was in favor of the Negative — Pushmatahas, which gave the Pushmatahas one point. This puts the Pushies one-half point ahead of the Phillies in the race for the banner.

A group of prize winning pictures from the Second Annual National High School Photographic Awards has been placed on display at Thorsby Institute. Representative of the work of teen-age youngsters from all sections of the country, the pictures are the best from among thousands of entrie in the nation-wide high school picture competition which was sponsored last spring by the Eastman Kodak Company.

The annual Arbor Day Exercises of which the Senior Class has charge will be held Friday, January 16th, during the chapel period.

The Junior Music Recital will be held on Tuesday afternoon, January 20th, beginning at 3:00 p.m. at the Studio Cottage. The recital for the more advanced music pupils will be held the following Saturday, January 24th, at 7:30 p.m., in the Thorsby Institute auditorium. Everyone is invited. There will be no admision charges.

Thorsby Institute has again received its certificate of membership from the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. This school has been a member of the Southern Association since 1923 and was the first school in the county to become a member.

The second semester of the school year will begin Monday, February 2nd.

Christian Endeavor—

The Christian Endeavor of the Congragational Church will have a social Saturday night, January 17th, from 7 to 9 o'clock in the dining hall at Thorsby Institute. Everyone—young and old—is invited. The admission fee will be a penny for each inch of the measure of the neck. There will be games and refreshments.

United Protestant Church—

The United Protestant Church will install the new officers and leaders of the church for 1948 on Sunday morning, January 18th, as a part of the 11 o'clock worship service.

Friends and visitors are cordially invited to be with us.

I Believe And I Resolve—

I Believe: That my church is essential to the welfare of my community.

Resolved: That I will earnestly endeavor to promote the efficiency of my church.

I Believe: That there is encouragement in numbers.

Resolved: That I will be in my place at the service of my church and invite friends to come with me, that others may be encouraged.

I Believe: That friendship and fellowship are an important part of Christianity.

Resolved: That in my church I will not wait to be greeted but will myself greet others. I will not wait to be welcomed, but will myself make others welcome. I will not wait to be visited, but will myself become a visitor, thus helping to make my church homelike and friendly.

I Believe: That money is necessary in all business enterprises.

Resolved: That I will practice tithing and contribute to the work of my church in proportion to my means; that I will keep my financial obligations paid in full or in advance, that the work of my church may not be crippled through my neglect.

I Believe: That religious liberty and freedom of thought and speech are essential to truest worship and service.

Resolved: That I will not be irritated when the pastor or others in my church differ from me, nor will I insist upon making my opinion paramount. I will gladly abide by the rule of the majority.

I Believe: That brotherly love, sympathy and forgiveness are the evidences of a Christ-like spirit.

Resolved: That I will cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and courtesy in speech and manner; be slow to take offense, always ready for reconciliation, and mindful of the rules of our Saviour, seek to secure it without delay.

I Believe: That Jesus came to "seek and to save the lost" and that He commanded me to follow Him.

Resolved: That I Will earnestly endeavor to prepare my self through Bible study and prayer to be a soulwinner and to win at least one soul to Christ and the church this year.

I Believe: That the past history of my church is sacred.

Resolved: That I will do all in my power to maintain the unity of the spirit and the peace and good will of my church. I will try to make the present history of my church as sacred as the past.

I Believe: That the best life is a helpful, cheerful Christian life.

Resolved: That I will try to live such a life, that through me my church may become a blessing to the whole world.—Selected.

Farming in Hollywood

Dee Martin's back from California! But when folks drop in to hear about glamorous Hollywood, all Dee can talk about is the Farmer's Market there—where stalls sell everything from meat and vegetables, to pottery and plows

The man who runs it is mighty careful whom he leases the concessions to. He checks the quality of the merchandise from time to time, the appearance of the stalls, and any that fail to do the Market credit, are eliminated.

"That's really giving the public exactly what it wants!" says Dee.

From where I sit, the Brewers deserve an equal bit of praise—for their program of "Self Regulation." They check on places selling beer, make sure they're a credit to the industry and the community . . . and see that offenders are spruced up or reported to the right authorities.

COTTON PRODUCTION IN STATE SURGES OVER 1946 MARK

Montgomery, Ala. — According to figures compiled by the Department of Commerce in Washington, D. C., 872,922 bales of cotton were ginned in Alabama prior to December 1. This exceeds the number of bales ginned during the same period last year by 141,806 bales.

Madison County headed the production list with 64,962 bales ginned this year and maintains its top record of 1946 when 52,602 bales were ginned. Running second in production last year was Limestone County with 47,849 bales ginned, but Cullman County moved into second place this crop year with 50,003 bales ginned, as compared with Limestone County's 47,990.

Barbour, Choctaw, Clay, Hale and Lawrence Counties aer the only five out of the 63 listed by the Department of Commerce that dropped behind their 1946 production mark.

Chilton ginned 6,318 bales this year to 5,652 bales last year.

Iron bias cut garments with the grain of the fabric rather than from neck to hem. This will prevent sagging.

Spices should be kept away from the kitchen range and in closed cans in order to best retain their spiciness.

Cows on rough grazing should have from one to three pounds of cottonseed meal per day, depending on their size and condition and the severity of the weather. In many cases, five dollars worth of cottonseed meal fed in late January and February will save a 150 brood cow.

Three Alabama Leaders To Assist Cancer Drive

Birmingham—(Special) — Three men who are among the [illegible] leaders in business, civic and professional affairs will serve as [illegible] aides to Henry P. Johnston, of Birmingham, in the American Cancer Society Alabama Division's drive next April for funds to finance the greatest fight ever made on cancer in the state.

MR. MAY

They are: Ben May, Mobile businessman; Herbert Meighan, Mayor of Gadsden; and Edward F. Reid, Andalusia attorney. Reid has just won a five-year personal battle to overcome the disease in himself.

May will take over the organization and direction of a corps of campaign workers in 12 southwestern counties of the state; Meighan, in 27 northern counties; and Reid, in 13 southeastern counties. Counties in the center of the state will be directed by Johnston and Mrs. Kay Meade, Executive Director of the Alabama Division.

MR. MEIGHAN

"The fight on cancer can be won," Johnston declared, "but it can't be won by just a few. It's a fight that calls for the help of every one of us.

"That's why May, Mayor Meighan and Mr. Reid have agreed to take time away from their own affairs to enlist, if possible, every man, woman and child in the state in this battle for lives.

"This drive for funds is no charity drive. It is a war chest out of which our dollars and dimes will go to fight for each one of us individually against an enemy that today is striking down an average of one person in every six."

Johnston added that last year Alabama made the greatest advances in the state's history toward cancer control, but that in the next twelve months more funds than ever before would be needed to maintain and expand the gains already made.

MR. REID

May, who will set up district headquarters in Mobile, is widely known over the South not only for his business activities in the lumber field, but for his philanthropies as well. He is a native of Atlanta but has spent most of his business life in Mobile.

Mayor Meighan has been an official of the City of Gadsden since 1931 when he was appointed by Governor Miller to the Gadsden Civil Service Board. He was twice President of the Alabama League of Municipalities and also twice President of the Southern Building Code Congress. He is now President of the Board of Trustees, Alabama Institute for the Deaf and Blind.

Reid has attracted wide attention for his personal and public battle against cancer. Now, restored to health, he divides his time between his law practice and the educational attack on cancer.

NEW PRESIDENT OF UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA—Dr. John M. Gallalee, a University veteran of 35 years standing, was recently named to head the University where some 9,000 students are now enrolled. The Board of Trustees selected Dr. Gallalee from a long list of possible presidents. The new president is not only a teacher of wide renown, he is also a professional engineer of nation-wide reputation. During the past two years he got a leave of absence from the University and headed the State Building Commission which spent $35,000,000 on schools and state buildings. (State Newsphoto).

FOLSOM CALLS EDUCATION MEETING

Annual Budget Approvals To Be Sought At Board Meeting

State Education Superintendent Austin R. Meadows announced last week that Gov. James E. Folsom has called a meeting of the State Board of Education for January 14 in Montgomery.

Dr. Meadows said that one purpose of the meeting was for the approval of annual budgets of the State Department of Education and institutions as set forth under the State Board of Education. Dr. Meadows listed the following other reasons for the call:

1. To administer the oath of office to new board members, Roy L. Nolen, Jr., Sen. Rankin Fite, and Rep. John M. Snodgrass.
2. Election of a vice-president for the board.
3. To appoint a director of the Alabama School of Trades.
4. To authorize the sale of $50,000 worth of revenue bonds for the purpose of completing a library at the Montgomery State Teachers College for Negroes.
5. To authorize the call of Troy State Teachers College revenue bonds, series E.
6. To consider the request of the Talladega County Board of Education to transfer Building Commission funds approved for debt service to capital outlay.
7. To appoint two members to vacancies on the Committee on State Courses of Study.
8. To consider a proposal to change the name of the State Agricultural and Mechanical Institute at Normal, to the Alabama Agricultural and Mechanical College.
9. To consider certain proposed amendments to the state plan for Vocational Education.

Some backyard garden spots are sapped by nearby trees. The feeder roots of these trees should be cut at the edge of the garden spot by spading down 15 or 18 inches. Throw the dirt back into the ditch. The shade of these trees is not so serious; the sapping of moisture and plant food is what hurts. The difference can be made up to the tree by broadcasting fertilizer back under the limbs.

Mrs. D. A. Glass spent last week in Oxford with her sons, Hollis and W. A.

Mrs. Dick Bean and family had as their guests Sunday Mr. J. S. Wright, Mrs. Peyton Tatum and son Ralph, and Mr. John Lenoir from Deatsville; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Nix and Louise and Miss Charlotte Gibson from Ensley, Mrs. Jean Caltledge from Montgomerp, Chief and Mrs. J. E. Calfee of New London, Conn. In the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Walter Deshazo from Isabella came.

Carmichael Gives Ruling On State Dock Bonds

MONTGOMERY — Attorney General Albert Carmichael ruled last week that the $4,000,000 bond sales which took place recently in order to finance the state docks expansion program at Mobile are legal investments for trust funds of the state.

A 1947 legislative act authorized the issuance of the bonds by the State Docks Department.

Press Association Meets In Birmingham

The Alabama Press Association will hold its 76th annual convention in Birmingham February 20-21, the executive committee decided in a meeting here last week.

Gathering in a special session prior to the funeral of Doyle L. Buckles field manager and secretary-treasurer of the Association since 1939, the executive group named George Watson publisher of the Shades Valley Sun, convention chairman.

Norman H. Bassett, assistant director of the University News Bureau, was named acting field manager pending the selection of a permanent successor to Mr. Buckles. Neil O. Davis, president of the APA, will serve as chairman of a committee from the state press group to confer with a University committee on the selection of a new field manager.

14th AAF Wants More Enlistees

Vacancies are still open for previous servicemen of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard to enlist in the Air Corps for duty assignments near home, Sgt. William T. Manderson, Station Commander of the local Army and Air Force Recruiting Station, announced today.

"These nearby assignments are for duty with reserve units of the 14th Air Force," Sgt. Manderson pointed out, "and qualified previous servicemen of all the military services, who were honorably discharged on or after May 12, 1945, are eligible to fill these vacancies in grades as high as grade two—technical Sergeant—depending upon their previous training and experience in their military specialty."

There are openings at 8 different locations for duty with reserve units of the 14th Air Force at Tampa, Miami, and Orlando, Fla; Mariettta, Ga., Jackson, Miss., Memphis, Tenn., Birmingham and Gunter Field at Montgomery.

Full details about these openings and the grades for which previous service men of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard may qualify to enlist for these assignments, may be obtained at the local Army and Air Force Recruiting Station located in the Post Office Building in Selma.

TWO IN AIR FORCE FROM ALA. WON MEDAL OF HONOR

One Air Force enlisted man and one AAF officer from the state of Alabama were awarded the Medal of Honor in the name of Congress for courageous action beyond the call of duty during World War II.

The enlisted man, S-Sgt. Henry E. Erwin, of Bessemer, was a radio operator on a B-29 Superfortress. While dropping phosphorous bombs on a mission over Japan, a faulty bomb exploded in the launching chute and struck him in the face.

Realizing that the smoke in the plane would obscure the vision of the pilot, thus endangering the entire crew, he picked up the burning bomb and carried it in his arms to a window where he tossed it overboard. Completely aflame, he collapsed on the floor.

Lieut. William R. Lawley, now a captain stationed at Maxwell Field, was pilot of a heavy bomber on a mission over occupied Europe when his B-17 was shot out of formation. Eight members of the crew were wounded and the co-pilot was killed. Although wounded about the face, Lawley forced the body of the co-pilot off the controls and, with his left hand, righted the plane.

The order to bail out was given but two crew members were so badly wounded they could not do so. Lawley collapsed from loss of blood but was revived by the bombardier and again took over the controls. He made a successful crash landing on a small fighter base on the English coast after three of the plane's four engines had failed.

New Ford Trucks Being Displayed Here Today

Three new power plants have been announced by the Ford Motor Company for the 1948 trucks, viewed for the first time today in the showrooms of Ford dealers throughout the country.

These engines are the Rouge 226, a completely new six-cylinder, 95-horsepower truck engine; the Rouge 239, an improved V-8 100-horsepower engine, and the Rouge 337, a new heavy duty V-8 power plant developing more than 145 horsepower for the largest trucks ever built by Ford.

All engines have heavy-duty oil bath air cleaners, pressure-sealed cooling systems, and new weather-proofed ignition systems with automatic spark control which is regulated by engine load and speed.

The three engines also have new distributors and wiring, conveniently located for easy servicing. Valve springs are shot-blasted and rust-proofed. The valve seat inserts are of hard molybdenum chrome alloy. The precision type crankshafts are oversize, as are the connecting rod bearing inserts.

Higher capacity generators deliver maximum output at low engine speeds and there is a new high-volume replaceable-element oil filter.

A feature of the new Ford six-cylinder engine is the aluminum alloy pistons which are longer and plated to resist wear. These pistons have four rings above the wrist pin for maximum oil economy and minimum friction losses. The compression ratio, 6.8 to 1, produces more power and a new high-lift camshaft opens valves wider and faster, resulting in more efficient intake and exhaust.

The 100-horsepower engine now has accessories conveniently grouped on top for easy servicing as well as many other new features.

Silichrome exhaust valves are faced with one of the toughest metals known.

A governor has been built into the carburetor and operates from engine speed and vacuum. This engine, designed for the new "big jobs," develops 255 pound feet of torque.

Many other new engineering features have been included in the new trucks. Steering ratios have been increased for easier handling.

Greater rigidity has been achieved in the frames by extending the side rails to which are attached the new channel steel front bumpers. Frames on the F-7 and F-8 series are 10 inches in depth with sturdy alligator jaw cross members.

Clutches on the larger trucks are 12 inches in diameter, capable of easily handling the peak torque output of the 145 horsepower engine. These trucks also have five-speed transmissions.

Features of the 145 horsepower power plant include hydraulic valve lifters which automatically compensate for valve wear and insure quiet operation. The F-7, with maximum gross vehicle weight of 19,000 pounds has a single-speed heavy duty hypoid axle. The F-8 with a gross vehicle weight of 21,500 pounds has a two-speed axle, making 10 speeds available for all types of roads and loads.

The new Ford light trucks have direct action shock absorbers. Wider axles permit shorter turning and ample chain clearance. Straight through mufflers reduce back pressure, improving engine performance.

Two-ton and heavier models are equipped with vacuum power brakes. Another new feature of the new line is wider base wheel rims with tapered tire bead seats.

PRUNING OF SHRUBS

Heavy pruning of broadleaved ever green shrubs can be done satisfactorily in February. New growth will soon cover pruning scars. Do not prune spring-flowering shrubs until after they have bloomed.

INCREASING COSTS
DECLINING AVERAGE RATE FOR MY SERVICE
What We Buy Keeps Going Up

The things we buy to produce and deliver electric service keep going UP.

For example:

A ton of coal now costs 2 1/2 times as much as it did in 1937
Copper wire now costs 1 2/3 times as much as in 1937
40-foot poles now cost twice as much as in 1937
Operating payrolls are twice what they were in 1937

Almost everything used in supplying customers with dependable electric service has gone up and keeps going up.

The Price You Pay For Electric Service Has Been Going Down

For example:

Rural users of electricity now pay, on the average, 35 per cent LESS per kilowatt-hour than they paid in 1937
The average price per kilowatt-hour used in urban homes now is 26 per cent LESS than in 1937
On the average, commercial users in cities now pay 26 per cent LESS per kilowatt-hour than they paid in 1937
Cities pay considerably less for equivalent street lighting than they did in 1937

What other product or service comes to you at pre-war quality at LESS than pre-war price?

THOMAS JR. P.-T.A. NEWS

The parents and teachers met last Tuesday night at 6:30 at the school for their regular P.-T.A. meeting. We had a large crowd and a very successful business meeting.

Then Mr. Red Glasscock entertained us with his magic tricks and before he had half way finished he had the crowd completely mystified and edging closer all the time to try to catch on to his tricks. But he's really good and we're still trying to figure out how he does them.

We want to again thank Red for sparing us some of his time which we know is crowded already, for being with us and so delightfully entertaining us, and we extend him a cordial invitation to feel free to visit us any time he can. — Pres., Mrs. A. E. Smith

HIGHLAND

Our church services were very well attended Sunday. We were glad to have Rev. Charlie Haggard with us and have him bring a very inspiring message at the 11:00 worship service. Those who were absent missed a fine sermon.

Everyone keep in mind the singing at Highland next Sunday afternoon at 1:30. We appreciate the help and presence of everyone who have been coming. And we want all other singers and listeners to come be with us every First and Third Sunday afternoons.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Langston are the happy and proud parents of a fine baby boy born December 4th. That means we will soon have a new Sunday school scholar. We all share their joy, because Ed and Dean are one of our very faithful young couples. Always ready to do their share in any of the church work.

Mrs. J. B. Coe, Sr. is doing fine since returning home from the hospital. We will be glad when she is well enough to attend church again.

It would be fine if every class could be one hundred per cent in attendance at Sunday School next Sunday. Let's try it. Everyone make a special effort to be there. It's a great encouragement to our Supt. and teachers for every member to be present. Suppose our teachers were absent every Sunday one of his or her class members weer absent Think about it. Would we have a teacher present any Sunday.

Newt Popwell and Morris Mims who will run for Tax Assessor, and too, Marvin Marcus who was to announce this week, but was out of ton on business ill more than likely announce for the same office.

Chilton's Forests Yield $3,000,000 Crop Annually

Forest lands in Chilton County brought in approximately $3,000,000 from the sale of manufactured and semi-manufactured forest products in 1946, according to M. C. Barth, Chilton County Chairman of the "More Trees For Alabama Committee."

Trees are money. We ought to plant more of them, manage the ones we have wisely and take care to prevent distruction from fire. This is necessary in order that we might continue to remove, annually, the millions of ~~board feet of timber~~ without exhausting our supply. Timber is an important source of revenue for this area.

The "More Trees For Alabama Committee" is in the process of distributing an intererting pamphlet called "Cash Crops From Alabama Woodlands." It's well worth reading and if you have not received your copy within the next few days, mail a card to your local Chairman, M. C. Barth, Clanton, or Forest Ranger, Charlie Gay, and one will be on it's way shortly.

Clanton May Get Whiteway

Clanton may soon be illuminated with a whiteway. That is if the plans of Erle Ellis and the Clanton Lions Club materialize.

Mr. Ellis, who first began work on the whiteway for Clanton, said that a petition would be circulated among merchants this week.

A tenative survey has already been made by the Alabama Power Company and, as Mayor Leo Thompson put it, the project is "feasible."

Tenative plans call for the whiteway to extend from Miller Service Station, north on U. S. 31 down to the Bell Telephone Office, and from the Willingham Hotel to the Courthouse. Also, it may cover the area from the Baptist Church down to the post office.

Mr. Ellis explained that from present plans, there would be six light posts to the block with a post on each side of alleys and driveways.

Mayor Thompson, Erle Ellis and the Lions promise further information after the survey is completed.

LIGHTED POOL AND BALL FIELD IS PLANNED

Big news came from Clanton's Mayor Leo Thompson this week when he announced that work had begun on the construction of a swimming pool for Clanton.

In making the announcement, the Mayor said that work began last Monday morning and that material was on the way for its construction.

The pool will be located in the city park and will have a capacity for 350 people at one bathing.

The dimensions of the pool, as furnished by the mayor, is 45 feet by 105 feet with a maximum depth of 9½ feet. There will also be a 40-foot wading pool for kiddies and those who do not swim.

Construction is under way and the mayor stated that barring unforseen difficulties, the pool will be ready for use this coming summer.

The pool will be lighted for night use and will have dressing rooms for both ladies and gentlemen.

Water for the pool will be furnished from the city waterworks system with a special filtering and clorination unit built to serve the pool.

Lighted Baseball

In connection with the announcement about the pool, the Mayor stated that the newly constructed baseball field in the park site would be lighted for night baseball this summer. He also stated that the city was going to construct bleachers for fans with a minimum seating capacity of 2,000 people.

THOUGHTFUL, WE SAY

Mr. J. H. Boockholdt and the County Board of Educaton acted with good judgment this week when they postponed the school week opening until Wednesday.

It is true the weather turned for the better after Sunday, but not even our weather man could predict our roads were going to be in usable condition or not and the chance was there that a child might be injured or killed and then it would have been too laté. It was much better the days were missed that could be made up later this year than to have been forever sorry that the two day suspension was not called.

We congratulate Mr. Boockholdt and the Board on their thoughtfulness of our children and are sure that other parents throughout the county are just as appreciative of our school officials.

THAT DDT SPRAY

Confidentially that last DDT spraying we had stunk.

We do not make that statement to offend anyone because we are sure that to live is to learn, and this year a much better job could be made of our county wide DDT spraying than was made last year.

Call has been sent out by Dr. Moore of the County Health Department for the opinion of all county residents as to whether this job will be done again this year. Dr. Moore says that it is sure there will not be any spraying done unless the people want it, and the only way he and the County officials can know is for the people to let their wish be known.

So here is your chance to be heard from. The County Health Officer and the Probate Judge and County Commissioners welcome your suggestions. If there is a way to get the homes in Chilton County sprayed with DDT for a reasonable amount then it is certainly worthwhile—that is what the officials want to know, how you, and you, and you, feel about it.

A good recipe for a good night's sleep is a good day's work.

The tolerant mind is ready to admit that the other fellow may be right.

STRAWBERRIES SHOULD BE FERTILIZED

Now is the time to make the spring application of fertilizer on strawberries. Strawberries should be fertilized in the spring about 90 days before picking begins. Use 400 to 600 pounds of 6-8-4 or 4-10-7 per acre.

If you did not fertilize your berries last summer after picking was finished and during the fall, you will need to use more than 600 pounds per acre this spring. You may need to put some fertilizer on now and another application within six weeks.

An application of fertilizer at this time of year will aid in maturing the fruit buds and starting the plants to growing.

"The World Is Now Our Community" will be the theme of the program of the home economics section when Southern agricultural workers gather in Washington, D. C., February 11-14 for their annual meeting. The program is being compiled by Mrs. Marion Spidle, dean of School of Home Economics of Alabama Polytechnic Institute, Auburn, and chairman of this division.

FOLKS & THINGS
ABOUT TOWN

If you do not believe that everything has a redeeming feature ask any school kid about the snow and cold of the past few days. Mr. Boockholdt made the hearts of thousands very happy Sunday afternoon when he announced no school until Wednesday. With no school and snow on the ground, what more could a fellow ask?

This was taken from the Baptist Massenger and written by Lawson H. Cooke. We are sure that it could be used by any church pastor and be just as true. Have you ever tried to preach one hundred and four sermons a year to the same congregation?

Have you ever tried to please one thousand church members?

Have you ever tried to lead a prayer meeting week after week when nine hundred and fifty of the one thousand members were absent?

Have you ever tried to visit in five hundred homes in twelve months?

Have you ever tried to lead when no one would follow?

Have you ever tried to get a little man to do a big job?

Have you ever tried to carry the weight of a lost world?

Have you ever tried to love when others hate, or praise when others condemn?

Have you ever tried to bind up broken hearts or re-establish broken homes?

Have you ever tried to sympathize with and help fallen men and women when others seem not to care?

Have you ever tried to smile upon empty collection plates and realize that the world is moving away from God?

Have you ever tried to pour out your very soul to get men to give themselves to Christ and have no response? If not, you cannot know what it means to be the pastor of a Baptist church.

Did you know that Mildred Easterling Bridges down at the Dixie Cafe was known far and wide for her biscuits? Well, she is. This week she showed us a letter from away up Nawth asking for a recipe for her wonderful biscuits. The writer said they always made it a rule to stop at the Dixie in their trips to and from Florida just so they could get some of Mildred's biscuits. That's a darn good recommendation, but we bet a burnt doughnut to a tough batter cake Mildred can't make biscuits.

The change cards have gone out from the March of Dimes Committee and Mrs. Mamie C. Smith, who is chief publicity agent of the group is urging the newspapers and radio station to give it all they have got. She wants this drive to go over big and we are starting our contribution this week with this yelp for help. No money you contribute through the year could possibly go to a better cause so open your hearts and your pocket books and let's help Mrs. Mamie C. make her wish come true.

EARLY START URGED FOR 1948 GARDENS

Auburn, Ala. — The average Alabama family would do well to plan a home garden this year to supplement the food supply and reduce the drain on the family purse.

ly urged by J. C. Ford, API extension gardener. All old plants of last year's crops need to be taken off the land now to reduce diseases and insects. Then lime, if needed, plus manure should be applied. Ford cautions gardeners to use no lime and manure under potatoes.

Another garden job needing attention is the ordering of plans, seeds, pest control supplies, fertilizers, chemicals, tools and equipment.

"A gardener should not fail to plant Irish potatoes, English peas, cabbage, lettuce, onions, and carrots in February. To do a good job with these, land must be fixed as soon as possible," Ford explains.

A full home garden will help families face the 1948 food situation, in which meat will be slightly less plentifull than now at prices likely to be as high, or higher, than during 1947. Ford believes the need for a record number of gardens is greater than ever before.

PROVIDENCE — BEAT 13

There wasn't many at Sunday School and Bible quiz Sunday, but that didn't keep us from having the little services.

Next Sunday is our regular preaching day. Everyone please come out to church next Sunday.

WINTER SPRAY FOR CATTLE

To control cattle grub (wolves) cows should be sprayed or dusted in December, January and February. Rotenone (derris, cube, Timbo) is the only insecticide that will control this pest. This material is effective against lice and ticks.

A satisfactory spray is made by mixing 8 pounds of pure, finely ground derris, cube or Timbo, that contains 4 or 5% rotenone in 100 gallons of water. This mixture should be applied mainly on the back of infested animals. If lice are present, spray animals all over. To be effective, this mixture has to be applied with a sprayer that will develop 400 pounds of pressure.

A dust that contains 2½% rotenone is effective against grubs and lice. Apply 2 to 3 tablespoonsful of the powder along the back and rub it into the hair. This method can be used to treat dairy cows or other animals that can be easily handled.

Thorsby News
(By MISS C. N. TURNQUIST — Correspondent)

Ladies Guild

Ladies Guild of Thorsby Institute will meet today, Thursday, January 22, with Mrs. Barham. All members are urged to come as this is a very important meeting. Officers for the year will be elected.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Marcus and Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Collins are enjoying a few days vacation down on the coast. We wonder if they had to break the ice to go fishing, since it was reported to have been freezing cold way down in the land of sunshine.

Everyone, young and old, got a thrill out of the snow last week, and being on a week end the children did not have to be in school, and had a chance to really enjoy it. Little Wayne Seymour, young son of Rev. and Mrs. Collie Seymour, had never seen snow before, and when asked did he see that snow falling, he replied, "No, but I see a lot of little pieces of paper coming down."

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mason and son, Ralph, Jr., and Mrs. Dave Mason, of Selma, spent Sunday afternoon visiting with relatives here. They had supper with Mrs. A. E. Reagan. Miss Naemi Turnquist returned with them to Selma and returned home Monday night.

The Ladies Guild will hold their regular meeting on Thursday, January 22, at the home of Mrs. T. E. Barham and since she is absent from the city, Mrs. E. N. Bentley will act as hostess for her. All members are urged to attend as well as friends interested in Thorsby Institute.

The many friends of Mrs. Mattie Mae Funk are sorry to learn that she is quite ill in a Montgomery Hospital. Late reports state that it has not yet been determined just what is the cause of her illness. We hope that she will soon be on the mend again.

Mr. Peidro George, and old familiar figure around here for a good many years, and who lived for some time in the Collins Chapel Community, passed away on Saturday morning in a Tuscaloosa hospital where he had been for quite some time. Funeral services were held in the Collins Chapel Church on Monday at 11 o'clock, the Rev. Cantrell, pastor of the Third Presbyterian Church of Birmingham conducting the service; interment was in the adjoining cemetery.

Mrs. Leila Martin of Birmingham is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Wendall Murrah and young son of Clanton, Ala., spent Monday with her mother, Mrs. Alpha Brown.

Mrs. T. E. Barham is spending this week in Palm Beach, Fla.

Mrs. Chas. Howard, Mrs. Ella Carter and Mr. Lloyd Howard spent Monday in Birmingham attending to business.

On Monday night at the Town Hall a call meeting of the Thorsby Civic Club was held for the purpose of outlining plans for the coming year. The various clubs of the town had been asked to attend, but there were only about twenty-five or thirty people present who were Civic Club members. Plans were discussed for lighting the ball park so that various games can be played there at night this summer. It is hoped that every citizen of Thorsby will help in this cause, so as to furnish good and wholesome entertainment for our young people.

This is the beginning of a New Year and the Civic Club hopes to do a lot of work this year. The new officers are: Harold Strickland, President; Owen Carter, Vice-President; Collie Seymour, Secretary; and Naemi Turnquist, Treasurer. If you have not paid your yearly membership dues, which are now only $1.00, be sure and do so now.

P.-T.A. Chicken Dinner

The P.-T.A. will sponsor a chicken dinner on Friday night at the Junior High School between the hours of six and eight o'clock. They promise you a delicious plate of good eats for only 75c. Come out and help the P.-T.A. raise some money so they can help improve our school. Make it your business to be a part of everything that makes for the betterment of your city.

PLANT EARLY TO GET GOOD GARDEN START

Gardening time will be rolling around again in just a few weeks and those who plan some of the very earliest vegetables can start getting a return on their labor and cash spent.

No gardener should fail to plant Irish potatoes, English peas, cabbage, lettuce, onions and carrots about the middle of February in the south half of the state and 10 days later further north. If hard freezes don't continue through February, J. C. Ford, API extension gardener, says to try turnips, tendergreens, mustard and radishes.

"Perhaps a freeze may cost you a few seed, but it's well worth taking a chance on. You can replant at little expense, if it's necessary, adds Ford.

A People's Victory

The defeat of Amendment No. 1 in the election of January 6th was a great victory for the common people of Alabama.

When I say, common people, I mean the people who work on the farms and in the factory and produce the wealth of Alabama.

Yes, I know these people are called ignorant, but they may be brighter than some would imagine.

Amendment No. 1 was an insult to the people of Alabama, in the manner and under the condition which it was offered.

The Alabama Legislature refused to carry out the mandate of the people and was trying to find some way to stop the administration and the program for which the people voted.

This little package of Democracy was soon identified by the people.

When the people received this little package so neatly bound, labeled with Democracy, they began to unfold to see the contents, and what did they find but a bundle of Hypocracy?

How did these ignorant people, as they are called, find out this package was filled with hypocracy instead of democracy?

Here is how they found out, they had elected a governor that stood for a program that would fill many of the peoples' needs.

This program was brought before the legislature and they refused it, and in so doing they demonstrated their opposition to true democracy.

In a true democracy the Legislature will comply with the wishes of the majority of the people.

The Legislature had a chance to enact the peoples' program into law without the self-starter amendment.

The Legislature re aped only that which it had sown.

The big question before the people now is where do we go from here?

A large majority of the people have a governor, and a small minority have a Legislature or the majority thereof, the battle is not ended but just begun.

This battle cannot be won by individuals, it will be won through organization.

Those who are opposed to the governor and the peoples' program are well organized and are going to carry this fight to the bitter end, and their success will be determined by what we, the common people, do.

Are we going to let the governor fight this battle alone, or are we going to organize and give him our united support?

I have great faith in the courage of the common people to defend their program and governor, that they will spend both time and money to build a strong organization whose voice will be heard throughout Alabama.

As our first step, let us get everybody who is eligible to register and pay their poll tax before February 1st.

And then get into an organization that will back the peoples' program.

FARMERS EYE WAYS TO BOOST INCOMES

Farmers are going into the leanest period of the year for marketing products but are watching for ways to increase their incomes during the next couple of months.

A. W. Jones, API extension marketing specialist, lists several items thrifty farmers will want to check as possible mean of getting more cash. He says:

"Eggs are not as high priced as they were at the end of 1947, but hens are laying more. Gather eggs often, grade them carefully, and sell regularly. Remove roosters from the flock unless you are producing hatching eggs. Sell culls or those that are not laying. You might make the most profit from eggs at this time even though the price is less per dozen.

"Good planting seed or early grown plants usually bring a higher profit than most anything else you may sell. You possibly have some of these that somebody else wants.

"Don't forget the farm woodland. Now is a good time to sell cross ties, logs, pulp wood or posts and your labor along with these at a good price before you get busy in the crop.

"Watch the markets for the next few weeks on any hogs or cattle that you may have for Spring sales. From now until April is usually one of the best sales periods of the year.

"With Spring pastures coming out, and good feeding, good dairy cows should bring in some of the best profits of the year for the next few months.

Love conquers all, and we must yield to love.—Virgil.

Better Recreational Facilities Planned

At a meeting of the State Planning Board last week, board members made a study of recreational needs over the state and established a special committee and set up an organized procedure for moving forward with plans to add parks and playgrounds in certain sections of the state where they are needed.

The newly appointed committee, made up of Chairman Knox McRae, Decatur; Vice-Chairman Melton Dannelly, Birmingham and Bradly Twitty, Tuscaloosa, was authorized to establish a full operating program with the aid of state technicians, and to report its progress at the next board meeting in February.

A 98-page draft of plans for public recreation was compiled in December and is now being edited for publication.

SOIL CONSERVATION NEWS

Clyde Headley of Culp Community is doing a good job of woodland management on his woods. To begin with Mr. Headley has kept his woods from burning off. Recently he has been thinning his trees where they were too thick. These pine poles will be treated and used for posts. Crooked and diseased trees are also taken out so that good trees will grow faster. Mr. Headley is also establishing about an acre of Lespedeza bi-color for wildlife food.

Applications for North Central Soil Conservation District farm plans were received recently from the following people: Charles Foshee, Albert Thompson, Lee A. Murr, Welch Roebuck and Albert Williams.

The Chilton Work Unit has received 12.500 kudzu seedlings for cooperators to plant for erosion control. The kudzu will be used for hay and temporary grazing. Three dollars a thousand will be charged for the seedlings to cover cost of growing them.

C. L. Wilkins and A. E. Smith each has a volunteer seed patch of Tangier Peas. At this time they are about a foot high. For this time of year they look very good. They can be used for grazing and green manure.

J. M. Boles of Mt. Pleasant Community is planning to disc and fertilize his kudzu. Mr. Boles expects to get some temporary grazing from his kudzu this year.

Farmers who have Manganese Bur Clover seed patches should not get upset about their clover not growing off as well as they think it should. Few winter legumes are growing off as they usually do. Several seed patches were examined this last week The plants are there in large enough numbers to make a good seed crop. A good seed crop this year will make a good stand next year. After the clover makes seed, apply two tons of lime per acre, and next fall fertilize with 500 pounds of 0-14-10 per acre.

The grants furnished by the federal government do not represent the total amount spent on the various state programs as combined federal, state and local funds are used in these various projects of public aid.

Benefits were received by 173,[illegible] Alabamians during the 1946-47 year [illegible] largest share of federal [illegible] $[illegible]—going [illegible] age benefits.

The various programs including federal contributions are:

Social Security Administration—[illegible] $417,2[illegible] [illegible] their old age and survivors insurance [illegible] and dependent children, $2,-[illegible] benefits [illegible] insured workers not eligible for [illegible] benefits, [illegible].

Administration of federal-state unemployment insurance program, $[illegible]. The state itself paid $8,-85[illegible] in benefits to 47,473 under the program [illegible] federal government paying only administration costs. An average of 11,289 persons weekly drew benefits.)

Public Health Service — General [illegible] local health departments, control communicable diseases, improve sanitation, etc., $[illegible] assistance for prevention control and treatment of tuberculosis, $150,152; grants-in-aid for the control of veneral diseases, $[illegible]; aid for rapid treatment centers which treated 15,743 veneral disease patients, $417,285; assistance in surveying and developing, $15,000.

Office of Vocational Rehabilitation—For civilian rehabilitation, with 3.956 disabled men and women receiving assistance on June 30, $274,601, supplemented by $139,195 in state and local funds.

Office of Education—Grants for vocational education, $559,762; for land-grant colleges, $102,332.

ABC Finds 1947 Bumper Sales Year

Liquor sales in the state climbed to a record-breaking high in 1947, and an estimated all-time high in profits last year was also realized, according to an announcement by members of the Alabama Alcoholic Beverage Control Board last week.

The 1947 sales of $49,569,085 surged over those of the previous year by $3,460,038, and board members said that, according to an audit now in progress, they estimated profits for this period will reach $14,-500,000. This amount exceeds the profits for the 1946 sales year by almost $1,000,000.

ALABAMA HIGHLIGHTS

The first newspaper issued in what is now Alabama was printed at Fort Stoddert, near the junction of the Alabama and Tombipbee Rivers, on May 23, 1811. The publication was dubbed the "Mobile Centinel" and consisted of four pages of four columns each. The subscription charge was $4.00 per year.

Thomas Eastman, Alabama's first printer, a veteran of the War of 1812, who served as Quartermaster in Gen. Andrew Jackson's army, happened to be in Mount Vernon, Alabama in 1815, and it was while there that he discovered a damaged printing press that had been thrown out into one of the streets of that town. He purchased the press for a small sum and carried it to St. Stephens where he got out a paper, "The Halcyon" just in time to publish the treaty of peace with Great Britain in 1815.

Of the 565,000 white people in Alabama at the beginning of the Civil War, 33,730 were slave owners. The large slaveholder, who was considered to be typical of the South before the war, was in reality a rarity. Most of the 435,00 slaves in the state prior to 1865 were held in small groups of five or six to an owner, and only 34 planters in Alabama owned more than 200 slaves each.

Stage coaches were once the fashionable mode of travel in Alabama. First of these operated on the Feedral Road before 1840. This road was also known as the "Three Chopped Way" because surveyors marked the route with three blazes on the tree trunks along the way. Other early stagecoach lines were the Mail Line, the Telegraph Line, and the Peoples Line. Relay stations where horses were changed. The lines operated on regular schedules, and advertised their comforts, but many records can be found that show complaints against the coaches, the drivers, and the inns along the routes.

The plank road was introduced in Alabama in 1849. In 1849-50 the Alabama legislature chartered 24-plank roads, but the warping in winter, along with boring insects, made the roads too expensive to keep up. The people once again rad to put up with dust in the summer and mud in the winter.

George Shoults Writes Voters

This is to advise the public of Chilton County, Alabama, that I have this day, January 19th, duly qualified for candidacy in the coming Democratic Primary.

As a matter of introduction to those of you who may not already know me, I wish to say that I was born and raised in Beat No. 7 of this County. I have maintained my legal residence in the county all my life. I am now 41 years of age. I was raised on a farm. I, of course, know about the benefits of roads to farm life and feel that I know also that main thoroughfare are a must in all counties. I have had a desire to serve the people of my county as a road rommissioner ever since I became large enought to realize the need of good, flexible and active road work.

I am therefore coming to you to ask you to determine if I shall be privileged to serve you as such. In my coming to you for this matter, I am glad to say that I am not wholly without experience in the matter as I have had some experience with both the county and state in road work.

I shall try to see each of you and solicit your vote and influence in my behalf. It will be my most earnest and humblest desire to make my campaign a clean and benefitting one to myself and all those whom I may come in contact with.

I shall try to see you in the near future and if and when I do I shall not be intrusive on your time or patience.

Thanking you now for any and all consideration you may see fit to give in this matter and asking that you watch for I am coming to see you.—G. T. (George) Shoults.

100 - Bushel Corn Club Is Growing

Farmers and their sons and daughters—all who plan to try for membership in the 100-Bushel Corn Club—are now being enrolled by county agents.

Plans are for at least one adult and one 4-H corn demonstration to be held in every neighborhood. But API extension agronomist J. C. Lowery warns that fertilizer will be hard to get and for this reason most demonstrators will carry only one acre.

If interest continues to grow in this work which began in 1946, there will be more members in the 100-Bushel Corn Club than ever before, county agents predict. Last year over 50 growers who followed recommendations on thick-spacing and high fertilization made 100 bu. or more per acre and became eligible for membership in this club.

Lowery said those who grow 80 to 99 bushels per acre will be issued a certificate of honorable mention showing actual yield. Demonstrators growing 70 to 79 bushels will receive a blue ribbon; 60 to 69, a red ribbon; 50 to 59, a white ribbon; 40 to 49, a pink ribbon; and 40 to 39, a yellow ribbon. Also, an honorary pin will be presented to the person making the best 1948 corn demonstration record in the State.

The awards will be given to demonstrators at local "harvest meetings" to be held next November or December. Banquets or barbecues will be planned, and the programs are to include reports from adult and 4-H demonstrators, brief talks by one or two county officials, a short movie or set of color slides, and some entertaining features such as corn husking contests.

Democrat Executive Committee Meeting Set In Montgomery

The State Democratic Executive Committee will meet in Montgomery January 26 to make its preparations for the coming primaries this year, Chairman Gessner T. McCorvey of Mobile announced last week.

McCorvey said that Alabama will be allowed to send 26 delegates to the national convention in Philadelphia in July. The committee chairman explained that two delegates will come from each of the state's nine congressional districts, while eight delegates will come from the state at large.

Alabama got two extra seats at the convention, along with all other states which voted democratic in the last presidential election.

VETERANS! here are the opportunities you've been asking for Thousands of Veterans of all the U. S. Armed Forces have said they'd like to join the Regular Army, IF they could have certain enlistment privileges. Today the Army has four attractive opportunities for Veterans of any of the U. S. Armed Forces to get into a well-paid job with lots of chance for advancement.

SERVE for 3 years with your choice of 8 famous combat units now stationed in the U. S. if you are a Veteran with overseas experience. Here's the opportunity to help build up the defense of the nation at home . . . to help train the new recruits who are joining the Army.

RETURN to an Army job in your old specialty, if you're a Veteran. If yours is one of the needed specialties, you can enlist in the grade appropriate to your training and experience. Veterans can also enlist for service in Europe, the Far East or Alaska.

LEAD your way into high-paid, high-ranking jobs through Army Potential Leaders' School, Army Technical Schools, Officer Candidate School or the U. S. Military Academy at West Point—open to every Army man who can meet the required mental, physical and age qualifications.

CHOOSE far-away places—Japan, Korea. Experience overseas gives your career a broad background. When you enlist, you may sign up for 3 years with your choice of 5 famous Far Eastern divisions. You earn 20% more pay when serving overseas—in addition to all other Army benefits.

Think this over, too: a Private First Class with his $80 a month plus benefits—retirement plan, food, clothing, lodging, medical and dental care—has more net take-home pay than the average civilian who is paying for equal benefits.

Alabama is losing $40 million dollars annually by failing to take full advantage of tourist attractions located within the state. The Craft home in Mobile, at left, is an example of wrought iron grillwork seldom found in homes elsewhere. At the right, top, is a section of Dauphin Island, near Mobile; center, beautiful Memorial Park, also in the Bay City. At the bottom, is the Grand Hotel at Point Clear, on the Gulf of Mexico, near Mobile. The hotel is the largest resort center in Alabama and during vacation season is filled to capacity. Until the State can properly care for tourists, famous attractions will have to be enjoyed solely by residents, or travelers who can arrange to visit friends.

Confederate Veteran Dies; Ranks Dwindle

The death of 103-year old Thomas J. Turner at Whatley, Rt. 1, Clarke County, reported last week by Mrs. Jacqueline Lewis, secretary of the Alabama Pension Commission, reduced the ranks of Alabama's confederate veterans to three.

Turner, the oldest of the remaining Confederate veterans, joined Company B of the 38th Regiment in Camden as a private on Dec. 21, 1862. He was discharged in Georgia in April, 1863.

Delegate Candidates Rush Into May Primary Race

Senator To Run For Committeeman In Demo. Councils

State Senator J. Broughton Lamberth of Alexander City, has announced that he will be a candidate for Democratic National Committeeman from Alabama.

His background includes graduation from Howard College and law degree from the University of Alabama.

He taught school and coached at Selma High School. In recent years, he settled in Alexander City, where he was born, to practice law.

Senator Lamberth enlisted in the United States Marines and served four years during World War 11. He has an outstanding combat record.

During two years in the South Pacific, he made seven beach-head landings, including Guadalcanal and Iwo Jima. He was decorated many times, and won the highest Marine combat award.

In the State Senate, he represents the Tenth Senatorial District composed of Elmore and Tallapoosa Counties. He is frequently referred to as an administration supporter.

He is now Executive Officer of the Alabama National Guard, to which office Governor Folsom appointed him.

"I favor the nomination, and the election, of the Honorable Harry S. Truman as President of the United States.

"I favor the adoption of a progressive platform and a progressive candidate for Vice-President," Sen. Lamberth declared.

Many Announcements Expected Next Week

All eyes are turning toward the Democratic Primary in May.

In the big election year of 1948, many Alabamians are throwing their hats in the ring for consideration as delegates to the national convention.

It was reported last week that Representative John Snodgress, of Jackson, Representative E. L. Roberts of Etowah, and Charles G. Dobbins, editor of The Montgomery Examiner, would be candidates for the Alabama delegation.

They are offering for election as delegates-at-large.

This is only the beginning, however, of announcements by candidates. Officially and unofficially, most Alabama political figures are involved in speculation.

Governor Folsom's name, as well as the names of Senator Lister Hill and Senator John Sparkman have been prominently discussed. Before the week is out it is expected that some definite word will come from every public figure involved in the speculation.

Kenneth Griffith, of Cullman, legal adviser to Governor Folsom, announced Monday that he would be a delegate candidate from the 7th congressional district.

Eight delegates-at-large will be elected. Each of the nine state districts will elect two delegates, making an overall total of twenty-six delegates.

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION SETS SURVEY

The State Board of Education at a meeting last week ordered an immediate survey to be made in an effort to provide professional educational facilities for Alabama negroes.

The decision came about after the board's newly elected vice president, Joe Starnes, former congressman from Guntersville, said, "The state is faced with an issue which it can dodge no longer. We must raise the level of our educational and economic opportunities for Negroes. In doing this we will raise the standard of living for all Alabamians." The board vice-president cited the recent ruling of the U. S. Supreme Court, which held that Negro students in Oklahoma are entitled to facilities of education equal to that of white people.

Several months ago a state meeting of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People was held here, and Negro leaders at the assembly said they intended to file court suits that would compel the admission of Negroes to the University of Alabama and Auburn.

FOR SALE

I still have for sale about two thousand bushels of good Whatley Corn, about thirty tons of hay, some good mules and several thousand dollars worth of machinery and other farming equipment.

All of the above can be seen at my place at edge of Clanton City Limits on Selma Highway.

C. E. STAPP

ARE YOU PLANNING MARRIAGE?

The recent legislature, under the caption, "House Bill 150," amended certain sections of the 1940 Code which provides that both parties to get a marriage license must have previously been examined by a licensed physician who must have a laboratory report setting forth that they are free of syphilis, the test being not more than 30 days before the anticipated marriage. The laboratory will furnish the top half of the section for the anti-nuptial examination which will be returned to the examining physician, who in turn fills out the last half of the certificate that is presented to the Probate Office by the applicant for the marriage license.

The above procedure is accepted from any practicing physician as well as from the County Health Office. There will be a lapse of possibly a week between the time of the blood test and the completion of the certificate.

—E. M. MOORE, Health Officer.

NEARLY 500 ALA. CHILDREN RECEIVING CARE FROM STATE

Almost 500 children in Alabama are receiving boarding foster care in homes licensed by State and county departments of public welfare, Miss Loula Dunn, Commissioner of Public Welfare, revealed recently. She pointed out that more boarding foster homes are needed for children who have to be separated from their families [illegible] permanent plans can be made for them or until they can be returned to their own homes.

In commenting on this important phase of the work of the agency, Miss Dunn listed some of the reasons why children need boarding foster care. Some children come from broken homes and permanent plans must be made for them; other children have acute health or conduct problems and require temporary specialized care and observation; still others came from homes where there is an unexpected emergency and temporary plans must be made immediately. The length of time the children remain in these homes, therefore, varies from over night care to a year or more. Whatever the length of stay in homes the boarding foster parents make a vital contribution to the normal healthy growth and development of these future citizens.

According to Miss Dunn, four-year old Jane and two-year old Martha are living in a boarding foster home temporarily because their mother had to be taken to the hospital suddenly. The father could not keep them at home and continue to work and there was no relative who could take them. The father, therefore, applied to the agency for help in making plans. Fortunately, there was a home already licensed where Martha and Jane could be placed immediately. The father is paying teh board and is pleased and relieved that they are receiving the care and affection which they need temporarily in a home that is equipped to give it.

Four-month old Peter is in the legal custody of the agency because his parents are dead and there are no relatives who could take him. Permanent plans, therefore, must be made for him. During the period when he is being prepared for adoption the agency is paying the board, providing medical care, and working with the boarding foster parents in observing his growth and development. How quickly permanent plans can be made for children in similar situations is dependent on the number of families who are willing to give temporarily someone else's child the kind of love and attention he needs, Miss Dunn stated. While many loving families are already giving this care to little children and are finding it an opportunity for service, many more homes are needed.

To safeguard both the children and the foster parents, the law requires that the foster parents providing boarding foster care must have a license from the Department before they can provide boarding foster care. All homes are visited by the agency and are licensed in accordance with standards prescribed by the State Board of Public Welfare. If you would like to share your home with a little child through this period of stress and strain, Miss Dunn suggests that you go to see the director of the county department of public welfare in the county where you live.

How many of you are interested in Aviation? Well, here is a great opportunity to get into it. If you are a high school graduate or if you can pass the Air Force tests. Yes and under the new aviation career plan you can choose the course of specialized training you want, and be assigned to an Air Force School that teaches that very course. Before you enlist, get that, fellows, if you have got the stuif on the ball, the Air Force will make you a TOP NOTCH aviation specialist, and start you on the way to a career with a future, and remember, the new high pay starts the very day you sign up. Talk over the aviation career plan with the Recruiting Sergeant at the local U. S. Army and Air Force Recruiting Station — New Wade's Building, Clanton, Ala.

MORE FERTILIZERS; STILL NOT ENOUGH

Auburn, Ala. — There'll be a little more fertilizer available in 1948, but not enough to meet the demand. Quoting the U. S. Department of Agriculture. API Extension Agronomist J. C. Lowerp says farmers will have about four per cent more nitrogen fertilizer, five per cent more potash, and six per cent more phosphate. Compared with the pre-war fears, the 1948 rupply yill be about twice as much.

Due to the strong demand, supplies of fertilizer won't meet a farmers' requirements. Nitrogen wil be particularly short of needs, and potash will continue to be tight. On the bright side, however, comes word that phosphate supplies are expected to be more nearly adequate, Lowery explains.

REASONS FOR FAT SHORTAGE

A world population increase of 200 million people, equal to the number of persons in all of North America, has been added since the first world war. This many more people to be fed makes the world-wide shortage of fats and oils even more acute. Heavy war damage and slow reconstruction also are listed among the chief reasons for the current world shortage of nearly eight billion pounds of fats and oils.

$3,000,000 Tax Gain Reported By Hamm

State Revenue Commissioner Phillip J. Hamm last week revealed that tax collections by his department for the first quarter of this fiscal year are $3,000,000 over the amount taken in during the same period last year.

During the 1946-47 first quarter, the Revenue Department took in a total of $17,799,862 while the first quarter of the present fiscal year has yielded a total of $21,084,820 from approximately 40 different taxes levied by the state at the present time.

The collections for December also surpassed those of the previous month. In December $6,732,386 was collected as compared with $6,308,337 for November.

Of the total U. S. quantity of grain and grain products and by-products used in the past year, about 75 per cent was fed to livestock; 15 per cent was ured for domestic food, seed, and all industrial uses; and about 10 per cent was exported. This 10 per cent, however, made up about 80 per cent of the total U. S. exports of more than 19 million tons of food.

Telephone Folks really did a job in '47

In spite of the continued scarcity of materials and equipment and in the face of rising costs all along the line, Southern Bell went right ahead in 1947 improving and expanding your telephone service. It was a year of humming activity as telephone folks went all out to bring you better telephone service.

There's still a tremendous job to be done. More buildings and vast quantities of equipment are needed to further improve and expand the service. If telephone earnings are such as will attract the necessary new capital to pay for continued construction, you can look forward to further progress in meeting your telephone needs in '48.

1947 ACHIEVEMENTS

2,411,000 More local calls handled each day—bringing the average daily total to 18,820,000.

More than 8 out of 10 long distance calls were completed while the customer held the line.

590,800 New telephones installed.

29,000 Telephones installed in rural areas.

Completion of $125,000,000 of new construction to improve and expand telephone service.

Where Do People Live the Best?

Russia?
England?
United States?

The answer: The U. S.

We are better fed, better clothed, and have more automobiles, refrigerators, telephones, and radios per capita than any other country.

Why? One reason is the efficiency of the American farmer. In countries where farm production is low, the standard of living is low.

The American farmer represents only 2½ per cent of the world's farmers, yet he produces approximately 20 per cent of the world's food supply.

Steel production also is an accurate measure of living standards. America, with only 7 per cent of the world's population, produces 50 per cent of the world's steel.

MILK CHECK BIGGER WHEN COWS FRESHEN DURING FALL MONTHS

Farmers who have their cows bred late this month will have them freshening in late October or early November — the period when milk is most needed.

Alabama dairymen have been producing too great a percentage of their milk during Summer months. To correct this, C. E. Teague. API extension dairyman, highly recommends that farmers make their plans to have more of their cows freshen in the Fall, rather than in Spring.

Teague says records show that Grade A dairymen produce 60 per cent of the years milk supply during the six Summer months — April through September. Farmers selling milk to manufacturing plants get 70 per cent of their milk during Summer. "At the same time," explains Teague, "Grade A plants need more milk in Winter than in Summer and manufacturing plants need an even supply throughout the year."

Other points made by Teague included:

(1) Fall freshening cows produce their greatest amount of milk when demand is greatest and price is highest.

(2) Grade A dairymen establish their base production during the winter months; so they should produce a larger percentage of their milk at that time.

(3) Producers of milk for manufacturing purposes have more time to milk and take care of cows during winter months.

(4) Heifers dropped in the Fall will come into production two years hence as two-year-olds. Spring dropped heifers will have to be carried until they are two and one-half years of age, if they are to freshen in the Fall as they should do."

GRAZING TOO EARLY WILL RUIN PASTURE

Dairymen have found that turning cattle on pastures before plants have a chance to get started often results in an extreme shortage of grazing during the following few months.

By February most farmers think that Winter is about over and that soon there will be plenty of grazing for all their animals. Tren when cattle are put on pastures where plants are just beginning to grow, the crops are eaten down so badly they never furnish much feed, says C. E. Teague, API extension dairyman.

Farmers need to watch their pastures during February and March and not begin grazing them until plants have a chance to make a fair amount of growth. Teague adds that by doing this, farmers will get far more grazing from their pastures.

BIG FEED PROGRAM NEED OF DAIRYMEN

Since a shortage of feed, especially grain probably will continue throughout the year, dairymen should go all out on a feed production program.

Dairymen need to make plans now to plant summer grazing crops such as annual lespedeza and sudan grass. If not needed for grazing, they can be cut for hay, says C. E. Teague, API extension dairyman.

More dairymen, especially the larger dairymen, shocld provide silage for winter feeding and for late summer or fall when grazing is scarce. An acre of sorghum, or in many cases corn, made into silage will provide more feed nutrients than the same amount of land in almost any other crop.

The Amazing 'Jim' Folsom

What is the source of this man's power?

Jim Folsom has gotten hold of the spiritual principle that the welfare of all the people is above the interest of a privileged few. Rather this principle has gotten hold of him.

This principle is bigger than he is and Folsom admits that.

The Governor has been true to this principle under tremendous pressure. His standing order is to make the giant foreign corporations in Alabama pay their part.

This is a defiant challenge to vested power. Big money means big lawyers, big newspapers and power in a thousand big ways. Even the church is not wholly immune.

The Self-Starter Senators went to luncheon clubs with their amendment. The Governor went to the people with his cause. He called it the people's cause and they seemed to sense his sincerity.

Elections are not won in Mountain Brook or Cloverdale. The people are in West End and Ramer Beat. The people stumble over the Latin words in a big newspaper editorial for the Amendment. They enjoy the Saxon words of Folsom's Forum and The Southern Farmer.

The Governor has learned mass response in bush arbor revival meetings. [illegible] and Black Belt towns.

When this man speaks of the welfare of all the people in Alabama, he reassures the colored third of our population. Bilbo, Talmadge and their like have hated the Negro; held the support of the poor [illegible] made it easy for foreign corporate interests to exploit the State. Folsom simply talks about all the people and the foreign corporations tremble.—The Rev. A. S. Turnipseed, The Montgomery [illegible]

PROMINENT MERCHANT OF CLANTON DIES

Final Rites Held Tuesday Afternoon For Renfro Mullins

Final rites for John Renfro Mullins were held at the First Baptist church in Clanton Tuesday afternoon at 2:00.

Mr. Mullins passed at his home in Clanton Sunday night at 10:00 p.m., following a brief illness. He was sixty-seven years of age.

The funeral services were conducted by Dr. S. J. Ezell, of Birmingham, assisted by the Rev. Roswell Owens, pastor of the Clanton First Baptist church.

Pallbearers were: Messrs. Jim Wade, Burt Mullins, Reese Mullins, Joe Mullins, Herman Lecroy, Erle Ellis, J. C. Burnett and Dave Tingle.

Honorary pallbearers were deacons of the First Baptist Church. They were: J. P. Lawrence, Sr., Houston Nivens, A. R. Taylor, George Jester, Grady Heflin, Louie Smith, G. C. Powell, B. N. Ivey, S. E. Waters, W. A. Kemp, and C. R. Morrison.

Surviving the deceased are the widow, Mrs Blanche Foshee Mullins; one daughter, Mrs. F. N. Scott, of Clanton; two sons, John and Edwin, of Clanton; three sisters—Mrs. J. Watts Moore and Mrs. John Deramus of Clanton and Mrs. Amzie Gowan of Brewton; two brothers, W. K. and F. A. Mullins of Mobile. Also surviving are six grandchildren.

The body of J. Renfro Mullins lay in state in the Baptist Church Tuesday afternoon from one until two o'clock as hundreds of his friends from Clanton and out-of-town passed to review the remains of this prominent Clanton citizen and business man. The casket stood in a bower of flowers that expressed the sunshine that Mr. Mullins brought to everyone during his life. Mrs. Erle Ellis and Mrs. Carlisle Miller furnished appropriate music.

Most all business houses in Clanton closed their doors during the hours of the funeral in respect to their fellow businessman and associate.

John Renfroe Mullins came to Clanton almost thirty years ago from Montgomery and since that time has been a very prominent businessman. For years he was widely known throughout Alabama as a cotton buyer, dry goods merchant, hardware man and fertilizer dealer, as well as a holder of a large amount of farm land throughout the county.

The remains were laid to rest in the Clanton Cemetery, with these words by Dr. S. J. Ezell, "Well Done, Thou Good and Faithful Servant."

Martin and Sons of Clanton were in charge of arrangements.

County Gets Big Hanger From WAA

Judge W. L. Parrish, along with Mr. Roy Bradley, local airport manager, stated recently that the county had secured a large airplane hanger from the Tuskegee Army Air Base.

The hanger is all steel, and is 184 feet by 130 feet.

The hanger was secured through the War Assets Administration and with comparative little cost to the county.

When asked where the hanger was going to be placed down, Judge Parrish intimated that it would be on the West side of the field and that more land might be purchased by the county.

The Judge stated also that the old hanger there or part of the new hanger would be used for a county machine shop to store, repair and service county road machinery.

Kiwanis Club To Present Oxifier To Hospital

At the regular meeting of the Kiwanis Club, Thursday, January 22, each committee presented its objectives for the year. These were read and adopted by the club as a whole.

The club will present to the local hospital within the next few days an oxifier. At present, the hospital is without any means of providing a patient with oxygen in case the need should arise. This exifier will be for the use of the hospital and should prove to be of benefit with the danger of pneumonia and other respiratory diseases prevalent during the winter months.

SIX AUTOMOBILE FATALITIES IN 1947 REPORTED

Shows Decrease Over 1946; Still Room For Improvement

According to a report furnished the News this week by Patrolmen Kendrick and Braswell, there were six deaths in Chilton County during 1947 that could be attributed directly to automobile accidents.

The report shows a decrease over that of 1946 when there were ten deaths reported. On the injured list were 58 in 1947 as compared with 91 in 1946.

Patrolmen Kendrick and Braswell are very proud of this record in their county although they wanted to reiterate, "these were six deaths that could have been prevented. Let us urge each and everyone to be especially careful in 1948 and let's beat this 1947 record."

The chief case of accidents showed to be driving on the wrong side of the road. Thirteen accidents were attributed to this cause. There were nine accidents because of excessive speeding.

Most of the accidents happened last year between 2:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. There were 13 accidents due to drinking and 31 not drinking.

County Agent M. R. Glasscock has called the meeting for the special purpose of reviewing with county farmers what they think about the local County Agent's activities in the county and what they think should be done. County's School Bus System Is In Dire Need Of More Funds

Clanton. Ala., Jan. 22, 1948.

To The School Patrons of Chilton County:

I feel that a report to you concerning school finances and plans would be beneficial to you, to me and to the Board of Education.

I will begin this report by outlining some of the needs of the county as a whole. The most immediate need is for classrooms. Forty-six new classrooms are needed in addition to those being built to relieve overcrowded conditions and to make fairly comfortable rooms for all pupils. These classrooms alone would require over $220,000 at present prices of construction. This item alone is almost twice our allotment from the Building commission. Then the sanitation problem over which many attacks are being made is due to receive consideration. To arrive at the point that you and we would like to have, it would be necessary to install 15 to 20 sets of sanitary toilets at an average cost of $3,000 each. Critics are constantly truthfully pointing out the danger of many of our wiring jobs. Corrections of such jobs would cost $15,000. Every school of more than two teachers needs an auditorium, which means that the county needs a minimum of 15 at an average cost of $50,000 each. Each school of six teachers of more should have a gymnasium, which means that the county needs 13 at an average cost of at least $40,000 each. [illegible] the original 45 county-owned busses will have to be replaced and are costing around $2,400 each. An estimation of $30,000 to cover needed paint jobs would be the minimum. Each of the 203 classrooms needs an average minimum of $50 worth of equipment. There are only 5 satisfactory heating systems in the county. At least 14 should be installed at a conservative estimate of $7,000 each. In order to equalize vocational education opportunities, 2 vocational buildings and equipment must be provided at a unit cost of $27,500. Two rdplacements are badly needed. At least 18 lunchrcoms are needed that will cost $3,000 each.

Let's summarize.

Needs:

Classrooms	$ 220,000
Toilets	56,000
Wiring	15,000
Auditoriums	750,000

Vocational Departments	55,000

TOTAL NEEDS	$1,916,150
Cash Made Available This Year:

"The Defense Of American Freedom Is Our First Consideration"—Mark Tucker
1870 - 1942

WE MUST SAVE EUROPE WITHOUT LOSING AMERICA

World War II ended in victory over the forces of fascism. No sooner had it ended, however, than a bitter struggle between the two conflicting ideologies of communism and democracy arose.

It is perfectly clear that democracy and the system of free enterprise are under vigorous attack in Western Europe. It is also clear that they are seriously threatened even in our own country.

Today the American people are called upon to support democratic ideals around the globe. There is no other choice. Retreat into isolation is impossibe in today's world.

Aid Granted Abroad

Congress has in recent years granted large amounts of aid to western Europe and China.

It has just appropriated 540 million dollars of immediate stop-gap aid. The next few years, under the Marshall Plan, may require 12 to 17 billion dollars of aid.

If it will help to keep the peace, to get Europe on its feet, to stem the tide of totalitarianism, this aid will be a small price to pay compared to the 300 billions spent on the last war.

It is of the utmost importance, however, in the trying years ahead, that we strengthen our defense at home as well as abroad.

We must conserve and develop our human resources [illegible] and foresight. The basic defense of our nation and [illegible] men resides in the intelligence and phy- [illegible] all citizens.

The Price of Ignorance

[illegible] nation is to invite di- [illegible] would wish for nothing better [illegible] young people to reach [illegible] without a deep and abiding faith in [illegible] life.

Unless every child in his early years acquire a thoro knowledge of, and a love for, the democratic institutions in our great republic, he inevitably is a potential threat to the security of our country.

It is a shocking fact that, while the federal government wisely appropriates billions of dollars for foreign aid of all kinds to help turn the tide of human affairs strongly in the direction of democracy, it has so far refused to spesd even a few million dollars to help public elementary and public secondary schools to eliminate the ignorance which invites acceptance of alien ideas at home.

Threatening Circumstances

Advocates of communism, for example, find strong potential allies in such threatening circumstances as the following within the United States.

—Five million children were without opportunity of becoming well-grounded in the foundations of American life because they were not in school at all, according to the U. S. census of 1940.

—Some communities in some states in 1940 spent 60 times as much for the education of a child as did some communities in other states.

—Ten million adults in 1940 had so little schooling as to be almost illiterate.

—Three million of this number had never been enrolled in any school.

—Twenty-five percent of our people over 25 years of age in 1940 had six years or less of schooling.

—Educational neglect caused Selective Service in the last war to reject the equivalent of 20 combat divisions, almost as many combat divisions as were deployed in the entire Pacific area during the war.

Right now, in 1947-48, there are:

—100,000 teachers employed on emergency substandard certificates—one in nine as contrasted with one in 200 in 1939-40.

—salary schedules so low in many states that often the ablest high school graduates shun teaching as a career.

—not less than 2,000,000 children denied proper instructional opportunities as a direct result of the teacher shortage —educational sum areas in many states and communities.

—overcrowded classrooms and heavy teacher load in every state.

The state legislatures in 1947 did a commendable job of providing the funds to start the schools back on the road toward their prewar status.

The additional appropriations, however, do not offset the decline in the purchasing power of the dollar and overcome the wartime deterioration in our schools.

Congressional Proposals

Pending in the 80th Congress are two bipartisan bills, S472 and HR2953, which authorize $300,000,000 per year to assist the states in more nearly equalizing educational opportunity thru public elementary and public secondary schools.

This legislation provides for—

a. the maintenance of state and local control over educational instruction and policy;

b. the distribution of funds to the states so that the largest amounts will go to those in greatest need;

c. the expenditure of federal funds for the same purposes for which state and local school revenues, under state constitutions and state laws, are spent;

d. no discrimination in the use of federal funds for separate schools operated for minority racial groups.

The pending federal legislation places its greatest emphasis upon the improvement of the public schools where they are most meagerly supported. A minimum acceptable standard of educational opportunity is the immediate objective.

To this end, the Senate Committee on Labor and Public Welfare has recommended the enactment of S472 by the United States Senate. The House sub-committee on education has favorably recommended passage of the measure.

FOLKS & THINGS

ABOUT TOWN

-By BEN

Chilton County can ill afford the loss of citizens like J. Renfro Mullins who died Sunday night. To the business life of Chilton the loss is great, but, of course, to his family the loss is far greater. The column extends its deepest sympathy to the family and grieves with them in their great loss of this fine husband, father and Christian gentleman.

Two more candidates announced this week for Commissioner of the Third and Fourth District. Johnny Johnson announced for the Fourth and E. N. Shanks, of Maplesville, announces for the Third. That makes a total of six who have announced for the Third District Commissioners place and the race in that District promises to be a lively one.

Speaking of politics, Marvin Marcus came in this week with his two guns blazing and looking for the editor. Well, luckily we were out of town and no blood was spilled. We're selfish about the little blood we have and under such circumstances we always leave town. Anyway, the trouble was that Clark (our man Friday) who wrote the radio news that morning stated that Marvin had decided not to run for the office of Tax Assessor. He acted in good faith for he had heard us make that statement. However, what he didn't know was that Marvin had told us not to mention it as he hadn't definitely made up his mind but would make a statement later. Well, by the time we got back to town Marvin had cooled off and emptied his guns and everything was hunky-dory. Now to keep the record straight Marvin will make a statement next week through the papers in which he will state his plans for the future in regards to county politics. Now everybody's happy for another few hours.

Our good friend Roy Mahan told us this week about the quartet that he is a member of singing over Station WKLF. It's the Sunny South Quartet and they sing every Sunday morning early. We told him we would listen next Sunday if we could bring ourself to getting up at 7 o'clock on a Sunday morning. With weather like we have had for the past two Sundays it is a pretty safe bet that we will move the radio close to the bed and listen to the Sunny South Quartet next Sunday morning in solid comfort.

George Sansom called us last week. He is back at home and able to be up and about. He does stay pretty close now, due to the weather but says there is nothing to keep his friends from calling on him once in a while.

Mr. Webster says that "DarkHorse" means "one not known to the public" —or—" a winner whose chances were not known."—The other week we seemed to have, caused quite a stir when we stated that Mr. Welch Roebuck was a dark-horse. This upset some of Mr. Roebuck's friends mightily, it seems, and we hasten to give the above definition from Mr. Webster's dictionary so that our readers will see that no aspersions were cast or any harm meant in the statement.

Might we add to the above paragraph that we think that Mr. Roebuck is a very fine young man and with his many friends, in the race for county commissioner, we wish him well.

Buck Littleton really gets the fan mail on his Club 980. His latest is a letter from Miami, Fla., from Mrs. A. C. Forrester. She sends in a request for two numbers and compliments the station highly on the Club 980 program.

N. L. (Buck) Roberts had visitors the other week. Buck says an elderly gentleman and lady walked into his office and according to Buck, had he been asked who he thought it was he would have guessed his brother-in-law, Col. A. F. Herzberg. It was his brother-in-law's father however, whom he had never met. Mr. and Mrs. Herzberg, of Denver, Colo., were touring the South and dropped in to meet some of their son's in-laws while passing through. There were only three states in the United States they had failed to visit and they included them in this trip.

Chas. Tucker, down at the Bus Station, met a fellow from Georgia the other day who bore the same name as his own. He was just passing through and in conversation with Charles both learned another startling fact: the mother of each Mr. Tucker had the same maiden name. Both before marriage was a Miss Jackson and both had the same given name.

Ben Rath has organized the Chilton Memorial Company here. He will display his tombstones and memorials in the front yard of his home on Selma Road. Friends of Ben's wish him good luck in his new enterprise.

Jim Dunlap came in an announced his intentions of getting into the 4th District race for County Commissioner this week. You will hear more about Jim next week. Watch the News.

Is The Press "Free"?

Whenever I read about the controlled press they have in certain foreign countries—where truth is suppressed—I feel mighty proud of our free American press.

Of course, that word "free" doesn't mean completely uncontrolled. The press has its own Association with its own code of ethics—and is quick to warn any individual who oversteps the bounds of decency or honesty.

It's the same in many other industries—like the folks who make and sell beer. They have their own standards—and protect them vigilantly. The Brewers call it a "Self Regulation" Program whereby retail outlets getting out of line are warned, and reported to the right authorities for discipline if needed.

From where I sit, freedom is a great thing—but a responsibility, too. And in shouldering that responsibility, and keeping their own house in order, the Brewers are protecting your and my right to enjoy a moderate beverage like beer.

Boy Wins Over Mother In VA Case

Montgomery, Ala. — The Alabama Supreme Court last week handed down a decision which, in effect, further strengthens the safeguards of money paid by the Federal Government in the form of veterans' benefits.

Styled Omar N. Bradley, as Administrator of Veterans Affairs, and as next friend of William Eubanks Henderson, a minor vs. Mrs. Helen C. Henderson, as guardian of the estate of William Eubanks Henderson, a minor, the decision reversed a ruling of the Jefferson County Probate Court. William M. Kelly, chief attorney of the Alabama Regional Office of the Veterans Administration, represented the VA in the appeal.

William Eubanks Henderson, 14, is the brother of Charles Young Henderson, who was killed August 5, 1944, while serving in the armed forces. The younger Henderson is the beneficiary of his brother's National Service Life Insurance.

The mother was appointed guardian of her younger son on October 19th, 1945.

As guardian, the mother filed a petition asking for $350 from the estate of her minor son to pay for dental treatment for herself and $125 for attorney's fees for services rendered at her request.

The petition claimed the dental treatment was necessary to preserve her health so that she could maintain a home for the minor son.

In reversing the decision of the lower court, the Supreme Court said, 'the decree of the court from which this appeal is prosecuted is in legal effect an expropriation and assignment of the private property of such minor to the private use of his mother contrary to the letter and spirit" of laws regulating veterans' benefits.

LEAST We FORGET

In recent months we hear of farm land transactions at higher and higher prices. In buying a farm, making major farm home or building improvements, or purchasing a major item of equipment you are making a long time investment.

Yes, prices of commodities we have to sell are high now, but, will they stay long enough.

In making transactions it is safest to figure on a normal price or lower basis. It can be worse than normal when obligations come due.

Here are a few price facts:

1. Cotton dropped from 37.5c in April 1920 to 9.4c in April 1921 or 75%.
2. Corn dropped from $1.29 per bushel in May 1920 to 45c in October 1921 or 76%.
3. Beef cattle dropped 50% and hogs 60% in approximately this same period and this wasn't the end. Prices went lower.

In Chilton County in 1941 (a war year) peaches, some of the best in the County, sold below 50c per bushel.

Records Prove Artificial Breeding Is Successful

Because of the infancy of the Breeding Association it is necessary to quote results of older associations as proof of results of artificial insemination. When our associaton is old enough for offspring of the bulls in the Auburn stud to be in production, we will be quoting results from our own association. Regardless of locality, the results of breeding should be the same.

A thorough study of the artificial breeding association records of the Land O' Lakes creameries located in the upper Midwest proves the value of artificial breeding to superior sires (bulls).

The records of 62 tested daughters by Holstein bulls in the Land O' Lakes test showed their milk production averaged 12,710 pounds of milk annually with 450 pounds of butterfat. The dams (mothers) of these Holstein heifers had an average milk production of 11,850 pounds of milk and 415 pounds of butterfat. This is an increase of 860 pounds of milk and 35 pounds of butterfat.

In this test 64 tested daughters of Gurnsey bulls gave an average milk production of 8,168 pounds with 397 pounds of butterfat. This was compared with their dams (mothers) and showed an increase of 837 pounds of milk and 52 pounds of butterfat.

Jerseys in this test, 39 daughters of proven sires (bulls), averaged 433 lbs. of butterfat.

Nineteen daughters of proven sires averaged 8,126 pounds of milk with 416 pounds of butterfat while their dams (mothers) produced 7,573 pounds of milk and 398 pounds of butterfat. This was an increase of 553 pounds of milk and 17 pounds of butter fat.

If these increases were converted into money at present prices of milk, the returns from the Holsteins in this test would be $51.60, Guernseys $50.22, and Jerseys $33.18 per cow per year. This does not include the increased sales value of the offspring.

There is available to every farmer for Limestone county the services of superior proven sires at a nominal service fee.

FIRE DESTROYED $100,000,000 FARM PROPERTY

"With fire destroying more than $100,000,000 worth of farm property in America during 1947, the New Year calls for farmers of Chilton County to put fire prevention and protection practices to work vigorously this year."

Urging farmers to be prepared in 1948, Mr. M. R. Glasscock said, "The only way that we are going to successfully combat fires in 1948 is to take all possible steps to prevent fires and to provide all possible protection against fires. A glance at last year's fire loss record should convince all farmers that fires don't always happen to the other fellow."

County Agent M. R. Glasscock, offers a six-point program which farmers could use as a guide to better fire protection and prevention. "The best way to guard against fire is to plan a safety program. The following suggestion have worked in the past. Farmers can use them during 1948 as a basis for effective protection."

1. Keep your farm clean. Good housekeeping in and around all building will automatically get rid of fire hazards.
2. Make regular checks on all electrical equipment and circuits. Worn electrical wiring should be replaced.
3. Keep all heating units in good condition. Make sure chimneys and flues are free of cracks.
4. Cure hay and grain and manure properly. Stored hay should be inspected regularly for odors, smoke, gas and heat—all warning signals.
5. Make sure there is equipment on farms with which to combat fires. Approved fire extinguishers should be in every home and outbuilding. Make sure they are inspected regularly and that every member of the family knows how to use them.
6. Ground all metal roofs by running cable or ground wire from projection to grounded pipe or metal bar.

"Fires are preventable, and as for fire protection let's not have too little too late in '48. Let's all get busy and make Chilco farms a safer place to live."

RECRUITING NEWS

The following named men of Chilton County are now serving with the Regular Army. Francis J. Matson of Verbena who had served one enlistment with the Army is now back in the Regular, and taking special training in the field of Special Investigator. Milton W. Matson, also of Verbena, is in the Corp of Engineers and taking training at Ft. Jackson, S. C., Amos N. Gilliland, Ronald E. Bonds, and Edward L. Robinson, all of Clanton, are with the Signal Corps at Ft. Jackson, S. C. This is their first time in the service and each reports that he likes it fine. None of the above mentioned young men are high school graduates, but they are taking advantage of the training and schooling that the Army offers, and plans to complete their high school education while in the Regular Army.

ATTENTION, VETERANS!

All previous service men in the Chilton County Area, who have been unable to reenlist in the Regular Army in the past, are urged to contact the local Recruiting Office in the New Wade Building for information about some important enlistment changes affecting them. Sgt. Aussant, Station Commander of the local Army and Air Force Recruiting Station, announced today.

A telegram received today from the Department of the Army now makes it possible for many physically qualified veterans to reenter the Regular Army although they may have been previously unable to do so. A special quota for these previous service men is now open.

Sergeant Aussant states that it is expected that these special openings for previous service men will be filled rapidly, and all veterans interested in getting in on this quota are urged to contact the local Recruiting Station at once.

FADMERS LIKE KUDZU FOR SUMMER GRAZING

County agents say last year 81,000 acres in this crop furnished valuable grazing for livestock. This was considerable increose over 1946.

Urging farmers to plant more acres to kudzu, agronomists of the Alabama Extension Service point out that kudzu loes well on practically, all soils of Alabama except on the lime soils of the Black Belt, poorly drained soils, deep thin sands, or soils with a hard pan near the surface. One of the chief merits of zudzu is that it can be grown in so many places on the farm.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

An event of special interest to the Junior set was that of last Friday evening, January 16th, when Mr. and Mrs. Houston Nivens entertained, honoring their daughter, Nanette, on her 12th birthday. The home was attractively decorated with potted plants and evergreens.

The honoree, lovely in heavenly blue net over taffeta, greeted the guests as they arrived. Twelve young ladies, charming in evening dress, bows and flowers, and twelve young gentlemen. During the evening games were enjoyed.

Later the guests were invited into the dining room for refreshments. The table was covered with a white lace cloth and the center piece was the unusual birthday cake, in a semicircle of candles and greenery. The large cake was white and the decorations represented the face of a clock, each numeral representing one of the years passed and the hands pointing to twelve, her present age. Punch, sandwiches and cake were served to the guests and to a number of older friends who called to wish her a happy birthday. Mrs. W. M. Blalock assisted in serving.

SAVE GRAIN

The temperature is now too low to fumigate grain to kill weevil However, farmers might well spend some time during this month shelling corn. It can then be stored in tight boxes or steel drums. This will reduce rat damage and the grain will be ready to fumigate as soon as the weather gets warm.

Drive On To Raise $1,000.00 For Band

The activities of the band and the Band Parents' Club have been to raise money for the purchase of instruments to better equip the band. These instruments and even additional material are necessary to make this band top-rate. The instruments bought with the money raised at the present time will be rented or given to use as the individual case may be.

The average band should be made up of one-third clarinets, our band does not meet this requirement. Therefore, we must purchase more clarinets to better balance the band. It is an important factor to remember that in State and National contests a band is judged on instrumentation. The other instruments to be bought are as follows: Two trombones, one or two French Horns, if there is enough money available.

There are other instruments which are needed in the band at the present time and will be purchased as soon as funds are available. These instruments that are needed are: an Oboe, a Bassoon, Alto Clarinet, Flutes and additional clarinets.

To have a top-rate band, one that the community can be proud of requires financing. This money cannot all be supplied by the school and therefore the community as a whole must undertake the sponsorship of the band if it is to prosper. Concerts, selling of adds and contributions are means of securing the necessary funds.

All children do not have funds available for the purchase of instruments or may be able only to make small monthly payments. It is the purpose of the Band Parents' Club to provide instruments so that these children may have equal opportunities to participate in and receive from music an experience that will contribute to a greater enjoyment for these individuals. If school owned instruments were available at the present time the band would be much larger.

The following firms and individuals have contributed to the drive so far. Any additional contributors will be acknowledged at the concert Thursday evening, January 29th, in the High School Gymnasium:

The Clanton Ice Co.
Kemp Dry Goods Co.
Bell Hardware.
J. B. Fort Insurance Agency.

Chilton Memorial Company Organized

Something new has been added to Clanton and Chilton County, a town and county that we are proud to say is always forging ahead. The something new is the Chilton Memorial Company, owned and operated by Ben Rath.

In the past years all the monument and memorial business in this area has gone to out of county and even out of state concerns. Mr. Rath has had eight years selling experience and was associated with several large memorial companies before the war. He feels that he can offer a special service to Clanton and Chilton County by offering monuments built of enduring granite or marble, cut, carved, polished, and lettered by the best workmanship and delivered and set at prices that are right. Mr. Rath will have monuments of various designs on display in the yard at his home, 1414 Selma Road.

The Chilton Memorial Company will be able to deliver and set all stones in approximately thirty days from the time they are ordered, thus offering prompt service for this type of business.

We feel that the Chilton Memorial Company will be another step in the forward march of our county.

W. A. Williams of Baker community has just finished selling 16 tons of sericea hay, and he has enough left for his livestock. This hay came off the water disposal system (meadow outlets). The hay grossed about $600.00 or $35.00 per acre. Take stock of your terracing system and if your terraces are too long, you migrt use one or more meadow outlets and dispose of the hay by feeding or selling it. March is a good time to sow your meadows, and next fall is the time to see to it that you build terraces.

Treatments for Cancer

Editor's Note: This is the fourth in a series of articles on cancer, most dreadful of all diseases, furnished the Chilton County News by members of the Chilton County Medical Society. The series is presented by the Chilton County News as a public service, to place in the hands of its readers facts which will enable them to protect themselves and their families from a deally killer.

E. M. MOORE, M.D.
County Health Doctor.

There are more than 5,000 quack "cures" for cancer.

But there are only three methods of treating cancer which are accepted and approved by the medical profession: Surgery, X-ray and radium.

The physician may use one, two or all three of these methods, depending on the type and location of the growth. Some cancers respond best to radiation. Others to surgery. Some require a combination of methods.

This is true because there are more than 500 different types of malignant disease which have the common characteristics of uncontrolled growth, the tendency to spread widely, and fatal consequences if they are not treated early and adequately. But different types respond differently to treatment.

The treatment of cancer—either by surgery or radiation (there is no essential difference between radiation by high voltage X-ray or radium) might be compared to the action taken by the Fire Department in answering an alarm.

For illustration, suppose the fire started in a wastebasket located in the corner of one room of a house. Cancer begins that way, as a small, localized growth. If the firefighters arrive while the fire is still confined to the wastebasket, the house can be saved in two ways:: Either by removing the blazing wastebasket—this corresponds to removal by surgery—or by putting the fire out—similar to destroying the cancerous cells by radiation.

If the fire department is called after the fire has begun to spread, the job of putting out the blaze is more difficult, and if much time is allowed to pass before help is called, the house will be destroyed.

Because of fear and superstition, cancer quacks have flourished. Pills, salves, injections, strange machines all have been advertised as sure cures for cancer.

Though quacks are always dangerous, they are particularly dangerous to the cancer patient. For, in addition to taking the patient's money under false pretenses and giving him dangerous or useless medicines, the quack is preventing the patient from going elsewhere for good treatment. The patient who is treated by a quack may be wasting the very weeks and months that would mean life to him if he were in the care of a reliable physician.

Medical science is constantly seeking better surgical techniques, more effective ways to use radiation. Experiments are being carried out to determine if any wartime discoveries may be put to use in the treatment of cancer.

Meanwhile, surgery, X-ray and radium, used early and by skillful practitioners can save the lives of from one-third to one-half of the patients who develop cancer.

Additional information about cancer may be obtained free through the cooperation of the Chilton County Unit of the American Cancer. Address your request for the cancer booklet to Miss Fay Wooley, Clanton, Ala. Miss Wooley is the County Commander of the Chilton County Unit of the American Cancer Association.

PUBLIC LIBRARY SERVICE SUBJECT OF AAUW MEETING

Mrs. Lois Ranier Green, head of the Alabama Public Library Service, explained her work by showing an excellent film at an open meeting of the Chilton County Branch of the American Association of University Women, January 22, in the C.C.H.S. library.

1947 Peak Year For State F.H.A.

Abner Johnson, state Federal Housing Administration director, said last week that the FHA had a peak year in the state during 1947, more than doubling the amount of business handled by the agency in 1946.

Johnson pointed out that the 1,595 loans insured in 1946 amounting to $8,103,950 had been doubled in 1947. The FHA director said that 2,625 loans were insured last year involving $16,684,900.

In addition, Johnson explained, the FHA took part in the multiple-unit garden type apartment project business for the first time in 1947. The FHA approved loans on 4,000 of these units in Alabama last year, and Johnson said more than $25,000,000 will be provided for construction of these apartments.

[illegible] ness year, [illegible] applications [illegible] dwellings, and Johnson said that of this number 2,624 were approved, the remainder of the applications still pending.

The FHA was establised in 1934. Since that time the state FHA offices have insured $175,000,000 worth of housing facilities that provided dwelling accomodations for some 40,000 families in Alabama.

Negro Convict Killed In Argument Over Cigarettes

Montgomery, Ala. — John Henry Warren, a Negro convict serving a four-month sentence for being a "Peeping Tom," was stabbed fatally by another Negro inmate at Prison No. 4, Prison Director Frank Boswell disclosed last week.

The prison director quoted Warden Pitt Williams as saying Warren was stabbed to death by Otis Miller with a dirk made from a table knife. The warden said Warren and Miller had an argument over a package of cigarettes.

Further probing into the case showed that Miller was serving a one-year term for larceny from Jefferson County. Boswell said a thorough investigation of the matter would be made and the results reported to the Montgomery County Grand Jury.

Montgomery women met Friday to frame by-laws and elect officers for a local League for Women Voters.

The League does not back political candidates but works toward intelligent participation in government by encouraging women to vote and to learn more about local and national government.

HIS TEMPLES of WORSHIP

PICTURED here are various types of churches, ranging in cost from a few hundred dollars to over a million. The imposing structure in center is one of the most beautiful in America. Its physical equipment consists of almost everything possible for man to build into "HIS Temple of Worship."

Elsewhere on this page are pictured other types of churches in different cost brackets. You'll find in every community in America a church suited to the likes of those it serves.

A community without a church would be a poor place to live indeed. In city or hamlet throughout this land you'll find the rich and the poor flocking to the church of their choice on Sunday with a common faith and a common purpose.

The church points the way to a fuller and more useful life. Resolve to attend your church every Sunday.

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you"—form a combination for good.

HUNGRY BEEF CATTLE MUST HAVE FEED NOW

Due to shortage of grazing beef cattle must be fed now or cattlemen stand a chance of losing valuable animals.

W. H. Gregory, API extension livestock specialist, says that the situation is becoming alarming. He is recommending that producers start feeding their beef animals two pounds of cottonseed meal or pellets each day.

One hundred pounds of cottonseed meal, worth about $5, will carry a cow through the next 50 days. By that time grazing should be plentiful. Mr. Gregory points out that this will save several thousand beef animals from starvation. He figures that each $5 spent for cottonseed meal fed to the animals will be worth at least $100 in animals saved.

Graling is short because weather conditions during last Fall were not right for farmers to get winter grazing crops planted and growing.

Pleasant Grove Church takes pleasure in sending Mineral Springs Community 15.00 in helping to build their church back. If you have not helped out, why don't you do so. Our deepest sympathy goes out to these people.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McAfee and Walter Lawley attended the funeral service of their uncle, Newt Lawley, Friday morning at Tabernacle Church. Mr. Newt Lawley lived and died in Mobile. He died within a week of his dear wife two weeks before her death their son, Alva Lawley, was shot and killed by his brother-in-law. This leaves to mourn their deaths 3 sons.

The people of Pleasant Grove Community have decided to put a new top on our church before we should happen to the bad luck that Mineral Springs did. Our top is bad. It has been on a long time. We are asking all members of Pleasant Grove Church and all readers of this news, or if you have loved ones in the cemetery to give us a little or big donation to help us to put this new top on our church. FARMERS ARE PLANNING FOR FULL USE OF ACP

This week farmers were studying the 1948 agricultural conservation program and planning to make full use of the practices in improving their land.

The farm limit, or assistance, this year is one dollar per acre of cropland plus 15 cents per acre of non-crop open pasture. There also will be a special limit of twice the farm limit that farmers can use for terracing, liming and drainage. Minimum limit for any farm is $15.

The State PMA Committee, which directs the agricultural conservation program, has approved 14 practices in Alabama. Each county committee will select the eight practices most needed in the county and approve only these for payment.

W. B. Crawley, chairman of the state PMA committee, listed the practices from which county committees will make their selections: (1) Terracing; (2) application of phosphate, potash, or basic slag;; (3) liming; (4) establishing kudzu on steep slopes, on waterways to prevent erosion; (5) establishing sericea to prevent erosion; (6) establishing satisfactory cover of crotalaria; (7) establishing satisfactory cover of winter legumes seeded in the fall of 1948; (8) establishing permanent pastures; (9) construction of V-type drainage ditches; (10) construction of drainage ditches other than V-type; (11) establishing stand of forest trees; (12) leaving on land or turning under a satisfactory growth of annual lespedeza; (13) local conservation practice; and (14) special conservation practice.

HYBRID CORN FOR HOGS

Before you know it, corn planting time will be here. It's no longer necessary for hogs to go through the summer on a "squealing and starving" ration. A patch of early hybrid corn, planted early, will furnish a lot of hog feel. And the hogs will do the harvesting.

When beating egg whites, be sure that the beater is free of oil, and that the whites are free of any stray bits of egg yolks. The presence of even a minute quantity of fat will keep the egg whites from beating satisfactorily.

3 Unions Block Labor Peace—Refuse Wage Boost Already Accepted by 19 Other Railroad Unions!

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen and the Switchmen's Union of North America, representing 125,000 railroad employes, have refused to accept the offer of the Railroads of a wage increase of 15½ cents an hour.

This is the same increase awarded 1,000,000 non-operating employes by an arbitration board in September, 1947.

This is the same increase accepted by 175,000 conductors, trainmen and switchmen by agreement on November 14, 1947.

Agreements have been made with 1,175,000 employes, represented by nineteen unions. But these three unions, representing only 125,000 men, are trying to get more. They are demanding also many new working rules not embraced in the settlement with the conductors and trainmen.

Incidentally, the Switchmen's Union of North America represents only about 7% of all railroad switchmen, the other 93% being represented by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and covered by the settlement with that union.

Strike Threat

The leaders of these three unions spread a strike ballot while negotiations were still in progress. This is not a secret vote but is taken by union leaders and votes are signed by the employes in the presence of union representatives.

When direct negotiations failed, the leaders of these three unions refused to join the railroads in asking the National Mediation Board to attempt to settle the dispute, but the Board took jurisdiction at the request of the carriers and has been earnestly attempting since November 24, 1947, to bring about a settlement. The Board on January 15, 1948, announced its inability to reach a mediation settlement. The leaders of the unions rejected the request of the Mediation Board to arbitrate. The railroads accepted.

What Now?

The Unions having refused to arbitrate, the Railway Labor Act provides for the appointment of a fact-finding board by the President.

The railroads feel it is due shippers, passengers, employes, stockholders, and the general public to know that throughout these negotiations and in mediation, they have not only exerted every effort to reach a fair and reasonable settlement, but they have also met every requirement of the Railway Labor Act respecting the negotiation, mediation, and arbitration of labor disputes.

It seems unthinkable that these three unions, representing less than 10 per cent of railroad employes, and those among the highest paid, can successfully maintain the threat of a paralyzing strike against the interest of the entire country—and against 90 per cent of their fellow employes.

The threat of a strike cannot justify granting more favorable conditions to 125,000 employes than have already been put in effect for 1,175,000, nor will it alter the opposition of the railroads to unwarranted wage increases or to changes in working rules which are not justified.

A glance at the box shows what employes represented by the Engineers and Firemen make. They are among the highest paid in the ranks of labor in the United States, if not the highest.

Compare these wages with what you make!

Here is a comparison of average annual earnings of engineers and firemen for 1939 (prewar) and 1947. Also shown is what 1947 earnings would have been if the 15½ cents per hour increase, offered by the railroads and rejected by the union leaders, had been in effect throughout the entire year 1947.

CULLING POULTRY TO CONSERVE GRAIN

There are hundreds of hens and pullets on Chilco farms today that are not paying their feed bill. Such birds can be found in every farm flock. They represent birds which have either outlived their usefulness as layers or those which will never be efficient layers. Based on the average cost of feed and eggs a hen or pullet must produce slightly more than 7 eggs to pay for her feed for a month.

WATCH FEED COSTS. With the season of highest egg prices coming to an end and the season of heavier production and lower prices approaching, non-producing hens and pullets are going to add more and more to the cost of producing eggs. This cost is important to the farmer. Feed is scarce and the price is high. With food grains in urgent demand throughout the world, there is every chance that feed prices will become less and less favorable to poultrymen.

High feed costs can be offset to a large extent by the immediate culling of non-productive birds, whether they are hens, pullets, or roosters that are not needed. These costs can be held to a minimum throughout the laying season by constant culling of non-producing or low-producing birds. Many of the non-producers are already fat and in good marketable condition. Keeping such hens and pullets on farms merely lowers the profit from poultry flocks.

PULLETS ARE ECONOMICAL PRODUCERS. Owners of small or large egg-producing flocks should plan to cull at least one bird out of each five and aim to develop all-pullet flocks eventually. A start in this direction, which will help materially in grain conservation, would be to adjust the average flock make-up to one of 80 percent pullets and 20 percent mature hens, except in breeding flocks.

Pullets, according to USDA poultry specialists, consume less feed than hens in producing a given number of eggs. They have the further advantage of lowering the mortality in the poultryman's flock, and they help reduce the tendency toward over-crowding in poultry houses—an additional advantage in the prevention of disease.

Eat, can and freeze "stewers" on the farm. In addition, however, the Department is calling upon all farm families and families living in suburban areas close to the source of supply of fowl as well as city consumers, to eat at least one stewing chicken each week for the next six weeks, and to can or freeze chickens for future use.

Use of fowl on the farm is an advantage to the producer, because it helps prevent market channels from becoming overcrowded.

Many farm and surburban families have their own pressure canners and home freezing units. Further, the facilities of community canning centers are available in many localities for group use if arrangements are made in advance, and freezer locker plants afford another means of storing fowl for future use.

The cleaning of chromium-plated such as are found on refrigerator hinges is simple—just wash in warm soap and water. Nothing else is necessary.

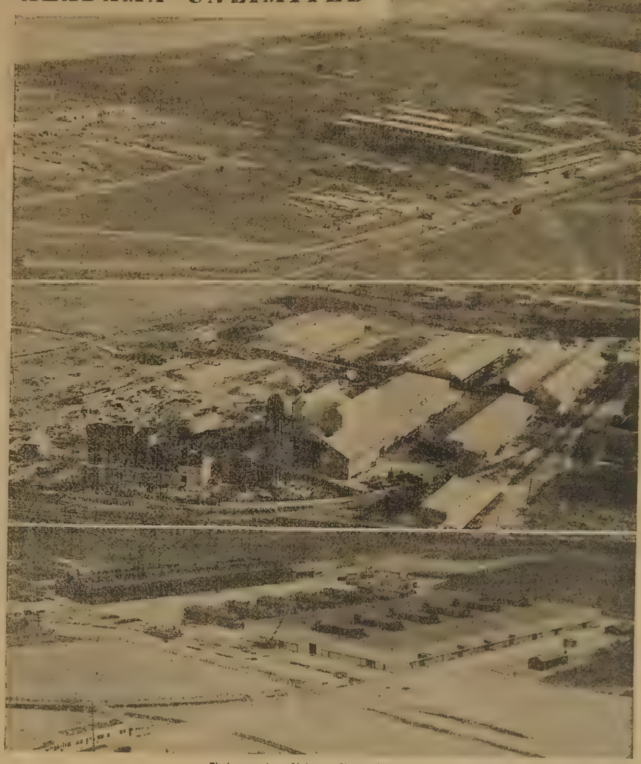
ALABAMA UNLIMITED



—Photos courtesy Alabama State Chamber of Commerce, Alabama Press Association

THREE OF ALABAMA'S LARGEST new industries are getting ready to swing into production early in 1948. The top photo is an aerial view of the Wolverine Tube Division of the Calumet-Hecla Copper Co., nearing completion in Decatur. The main building will be more than 1200 feet long and about 400 feet wide. The company has 98 acres of lakeside property fenced and the $15,000,000 plant will be in operation soon. In the center is the new Hazel-Atlas Glass plant in Montgomery. This firm will make glass containers of all kinds and is also expected to begin operations soon. At the bottom, is the new Allis-Chalmers plant near Gadsden. Utilizing a former war plant, Allis-Chalmers will manufacture a revolutionary small farm tractor and expects to be in production March 1.

R. F. Holley Writes Voters Of Chilton County

TO ALL WHO ARE INTERESTED IN BETTER ROADS AND A BIGGER AND BETTER CHILTON COUNTY:

A few days ago, I announced in the County papers my candidacy for Road Commissioner for District Four of Chilton County in the coming Democratic Primary.

As a matter of introduction to those of you who may not already know me, I was raised on a farm in Coosa County. I moved to Chilton County 42 years ago. I have owned a farm home and maintained my legal residence in this good county since. Part of the late years I have been temporarily away on construction work, where I had the actual experiences in building, working and maintaining all kinds and types of dirt and gravel roads.

I was with the Alabama Power Company twelve years doing construction and lake clearance work, clearing the reservoirs of all timber, trees, and underbrush for the back waters from Cherokee Dam, Upper and Lower Tallassee dams, Lock 18, and Mitchell Dam. In this work, I helped build roads on all the projects and under every conceivable hazard and condition for the conveying of materials, machinery, men and supplies to and from them. There were from 400 to 1000 men working under me during this time. After this, I was with the Georgia Light & Power Company for two years; and with the Arkansas Light and Power Company for two years doing similar work with these companies as with the Alabama Power Company.

I was employed by the great Tennessee Valley authority an agency of the Federal Government, for ten years and until September 1943. I was Field Superintendent of Reservoir clearance work this ten years, with thousands of dollars of equipment and supplies entrusted to my use and supervision at all times, and with from 12,000 to 25,000 men working under my direction. I was present daily when 26,000 acres of land were cleared for Guntersville Dam, and 16,000 acres were cleared for Norris Dam and 16,000 acres were cleared for Cherokee Dam, all in Tennessee.

I was present daily and in direct charge of clearing 13,000 acres for Hiawasee Dam, 16,000 acres for Fontanta Dam, 3,000 acres for Ocoee Dam, 8,000 acres for South Holston Dam, and 8,000 acres for Knotley Dam, all the last five being in North Carolina, with a total reservoir or lake clearance of over 104,000 acres with T.V.A.

I retired to my Chilton County farm in September 1943, where I have operated my farm, raising cattle, general farm and truck crops. Incidentally, I have had to use the rural roads during the years on my farm and I now realize that the greatest need of the county today is good roads.

With my practical experience as shown above of spending money handling equipment, materials and men, I feel that I am well qualified to build and maintain a Credible Rural Road System for District Four.

This job, I realize, pays very little, and I am not seeking it monetarily; but I have the ambition and human desire to be of some real service to the good people of my county. I am therefore coming to you asking you to determine if I shall be priviledged to serve you as Road Commissioner for District Four. I shall try to see each of you and solicit your vote and influence; and try not to be intrusive on your time and patience. It will be my most earnest and humble desire to make a clean and benefitting campaign, both to myself and to all of those with whom I come in contact.

Confederate $5 Bill 'Redeemed' at Face

Who said Confederate money is worthless, or that the "Stars and Bars" no longer wave? A Georgian sent a battered $5 certificate to the nation's capitol and got back a crisp, new $5 bill in United States currency.

Here's how it happened:

Prince Preston, representative from Georgia's First District, had his attention called to a letter addressed by G. G. Collins, of Cobbtown, Ga., to the "United States Capitol, Washington, D.C." It seemed that Mr. Collins had a problem in currency exchange.

"I enclose," the letter said, "a United States certificate of $5 made in the year of 1864. Please investigate same certificate and if it is redeemable. If so, please mail to me its same value of $5. If not, please return same."

In reply, Mr. Preston dictated the following letter to his constituent:

"Dear Mr. Collins:

"Your recent letter addressed to the United States Capitol in which you enclosed a Confederate $5 certificate has been forwarded to me for appropriate action.

"It is noted that you wish to redeem this certificate issued by the Confederate States in 1864 and receive United States currency in exchange for same. The value of this Confederate bill at the present time depends entirely upon the point of view of the holder.

"Having had two grandfathers who fought for the Confederacy in the War Between The States, I am inclined to accept the bill for its face value and I am, therefore, enclosing $5 in United States currency in exchange for your Confederate bill."

For the benefit of others who may have Confederate money in their possession, Mr. Preston would like it known that his own personal funds for the purpose of redeeming same have now been exhausted.

Hogs Will Be Shown In The 1948 Montg. Fat Stock Show

A special division for fat hogs will be added to the Fat Stock Show in Montgomery, scheduled for April 27 and 28, according to M. R. Glasscock, County Agent.

Plans have been completed to have a very attractive hog show in combination with the 4-H and FFA beef calf show. Purpose of this show is to help expand a hog production program in Alabama and in Chilton County, the agent stated.

"Very good premiums in the different classes will be offered," he said "Of particular interest is the announcement by officials in charge that at the sale on the second day of the show all hogs will bring at least Chicago, or better, prices. In addition, the champion and reserve champion will be auctioned off and are expected to bring fancy prices."

4-H and FFA members may enter a maximum of two individuals in the established weight classes and one pen of three in the separate pen classes. Adult entries will be limited to one pen of hogs for each adult farmer.

All prospective entries, 4-H, FFA, and adult, must be listed by the county agent or vocational agriculture teacher with the superintendent or assistant superintendent of the show on or before March 15. Since it is necessary that club members and farmers expecting to make entries in this show and sale immediately select their pigs of the right age, weight, and easy feeding qualities, the county agent insists that interested 4-H members and farmers contact his office right away.

A copy of the rules and regulations governing this show and the premiums offered is listed below:

NEW RECORD IS MADE IN SERICEA PLANTING

Alabama farmers planted a record 50,000 acres to sericea last year, county agents reported this week.

Farmers like the perennial crop because it gives grazing from April to November, makes good hay, controls erosion, and builds the land, say agents. During the last five years, 220,000 acres have been put [illegible].

Those [illegible] ised [illegible] Harbor, [illegible] agronomist, to prepare land by breaking and harrowing to form a good seedbed. The seedbed must be settled by rains before seed are sown. [illegible] 400 to 600 pounds of superphosphate or 600 to 1,000 pounds of basic slag per acre. Also apply [illegible] pounds of muriate of potash per acre, says Harbor. On soils very low in potash, use 200 pounds of muriate per acre. Broadcast fertilizer and disk or harrow it into the soil as land is prepared.

Broadcast not less than 30 pounds of scarified seed per acre between February 15 and April 1 in south Alabama and between March 15 and May 1 in north Alabama. Early planting is best.

Freshen land with section harrow and then go over land with heavy roller or cultipacker. Divide seed into two equal parts and cross-sow with a whirlwind-type seeder. Seed may be sown by hand. Put roller over land after sowing. Harbor warned farmers not to go over seed with disk, drag or section harrow, since they usually cover the seed too deep.

experience at building and the experience of other County Boards.

A few important facts should be remembered, namely:

1. The principal element in the money voted to education in the amendment election in August was for teachers' salaries. This is recurring; meaning that it will be available year after year.

2. The money voted for capital outlay listed above as Building Commission Fund and amounts to $120,156 for this county is not recurring. This happened to be a surplus on hand and will not be there again. The normal amount appropriated to us for capital outlay is around $16,000. About $10,000 per year is being required to pay off a long-range debt.

3. The total indebtedness as reported in our last financial statement is $104,000.

4. Money must be apportioned to school on an immediate need basis and not on a per-pupil, per-teacher, last [illegible] or any like basis. Parents must buy clothing first for the children they think need them most. So must the Board spend where the need seems to them to be greatest. The Board and Suprintendent must be the judges.

It is stretched the hardest. There needs be more of them. We still have fond hopes of Federal Assistance, which would be a logical solution. Some counties are helping by adding local taxes. I hope this does not become necessary in Chilton and I will advocate it only as a last resort.

The school problem is EVERYBODY'S problem. Each of us must approach it in an open-minded, fair, and unselfish manner.

Letters To the Editor

Editor, Chilton County News:

I would like to conglatulate everyone who had a part in putting up a radio station in Clanton. I know everyone in the County is proud of this station as well as myself. I would like to head a drive in sending Rev. Atchison one dollar on the program to keep him on the air; I would like for all the people of Chilton County and out in radio land to send him one dollar during the month of January or later. I believe that Rev. Atchison is a God-called preacher. Now I believe the people of Chilton County will do this.

T. U. Crumpton said on his arrival from the Holy Land that Chilton County was the garden spot of the world. I would also like to see all the people help on a good program—A. F. Mims.

The Club passed a resolution and the President directed the Secretary to notify the county commission of the fact that the Club had passed a resolution endorsing the spraying of DDT in the county.

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE COMMISSIONERS COURT OF CHILTON COUNTY

Attention: Judge W. L. Parrish, Chairman.

Gentlemen:

At the regular meeting of the Clanton Kiwanis Club Thursday last, January 29, 1948, the matter of the DDT program was brought to the attention of the club.

After a lengthy discussion the club passed a resolution endorsing this program for Chilton County. The entire membership of fifty-three (53) went on record when the club voted.

The club's opinion is to the effect that this DDT program did a wonderful job last year and they sincerely hope that it will be continued in 1948.

The club instructed the secretary to inform the Commissioners Court by letter and give a copy to both local newspapers.

Yours very truly,
JOE S. CAMPBELL, Secretary
Clanton Kiwanis Club.

County Farmers Meet; Elect Officers

Farm leaders from every section of the county met in Clanton Saturday to discuss the 1948 extension farm plan of work. 1948 as any other year will bring many of the same problems that have been with us all along plus new ones that inevitably arise. Farm people from both large and small farms adopted and approved a plan of work that will be followed by County Extension Workers in carrying out a program of farm work for 1948.

Farm leaders who met Saturday organized the Chilton County Extension council and elected a corp of officers. Mr. Albert Broadhead of Bethsalem was elected President; Mr. Horace Popwell of Clanton was elected Vice President; and Mr. Aubrey Smith of Poplar Springs, Secretary.

By anticipating the farm problems that arise each year it is possible to take steps toward remedying them before they occur. Chilton County with its fruit and vegetable crops has more than its share of headaches and no one is better able to recognize problems than farmers and farm leaders. By making a definite plan of work for Extension Workers to follow, it was felt that a more efficient farm program may be carried out.

Below are listed the names of farm leaders who attended the meeting:

R. F. Holley, E. G. Gothard, A. B Jones, Mrs. A. B. Jones, Mrs. V. C. McKee, F. I. Popwell, Osmond N. Glenn, W. Houston Jones, H. L. Traywick, T. L. Williams, Mrs. Winston W. Culp, Winston W. IT'S FUN TO LIVE IN AMERICA

"It's Fun To Live In America." That's the title of a pamphlet being mailed out by Kiwanis Clubs all over America to help Americans to better appreciate America.

The first of these pamphlets fell on the editor's desk this week through the courtesy of Mayor Leo Thompson. The little folder offers some interesting information—none of which we didn't already know but a "reminder" that we Americans have a lot to be thankful for.

Here's what we mean:

Did you know that there is a radio for every two and a half persons in the U. S.? Yes, sure you did. But did you ever stop to compare this with what is found in other countries? In Great Britain there's one for each 4½; in France there's one radio to every seven persons while in Russia there's only one radio for every forty-eight persons.

Automobiles: In the U. S. there's an auto for every five individuals; Great Britain, 31; France 32; and in Russia there's only one car for every 1,130 persons.

Telephones: Why we Americans have come to regard them as a necessity, as we have automobiles. Here in the good old U.S.A. there's a telephone for every five persons. In Great Britain there's one for every twelve. In France one for every 25 and in Russia there's only one telephone for every hundred persons.

In closing the pamphlet adds a paragraph that we all should remember:

"Gripe! The Army had another word for it, and we do it a plenty, but that's sure proof that we have complete freedom and can 'speak our piece' anywhere or any time we see fit.

"As a matter of fact we're an ambitious lot and we probably will never be completely satisfied, not until Mom, Pop, and all the kids have a radio a piece with television thrown in. Then Pop won't have to listen to Dick Tracey right in the middle of a Joe Louis fight."

It behooves us all to take stock of our America and strive to make better Americans of we Americans.

NIGHT BASEBALL FOR CLANTON

Mayor Leo Thompson has stated that lights and bleachers will be available at the new ball diamond this summer for night baseball for Clanton. That's another step forward for us.

No longer is Clanton in the Town Class but joins with Tallassee, Greenville, Alaxander City and Sylacauga in the City Class.

Since we're going "citified" let us have a top-notch [illegible] ball team. Last year Clanton's team was nothing to be [illegible]ked and did credit to themselves wherever they play- [illegible] going to be playing to larger crowds [illegible] ing to be keener.' Let us have a strong [illegible] the stronger teams they may face.

[illegible] l has been available [illegible] ts of a few. These two or [illegible] ed hard organizing, financing and managing [illegible] m in Clanton. And they had a commendable [illegible] these men need help . . . help from everyone— [illegible]s, businessmen, civic organizations and fans alike.

We'll state here that had it not been for the efforts of Robert "Bob" Alred, "Gabby" Tiffin and a few others, Clanton would not have had baseball. Let us all talk baseball from now until the opening pitch this season and have a better team, a better place to play, better accommodations for fans, better crowds and better and more enthusiasm about this grand old American sport.

ABOUT TOWN

-By BEN

I rose and gave her my seat—
I could not let her stand.
She made me think of Mother,
With that strap held in her hand.

Well, since the snow has at last vanished and the ice melted too, it looks like Chilton County will see some pretty weather for awhile. Nothing makes us appreciate good weather like bad weather.

We have been a member of the Clanton Lions Club since it's reorganization but last Thursday night was the first time we had attended the weekly Club meeting. If the Lions had to depend on members like us to get all those good deeds done, we are afraid that the less fortunate who come under their watchful care would be the loser. Earl Parrish is president of the Club and Earl Ellis Tail Twister. Both make good officers and we especially remember Earl Ellis—we're still eating of the mantle.

The Clanton Kiwanis Club challenged the Lions to raise more of the annual Red Cross quota than they could last week. This the Lions accepted. We believe the two Clubs have hit on a fast way to raise the Red Cross money. Instead of having a long drawn out campaign the extraction will be short and sweet. No, it won't be sweet either—just short. They are going to divide the city and each take committees and work their half. The idea is to see which Club gets their half of the quota first—in one afternoon. Honestly we believe this method better and we can raise our quota if everyone will make up their mind what they can afford to give this year and have it ready for the committeemen when they call. We'll give you more dope on the plans later.

She balanced herself daintily on a stool over at Mitch Williams' Coney Island hamburger counter, looked over the pastries, and after a minute of indicision, addressed the boy behind the counter, "I would like to have two hamburgers well done; no pickle, but you may put a little mustard on them, if you don't mind." Without turning his head the short-order cook repeated, "Elmers, on two; hobnailed; hold the pucker and make 'em dirty."

As we said to the tramp, "I don't guess you know what good honest work is," and he answered, "No what good is it?"

Now all your life you have heard of chicken thieves, but did you ever hear of chicken liver thieves? We have discovered one right here in town. The other day we had our order in for some livers at the A. & P. During the morning Morris Moatts called and said our livers were ready. When we stopped by at noon to get them the cupboard was bare, some chicken liver lover had absconded with our package. According to the Market Manager, Mr. Frith, a party came by and said, "I see you have a package for me." So he asked, "Are you Ben Tucker?" So the fellow said, yeah, and walked out with his booty. The first guy we see who looks like he has dined recently on chicken livers we are going to call Chief Anderson and have him put in the coop.

Leonard Farley and Son have opened their new drug store around on Sixth Street across from the Baptist Church. Don't know whether you have been around yet but if you haven't you are missing something. It is new and pretty and smells good. No one can make you feel more welcome than Mr. and Mrs. Farley and they certainly have a beautiful new store. That gives Clanton five drug stores but we are growing, and growing fast, and we welcome the Farleys and their newest addition to the business life of our little city.

We got to get down to Herbert Klinner's Furniture Manufacturing Company in South Clanton and see him make furniture. That will be something we have never seen and then we want to tell you about it. That industry, owned and operated by home-folks, is something to be proud of and now since Herbert has started running full force, we want to let all you folks know what it's like. Watch for a long feature in the News on "Furniture Making and How It Should Be Did."

COUNTY TRAINING COLORED SCHOOL COMMUNITY LOOKING TO CROP PRODUCTION

The Chilton County Training School Community and members of other neighboring communities are turning their attention towards the production of crops on a diversified basis. Crops, animals, and the amounts of each based upon the working force of those concerned, will be considered. Chilton County farmers are asked to represent Chilton County 100% with the National Government's appeal for the 22,000,000 gardens to be planted and cultivated in 1948. This is a duty to be performed and in a large measure, will offset a shortage of necessary food needed this year.

The Chilton County Training School Evening School group sent Marie Williams as their representative to Tuskegee Institute on January 14, 1948, through January 21, 1948, for a short course in the Farm and Home Week. Marie brought back some worthwhile and usable information for the entire group. On January 21, 1948, a delegation of ewelve evening school members took advantage of the Farmers' Conference Day at Tuskegee Institute. Teh trip as well as the program was enjoyed by all.

The principal speaker was Honorable Secretary of Agriculture, Mr. Clinton P. Anderson. His subject was: "Music In The Air." From his discussion, which was packed to capacity with encouraging information we can clearly see that the farmer who finds his werk inviting and considers the same as a support to his community, his county, his state, and his nation, makes audible the "Music In The Air."

The cooperation of the farmers in Chilton County was and still is appreciated by all concerned. The delegates were as follows: Rev. Bennie Sanders, Ralph Oden, George Parker and wife, J. D. Darby and wife, Otho McKinney, Eli Wilson, Curtis Barbour, R. Varner, G. W. Oden, for Farmers' Conference Day and Marie Williams for one week—Rose V. Lee, Home Economics Teacher; B. T. Whittington, Agricultural Teacher.

BOTH PAINT AND THE PAINTER COST MORE,
BUT THE PRICE OF YOUR ELECTRIC SERVICE
HAS NOT BEEN RAISED!

Until you stop to think of it, you don't think of paint as having anything to do with electric service. But it's a pretty necessary item to help keep your electric service good, because it helps protect the equipment and buildings necessary to supply dependable electric service.

If you've painted your house recently or had other repairs made you know how much the cost has gone up. You know, too, how much higher your living expenses are than before the war.

Our "living expenses" are up too—away up—more than double what they were in 1937 for some items. Even so, the average price of electric service is less than before the war.

Aid To Old Age And Needy In Chilton Shows Decided Increase Over Last Year

Mrs. John W. McKee, director of the Chilton County Department of Public Welfare, made it plain with actual figures this week that more old persons are receiving aid this year than last. While making the report, Mrs. McKee also showed that the aged receiving benefits were also receiving more money.

This is made possible by additional funds made available to the Welfare Department by Governor Folsom and the 1947 Legislature.

Last September there were 548 old persons in the county receiving benefits. Their average monthly check was $18.28.

In December, there were 638 persons receiving aid. Their monthly check was $21.26.

Mrs. McKee stated that more antl more old persons were being aided each month but that sufficient funds to aid all old persons are still not available. She added that they were adding more as funds became available.

Helping the aged is only one of the many functions of the Chilton County Welfare office. They also issue aid to the blind, the handicapper and aid dependent children.

Their aid to dependent children in Chilton county last year reached above $31,000.00, or about one third of the amount which they paid out in old-age benefits.

Next in order, of amount paid out, was to the handicapped. This is aid to blind or those persons physically handicapped that prevents them from providing self-assistance. According to Mrs. McKee, the chief physical disability was heart trouble and high blood pressure. These ranged in ages from sixteen to sixty-four.

Besides the three above listed services rendered by the Welfare Department, they aided the blind, aided children in foster care and gave temporary aid.

Total assistance issued in 1947 amounted to $154,959.42. Of this $36,690.00 was furnished from local county, city and town funds. The state furnished $35,416.23 and the Federal government furnished $95,083.12. The remainder of the cash was disbursed for administration purposes.

The Chilton County Welfare Department is employing seven people at present and are in need of more social workers. The office force in the department is as follows:

Director: Mrs. John W. McKee
Child Welfare: Mrs. Helen B. Vance
Case Workers: Miss Faye Wooley and Miss Martha Plant
Financial Secretary: Mr. A. N. Laurell.
Stenographers: Mrs. Bobby Minor and Miss Jean Messer.

HIGHLAND

Our Sunday School attendance was not so good Sunday, but we had a wonderful lesson.

We missed those who were absent and hope to see everyone of our Sunday School members back at church next Sunday. No one can fill your place for you at your church and neither can anyone take your place when the final day of reckoning comes.

Miss Marietta Hamilton of Alabama college was home for the week end. We were glad to see her at church Sunday a.m.

Everyone keep in mind the singing at Highland the Third Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. We extend a special invitation to all singers and quartets. Everybody has a cordial invitation to come be with us whether you sing or just listen. We hope to have a large crowd.

Sunday school at 10 o'clock and preaching services at 1a.m. next Sunday. All visitors have a hearty welcome to worship with us at any of our ervices.

Miss Julia Nell Parrish, who is taking a pre-medical course at Huntingdon College, was here for several days last week visiting her father and other relatives.

COLLINS CHAPEL SCHOOL

The music recital given by Mrs. Iran Strand at the Collins Chapel School last Friday evening, January 30, was an interesting event in our community.

The performance of all her pupils proved conclusively that they had been well trained and given instructions that not only would be beneficial at the present time but also valuable to them in their days to come.

The pupils were neatly dressed for the time and occasion which added greatly to the attraction of the interesting program.

Many favorable compliments were made by a large number of those present on the value to the school and community, on these exercises.

County Sanitation Is Urged

Electricity has been made available to most of the county through the R.E.A. and the Alabama Power Company. We presume that you will want to take advantage of all the various appliances and labor-saving devices that make life more enjoyable and worthwhile. Included in this would, of course, be water under pressure and modern bathroom fixtures.

Of primary interest to the general public and to the individual family, in particular, is the preservation of health.

We wish to bring to your attention the possbiility of dangers occurring from improper sewage disposal so often encountered through misinformation or misunderstanding, when these dangers are so easily and cheaply avoided.

The proper construction of a septic tank for sewage disposal is of vital importance and contrary to general belief is comparatively cheap to install. It is almost impossible for the average person to install a septic tank properly without it being laid out correctly with the proper elevations, fall, etc. Due to this fact a great number of so-called septic tanks do not give satisfaction.

It is erroneously thought that a metal tank is cheaper than a concrete tank. Most commercial tanks are too small and cannot give satisfaction for long. The smallest tank that we recommend under any conditions is of 650 cubic foot capacity with 150 feet of disposal field.

Our service and supervision during construction costs you nothing. If you are interested in installing a tank, we ask you to contact your County Health Department and we will call on you.

"We Like Our Work"

M. C. (JACK) HAYES

To the Voters of Chilton County:

I would like to announce my candidacy for re-election to the office of Tax Collector and I will, before the primary, have more to say regarding my race.

At this announcement, I would like to state that I told the citizens when I ran before that if elected I would do my best to make you an efficient and capable Tax Collector, and I leave it to the judgment of the people whether or not I have carried out this promise. If you have not had business in my office, then I ask you to inquire of your neighbor who might have, as to whether I have kept this promise. If I am elected I promise you in the future as in the past, that I will continue to do my best to conduct the office in an honest and capable way, and with friendliness and co-operation and a desire to help you at all times in matters that pertain to this office without regard to party affiliation.

It has been my policy in the past, and will be so in the future, if you honor me with this office, to cooperate with other officials but attend to the business of this office and let each other official conduct the affairs of his office in his own way.

I was born in Chilton county and my parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Hayes, have been life-long citizens of Chilton county, and so far as I know, their and my future will be spent here. I have your interest at heart and you will always find me ready and willing to contribute my time, effort and money in anything that tends to the uplift of the material, moral and spiritual welfare of our county.

I ask for your vote and influence, and will appreciate any assistance iiven my candidacy for the office which I seek in the coming Democratic Primary. Sincerely,—M. C. (Jack) Hayes.

ARTiFICIAL INSEMINATION

Last week the county papers published an article on artificial insemination. The Chilton County veterans taking on-the-farm training want to get this program established in our county. Several counties in Alabama have already established this program and it is proving successful. We would like to know how many farmers in Chilton County would be interested in getting this program established. We will need 1,200 cows before establishing this program. We want your opinion before we start. Sit down and write me a letter about your farm and the possibility of br[illegible]ing your cows artificially. We [illegible] like that this program will go over in a big way. Let us know your opinion.—Dave Tingle, Box 453, Clanton.

NEWS FROM

Alabama Mills, Inc.

MRS. B. L. VENABLE, Corres. Phone 116-R

All last week it was very uncomfortable for almost everyone, but while in the mill the employees were about the most comfortable people in the county. Although the mill gets very hot in the summer time the winters are very pleasant. All last week ice was hanging on the mill but inside it was very warm and comfortable. We are very proud of such a nice place to work with the favorable working conditions. I think all the employees have had enough ice and snow to last all the rest of the winter and will be glad to see warmer weather.

We have had several additions to our mill family during the last two or three weeks. We are very glad to have each of them come to work with us and we sincerely hope that they will enjoy the work with the Alabama Mills family. Some of the old employees who have come back are Opal D. Jones, Kattie Lett, Bernice L. [illegible] Annie McCrary, Daisy Payton, and Mary Short, who, I am sure, everyone remembers. We have two employees who have never worked at this mill before. They are Mrs. Thelma Barrett, who comes fro the Cal[illegible] Mill in LaGrange, Ga. She is an experienced spinner. SOCIAL WORKERS NEEDED

Case Workers for County Departments of Public Welfare are needed throughout the State, Mrs. John McKee, Director of Chilton County Welfare Department revealed today. She gave the following explanation of the duties and qualifications of a case worker.

The case worker performs a variety of interesting assignments. He interviews and visits persons seeking public assistance and advice on family or child welfare problem and assists them in determining if and how the agency can be helpful. When indicated, he refers such persons to other public and private agencies which may help in meeting their needs. He also works with other agencies and organizations in developing resources for community betterment.

Employment of case workers must be made according to standards set by the Merit System Council for County Departments of Public Welfare. These positions are open to both men and women. The minimum training which is required is graduation from a college or university approved by accrediting agencies such as the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

If you are interested in a posi[illegible] worker anywhere in the State, Mrs. McKee, suggests that you call [illegible] of the Chilton County Department of Public Welfare located [illegible] the Wade Building.

The County 4-H Club Council met in Clanton Saturday and elected their corp of officers. Johnny Franks of Thomas Junior was elected president; Joyce Ann Simpson of Thomas Junior was elected vice president; Truman Bowles from Verbena and Patricia Ann Strain from Collins Chapel were elected Secretary and Treasurer; James Carl Kendrick from Vermont and Frances Driver from Cooper were elected song leaders; Dorothy Johnson from Stanton was elected reporter. Mr. Albert Broadhead, Principal of Vermont School, was chosen as an honorary council sponsor in recognition of his outstanding 4-H leadership in Vermont School.

The 4-H County Council is composed of 4-H Club officers from the forty-three 4-H clubs located throughout the county.

The county council functions as an advisory body in planning the 4-H activities of the year. At the council meeting 4-H'ers planned their activities for the summer. It was decided that a county wide rally would be held in March and picnics were planned for late July and early August. These summer events provides recreation for rural boys and girls of the county and also give them an opportunity to meet other club members from other schools and sections of the county.

In addition to planning a recreational program, 4-H club boys and girls gave thought and consideration to the activities. Among the major projects that the council felt it was to give special emphasis too were:

1. Increased corn production.
2. Commercial gardening project.
3. Beef and dairy projects.

The 4-H Council has planned their activities and work for the year and it's a pretty safe bet that they can and will make their plan work.

Below are listed the names of 4-H Club officers who attended the 4-H Council meeting:

It cannot be said now that an opportunity for spiritual growth and development is not provided for those who really want to grow in grace and knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ and the word of God.

There is offered at Howard College Center of the First Baptist church of Clanton, three classes in the word of God and the giving of it to others.

These classes begin at 6:15 every Thursday night. The first study i led by our own Pastor, Rev. Roswel Owens, whom God has used gr[illegible] teach this word and reveal th[illegible] hidden treasures in the New [illegible] ment class.

Here you will get food for your soul The second session is led by Dr. Malcop Fuller of Montevallo, who sc ably gives us a very inspiring sermon and feeds our hungry souls with the bread of life. There is no reason to say now that I cannot teach or give a devotional for you have an opportunity to learn how in this session. It is wonderful that Dr. Fuller will drive this far to help us. Let's you and I do our part and make our enrollment larger.

Then there is given this inspiring, fascinating, soul-stirring and thought provoking discussion on "The Lord of the Book". We are the most fortunate of all people to have one who walked the sandy shore of Galilee, drank from Jacob's well, slept on the sandy shore of the balcony, tropical dead sea; who has been to Bagdad, and so high upon the mountains of Lebanon and Ceasena, Phillippi that one had to leave the car and ride the mountain donkey. With the visual aids of the pictures and souveniers they gathered on the way you feel "The Land of the Book" come to life and you are there in the midst of these Arabs and Jews living with them. The satisfaction of that deep yearning in your heart satisfied, as you live again wth Christ among these people.

For the minister of your church you cannot come or is financially unabel to attend in any way, the college has also provided for that. For the ones who wish college credits there is extra work you may choose to take and for the person who wants only his soul satisfaction of the "Living Water" and drink of the water and eat of this bread freely, cope who will—come without money or price. Today the Master needs you to be a more effective witness for him and to serve him in a biggr and better way. One day you will need Him. Will he see fit to answer when you call?

BEAUTIFUL SNOW

Snow! O Snow!
How lovely you look!
You're far more fascinating
Than a good book.

On your beautiful breast
I want to play
With some kind friend
The live-long day.

Ah, when you go,
I shall be sad.
Hurry, dear snowflakes,
Please make me glad.

—LOUISE GOLDEN

Talk this matter over with the Master in prayer before you cast this challenge aside. Can you complacently drift along the stream of life an[illegible] waste your life when you would be [illegible] much happier to surrender to him [illegible] training and service in his kingdom? If we would be profitable servants of Christ we must surrender the things of the world and make Christ the supreme choice?

What will your choice be?

A Call To Prayer For Church Women

You are invited to join all peoples in a fellowship of prayer on the World Day of Prayer, Friday, February 13, 1948, at 3:00 p.m., at the Clanton First Methodist Church.

God will be with us who pray under the shade of His trees; He will be with us in thatch-roofed chapels; in kraals; He will be with us in Cathedrals where upreaching Gothic arches lift us to Him, and He will come in all His beauty to be with us in barren rooms; He will precede us into hospitals and factories and into radio stations. And when the strain of prayer and praise die away on the St. Lawrence Island in the cold Arctic and in the Tonga Islands where the Christian queen, Salote, leads the kneeling hosts, universal prayer will have encircled the world. "We kneel how weak; We rise how full of Power."

Community Concert Friday, February 20

The celebrated young Mexican tenor, Nestor Chayres, is making his first transcontinental concert tour of the United States and Canada this winter, and gives a concert in Clanton Friday evening, February 20th under the auspices of Community Concerts

The dashing young Latin was discovered in Mexico City by Andre Kostelanetz who brought him to the United States and arranged for him to sing in a broadcast with his orchestra. Thus this new concert personality became a favorite overnight.

During the past year Chayres made a triumphant tour of South America and Central America. His fame had preceded him there through a series of radio broadcasts for which he returned to his native Mexico. He also appeared on a series of "Good Neighbor" broadcasts which originated in the United States.

This gifted new concert personality, whose annual Town Hall recitals are popular features of the New York season, has restored the Spanish classics to the popularity they enjoyed in the concert days of Emilia de Gorgoza.

However, Chayres' programs are not confined to music of Hispanic origin. There are many English songs in his recitals an dhe also sings the ariza from favorite French and Italian operas.

Chayres was born in the wild hills of Durango in the northern part of Mexico where his uncle Theodore Chayres was something of a musician as well as a youthful Comrade of Pancho Villa, the legendary Mexican outlaw.

When Theodore discovered that his young nephew could sing he sent him to Mexico City to study at the National Conservatory. There the black-haired country boy became the pupil and ultimately the protege of Castaneros, the great Maxican tenor, now an old man, but had sung at La Scala in Milan.

It was Castaneros who developed the natural artistry of the young singer and taught him the spirit and significance of the songs which were to

'39-'48 Food Prices Compared

(By CLARK HEADLEY)

The News this week dug out a February 16, 1939, issue of the Chilton County News which listed a large grocery advertisement from a leading Clanton grocer.

Prices of foods in the adv. immediately attracted attention and we decided to pass the information, or comparison, on to the readers who may not have this ready comparison.

Here's your comparison with the same store:

	1939	1948
Obelisk Flour, 24 lbs.	$ .95	$2.32
Sugar, 10 lbs.	.47	.96
Lard, 4-lb. ctn.	.35	1.20
Coffee, lb.	.10	.46
Maxwell House, 1 lb.	.27	.57
Luzianne, 1-lb. can	.25	.42
Peanut Butter, 2 lbs.	.21	.59
Pink Salmon, can	.11	.31
Canned Milk 3 lg. cns.	.19	.40
Meats
Sliced Bacon, lb.	.24	.75
Pork Sausage, lb.	.17	.50
Meat Loaf, lb.	.15	.55
Round Steak, lb.	.20	.85
TOTAL	[illegible]	[illegible]

A housewife [illegible] ceries then would have [illegible]. The same bill today, at the same store, would cost her [illegible]. That's quite a difference in living costs.

The News made several calls Wednesday morning and found that corn in Clanton was still selling at $2.00 per bushel and that meal was still retailing at 70 cents per 10 pounds.

On the nation's grain markets this week corn and wheat prices dropped the limit of 10 cents per bushel.

In many sections of the nation the prices on meat products and meat and grain by-products took a small cut in retail prices.

No indication of a decrease in prices has been shown in Clanton as yet.

The only items we could find a price variation was in 100-lb. sacks of shorts. Three different feed stores in Clanton quoted the News three different prices. They were $4.90, $5.00 and $5.10. In other words, a person determined to save a little could save twenty cents on a sack of shorts by shoping a little.

Folsom for President? Huh! Seems we remember a lot of people saying he would never be Governor of Alabama.

Right now is a good time to pick that "good" Commissioner with the county's roads in the shape they are.

This week end Alabama's Weekly newspaper editors is to meet in the "magic" city. No doubt it will be hard for some of our "two-by-four" editors to keep "that tall man" off their conscience they've been lambasting so many years.

Looks as if somebody is going to get beat in the race for County Commissioner of the Third Distrit. There's seven [illegible], announced and canvassing for the job.

Notice how people have made contributions toward rebuilding the Mineral Springs Baptist Church? It just goes to prove that you can't defeat the church.

OPPORTUNITY KEEPS KNOCKING

Chilton County farmers are located in the center of the most densely populated area in Alabama. Within a, sixty-mile radius, easily accessible, dwell nearly one million people. Approximately one-half of these people are engaged in, or dependent upon commerce and industry, and produce or grow very little of what they consume, in way of food.

Birmingham, Montgomery, Selma, Tuscaloosa, Sylacauga, Talladega are all within two hours motor vehicle drive of Chilton County, and within this radius are dozens of smaller towns and villages, filled with people who are dependent upon the farm to supply their "living." These are facts.

Then why shouldn't Chilton County farmers supply this need? They should.

Why aren't they supplying this need? Simply because they are not cooperating intelligently in the planting, growing, harvesting grading preparing and delivering their products to these consumers in the manner in which these consumers want them.

All the preachments of the farm demonstrators, the County Agents, the extension service advisers, the State Agricultural bulletins are worth mighty little unless the farmers themselves are willing to do something about it.

Big storekeepers and litte storekeepers do not send to other states for food products with which to feed these peope because they want to—but because our own farmers do not prepare the same kind of products in the manner which the consumer wants it, and is willing to pay for it.—Chilton County News, 1939.

BETTER MARKETING FOR PRODUCE

Within the past few years Chilton County has become one of the largest growers and producers of produce in the state and one of the largest in the entire South, for that matter. We are the largest growers of peaches in the state, our farmers have always been at the head of the list in watermelon growing, and have ranked close to top in the growing of strawberries. For the past two or three years great emphasis has been put on the farmer to grow tomatoes, beans, peas, roasting-ear early corn and other trucking crops.

The farmers have heeded the call for more truck crops until Chilton County is tops in the state in the growing of fruits and vegetables.

But what about marketing facilities?

For years we've had a pretty good market for strawberries. At times the price received by farmers were not what they thought they should get with the costs of fertilizer and the high cost of living what it is. Many farmers have pulled away from the Strawberry Association at their own choosing and chose to truck their own berries, etc. This naturally weakens any Association. And too, what about the little farmer who has no way of trucking his crop himself?

We have a packing shed for the processing and marketing of peaches. But what about the little farmer with only a few baskets or bushels of peaches? The men at the packing shed won't turn down the big growers to fool with such small quantities. What is his alternative, if he has no way to truck his own fruit? His only alternative is to let a middle man take the profits that rightly belong to him as a grower.

Our County Agent and staff and extension advisers have done a great job in teaching farmers how to grow truck crops — planting, fertilization, insect control, cultivation, etc. But what are they to do with the crop after it is grown.

It seems to us that more emphasis should be put on securing better marketing facilities within the coming years. Either we should attract more buyers into this section or we should revise or form marketing groups or associations in the county.

This is a serious thought with all farmers in the county. It is deserving of the thoughts of our farm leaders, business men and civic groups in the county.

What do you think?

FOLKS & THINGS

ABOUT TOWN

-By BEN

Did you hear about the drunk the other night who was driving down the highway and the ditch turned and ran in front of his car? He said on crawling out of the wreck and looking around: "Gee, I must have hit it pretty hard. I knocked it back where it belonged."

There are eight candidates running for Commissioner of the Third District. Our advice is to elect all eight of them. From what we have learned of the conditions of the roads after all this bad weather it will take all eight of them to put the roads back in condition again.

A couple of Swindles have come to Clanton. Now that was a cutting remark, we know, but you see the Mr. Swindle is a barber. He is running the Ideal Barber Shop. The other one is employed here at the News office. The new couple comes to Clanton from Birmingham and we welcome them to Chilton County. We believe folks here are going to like this fine young couple.

Howard Roper announced last week for the office of Tax Collector. He told us to run his announcement and picture but we couldn't find the cut of his likeness, so we forgot to run the announcement too. Natcherly. We do apologize though. And to show we are in earnest we are running the news this week.

Abney Brown of Maplesville and Archie L. Dennis of Verbena Route One, are the two new members of the "District Three Commish Club." There are eight members so far and will be until about May fourth. At that time probably six will resign because of insuffient "dues" and then one of the two remaining members will get disgusted and quit about June 1st. We still say, however, good luck to each and every candidate and may the best man win.

In the article published two weeks ago by Mr. Bob Holley there was an error. Mr. Holley stated that while he was with the Tennessee Valley authority there were 12,000 to 25,000 men working under his direction. What he intended to say was 1,200 to 2,500. Mr. Holley asked that we make this correction.

Miss Ada Bennett, manager at Johnson's Fashion Shop, will have to explain this. The other night at closing time we saw her going home with a small electric heater in hand. You know, the kind with a handle. Well, there's nothing strange about that—but, we drove around and stopped at the post office to send the afternoon mail and we saw Mrs. Grace Connell going down the walk with a small electric heater in hand. You know, the kind with a handle. Mrs. Connell works at the Johnson's Fashion Shop, too, and doggone it, we're still wondering about this heater business. It's got us all heated up.

He couldn't speak before a crowd, He couldn't teach a class,
But when he came to S.S., he brought the folks "en masse."
He couldn't sing to save his life; In public, couldn't pray.
But always his "jalopy" was just crammed on each Lord's Day.
And though he could not sing, nor teach, nor lead in prayer
He listened well, he had a smile, and he was always there—
With all the others whom he brought,
who lived near and far—
And God's work prospered for he had a consecrated car!

Letters To The Editor,

(EDITOR'S NOTE — Letters to the editor are always appreciated. Please try and make them as short as possible, legibly written and be sure they are signed by the writer)

Clanton, Alabama.
February 8, 1948.

I just want to say a few words about the election coming up this Spring. It seems like when a man gets elected in this county, when he takes charge, a member of his own family moves in and has a job as long as his term lasts. Keep it all in the family. Of course, we folks are mighty fine who do the voting til the election is past. How about hunting up a young man or woman who put 30 or 40 months in that Hell across the seas?

As for my own son, who enlisted and stayed through it, all of it, he already has a job.—R. F. Atkinson, Rt. 3, Clanton.

The Jews return to Palestine. Will they rebuild the Temple on Solomon's foundation? No, the Meads and Persian Kings took care of this 2,500 years ago. They did not have any trouble. That land was desolate. No inhabitants there for 70 years. The Temple was burned B. C. 600. They returned B. C. 530, in the first year of Cyrus. That was the two tribes and in the 7 years of Artaxerxs the 10 tribes returned 457 B. C. Daniel's prophecy of 70 weeks starts 70 weeks of years. 40-B. C., 457 and it runs to the cruxifixion of Christ A. D. 33. The time decreed to the Jews after they returned and built the Temple. The second time it was burned 670 years later by Rome A. D. 70.

Did the United Nations help any when they voted to patrol Palestine? No, war started there then. Yes, a sign appearing in the East, reaching all the way to the West. Yes they call for the Nobles but there won't be any there and all her Princes shall be nothing and the Stremer shall be turned into pitch. And the dust shall burn with brimstone. This is the latter day of the Gentile Age and not the Jews. All nations as include the earth is defied under the inhabitants because they have transgressed the law, changed the ordinances, broke the everlasting covenant.

Come near ye nations to hear and hearken, ye people, let the earth and all that is therein, the world and all things that come forth of it for the indignation of the Lord is upon all nations and his fury upon all their armies. He has utterly destroyed them, he hath delivered them to the slaughter. Their slain also shall be cast out and their stink shall come up out of their carcass. And the mountains shall be melted with their blood. The sword of the Lord is filled with blood for my sword shall be bathed in Heaven.

The earth is utterly broken down. The earth is clean dissolved. The earth is moved exceedingly. The earth shall reel to and fro like a drunkard and shall be removed like a cottage and the transgression shall be heavy up on it. And it shall fall and not rise again. And it shall come to pass in that day that the Lord shall punish the host of the high ones that are on high and the Kings of the earth upon the earth.

TO CONTROL COTTON INSECTS

Based on research data now available, W. A. Ruffin, API extension entomologist, said that three materials will be recommended this year for control of cotton insects in Alabama. These are (1) calcium arsenate and calcium arsenate with two per cent nicotine in alternate applications; (2) 20 per cent chlorinated camphene; (3) three per cent Gama benzene hexachloride plus five per cent DDT. He says that farmers should purchase about 60 pounds of one of these materials for each acre of cotton to be dusted.

GOOD PLANTING SEED WILL BE HARD TO GET

Auburn, Ala. — Good planting seed of most crops are going to be scarce this spring, farmers were told this week by agronomists of the Alabama Extension Service.

Warning was given that corn, cotton, soybean, sorghum and peanut seeds should be secured at once. "To delay in getting these may mean failure to find good seeds later," the agronomists stated.

Careful farmers, they added, will check bag tags for germination, purity and noxious weed content.

By all means raise 1948 chicks away from the hen flock. This one practice will reduce the mortality in the pullet flock by 50 per cent during first year of production.

2 Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.

MONTGOMERY, ALA.— Commissioner Loula Dunn, State Welfare Department, disclosed last week that her department made assistance payments that averaged $20.20 to 78,297 Alabamians during the month of December. The public assistance involved a total expenditure of $1,581,940.

CAREFUL BUYING CUTS FOOD BILL

Auburn, Ala. — Housewives can do much to meet today's high cost of living by careful buying. This is especially true in the case of food items, believes Mary Hulsey, API extension foods specialist.

She says buying habits may be easily changed with little or no change in food value, variety, or attractiveness of meals.

"Too often we are guilty of buying the quality that the grocer recommends as 'best,' without giving thought to the way we plan to use the particular product in our meals. The way a food is to be used should be the determining factor as to what you buy.

"Standard grades of canned foods are just as good for stews, puddings and other cooked dishes as the fancy or choice grades. They are a few cents cheaper. Home-cooked cereals instead of ready-to-eat kinds save money and also give us more food value," she said.

DON'T BURN

Farmers who burn cotton and corn stalks and other crop residues apparently don't realize that they are destroying considerable amounts of plant food and organic matter.

A speck of salt added to cream helps in whipping.

PLANT RIGHT HYBRID FOR HIGHER CORN YIELD

Farmers are going to shoot for high corn yields this year, but will steer clear of untried hybrid seed.

"While good hybrids pay, one not suited to your section may cut corn yields severely," J. C. Lowery, API extension agronomist, explained to growers. Use hybrids or open-pollinated varieties which have been tested by the Alabama Experiment Station, he said. County agents have latest information on the best corn to plant.

Successful corn growers prepare a good seed bed, fertilize well at planting, and side dress with nitrogen. Lowery suggested that a few acres of one of the early hybrids be planted for hogs to graze.

This is the year to make best use of winter legumes because nitrogen for side dressing probably will be scarce, the agronomist advised. He added, "Watch winter legumes and turn them on time. But be sure to let them make enough growth to pay you."

Never move the iron to and fro when ironing net, lace, veilings and loosely woven fabrics of thick and thin threads. To avoid tearing these delicate fabrics, it is best to press directly down on them and lift iron with each stroke. A pressing cloth should also be used.

SAVE THAT EXTRA PIG TO GET MEAT, PROFIT

An extra pig saved in every litter, would put thousands of dollars in Alabama farm pockets and give more meat to the world's hungry.

The average number of pigs saved per litter in Alabama is now six. "If we could save that seventh one, we would save 100 pounds of feed," explains G. B. Phillips, API extension hog specialist.

More pigs are born in March than in any other month. The best day's work the hog producer can do, believes Phillips, is to be on hand when they are born. Pigs, from birth to 75 pounds in weight, need more tankage mixture than at any other period. "Give the brood sow with suckling pigs plenty of tankage mixture, mineral mixture, and loose salt, all fed dry," Phillips suggested to growers.

Joe Thompson, 38-year old solicitor of Butler, Ala., disclosed last week that he would be a candidate for Congress from the First District in the Democratic primaries this Spring.

Thompson is the first to announce is made up of Choctaw, Clarke, Mofor office, which is now held by Hon. Frank W. Boykin. The First District bile, Marengo, Monroe, Washington, and Wilcox Counties.

GROWERS COMPLETING WINTER ORCHARD WORK

Farmers who have fruit trees are finishing up the pruning and spraying jobs.

Best growers first remove all broken or diseased wood then cut the remaining limbs so as to get the tree shape desired, reports Lyle Brown, API extension horticulturist. Pruning from the orchard should be burned to help keep down diseases.

Peach, apple pear and plum trees need a dormant spray before growth starts in the spring says Brown. A factory-prepared oil emulsion (66 2-3 per cent oil) is recommended. Apples and pears need a second spray just as the pink color begins to show in the bloom buds. For this Brown says to use concentrated liquid lime-sulphur solution one pint to five gallons of water.

Do not leave frozen meat (especially pork) in storage over six months if possible for the sale may make the meat become rancid.

KUDZU

Kudzu plantings should be completed in March. For best results, set crowns immediately after they are dug. When it isn't possible to do this, keep crowns moist and protected from cold until they are [illegible]

Wise Planning Gives Higher Farm Income

March is the most critical month of the year because of many choices Alabama farmers must make in getting set for 1948 crops.

These choices include crops to be planted, livestock to be raised, supplies for the year, labor arrangements, and many other items, explained A. W. Jones, API extension marketing specialist.

"Prices you have paid for supplies are important and prices you get for products sold are also important. However, the most important thing is the difference between the two—what is left as a return for your labor and profit," Jones reminded farmers in urging economical production. Wise planning now will pay off in greater net income, he added.

"More cattle in Alabama are lost due to lack of proper winter feeding than from all other causes together," W. H. Gregory, API extension livestock specialist. revealed this week.

To prevent malnutrition, Gregory urges that cattle be fed cottonseed meal or other concentrate feed now. Usually two pounds of meal a day to supplement roughage will be enough to carry animals until grazing is available.

ALABAMA * * * * HIGHLIGHTS

Still standing about five miles from Farill, Alabama is the Sam Lawrence House, where Union Col. Abel D. Streight surrendered his command of 1,400 Federals to Gen. Nathan Bedford Forrest and his 300 Confederate calverymen.

The story goes that the surrender came on May 3, 1863 after Forresa and his men had been in hot pursuit of Col. Streight for over 150 miles. When the Yankee officer came within sight of the Lawrence House, he drew his 1,400 men up to make a stand, but his men were so tired from the chase that many of them began to fall asleep at their guns. Col. Streight had imagined all the time that Forrest was in command of a large Rebel force, and when the Confederate general ordered his men to ride around the Union troops and make all the noise possible for 300 men to make, Col. Streight became convinced that he was heavily outnumbered and immediately accepted Gen. Forerst's terms of surrender.

During his march, in November of 1813, to attack the Creek village of Holy Ground in Lowndes County, General F. L. Claiborne established a deposit for supplies in the southern portion of the county. Here he left his wagons, canon, baggage and a number of his sick troops, while he continued his march on the Creeks. Claiborne's depository came later to be known as Ft. Deposit.

In 1824, Congress authorized the building of an arsenal near Mt. Vernon. The arsenal was occupied by U. S. Troops until 1861 when it was seized by Alabama troops under order of Gov. A. B. Moore. After the Civil War, the U. S. Army took over again, and during the early eighties, Geronimo and his band of Apache Indians were held in the arsenal's pallisade as punishment for their murderous activities in the West. In 1895, Congress turned the installation over to the State for public purposes, and it has since become the State Hospital for Negro Insane.

Although the Federal Fleet that plowed into Mobile Bay on August 5, 1864 consisted of the flagship Hartford, the heavily armoured steamer sloops Brooklyn, Richmond, Lakeawanna, Monongahela, Ossipe and Oneida, the gun boats, Metacomet, Octavia, Port Royal, Seminole, Kennebec, Itasco, Balena and the monitor Tecumseh, the Union losses numbered 172 killed and 170 wounded as a result of the battle with the Confederate Fleet, composed of the wooden gunboats Selma, Morgan and Gaines, and the armoured sloop Tennessee. The Confederates listed 10 as lost and 16 wounded.

Washington County, the oldest in Alabama, was created by a proclamation of Gov. Winthrop Sargent of the Mississippi Territory on June 4, 1800. At the time it was established as a county, it's boundaries embraced all the country between the Chattachoochee and Pearl Rivers and the 31st parallel on June 4, 1800. At the time it was established as a county, its boundaries embraced all the country between the Chattahochee and Pearl Rivers and the 31st parallel on the South and the 28th parallel on the North.

Alabama is the only state in the Union, which by legislative enactment, has proclaimed Thomas Jefferson's birthday, April 13, a legal holiday.

Inoculate Calves Against Blackleg

If all Alabama cattle were inoculated for blackleg, farmers would get a far higher income from livestock.

This is the opinion of W. H. Gregory, API extension livestock specialist, who explains that this disease kills many cattle each year and costs farmers thousands of dollars. Treat calves when they are about six months old, and again a year later.

Gregory suggests that while cattle are being vaccinated, the dehorning and castrating should be completed. Choose clear, dry weather for these jobs.

When a newborn pig dies, 100 lbs. of feed are lost. The average number of pigs saved per litter in Alabama is six. Saving an average of one extra pig a litter this Spring would mean more meat and more income for farmers.

Use mild soapsuds and lukewarm water when washing leather gloves. An easy way to do it is to put the gloves on and then wash them like the hands lathering the entire surface and washing the finger tips carefully with a soft brush.

Quality Truck Crops Bring Higher Profit

The quality of truck crops to be sold next Summer depends upon the production job done during planting and growing seasons.

Planting good seed on the right type of properly prepared soil is the first step in getting quality produce, states John Bagby, API extension fruit and vegetable specialist. Use the correct kind and amount of fertilizer and cultivate crops when they need it. Control of diseases and insects is another job which the specialist said must be given careful attention.

By producing better quality crops, farmers will meet less competition on the market and make higher profits, Bagby added.

Terracing Shores To Get Attention

Farmers are putting terracing work on the list of important jobs to be done during the next few weeks.

Terraces need to be checked for needed repairs, then maintained to get a cross section channel capacity of from 10 to 12 feet, experienced farmers agree. The capacity is obtained by plowing out the channel to the desired width. J. B. Wilson, API extension engineer says a double operation may be necessary. The first job will be to plow up the ridge and then to plow out the channel in the second operation.

Begin Early To Give Old Clothes '48 Look

Last year's Spring wardrobe must undergo some drastic changes to give it the 1948 look, so begin planning early.

That's a word of advice to homemakers from Levice Ellis, API extension clothing specialist. The renovation will call for shopping for new fabrics to combine with the old garment to give it length and width, she says.

The old wardrobe can be modernized with new accessories, but these will be less "gadgety" than ever before. Tips from Miss Ellis were:

(1) Hats for spring have large, medium, or no brim, but are definitely off-the-face.

(2) Shoes have heels and toes closed. Heels are slimmer to go with new longer skirts.

(3) Stockings are going to be in lighter shades for spring and many will be seamless.

(4) Handbags are taking a more definite shape, entirely away from the gathered, pouchy type.

On these mens' shoulders rests the main responsibility of operation of our schools, for the interest of the future citizenship of our boys and girls. Director Bert Thomas Doing Great Job For You In Conservation Dept.

If you ever hunt or fish, if you like boating, if you [illegible] of Alabama's public [illegible] areas, or if you merely [illegible] terest in Alabama's developing tourist business, you are indebted to Alabama's Department of Conservation and its director Bert Thomas more than you know

If you're a landowner with part of your land devoted to forests, or if you're interested in wildlife conservation, or if you like Alabama oysters, this Department of Conservation is working for you.

Most hunters know something about this department; at least they know that they have to have a license to hunt. But department activities go much further than requiring hunting licenses. Hardly a person in Alabama is not affected in some way by these varied activities.

Our state has some 18 million acres of forest land. More than 11 million are being given intensive forest fire protection and the remaining 7 million are being given preliminary protection. Alabafa is the second state in the South to give statewide fire protection.

At present there are 97 forest lookout towers in operation, connected by more than 1650 miles of telephone lines. Fourteen more towers are under construction, and 38 more towers are planned for this year. Fire protection has reduced fire loss from 34 percent of total forest land down to less than 5 per cent annually. A goal of about 1 per cent has been set.

The protection of Alabama's forests is only one service. Eight state parks are operated during the summer for overnight guests and for those wishing longer vacations These include Gulf State Park, in Baldwin County (which is also op during the winter months), Desoto, Monte Sano, Chewacla, Fort Morgan, Cheaha, Oak Mountain, a Valley Creek. These parks offer living quarters, swimming and boating facilities, and other recreational services. This reporter has been to three of the parks and can vouch for their beauty and for the pleasure to be derived from them.

Game wardens are not working o prevent you and me from having our fun. There are now 72 wardens, and plans include the employment of 8 more. These men are trying to make it possible for every hunter to have his share of fun and his legitimate bag. In Alabama, as in every other state, if hunters were permitted to take all they could kill at any time of the year, in a few years there would be no more hunting. Alabama's game wardens are protecting our sport.

DIRECTOR BERT THOMAS

Do you enjoy good fresh oysters? Then you can thank the Department of Conservation. It has planted 15,000 barrels of seed oysters in the waters of Mobile and Bon Secour Bays and in other producing areas. Also, it has placed 20,000 barrels of oyster shells in suitable areas for the oyster spawn to cling to.

It's impossible to tell the story of this department in these few words. But future Alabamians will receive many dividends, both in better sports and recreation and in actual dollar savings, from the work of the Department of Conservation and its director, Bert Thomas.

SEED STUDY BENEFITS ALL STATE FARMS

By A Staff Reporter

If you're a lifetime city dweller like this reporter, you may have thought that when a farmer wanted to plant his crop he merely bought the seed and put it in the ground. If so, then you have never heard of the Seed Testing Laboratory operated by the State Department of Agriculture and Industry. If you are a farmer, you already know all about this fine service.

"As you sow, so shall you reap" is a proverb adopted by the Seed Testing Lab. The State law reads that seed must be described as to variety, germination, and amount of weed seeds included. The Seed Testing Lab protects the planter by carrying out this law. If you buy seed from an Alabama dealer, you can be certain that the seed in that store has been tested twice in the past year. If you buy your seed by mail from another state, you may send a sample of it to the lab for a test, without cost to you.

Suppose we follow a batch of seed through the test. An inspector drops into a seed store one day and gets samples of every seed in the store. The dealer signs a statement that his stock is being tested. At the lab proper identification papers are made out and the sample goes to the germination division. Here, several samples are placed in proper condition, as nearly like those of actual planting as possible, to see how many will sprout. The percentage is figured and checked against the claim on the seed package. Then the seed goes on to someone who sorts out all noxious weed seeds and figures the proportion of such weed seeds in the sample.

This information is finally sent to the dealer, or to the farmer who sent in the seed. The dealer is requird to correct any misbranded labels. Such constant testing means that Alabama farmers know what they are buyng when they buy seed. Instead of planting seed which is half dead, they can know that they are using seed which should give them a certain stated stand.

* * *

For the city dweller there is this [illegible] ed thought: When the Alabama farmer prospers, so do we.

POOR GARDENS CAUSED BY FOUR WEAKNESSES

How does your garden grow? If not so good, maybe you'd better check to make sure it isn't falling into the four big weaknesses in vegetable growing listed by API Extension Gardener J. C. Ford.

The weak points are failure to use enough fertilizer, not making enough plantings during the year, waiting too late to make the early spring and early fall plantings, and not enough attention to control of pests. "Any of these can cause garden failure, yet all can be avoided by good gardeners," said Ford.

Robert Cleere is holding a sprout as he and Mrs. George Williamson count the number of seeds which have properly germinated in each sample. (Lower) H. L. PERRY COUNTY LETS BONDS TO GET HOSPITAL

The hospital-construction program in Alabama has received substantial impetus from recent action of voters, Dr. D. G. Gill, State Health Officer, pointed out today.

"Perry County voters approved a $60,000 bond issue for the construction of 20-bed hospital in Marion, while similar action was taken by the voters of Dale County on a proposal to authorize a $100,000 bond issue for a new hospital in Ozark," he said. "The citizens of DeKalb County voted approximately five to one in favor of a constitutional amendment authorizing a four-mill special tax for retirement of bonds which it is proposed to sell to meet the county's share of the total cost of construction and for the cost of operation. The county election must still be held to vote the bond issue, but indications are that the majority vote will favor it."

All three hospitals are expected to be constructed under the terms of the Hill-Burton Act, under which local communities may obtain one-third of the total cost of non-profit hospitals and health centers from the Federal government. The 1947 Legislature made a conditional appropriation to enable such communities to receive up to one-third of the total cost of hospitals from the state. Both Dale and Perry counties have requested state funds for this purpose. These funds are to be made available only if, in the Governor's opinion, there is a sufficiently large surplus in the state treasury to permit such an outlay.

FREEZING SAUSAGE

The easiest method of freezing bulk sausage is to shape it into a three-inch roll, wrap with cellophane paper, and fold the ends of the cellophane paper to make an air-tight package. A second wrapping is necessary to protect the cellophane paper.

T. A. (Abney) Brown Writes Voters

To the Voters of Chilton County:

I would like to announce my candidacy for election as County Commissioner of the Third District of Chilton County, Alabama, subject to the action of the Democratic Primaries of May and June, 1948.

At this announcement, I would like to present my qualifications for the position of County Commissioner. An alumnus of the University of Alabama, I served with the Alabama State Highway Department for ten years in all phases of location, construction and maintenance of state highways. I joined the State Highway Department in 1932 and advanced to Assistant Materials Engineer when on February 9, 1942, I secured a leave of absence to enlist in the Third Naval Construction Battalion (3rd Sea Bee Battalion). While in service, I was engaged in construction work in the South Pacific until receiving my discharge on September 28, 1945.

I have been in the hardware business with my brother in my home town of Maplesville since leaving the service.

I was born in Chilton County 38 years ago and my parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Brown, have been life-long citizens of the county. So far as I know, their and my own family's future will be spent here. I have your interest and welfare at heart, and you will always find me ready and willing to contribute my time, effort and money in anything which will advance our county along a path of happiness and prosperity.

It will be my policy if you honor me with this office to co-operate with other county officials, but attend to the business of my office and let each other official transact the affairs of his office as he sees fit. If I am elected I promise that I will conduct the office in an honest and capable way and with a desire to be of assistance to you at all times in matters that pertain to my office without regard to party affiliation.

I ask for your vote and influence, and will appreciate any assistance given my candidacy for the office which I seek in the coming Democratic Primary. Sincerely, T. A. (Abney) Brown.

Farmers Warned To Buy Only Best Grade Chicks, For Profits

Farm Income Can Be Supplemented By Growing Broilers

With the establishment of the poultry processing cooperative at Montgomery, broilers may be the means through which farmers may supplement their farm income. Poultry, particularly broiler projects, have met with failure in too many cases. Possibly the greatest single reason for this is the fact that a would-be poultryman fails to realize that raising chickens is a very exacting work, requiring careful thought and planning Because broiler producers operate on a narrow margin of profit per bird, a few mistakes may mean the loss of a major part of the investment to say nothing of making a profit.

Anyone who has never produced broilers should not start with a large number of chicks. It is not necessary that a person learn the fundamentals of raising chickens the hard way. In the event that experience results in high mortality of the first brood, there will be a loss in direct porportion to the number of chicks involved. The larger the number of chicks the greater the loss will be.

Before placing an order for chicks, thought and consideration should be given to the housing facilities that are available. Each chick requires ½ square feet of floor space per bird for the first month. When chicks are not given sufficient space they start feathering, picking, and disease invariably breaks out.

The job of buying chicks is just as important as the job of feeding and managing. As a general rule "bargain chicks are bad chicks." Anyone buying chicks from a hatchery other than those following the national poultry improvement plan is inviting trouble. By patronizing a reliable hatchery, the chances of buying chicks infected with pullorum are minimized. Pullorum is a disease that works when chicks are from 1-3 weeks of age. There is no control for this disease after it breaks out and when it strikes mortality may go as high as sixty per cent.

Before chicks arrive the brooder house should be warmed to the proper temperature. Chicks that are put in a cold house often pile up and smoother each other to death in trying to keep warm. If birds are uniformly scattered over the floor and do not crowd up near the source of heat or as far as possible from it if the temperature is about correct.

Sanitation is another very important factor in keeping mortality down. When feeders, waters or the house itself is allowed to become dirty, coccidiosis breaks out affecting birds from 3-12 weeks of age. This may be controlled to a certain extent but it is far better to prevent it.

If good chicks are bought to start with and the house and equipment is kept clean it is unlikely that birds will die from infectious disease.

Feeding brings up other problems and among the problems that arise, we find nuritional disease. These diseases do not spread as does coccidiosis even though they may affect practically every bird, giving the appearance of an infectious disease. If birds are fed a good quality feed these diseases are rare. Usually nutritional diseases occur when poultrymen try to economize by feeding confined birds on a straight grain ration. Feeding chicks is not a difficult job, but it is a every day job that must be carried out systematically.

Poultry, particularly broilers, can be added to most any farming operation in the country with the expectation of supplementing the farm income. However if a person does not plan to devote the required time and study to the undertaking, a loss rather than a profit can be expected. The old saying, "you can't get more out of anything than you put into it," certainly applies to poultry. Chickens do not offer an easy way to make money. They simply offer another way.

YOU NEED A GOOD GARDEN

Every family in Chilton County will need a good garden in 1948. NOW is time to start that garden.

Food is more scarce now than you might think. If your grocery bill has been unusually high recently, you know that food is scarce.

There are several things that you need to do during February if you want to have a good garden this year. The first thing that should be done in the garden is to prepare the soil. Break the ground well, as soon as it is dry enough. Then harrow it with a section harrow or a disc. After this is completed lay-off the rows and put a heavy application of manure in the furrows. Very few people put enough manure in a garden. Put ten pounds or one gallon of 6 8 4 or 4 10 7 per 100 foot row, plus ten pounds of basic slag or lime per 100 foot row except where Irish potatoes are to be planted. Leave the slag or lime out where you plan to grow Irish potatoes. Add one tablespoon full of borax to each ten punds of complete fertilizer if your turnips and beets have been discolored inside. Don't use borax under English peas.

When the fertilizer has been completed, bed the rows and allow the ground to settle well before planting begins.

Check your garden seed and see that you have a good supply of desirable varieties of seed. Buy new seed, don't take a chance on old seed.

The following is a list of vegetables that should be planted in February: Beets (Detroit Dark Red), Cabbage (Wakefield), Carrots (Chantenry), Lettuce (Grand Rapids), English peas (Alaska), Radish (Scarlet Glob), and Turnip (Purple Top).

Ask your dealer, that handles derris and other insecticides, to stock derris with 1% Rotenone in it. A good substitute for derris is Sabadilla 20%. Be careful using DDT in the garden. Don't spray it on the parts of the plant you plan to eat.

Other detailed information on gardening can be secured at the County Agents' office upon your request.

JULIUS SMITH WRITES VOTERS

Dear Friends:

I am sure most of you have already seen my announcement in your County papers.

I am a candidate for the office of Tax Assessor, subject to the action of the Democratic Election to be held May 4th of this year, and I am earnestly asking each and everyone of you for your support in this election.

I have contacted many of you already, and I am very much pleased with the encouragement you have given me. It is my intentions to personally contact every voter in this County, and of course that will take some time as it is a pretty big county.

Now, friends, I have never held a public office, but I am sure that almost every voter in this County knows me.

I have spent my entire life here and have served the public most of the time for the past 25 years, and my duties have carried me over this County many times.

I resigned from my job last December 31st, and I am devoting my full time to this campaign, just as I will devote my full time to the duties of this office if I am elected as your Tax Assessor.

I do not have any other business or outside interests, and will at all times be ready to serve you, if I am elected

I will always be ready and willing to cooperate with other officials of the county in any matters that will be for the upbuilding and making this a better county in which to live. — JULIUS E. SMITH, Clanton, Ala.

SOIL CONSERVATION NEWS

Chilton county farmers, who have sericea that has old growth or a high stubble, should begin now to get it off. C. E. Stapp, C. R. Childress, Nolan Smitherman, R. O. Williams, W. A. Williams and E. B. Spivey have completed this job. Thir job should be done before sericea starts growing and before other jobs start. In doing this the first cutting of hay will be clean.

Soil Conservation Service workers ran terrace lines this week on S. D. and O. A. Posey's farms. This amounted to about fifty acres. The terraces will be built with a tractor and disc plow.

According to Ralph H. Allen, State Department of Conservation, Montgomery, Ala. Lespedeza bi-color seed will be very scarce. There will, however, be a considerable number of plants available. If you have planned to establish a wild life border and want some plants, please let us know immediately. The plants will arrive here about the first of March.

A. E. Smith and Hillery J. Boulton were in the office this week. They both make this statement, "I am ready for you to stake out my meadows." "I want to get the job behind me."

Seven thousand pine seedlings were distributed to the following cooperators this last week: A. B. Jones 3,000. O. A. Posey 2,000 and R. E. Wilkins 2,000.

Theodore Burnett of Collins Chapel has harvested some good black locust fence posts. These locusts were set out several years ago by the old CCC Camp.

Soil and water conervation farm plans were prepared last month on Clifton Jones, G. W. Sessions, Richard Duren and R. E. Ayler.

Chilton Farmers Members Of 100-Bu. Corn Club; Wear Pin

Two 4-H Club boys and one adult farmer have become members of Alabama's hundred bushel club. Leo Headley of Mt. Pisgah Community and Fred Popwell of Thomas Jr. Community are the 4-H boys who are entitled to wear the new club pin. Leo's yield of 108 bushels per acre was the highest yield in the county followed by Fred Popwell and L. L. Traywick of Clanton with yields of 100 bushels.

The new initiated club members attended a banquet in Auburn Saturday given in the honor of 100 bushel club members from over the State. There are at the present 47 members in the state. Tuscaloosa County was represented by four members, had the largest number of members of any county. Chilton ran near top with 30 members.

To be a member of the hurdred bus hel club is quite an accomplishment. Anyone can make a fair yield of corn, but yields of 100 bushels are rare

Mr. Traywick's yield of slightly better than 100 bushels was made without side dressing of commercial nitrate. By planting blue [illegible] as a cover crop and using 500 pounds of 4-10-7 under the corn it was possible to make this outstanding yield

Any of the new 100 bushel club members will be glad to tell you the secrets of making qualifying yields: 1. Cover crops; (2) Fertilizer; (3) Thick spacing; (4) shallow cultivation.

Chilton County would have had [illegible] or ten members instead of three if some of the other growers had left more corn on the ground It will be safe to say that Chilton County will be represented by new members as some of the 4-H boys are getting ready now to boost their yields that were just short of the qualifying yields this year.

Whenever you see the minature gold ear of corn with "100" on it you are looking at one of Chilton County's charter "100" bushel club members.

Cover a worn-out wash cloth with some gay print material and stitch across it on the sewing machine several time. This makes an attractive pot-holder.

Free Ride For You— on the Freedom Train!

We had a real thrill in Our Town just the other day—when the Freedom Train stopped by!

You've heard about it, of course—an actual train that's touring the country to remind us again what true Democracy means. It carries such Americana as the Declaration of Independence, the Bill of Rights, and other immortal documents that guarantee every citizen his liberty.

A great idea! And from where I sit, we're all riding along with that Freedom Train—right now —by living in a country that protects our individual liberties—whether they apply to our right to vote, to choose our church, to speak our minds, or enjoy a glass of beer with friends.

Only thing is—we've got to prove ourselves worthy of the ride . . . by guarding zealously against whatever forces of intolerance encroach upon our American concepts of live-and-let-live, in a free and strong Democracy!

Following his first nationwide broadcast with Mr. Kostelanetz, Chayres gave his first New York recital in Town Hall during which he stirred calm first-nighters to shouts of praise.

NESTOR CHAYRES

A short concert tour of the United States followed and then he made a triumphant tour of South America.

In addition to Mr. Kostelantz' programs, Chayres has been heard on the International Harvest broadcast and the Philco Hour.

Chayres is 32 years old and a bachelor. He lives in a mid-town hotel in New York, not far from Central Park, in which a daily walk around the reservoir is his only exercise in a busy schedule of lessons, rehearsals, recordings and concerts.

F. C. Coppicus, has manager, was the manager as Caruso.

Chayres first learned to sing operatic arias he heard on an old fashioned phonograph with a horn. He was ten when he started. He can learn a song in 20 minutes and speaks Spanish, Italian, French and English.

Morrison's Record Bar Proving Very Popular

Mrs. Ralph Morrison, of Morrison's Furniture Company, is the proprietress of that firm's popular record bar. Mrs. Morrison has hundreds of records of eveything from the best in hillbilly and popular numbers to boogie-woogies and classical and semi-classical numbers. And she adds that she orders records for customers when she does not have the selection desired. This is a sort of a new business in Clanton and she is very proud of it's success. If you want a record, any kind of a record, see Mrs. Morrison at Morrison's Furniture Compasy.

Let's Compare Those Prices With 1932 . . .

Last week the News ran a comparison of present day prices as compared with those of 1938. It created quite a bit of interest and the News was asked to run a comparison of present prices with those of 1932.

	1932	1948
Suger, 10 lbs.	.43	1.00
Flour, 24-lbs.	.48	2.55
Lard, 4-lbs.	.25	1.25
Coffee, 2 lbs	.25	1.00
Steak, lb.	.15	.85
Pork & Beans, large can	.05	.19
Meal, 10-lbs	.13	.70

That's quite a jump in the madam's grocery bill, isn't it? But, who wants Hoover days again?

Archie L. Dennis Writes To Voters

ARCHIE L. DENNIS

Probably by now most every voter of Chilton County has read or heard of eight running for Commissioner of the Third District of Chilton County, Alabama, the election of May and June, 1948, in the Democratic Primary.

I am asking the voters of this county which I will try to see all in person, for their support for said office should the voters see fit to honor me with office of Commissioner. My policy will be as I state: To render my service as Commissioner to each and every one with a smile and pleasure of assurance of dependability as far as reason to all regardless of politics; no special favors to special groups.

Let's have a nice, clean primary in which every American should be proud of—as you are part of it. According to official reports we have machinery sufficient to do an adequate job if properly used between the Commissioners through unity. which will benefit the public. I find the Commissioners that I have talked to agreeable in regard to same which is a great factor in progress to better roads for our progressive county.

I feel that I am known by many the county over. I am 35 years old, live on my farm near Enterprise school, nine miles southwest of Clanton, married and have two children of school age. My father is Joe Dennis of the same community, better known as (Uncle Joe). I have lived practically all of my life in Chilton County, where I hope to remain permanently. If elected, I will show my enthusiasm and devote my time to said office to the full extent of reason. I have lived a honest, clean life which I am not afraid for any one testing out for themselves from any reliable source, which I am justly proud. I am proud of Chilton County. Let's make it a better county in which to live.

Thanking you, one and all, I remain,

ARCHIE L. DENNIS.

Paid Courtesy Call In Scotland

Marshall E. Abrams, seaman, second class, son of Guy Abrams of Route 2, Maplesville, Ala., visited Edinburgh, Scotland, when the light cruiser USS Spokane paid a courtesy call to the ancient Scottish capitol.

Tours arranged by Capt. William M. Cole, the ship's Commanding Officer, afforded the sailor an opportunity to visit famed Loch Lomond and many of the historic castles and landmarks in Scotland.

Edinburgh's famous thousand-year-old castle was the highlight of a tour of the city for the sailor. From its uppermost battlements, crowning the ancient Scottish capitol, he was able to view one of the few cities in Britain that was spared by the Luftwaffe during the Battle for Britain.

Dances and parties were arranged for the Navy man and his shipmates by the Royal Navy aboard the battleship HMS Nelson and the carrier HMS Indefatigable.

Big 4-H Hog Show Is Slated

With the decrease in the number of 4-H fat calves over the state this year, it was beginning to look as if a lot of Chilton County 4-H'ers would have to wait until the fall dairy shows for a big livestock event. All this has been changed now that a hog show has appeared on the schedule of 4-H activities. This show is being planned for April 27-28 and will be held in Montgomery.

Any Chilton County 4-H boy or girl is eligible to enter the show provided he or she has owned their animal for at least two months prior to the show. Animals may be of any breed or cross-breed. The main object is to have a top hog that has been well finished.

Club members that have shoats weighing in the neighborhood of 150 pounds should start them on full feed. Animals lighter than 125 pounds cannot be topped out in time for the show.

The Fat Hog Show offers 4-H Club members an opportunity to carry out a project that will bring in a cash return. In addition it offers an opportunity of "learning to do by doing." The success of any 4-H show whether it is a beef, dairy or how show cannot be measured by its financial success. The real success or value of any 4-H event is measured by the yard stick or rural youth training.

Club members who are interested in feeding out a hog for showing in the April Fat Stock Show should get in touch with either the County or Assistant County Agent as soon as possible. There is still time enough left if animals are put on feed now.

Would You Get Married On A Friday The 13th

Do you have any superstititions about Friday the 13th?

Maybe you do or don't but there is one young married couple in Chilton County who have no fears of Friday the 13th. They are Dorothy Laverne Headley and Mr. Walter Chandler who got married last Friday, February 13th.

The ceremony was performed at the courthouse in Clanton by Probate Judge W. L. Parrish.

Miss Headley is the daughter of Mr. Phillip Headley and the groom is an employee of the REA, his home being in Lincoln, Alabama in Talladega County.

READY, GET SET, GO!

That is what the weather seems to be saying to our farmers this week. After many weeks of the worst weather the county has known in years old Sol peeps out this week to encourage the farmers to get ready to start planting.

Although some crops are a bit late, after the freeze we experienced, the soil should be good and loose and the crops should grow fast.

DANGER ON THE HIGHWAY

Again this week the citizens of Chilton County are reminded of the dangers of children playing on the highways. A small boy was critically injured last Sunday morning while skating on the highway when an automobile struck him. Who was at fault in the accident it is not our job to determine, but we do caution mothers and fathers to be more careful of where their children play and the drivers of automobiles to be doubly careful within the city limits where children play and dart about the streets.

AGIN' HIT

The Chilton County News wants to go down on record as being against any form of "slate" in the coming election, or as for that matter, in any election.

We have heard some talk over the county of this or that group naming a "slate." It is unfair and undemocratic.

So far as has been ascertained by us all the candidates are good citizens of Chilton County and each is entitled to a fair chance at the polls. When a candidate is named by a certain group it is usually understood that he will be tied hand and foot by that group after he is elected and cannot possibly serve to the best interest of all the people.

Let's let each candidate run on his own merits, win, lose, or draw.

SIGNS OF SPRING

Strange it is to listen to the different signs of spring presented by our home grown weather prophets. The weather [illegible] when all he has to do is ask some of [illegible] would know at once what to look [illegible]

A [illegible] this week in Birmingham is sure spring is here [illegible] because of the robins that have appeared on his lawn each year for several years just before spring arrives and they have already made their appearance this year.

A good friend of ours told us the other morning that spring had arrived because the game fish that he caught last week were full of eggs and that was a sure sign.

Another tells us that the jonquils in his yard are up and on their way to blooming—so there is no doubt.

We could go on and on and then possibly get our left ear froze off down to the nubb along about March 15th when the old lion begins to roar. So take your choice of weather prophets, but be prepared for there is no sure sign it seems, and we human beings have learned to take it as it comes, be thankful, and make the best of it.

ABOUT TOWN

We didn't know that Cecil Ramsey went swimming in the winter time. And with his clothes on, too.

We owe Rev. Roswell Owens and the Baptist Messenger an apology. The credit line on the paragraph we used from that magazine last week was accidently left off. It was the verse about the consecrated car. 'Twas an error—we're sorry.

A most complimentary letter comes this week from a law firm at Montgomery. Of seven weekly newspapers mailed a legal with instructions as to publication, affidavits, etc., the News was the only newspaper of the seven to carry out the instructions as ordered. The lawyers were highly complimentary — and we like compliments once in a while just like other people do.

What'ta we hear about Millard Lancaster taking over the Bus Station (The Rebel) at Thorsby. We have no information but the rumor is around. Millard has made himself a bit scarce this winter because of an accident which had him laid up for a while but is able to be out again now, and even though we'd rather see him back in business in Clanton we're glad that the Rebel got him.

Sheldon Cook from Maplesville Route 2 paid us a visit this week. He generally gets around to see us once or twice a year and we always enjoy his visits. Sheldon is planning on running for delegate to the National Democratic Convention from this District and we hope he does. You will find no more loyal democrat in Chilton County than Sheldon and he is a conscientious Christian young man who we are sure we could place confidence in to represent us at the convention.

Isn't it wonderful to live in a country where the lowest employee can call the boss a stinker if he wants to—and the boss can kick the lowest employee out on his constitutional rights for calling him that if he wants to.

Yesterday afternoon while the wife was shopping we strolled into the new drug store around across from the Baptist Church. We believe Farley, or some such name, is the fellow who has opened the store. Anyway, while there, we lined up against the counter with the others and turned our attention to watching a lone carpenter install the new soda fount that has been long ordered and just arrived. There were at least eight men and boys watching the proceedings. It has always been a wonder to us why watching other work is so fascinating, but it is true. Dig a ditch, build a house, or let a few men string a telephone wire and within a short time a crowd gathers to watch.

We're sorry we missed Jack Hayes and his visitors Monday. While out of town Jack brought Charlie Boswell and Jimmy Couey of the Birmingham News around to see us. Charlie Boswell is the ex-Alabama football great, and while in service was blinded for life in combat overseas. He is a candidate for Tax Collector of Jefferson County with the veteran collector Bill Hamilton as his opponent. We want to thank Jack for bringing him around and say we're really sorry we were not at home.

Cecil Jones, who works at the Shell Service Station spent several years in the navy. The other day we were looking through some old pictures taken of sailors on the West Coast, by a boy in Birmingham who served about three hitches in the navy. Among the pictures we saw a familiar face—that of Cecil D. Jones. The boy in Birmingham didn't remember where he got the picture and Cecil didn't remember having had the picture made. We brought the picture back to the Jones boy at the Shell Station allright, but it's the strangest thing what that sea water will do for a guy's memory.

We accidently left the announcement of Abney Brown out of the political column last week. Abney announced for Commissioner of the Third District. He's a Maplesville merchant and promises to make quite a race. We apologize for overlooking this item and you'll find it in its proper place this week.

Bill Minor got a grocery store and a new baby at his house at the same time. Bill, you know, bought the City Grocery from "Chick" Fiquette. We think Mrs. Minor presented him with the baby. Anyway we wish him well at the store and with the youngster. May all Bill's troubles be little ones.

* * *

Earl Reeves now it looks like will have opposition for the office of county treasurer. Mr. Marion Easterling has definitely stated his intentions of entering the race for that office. Marion is well known as a singer and writer of music and is also employed at Radio Station WKLF here in Clanton. Earl Reeves is an employee of Taylor Wholesale Grocery Company.

Hunting And Fishing Grounds to be Developed in Alabama

In an annual report to the governor, Bert E. Thomas, Director of the Department of Conservation, states that definite steps are being taken to provide public hunting and fishing grounds for the sportsmen of Alabama. The report states, "We want to have controlled hunting for the benefit of the average man without his having to pay high fees to belong to some private hunting club."

Inspection is now being made of land tracts in Washington, Choctaw, Coosa, Escambia, Jackson and Monroe Counties, and when they are selected, they will be stocked with wild game. Public fishing landings are to be provided during the coming year on both the Alabama and Tombigbee Rivers, and on numerous creeks. Public fishing lakes are now being constructed in Crenshaw, Butler, Fayette, Pike, Cullman, Marion, Elmore and Coffee Counties.

The state fish hatcheries at Eastaboga and Spring Hill, and the federal hatchery at Marion are providing between three and four million fingerlings annually to stock the streams and lakes.

Under the Pittman-Robertson program, the department will have $128,000 to spend during 1948 on sanctuaries, game preserves, and public hunting grounds.

The Conservation Department plans to spend $10,000 during the coming year to start developing the park site at Guntersville which was recently deeded to the state by the TVA. The money will be spent on a pavilion, cottages, and a picnic area. Included in the 1948 plans is the construction of swings, see-saws, volley ball and tennis courts, and soft ball diamonds at Cheaha, DeSoto, Chewacla, and Monte Sano State Parks; and also a swimming pool at Monte Sano, and a dam at DeSoto. These improvements are in keeping with the department's program to broad recreational facilities at all state parks, where visitors will have the opportunity to engage in a variety of sports.

Thomas reorganized the Seafood Division and placed Perry Prescott at its head as of February 1. The division is acquiring an oyster boat to use in the planting of oyster seed and shells, and present plans call for planting between 40,000 and 50,000 seed oysters along the Alabama coastal waters during 1948.

Agreement has been reached with Florida, whereby Alabama shrimpers can go into Florida waters nine months a year and gather shrimp. Similar agreements are now being sought with Mississippi and Louisiana.

The University of Alabama is supplying the services of a biologist who is advising on the planting, dredging and diseases of seafoods.

The Division of Forestry reported 14 fire towers completed during the past year, and added that 12 more would be finished by May 1. The towers are equipped with radio, and work closely with the airplane recently purchased by the Conservation Department which is used to spot fires. Two more such planes are to be bought.

During the past year the forest nursery produced 6,000,000 seedlings, and production has been stepped up to grow 18,000,000 to take care of the increasing demand during 1948. A nursery has been planned as a part of the Auburn Forestry School at an expense of $30,000, so that, the report states, "The students may learn from experience the growth of trees in Alabama."

The Price of Transformers, Too, is UP . . .

THE PRICE OF ELECTRIC SERVICE IS STILL DOWN

Transformers are devices which change the voltage of electricity from "main line" strength to a voltage suitable for use in your home, store or factory.

Many thousands of transformers are in use on a system such as that of Alabama Power Company. Electric service can't be supplied without them. As they become inadequate on older lines they must be replaced. Each new line extension requires the installation of additional transformers.

Today, transformers for electric distribution lines cost nearly a fourth more than they did 10 years ago. Other items and equipment used to produce electric power and deliver it to you have increased *even more.

Steam coal UP 2½ times; copper wire UP to nearly double; creosoted poles UP to double their pre-war price; operating payrolls UP, — double what they were in 1937* and the quality of the service is as good or better.

Mrs. Sam (Margaret) Williams and young son of Montgomery spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Robinson.

The many friends here and throughout the county will regret to learn of the misfortune of Mr. Wilbur Bean who fell and broke his hip on last Thursday. Mr. Bean was hauling shavings from the John Higgins Lumber yard when in some way he fell and received a broken hip. We do not know exactly his condition at this time, but we trust that he is doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Holcombe had as their guests over the week end Mr. J. U. Holcombe and son, Jerry, of Birmingham, Ala.

We seem to be having a lot of accidents in our home town here lately. We have just heard that Frank McCain suffered a very painful accident to his eye on Monday morning. Frank was pruning some trees and stuck a limb in his eye and injured it quite badly, though the extent of his injuries have not yet been determined. We hope that it is not too serious and that he will soon be okay again.

With only eleven children in school, I hardly feel like I am teaching. I am enjoying my stay in Germany now. Lots of things we see [illegible] terribly depressing and much needs to be done here. TO THE VOTERS OF CHILTON COUNTY

JAMES M. (Jim) DUNLAP

Greetings Everyone:

This is my formal announcement that I am a candidate for the office of Commissioner from the Fourth District. This being my first time to ask for any public office, I know there are some Chilton County people who are not acquainted with me.

I was born forty-eight years ago near Fairview Community, the son of W. D. (Billy) Dunlap and Lucy Baker Dunlap. Received my education in Chilton County schools and for the last twenty-five years have been engaged in various businesses for myself and others.

In asking for this office, I would like to state that many have urged me to run and I have had a sincere desire to help conduct the affairs of our county. I will say earnestly that my business and occupational experiences should fully qualify me for the office I seek. I do believe many existing adverse conditions can readily be adjusted for the better without jeopardizing the financial strength of our county. There will be more from me from time to time but first, let's get acquainted. I will at all times welcome constructive criticism and your time presenting any will be worth your while.

Should I fail to meet or see any of you who do not know me already, lease don't think I want it that way. Will try to contact and explain my standings with everyone.

Very sincerely,
JAMES M. (Jim) DUNLAP.

Community Concerts Will Present Romantic Mexican Tenor Friday, February 20th

NESTOR CHAYRES, Famous Mexican Tenor, is now on a transcontinental tour of the United States and Canada, and gives a concert in Clanton Methodist Church Friday evening, February 20th, at eight o'clock under the auspices of the Community Concerts Association.

The Montreal Daily Star carried the following comment after Chayres sang in Montreal: "He is one of the best tenors that have been heard in a long time, both in voice and in the way in which he uses it. It would be hard to find a singer with a purer tone and a more sure and smooth phrasing, and in addition to that, a big range of feeling and expression."

POPLAR SPRINGS NEWS

Poplar Springs Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. Flora Wilson for the February meeting. The meeting was called to order by the President. The devotional was given by Miss Lena Downs. Her reading was a portion of scripture from St. Matthew. Mrs. Mertice Smith read the club collect, and we sang several songs.

In spite of bad weather and roads, fifteen were present at this meeting. We are glad to welcome five new members. We invite all who will to join or visit our club. The demonstration was given on the "Care and Adjustments of Machines and Use of Attachments." We learned that the extra parts of our machines that we thought no good, were very useful and helpful to us.

Mrs. Wilson served delicious refreshments and the club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Jessie Mae Dykes for the meeting in March.—Mrs. Webster Hill, Reporter.

Roy Roper Speaks To PMA Committeemen About Duties

Clanton, Alabama

Mess[illegible] 1948 P.M.A C[illegible]

Y[illegible] year [illegible] AAA program Congress directed that [illegible] elect an[illegible] number County [illegible] nity Committeemen [illegible] to be sure [illegible] voice is heard [illegible] out farm op[illegible] [illegible] more.

Farmers have made great strides in carrying out conservation practices but the need is still tremendous, and peace years with a let-up in the necessity for unlimited crop production will bring more opportunity to take care of the nation's soil and water resources.

Each year the program has been decentralized a little more, and more program responsibility has been given to local committeemen.

The 1948 ACP Committeemen will have more authority and responsibility than ever before. Your decision affect every farmer and the whole community. You are a farmer and men of good judgement and have the confidence of the majority of farmers. If farming operations are to yield a good income crops and livestock must bring fair prices. Remember 1933? We all remember 1933 [illegible] were not enough [illegible] government programs were started to support [illegible] prices the farmers received for their products. [illegible] bear in mind that farm programs [illegible] only as good as the men [illegible] administer them. A.P [illegible] operations.

[illegible] mind that peace di[illegible] [illegible]ally end farm problems [illegible]d the kind and may in[illegible] those farmers will face. You [illegible]tteemen represent farmers in deciding how and what kind of farm programs are to be carried out

At this time I would like to list briefly some of the Community Committeemen duties:

1. Provide local leadership in developing and administering farm programs adapted to the needs of their community.

2. Fit programs to local conditions and recomm[illegible] improvements and additions.

[illegible] the objectives and pro[illegible] the farm programs and ac[illegible] farmers in making use of [illegible].

[illegible] with other community [illegible] coordinating farm program [illegible].

[illegible] give you County Committeemen some of your duties which you are directly responsible for.

1. Develop and administer under supervision of the State Committee, programs adapted to the needs of the county.

2. With the aid of community committeemen, keep farmers and others informed of the objectives, provisions and progress of farm programs.

3. Determine results of farm programs in the county; submit reports as required; conduct meetings, elections, referendums, hearings and investigations.

4. Be responsible for the operation of the county office.

5. Cooperate with other farm agencies and leaders in roordinating farm programs in the county.

I will also list you some of the accomplishments of the local PMA program in Chilton County in the 1947 crop year.

1. We applied superphosphate to 2,15[illegible] or more acres.

2. 0-14-10 was applied to approximately 4[illegible] acres.

3. Agricultural limestone was applied to approximately 500 acres.

4. Lespedeza sericea was planted on at least 1,560 acres.

5. Kudzu was planted on 300 or more acres.

6. White Dutch Clover and Dallis grass and Kobe Lespedeza were seeded on 1,57[illegible] acres of non-crop open pasture.

7. Basic slag was applied to not less than 2,270 of crop land pasture.

8. There was not less than 1,000 acres properly drained by drainage ditches.

9. In the spring of 1947 the following acres were turned under in Chilton County:

1. Austrian Winter Peas — 5,000 acres
2. Crimson Clover — 275 acres.
3. Vetch — 4,000 acres.
4. Blue Lupine — 150 acres.
5. Caley Peas — 800 acres.

Please remember that these legumes were planted in the fall of 1946 and charged to the 1947 program. Your government spent a total of 80,000.00 in Chilton County during 1947. We did not have a legume practice in the fall of 1947 and you can certainly see the results on the land now. I would estimate a high figure would be one-third of the total land under cover crop this winter compared to last winter.

I understand from your county administrative officer that we have only one-half the money we had in 1947 for our 1948 program. This is a blow to our program but we must get the best out of these funds and put them in practices which will do the most good for our county and nation.

I charge you committeemen to think soberly and straight forward in planning our future program. I commend the program as a farmer and not as a paid representative of the PMA. I have never been paid a dime as salary for your program. I have always earned and over my allowance allowed me on my farm. The time has come when men of your type must keep farmers informed and educated as to the provisions of the PMA program. It is a God send to our country's agriculture and it's endeavors in our country. As the old, old saying goes which is very true, "Agriculture is the backbone of our nation."

I congratulate you again on the progress of this program which has been made in Chilton County in previous years and I know that we farmers can count on you to shoulder the wheel and carry on in a high degree of satisfaction. Let me close with these words, May God Bless You."

A STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL PROGRESS

THANK YOU, ALABAMA

The Insurance Department of the State of Alabama has recently released its annual report showing the operations in Alabama in 1946 of all life insurance companies doing business in the State. The figures definitely show that Liberty National Life Insurance Company — "Alabama's Largest Life Insurance Company" — is well and faithfully serving the life insurance needs of its own people.

"Issuing more than ONE THOUSAND policies each working day to citizens of Alabama alone, it can be truly said that the company is making it possible for Alabamians all over the State—in even the remotest rural sections—to have the full benefit of our protection.

You have made this the Leading Company in Alabama in these 3 types of Life Insurance.

1. ORDINARY INSURANCE

"Ordinary" Life Insurance is that form of insurance written in amount of $1,000 or more with premiums payable annually, semi-annually, quarterly or monthly. In 1946, Liberty National wrote approximately as much "Ordinary" insurance in the State of Alabama as the next four highest companies combined. The exact figures are as follows:

LIBERTY NATIONAL LIFE	$32,039,652.00
PROTECTIVE LIFE	9,958,101.00
NEW YORK LIFE	9,947,673.00
METROPOLITAN LIFE	7,581,521.00
PRUDENTIAL	6,174,943.00
Total 4 Companies Combined	$33,662,238.00

2. INDUSTRIAL INSURANCE

"Industrial" Life Insurance is that form of insurance written in amounts less than $1,000 with premiums payable weekly. By and through this form of insurance our citizens in all walks of life are afforded the full benefit of life insurance. The service of an agent is provided by the company and regardless how remote and isolated the home may be it can be served by one of our agents. In 1946, Liberty National wrote $44,128,151.00 "Industrial" insurance in Alabama and at the end of that year, Liberty National had "Industrial" insurance outstanding on the lives of Alabama residents amounting to $272,233,903.00 which amount is more than the total Alabama "Industrial" insurance of the next four highest companies.

3. BURIAL INSURANCE

At December 31st, 1947 there were outstanding a total of 1,128,532 Brown-Service Burial Policies and 228,397 Brown-Service Vault Policies, making a total of more than ONE MILLION THREE HUNDRED FIFTY THOUSAND Brown-Service Burial Service Policies now in force.

During the year of 1947 the company issued to residents of Alabama more than TWO HUNDRED THIRTY THOUSAND Burial Service Policies, which figure broke all previous records for the issuance of Brown-Service Burial Service Policies.

The total of all types of Life Insurance written by Liberty National in Alabama in 1946 was $76,167,803.00 which is more than the total of all types of Life Insurance written in Alabama by any other Company.

STANTON

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin (Sug) Carter has been given the name of Melvin Eugene Carter.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kynard (nee Vara McKinney) have announced the birth of a son on February 11, 1948, at the Baptist Hospital, Selma, Ala. This newcomer has been given the name of William Richard, having been named for both of his grandfathers.

Mrs. Billy O'Neal is improving in a Selma hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hicks and attractive daughters visited their mother and grandmother, Mrs. Mary Hicks, Sunday.

We have omitted from our news for several weeks now the following deaths. We regret leaving this out as "The Fulmers" have relatives and many friends throughout this section. Andrew J. Fulmer died and was buried in Bessemer, Ala. The Fulmers lived in Chilton County several years ago just across the creek from Plantersville. Ala. Their sons — Snooks. Willie and Jimmie Fulmer, survive their parents. Mrs. Fulmer having been killed in an automobile wreck some years ago just out of Plantersville. Our sympathy to these survivors.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Suttles of Bessemer, Ala., are very ill at this writing. Mrs. Suttles was the former Gertie Miltead and a sister of Mrs. Joe Hathcock of Plantersville, Ala.

Mr. Jim W. Gay is still in Birmingham receiving treatments from Dr. Walter Scott. We wish for him a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Frank Reynolds is able to be up and about since her recent illness.

Mr. Houston Morris has been quite ill recently. We trust he will improve and be out again soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Walker of Birmingham, Ala., visited relatives here over the week end.

Miss Ruth Hicks was confined to her home this past week due to illness.

BEST HORN TREATMENT TOLD TO CALF OWNERS

Killing horns before they begin to grow is easier than dehorning, Dr. R. S. Sugg, state veterinarian, points out to calf owners.

Treatment should be made just as soon as the horn buttons can be seen, usually before the calf is 10 days old. Dr. Sugg says to clip the hair closely on the button, smear vaseline around the area, and then rub with a moist stick caustic until small drops of blood appear.

A word of caution from the veterinarian is that a treated calf should not be turned into the rain. The rain will wash caustic into the calf's eyes and injure them, he explains.

ISABELLA

There were nice congregations at Mulberry Sunday and Sunday night.

Next Sunday will be preaching day and we hope to have a nice crowd, since the weather is much better now.

Mrs. Molly Smith was called to her father's last week as he was seriously ill, but is improving now.

Mr. Earl Bray had his infected eye removed at the Baptist Hospital in Selma last week. He is doing nicely at his home now.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Calfee visited the former's brother. Cecil, in a Bessemer hospital Sunday. He got his foot and leg hurt at a sawmill last week.

This community extends our congratulations to Douglas Giles and Miss Bearden, older daughter of Bro. Rube Bearden of Maplesville, who were married on Saturday night, February 7th. They are at home where the former's parents recently lived.

Mr. and Mrs. Quinton White and children of Wetumpka, Ala., visited the former's parents here Sunday.

Mrs. R. E. Tucker and Clifford Manning and son, Hudson, of Birmingham, spent last week end with their mother. Mrs. Emma Manning.

Mrs. Leoid Lecroy entertained in her home a group of small children at a Valentine party last Saturday afternoon for her little daughter, Betty Gale, who still has her leg in a cast. Games were enjoyed by all. Valentines exchanged, refreshments served to 14 children and mother.

Birthday Party On Saturday Night, February 14th—

Mrs. J. H. Wells entertained a group of our young people in the home of Mrs. Emma Manning, honoring her daughter, Marianne, on her 17th birthday, with Mrs. Andrew Jones and Mrs. Norman Smitherman assisting. Games and contests were played with prizes being won by different ones.

The dining table was decorated with white cake and pink candles in the center surrounded by Valentines and refreshments.

SARDIS

Our attendance was small Sunday, but we had Sunday School. Our preaching services were rained out last preaching day, but we are hoping the weather will be better and the attendance will pick up.

Sunday is our regular preaching day which will be Sunday evening, Sunday School at 1:30 and preaching at 2:30. We invite everyone out to be with us. Bro. Woodward will be with us Sunday and the week following. We would like to encourage everyone who possibly can to attend.—Reporter.

MACEDONIA

The Rev. E. C. Hand brought us two wonderful messages. There was a large crowd at both services.

Everyone come and make it a large crowd Sunday.

The church made up an offering to help in the building back of the Mineral Springs Church. The offering for this purpose amounted to twenty-one dollars and forty-nine cents.

The W.M.U. met last Saturday afternoon. They had a splendid program and the offering they made up went for the same purpose of helping build back the church. They made up seven dollars and fifty cents. The amount made by both amounted to twenty-eight dollars and ninty-nine cents.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Oates, Mary and Joyce, had as dinner guests last Sunday Rev. Hand and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Pratt Crumpton and Marie, Mr. Hoyt and Miss Mariah Freeman, Mr. Zack Jones, r. and Mrs. Ezra Moore and children, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Veazey and children and Nell Hayes.

r. and Mrs. Ernest Harris and Jerry spent some time last Sunday afternoon with parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Williams of Birmingham spent last Saturday night with parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Oates and family.

Miss Nell Hayes spent last week with Mr. Hoyt and Miss Mariah Freeman. They together visited Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ward last Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Pratt Crumpton were elected as the committeemen for home missions of this church last Sunday.—Joyce Oates, Reporter.

SHOULTS

Everybody was glad to see the beautiful sunshine Sunday. We had a good attendance of 62. We are very proud of this good attendance. Next Sunday is our regular preaching day. We invite everyone to come out. Bro. Rube Bearden, our pastor, will bring the message.

We are glad that Mrs. Gin Nicholas is feeling lots better.

Prayer service is still being held on Saturday night at Mrs. Nicholas's home.

The W.M.S. ladies will meet at the home of Mrs. Bill Hathcock Thursday p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lawley spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Smith Sunday.

Mrs. Lewis Mitchell and children spent part of last week with Mrs. Robert McAfee and family.

We are planning to have our homecoming the fifth Sunday in May. We hope everyone will be thinking about this.

FASTER GROWTH

Extra nitrogen is needed for most vegetables except beans, peas and potatoes. Use one-half pound of nitrate of soda, or its equivalent, to 100 feet of row for turnips, beets and carrots and two pound to 100 feet of row for nearly all others. Apply when plants are up and growing well.

BIG SPRINGS

People of this community were sure proud to see the sun shining again.

Miss Evelyn Hooks of Montgomery spent a few days this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hooks.

Mrs. John Hooks and daughter, Evelyn, spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. W. D. Turner.

Mr. Buck Turner and Mr. J. F. Thompson visited Mr. R. R. Rawlinson and family Saturday night.

Mr. J. F. Rawlinson of Billingsley Route 2, who has been in ailing health for many months, is now at the home of his son, Mr. R. R. Rawlinson. His condition hasn't improved any.

Billy James Payton celebrated his 12th birthday today. Games were played, refreshments were served. He received many useful gifts and every one reported a grand time. His grandmother, Mrs. W. J. Gafford, who was 84 years old in September, attended his birthday party.

Mr. Gene Rhodes and Mr. James Friday spent Sunday with Junior Rawlinson.

Mrs. W. D. Turner made a business trip to Prattville last week.

Mrs. R. R. Rawlinson visited her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Rhodes, and family of Prattville Thursday.

Mrs. Lula Moore and son, Willie C., and daughter, dean, of Prattville, visited in this community last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Rhodes and children, John Marvin and Bonnie Ruth Rhodes, of Prattville, attended the birthday party of Billy James Payton Sunday.

BORAX HELPS

Two level tablespoons of borax to 00 feet row usually will increase the yield and improve the quality of turnips, beets and carrots when grown on sandy land, specially on the gray lands.

PROVIDENCE — BEAT 13

You Too Can Grow Corn Like This

(By CLARK HEADLEY)

When you stop to consider that the average corn yield per acre in Chilton County is around sixteen bushels per acre, growing 100 or more bushels per acre is worthy of honorable mention.

This happened last year to three farmers in this county. They were 4-H Club members Leo Headley, Jr., of Mt. Pisgah Community, and Freddie Popwell of Thomas Jr. Community.

Their production records per acre were: Headley, 108 bushels; Popwell, 100 bushels, and Traywick 101 bushels.

How did they grow this corn? Here's the statistics as furnished by the County Agent's office:

Freddie Popwell: Planted one acre Funk 714 between 1st and 10th of May; used 400 pounds of 8-8-4 at planting and side-dressed with 400 pounds of 6-8-4. Yield—100 bushels corn.

Leo Headley, Jr.: Planted one acre Funk 714 around 1st of May, using 550 pounds of 6-8-8 at planting; side-dressed with 400 pounds of 6-8-8 and applied 300 pounds of thirty per cent nitrogen. He yielded 108 bushels per acre. The County Agent's office stated that he uses more fertilizer than was actually recommended.

L. L. Traywick: Planted Funk 714 on May 6 following Blue Lupine; used 500 pounds of 4-10-7 at planting and used no side dressing whatsoever. Yielded 101 bushels.

It was stated that most all the farmers last year who showed increased yields like above plowed their corn only twice.

Another practice that these high corn producing farmers used was planting their corn in three and one-half foot rows, spacing corn about 12 inches apart. It is reported that this factor has held down a lot of farmers from making high yields even though they had applied an equal amount fertilizer.

Other factors that attribute to accomplishing high yields like these are the following:

1. Selecting acres of land with good organic content.
2. Selecting a leading hybrid corn for seed.
3. Proper planting dates (Approximately May 1st).
4. igh rates of fertilizer.
5. Thick spacing.
6. Shallow cultivation.

The three farmers mentioned above were three of forty-seven out of sixteen counties who were admitted to the 100-bushel Corn Club recently. Each grower received a certificate of recognition and a gold lapel pen as a token.

Isn't it easy to take the advice of others if it is what we wanted to do anyway.

Never forget that the editorials in the Chilton County News are the opinions of one man and he may be wrong.

So far as we are concerned we would rather judge a man's religion by what he does the other six days of the week.

We want no war with Russia or any other country, but unless Russia wants no war with us, there will be war.

Why blame politicians for the nation's problems when voters, if they are smart enough, can control the government and direct its policies?

FARMERS MEETING CALLED

A meeting of Chilton County farmers has been called at the courthouse for Friday, March 5th, at 1 o'clock. In the call was the request that "especially vegetable and fruit growers attend."

This is your chance to meet with the other truck growers of the county and swap opinions that will benefit the both of you. With our county increasing its acreage each year in truck crops and orchards it is important that we have a strong association of farmers and only by cooperation and pulling together can this be accomplished.

SCHOOL BUDGETS HAVE LOST THEIR PURCHASING POWER SINCE 1940

An inventory of the 1940 public-school expenditures revealed that thousands of school systems had too little money to buy an acceptable amount and quality of schooling for all children. The question today is, "Did school expenditures increase enough from 1940 to 1947 to permit schoolboards to hold their own in buying schooling for children?" The answer is NO.

Here are the facts in brief, as outlined by John K. Norton of Teachers College, Columbia University, during a press conference at NEA headquarters on Friday, February 13, with reference to an inventory of public-school expenditures for 1946-47 for release Monday, February 16.

"In the United States as a whole, and in more than three-fourths of the states, schoolboards had less purchasing power per pupil in 1947 than they had in 1940.

"While per pupil expenditures, on the average, increased 66 per cent from 1940 to 1947, indexes of economic change show that they should have gone up 86 per cent to hold their own in the economic market.

"The low-expenditure school systems of 1940 are still operating at poverty levels of support altho they made relatively large percent increases per pupil. A large percent increase of very little is still very little. Meanwhile the high-expenditure districts have not been able in 1947 to purchase the first-rate education they were able to afford in 1940.

"Enormous inequalities in expenditure per pupil continue to exist both within individual states and among the states. Millions of children in 1947 were in school systems with such meager funds that their schooling was both brief and inferior."

The study on which these findings were based was made by the Institute of Administrative Research of Teachers College, Columbia University, under the direction of Paul R. Mort and Dr. Norton.—N.E.A. News.

Folks and Things About Town

--By BEN

Eavesdropping at the Dixie the other morning we heard Wallace Cox tell a crowd a short, short story that went something like this: A fellow was telling his experience while out picking blackberries. A bear got after him and he threw down his bucket and started running. Well he ran and ran. Finally he run across a creek that was frozen over and the bear was so heavy he fell through the ice, thus enabling the man to get away. After thinking awhile his friend asked him how he ran across a creek that was frozen while out picking blackberries.. Well, said he, "You see, that bear ran me from May to January."

This comes from a column in the Cullman Democrat:

COMPLAINT RETURNED —Last week the Cullman Police Department was called by Miss Mayme Bradford, employee of Sear, Roebuck order store here. She told the officer answering that there was an automobile parked in the alley, blocking the entrance, and asked that it be removed. Investigating officers found the car locked, the owner unknown. They checked the car tag number with listed owners' names at the courthouse. Then they called the store. "Miss Bradford, will you please remove your car from the alley back of your store?" the officer said.

Some fellow told us the other day that the way the old politicians hollored every time the Governor mentioned progressive legislation reminded him of when he was a kid. He said he and the other kids would find a yard with a picket fence, which was not very hard to do in those days, and where a dog was kept and run down the picket fence with a stick. It would create a lot of racket and the dog or dogs would run along the fence barking to beat the band. He said the governor was just running down the picket fence with a stick and the dogs were setting up an awful yell.

We must compliment John Ponder Lawrence on that beautiful job he did on the automobile peach tags. We mean the ones the high school seniors are selling around town. It is helpful too, to the peach growers as well as the seniors. And we might add too, Chilton County. Anyway, it was a capitol idea whoever was responsible.

We are in receipt of a very nice letter from Mrs. Joe Mullins, chairman, Chilton County Tuberculosis Association, thanking us for the publicity we gave in connection with the last drive. According to Mrs. Mullins, it was the finest Christmas Seal Sale in the history of Chilton County and the county officials of the drive were highly pleased.

We must attend that million dollar doll show at the Grammar School next week. Now don't get the wrong idea—it's not a live doll show. It's these little dolls you played with while you were a child. If it was the other kind of "doll" the wife wouldn't let us go anyhow. But back to the doll show. It will be on Friday night March 5th at 7 o'clock. It is sponosred bythe P.-T. A. and all proceeds go to the school. Come and bring a doll — the kind you played with when you were a child.

WISEST USE FOR NEW FERTILIZER IS GIVEN

Auburn, Ala. — Approval of 10-10-0 as an emergency grade of fertilizer by the State Board of Agriculture will make more nitrogen available to Alabama farmers this year.

An explanation of this was given by D. R. Harbor, API extension assistant agronomist, who said that fertilizer mixers have more ammonia solution—one source of nitrogen—than they can use in fertilizers containing nitrogen, phosphate, and potash. However, many mixers have superphosphate with which to mix the ammonia solution to make the 10-10-0 grade. Farmers have no way to distribûte liquid fertilizers, so the ammonia solution must be mixed with superphosphate to get it in usable form.

The 10-10-0 grade should be considered as a source of nitrogen, stated Harbor. Its use will be mainly as a side dressing material.

The agronomist suggested that if a farmer has some of both 10-10-0 and nitrate of soda or ammonium nitrate, he wisely choose on which crops each is to be used. On small grains, ryegrass, and mixtures of these and winter legumes to be followed by grain sorghum or other crops, 10-10-0 should be used for top dressing. This would leave nitrate of soda or ammonia nitrate for corn and cotton top dressing said Harbor.

Where 10-10-0 is used to side dress corn or cotton, plan to plant winter legumes or small grains on the area to get best use of phosphate in the fertilizer.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

1 Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion,* thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.

2 Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.

LOOK INTO this 2-way help*

Try Cardui. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.

Truck Crops Marketing Clinic Held 18 and 19th

A group of Chilton County agricultural workers and farmers attended a truck crops marketing clinic on the 18th and 19th of February. This meeting was held at the Redmont Hotel in Birmingham to study the marketing of truck crops grown in a seven-county area of Alabama including Chilton County. The group from Chilton County attending this meeting was Mr. W. A. Williams, Mr. Dave Childress, Mr. E. N. Bentley, Mr. John B. DeRamus, Mr. R. M. Glasscock, County Agent; Mr. C. C. Carlton, Assistant County Agent, and the following veteran Agricultural Instructors, Dave Tingle, Glenn Sessions, Ed Blackmon, Hoyt Burgess, Arthur Henley, S. E. Madlox, H. A. Maddox, George Smith, Willie Smith and Ferrell Williamson.

The main points that all of the discussion and talks centered around was the production of good quality products, proper grading and packaging of these products and putting a sufficient volume of these quality fruits and vegetables on the market to justify buyers in going to the areas of production to purchase them.

Marketing of truck crops in Alabama was discussed by marketing specialist of the Alabama Extension Service, buyers and supervisors of A & P, and the Atlantic Commission Company, Agricultural representatives of the Chambers of Commerce, County agents and farmers. Buyers indicate that they will use more Alabama grown fruits and vegetables if they can get the proper quality graded and packaged correctly in volume that will enable them to rely on our source during certain periods of the year.

Specific crops such as sweet potatoes from Cullman County, peaches from Chilton County, tomatoes from Blount County and strawberries from Chilton and Cullman counties were discussed in detail as to marketing in Alabama. Marketing of other truck crops was discussed in a general way.

The group attending these meetings made a tour of some of the produce houses in Birmingham. On this tour visits were made to Adams Brothers produce house where tomatoes trucked from Mexico were being graded and packaged in fancy packs. A stop was made at the Jefferson County Truck growers associational market; another stop was made at the A & P Warehouse where large quantities of fresh fruits and vegetables were being handled. At the A & P Warehouse it was interesting to note the large quantities of fruits and vegetables that were being handled. Most of this produce was shipped into Alabama from other states. It was good quality and packaged correctly.

A marketing meeting for Chilton County truck growers is going to be held March 5th, at 1:00 p.m., at the courthouse in Clanton to discuss marketing of Chilton County truck crops. All fruit and vegetable growers are urged to attend.

USE CLEAN UTENSILS TO GET QUALITY MILK

Clean utensils are necessary to produce quality milk and to safeguard health in the home, C. E. Teague, API extension dairyman, stated in telling how the vessels might be handled.

Rinse the utensils with cold water and then wash with warm water to which a washing powder has been added. Teague says not to use soap, but a washing powder made especially for cleaning milk vessels.

After utensils have been thoroughly scrubbed with a brush, either scald or rinse them thoroughly with a chlorine solution. Place the vessels on a rack where they can get direct sunlight during the day, added Teague.

PROFIT FROM BROILERS GIVEN BY POULTRYMAN

Auburn, Ala. — Labor profit of $134 to $173 is being made on each 1,000 broilers, demonstrators in two Alabama counties have reported to API Extension Poultryman John E. Ivey.

Practically all growers used commercial feeds exclusively and these returns were made in spite of very high fed costs, Ivey said. His records showed that volume production was necessary for satisfactory returns.

The range in the labor profit was caused mainly by differences in chick mortality, feeding practices, and market prices, explained Ivey.

When you are buying citrus fruits, remember that the best and juiciest fruit is heavy. Feel the weight of the fruit by holding it in your hand. If the fruit is damaged, this will show first at the stem end.

Cut off the top of a carrot and place in water. This will make a pretty little plant.

When the Louisiana Purchase was negotiated with Napoleon in 1803, the United States claimed that Mobile was included in the transaction, but Spain, who had come into possession of the port as a result of the treaty that ended the Revolutionary War, protested that the city still remained a part of West Florida. Temporarily, the Americans allowed the Spanish claims to stand, but the War of 1812 gave the United States its long awaited opportunity to bring the port under its domain. Hostilities had hardly begun between this nation and the British when U. S. General James Wilkinson moved in and took over the city" without the effusion of a drop of blood."

Two years after the French, under Iberville, planted Fort Louis de la Mobile, at 27-Mile Bluff on the Mobile River, two dozen orphaned French girls, known as the "Cassette Girls" (so called because the government provided each of them with a small trunk or cassette and an outfit) came to the colony to begin new lives as wives of the settlers. The story goes that all of the "Cassette Girls" were married and settled down in the New World with their new husbands within a month after their arrival. That is, all but one settled down, and she was listed in the annals of the colony as "coy and hard to please."

State Revenue Head Notes Clamp Down On 1947 Tax Loop-Holes

Revenue Commissioner Philip Hamm in an annual report to Gov. Folsom last week said that many notable gains and changes in the administration of the Department of Revenue were made during the past year due to increased business activity within the state in 1947.

The revenue commissioner pointed out in the report that these increased business activities had to be met with no additional taxes, because the legislature failed in its last session to enact any new revenue laws.

Hamm said that, as a result of a study of the revenue laws by a special committee at the beginning of the present administration, the department put into practice many of the recommendations that were submitted by the committee members.

Hamm pointed out the following changes:

Tax settlements — The practice of allowing Field Examiners of the department to settle tax cases in the field was discontinued.

Personnel requirements—Steps were taken to provide qualified Field Examiners through the Merit System, and to obtain registers of eligibles for future appointments when the need arises.

Reciprocal agreements—Agreements were made with neighboring states that would provide for joint use of certain fishing waters without paying extra licenses and fees, and to exempt motor carriers from certain duplicated license and fee payments. Arrangements were also made to exempt Alabama residents who commute daily to work in other states from buying licenses for their car in the state where they are employed.

In an effort to eliminate those delinquent in payment of state income taxes, and to make sure that state and federal returns were filed on the same basis of income, the revenue department photographed the federal returns from taxpayers in Alabama who filed both federal and state returns.

The report said that during the last year income tax collections increased by approximately $3,000,000, and of that figure, Hamm said that $2,000,000 probably came as a result of eliminating loop-holes in the enforcement of the law.

Ad valorem policy—The department of revenue assisted counties and cities in proper application of ad valorem tax legislation.

Educational advances — The department regularly publishes a monthly bulletin setting forth the monthly tabulation of all taxes, and features one of the 34 taxes administered at the state level of government, so that students, public officials, business men and taxpayers will become familiar with the tax structure of Alabama.

The revenue department has put into effect a law requiring all wholesale sales to be distinguished from retail sales. The wholesaler must show the sale tax account number of the retailer who buy from him on the invoice of the sale. The report pointed out that each retailer has a sales tax account number, and "it is not believed that compliance with this regulation will place undue administration on the wholesaler."

HOG KILLING

During the next few weeks, pigs farrowed last September should be ready for late slaughter or market. Butchering or selling hogs at 180 to 220 pounds will not only save feed but will result in a better carcass, says G. B. Phillips, API extension livestock specialist. He said that adding 100 pounds to a 200 pound hog increases the lean portion only 25 to 30 pounds —the rest is lard.

Body of Pvt. Mills Is Being Returned To United States

E. B. Mills of Opelika, Ala., and LaGrange, Ga., has been notified by telegram from General Distribution Depot: Attention! American Graves Registration Service of Atlanta, Ga., that the remains of his son, Private First Class Phillip R. Mills, are en route to the United States.

Private Mills was inducted into the service from Autauga County, Alabama in April in April, 1941, and was stationed at Camp Stewart, Ga., assigned to 104th Coast Artillery Headquarters Battery, Battalion (AA) as a mechanic. In February, 1942, he was transferred to the Pacific Area (located in Australia) for overseas duty and there remained until July 16th, 1942, where a detachment of 18 men boarded a transport plane for a small island (to set up defense) just off the Northern Coast of Australia and just as the plane was about to land it crashed and all were killed by the impact and fire.

The bodies of the men (according to reports from Phillip's Lieutenant) was brought back to the mainland of Australia and there buried. A picture of this grave was kept by a member of the outfit until he could return to the States, and same was sent to his father after the war. In the meantime these bodies were moved from Northern Australia down to Pswisch, Queenland, Australia, (on east side) and there buried in the National Cemetery and there remained until the cemetery was closed in December, 1947, and all thos bodies that had no request for their return to the States were carried up to Hawaii and the rest were brought back to the States at the request of their loved ones.

Mr. Mills is having Private Mills's body delivered to Martin Funeral Home at Clanton, Ala., for interment in the family cemetery at Billingsley. Funeral arrangements and announcements will be made later.

Private Mills is survived by two brothers, Ralph W. Mills, who served in the European Area in the recording department as a Sergeant, Earl I. Mills, who served in the States in the recording department as Corporal; father and step-mother, Mr. and Mrs E. B. Mills; grandmother, Mrs. J. F. Culp; sister-in-law, Pauline O. Mills; niece, Little Emily Mills, and a host of uncles, aunts and cousins.

I feel that nothing would be complete unless one day is manifested for those who were kind and thoughtful enough to post me, and more especially those who never knew me, personally, such as a Mr. Johnson who came to Tuscaloosa to school and gave the pictures of Private Mills's grave to a cousin who in turn got them to me some how; and then, to a Mrs. Mel Keaton of Ipswich, Queenland, Australia, who spent her spare time locating the nearest of kin of the dead over there. She also showed her kindness by going to the cemetery and placing flowers on the graves in honor of the parents and loved ones of the lost ones over there on each United States holidays, such as, our Independence Day, Mother's Day, Xmas Day, etc. She sent pictures of the cemetery, individual graves and clippings from newspapers, showing public honors paid by them for our war dead. She was so nice to Air Mail the date of the ships departure (Gouchers Victory) with the deceased, December 27th, 1947, at 11:30 a.m. Three thousand witnessed the departure.

The greatest tribute paid in honoring our war dead over there, I think, was made by a 70-year-old Australian woman when she spoke the following words when she placed the Hibiscus flower on the casket of the unknown U. S. soldier at Newsstead Wharf, "I am an Australian, but Americans came here to fight for us. We should learn to respect one another — not fight." This thought alone put into practice will bring Peace, Peace.

—E. B. MILLS.

Three Years After

Rene A. Gagnon was one of the four U. S. Marine heroes who raised the Stars and Stripes atop Mt. Suribachi on Feb. 23, 1945, at the height of the battle for Iwo Jima, an event immortalized in one of the greatest war pictures ever photographed. Three years later, Gagnon recalls this famous date in his life—and in American history —as he works at the skilled job of doffer at the Chicopee Mfg. Corp., cotton textile plant at Manchester, N. H., to which he returned after the war.

Welfare Help for Aged Shows Healthy Increase

LOULA DUNN REPORT TELLS OF BIG GAINS

In an annual report to the governor, Miss Loula Dunn, Commissioner of Public Welfare, stated that during 1947 the number of needy cases aided by her department rose from 57,866 to 78,297.

For the current year, the budget of the Welfare Department was [illegible] $22,3[illegible]414 which is a substantial increase over the previous year's fund of $16,148,628. It was this increase that made it possible to add the additional 2,431 needy people to the welfare list.

A total of $12,595,455 was provided by the Federal government, while the State supplied $5,141,811, and the counties aided with $4,616,148.

Miss Dunn said that the increase in funds was used to put more people on the receiving list, instead of increasing the amount of money which the needy were receiving. The average monthly payment for both years remained approximately the same, just slightly over $20. Since this is an "average" figure, it does not mean, the report showed, that all people get $20 per month. Every case is judged on its own merit, and receives aid accordingly.

Only 4,000 More

The report stated that the 1948 budget will allow a maximum of 82,361 cases which will be aided by the Welfare Dept. Miss Dunn said, "It will not be possible to add more than the above number of cases, since the state appropriation is fixed by the legislature." This means that only 4,000 more people can be added to the needy list during the current year.

Reasons For [illegible]

[illegible] Alabama are becoming more and more numerous. The population of those over 65 grew from 136,209 in 1940 to 161,000 in 1947.

3. The great majority of these aged received such low wages during their working years that they were not able to put aside savings.

4. The sharp hike in the cost of living makes it increasingly difficult for the aged to live off their small incomes.

The report showed that at the end of 1947, 26,034 dependent children were being helped by the Welfare office. These include children [illegible] homes, and those crippled and needy in other ways.

Adoption Cases

The department handled 649 [illegible] 1947, and [illegible] adoptive homes [illegible]

[illegible] Public Welfare has contacted the Alabama congressional delegation, endeavoring to bring about changes in the present laws, whereby federal funds will be distributed to the states on the basis of the states' ability to finance payments to the needy. As it is, the poorer states do not have enough money to match with federal funds, in order to put into effect a well-rounded welfare program, Miss Dunn stated.

COMMISSIONER LOULA DUNN, Alabama Department of Public Welfare (above), is shown at her desk in the capitol. Her report for 1947 shows how much progress has been made with the welfare program, and also shows how much still needs to be done for the needy old folks.

IN MEMORY OF ALFRED

On the 7th day of February, 1948, God sent an Angel down to earth and took from us a dearly beloved brother, Alfred. We laid him to rest in Mt. Pisgah Church Cemetery, where he served God in church service and Sunday School every Sunday. He was teacher of the adult class and served well, and will be missed by those people who knew that he would be there to tell them of thir God and his. for he served God every day.

He was the youngest of 11 children of the late Rev. and Mrs. R. F. Yeargan, the parents of six sons and five daughters.

We know that God can do no wrong, but we shall miss you, Alfred, and the people around where you lived and [illegible] that ready smile and [illegible] it that was always presented by you.

HIGHLAND

The crowd out for Sunday school and preaching services was small Sunday, because of very bad roads in our community. And there is quite a bit of sickness too.

We had a wonderful Sunday School lesson that everyone enjoyed studying together, also a very fine sermon by our pastor, Bro. Deason.

Everytime we miss Sunday worship in God's house, we have lost something that means much to our spiritual well being.

We are hoping the weather will be better hereafter so that our church attendance will build back up to normal.

There is to be a singing here next Saturday night, weather permitting, at 7 o'clock.

Everyone has an invitation and are urged to come out and be with us.

State Docks At Peak Of 20 Year History

HENRY SWEET PRAISED FOR FINE RECORD

Gov. James E. Folsom said last week that a recent annual report by State Docks Director Henry Sweet pointed to the year 1947 as being the best in the 20-year history of the State Docks and Terminals at Mobile.

The report showed gross earnings by the docks amounting to $3,663,021 last year, as compared to $2,981,715 the previous year, while net earnings after depreciation and interest amounted to $1,266,862 as against $827,005 during 1946. This reveals a net earning increase of $439,856 or 53 per cent over the previous year.

Additional Wages

The report also stated that all docks' employees received additional wages during the 1947 operational period. The total wage increase over the previous year was $207,351. Sweet's report to Governor Folsom also said that the five-day or 40-hour week was put into effect at the docks last year.

The docks handled inbound and outbound tonnage amounting to 1,126,725 in 1947 as compared to 784,921 tons in 1946.

In 1947 the docks handled 112,198 loaded railroad cars in the terminal railway area. The previous year 88,012 were handled.

Material handled by the Bulk Material Plant was put at 3,110,542 tons in 1947 as against 2,134,675 in 1946, an increase of 39 per cent.

More Ships Docked

The report stated that 928 ships docked at the Mobile installations last year as against 761 the previous year.

The waterborne tonnage was put at 4,053,775 for 1947 as against 3,309,535, an increase of 22.49 per cent.

The docks facilities earned $31,524 through the process of cold storage, as compared to $30,857 the previous year.

Under Sweet, who was appointed in February 1947, to the State Docks directorship, the first docks personnel department was set up. This department was combined with the first full-time safety department in the docks' history.

The summary of docks' activities showed an increased circulation of "The Port of Mobile" from 6,000 to 15,000. Sweet said that the stepped-up circulation of the docks' publication was made possible by additional advertisement which has been acquired.

Sweet said, "A special program for personally contacting Alabama's mall manufacturers and business concerns has made our citizens more conscious of the State's fine investment in these docks facilities, and has helped to develop greater export tonnage."

"Much effort", Sweet added, "has been expended to aid in the location of new industries on the state docks' properties. Committees are still working on locating a commercial coffee roaster and sugar refinery to help Mobile capture additional import tonnage from our South American and Carribbean neighbors."

Upon the recommendation of Governor Folsom and through action taken by the 1947 Legislature, the docks director was authorized to spend $4,000,000 for expansion of the shipping facilities. Included in the expansion program will be the construction of three new ship berths with accompanying transit sheds. Work on the enlargement project began recently.

Six VA Offices In State To Be Closed

Veterans Administration offices at Andalusia, Anniston, Florence, Gadsden, Huntsville and Selma will be closed in March.

Harley A. Smith. Alabama regional manager of VA. said the changes were being made because of a reduction of 150 in the number of VA's non-medical personnel in the state.

State Markets Board Boosts Poultry Plant

Alabama farmers have a new processing plant for their poultry in Montgomery. The new Poultry Cooperative, Incorporated, under the direction of John Formby, manager, is processing 250 chickens per hour at present and has a capacity of 1,000 per hour. This reporter followed the fated hens from the time they were alive in their coops through the entire process of killing, scalding, plucking, drawing and freezing. The entire process lasted probably less than ten minutes. Billows of steam in one room were contrasted with a 35 degrees below zero temperature in the freezing room.

This new processing plant in Montgomery is only one of twelve operations promoted by the Alabama State Markets Board. Other operations include another poultry processing plant at Albertville, fruit and vegetable markets at Cullman, Aneonta, Albertville, Evergreen, Greenville, Ashford and Citronelle, and curb markets at Montgomery, Gadsden and Decatur.

The State Markets Board is an agency which tries to help farmers market their products. Money advanced for markets is on a self-liquidating basis, and these operations are carried on and managed by the farmers themselves. Some $500,000 has been spent in the last five years on markets and processing plants. This will be repaid from fees on each package of merchandise.

Mr. W. J. Hackett, director of the State Markets Board, in an interview stated that the "Board tries to bring the buyer and the seller together, but the actual transaction is handled entirely by the producer. The Board also provides farmers and market managements with market information and sales aid when requested. Federal-State inspection of fresh fruits and vegetables is made available to markets at the regular fees for these services."

The poultry markets advance the current daily prices to farmers for their produce which are packed in accord with rigid trade requirements and then distributed throughout Alabama to the wholesale trade. Surpluses accumulated in the treasury of the cooperatives are distributed by "patronage dividends" based on the amount of patronage of each producer. Thus, the farmers receive a larger part of the consumer's dollar spent for eggs and poultry.

The curb markets rent stall space to the farmer who sells directly to the consumer. If surpluses occur from these stall rentals, the members receive dividends based on the amount of rent paid to the association.

Mr. Hackett emphasized the fact that the State Markets Board does not limit its service to the assaciations operating the markets. "Our service is offered to any producer or shipper in Alabama."

Maritime Commission Pays Docks Storage

State Docks Director Henry Sweet disclosed last week that the U. S. Maritime Commission has agreed to pay the State Docks at Mobile $3,000 for the storege of 17 tons of foreign-produced meats. The meat was stored at the docks for two years.

The docks director said that the acceptance of the charges by the commission ended several months of negotiations. The commission formally abandoned the meat last month and turned it over to the U. S. Cusoms Office in Mobile.

Because of a recent ruling by the Agriculture Department that meats from foreign countries with hoof and mouth disease would be banned from the U. S., customs officials said that an inspection of the meat had been made and that an announcement of its disposition would be made soon.

Sweet said the meat was taken from ships brought to Mobile for layup.

Diploma Will Not Assure Success In Business

College graduates in commerce will not succeed in business just because they have a diploma, according to Dean F. H. Elwell, of the University of Wisconsin.

Speaking at the [illegible] of Alabama, Dean Elwell said more graduates fail in business because of personal characteristics rather than from lack of technical preparation.

He said you still have to "get along with fellow workers" to succeed.

"Too many college graduates expect everything to be done for them," he said.

EFFORT BEING MADE TO END SWEETPOTATO DISEASE IN THE STATE

To stop the rapid spread of diseases which threaten the sweetpotato industry, state regulations will allow only certified sweetpotato seed, plants and vine cuttings to be sold next year.

All growers who wish to sell seed, plants, or vines should make application to the Division of Plant Industry, State Department of Agriculture and Industries, Montgomery, before June 1 of 1948 to have their fields inspected. Several inspections will be necessary to comply with the regulations.

PASTURES

If land has been prepared, March is a good month to finish seeding pasture mixtures. Old pastures not fertilized last fall should be fertilized now.

Crumpton - Hayes

On Saturday afternoon of February 21, 1948, Mr. James William (Billy) Hayes and [illegible] ton were un[illegible] Rev. E. C. [illegible] minister.

The bride's suit was of a p[illegible] blue with black accessories. [illegible] were both, the bride and the gr[illegible] of very striking personalities as they stood together before their pas[illegible] loves them very much, and re[illegible] the nuptial vows that bound them together in the holy bonds of matrimony.

Those present who witnessed the very impressive double ring ceremony were Mr. Douglas Hayes, brother of the groom, and Miss Mary Oates, a very close friend of the bride; also Mr. William Rasberry who is a grandfather of the groom, and Mrs. E. C. Hand.

Both the groom and the bride are devout young Christians and are splendid workers in the church, and the many friends that they have will wish for them all the good things that life has to offer them along the marital voyage of life and with the Christian training that each has had in their respective homes, as the fathers of each of them are deacons of the Macedonia Baptist church, we see no reason why this very popular young couple will not make for themselves a home that will be such as for other young couples to pattern after. We understand they will make their home in the Macedonia Community.

May God's richest blessings be with them now and always.

Farmers who are interested in establishing a reseeding winter legume, should take advantage of the P. P. A. program and apply lime on their cropland. This fall plant a reseeding legume (Manganese Bur Clover, Caley Peas, Tangier Peas, Yellow Flowered Vetch, or Hard Seed Crimson Clover) and allow the legume to make seed before planting another crop on the land.

Mr. E. C. Richardson at Auburn has obtained three volunteer stands of Caley Peas and Yellow Flowered Vetch after turning one heavy seed crop. Plan now to lime your land and plant a reseeding winter legume to give more time for gathering your crop and reduce the cost of a winter cover crop.

To remove those lime deposits in your teakettle, add ½ cup of vinegar to 1 pint of water and boil in the teakettle for several minutes.

4-H Club Boys Hold Meeting In Clanton Friday February 20

At a meeting in Clanton on Friday, February 20th, 4-H Club boys met to plan their commercial sweet corn project. Attending this meeting were Mr. John Bagby, Marketing Specialist from Auburn. Mr. J. C. Lowery, Agronomist, also of Auburn, Mr. Roy Sellers, A & P representative of Montgomery; and Mr. Cecil Ramsey, Manager of the local A & P Store.

Club boys have grown sweet corn for home use for the past two years. However, last year was the first time local grown fresh sweet corn was offered for sale in Clanton. Leo Headley, Jr., Club member of Mt. Pisgah Club, supplied limited quantities of corn to stores in Clanton that he had grown as a project.

This year, 4-H boys are planning to grow sweet corn in quantity to supply A & P stores in Montgomery. Planting schedules will be arranged so that the corn will mature over a period of several weeks.

Club boys were advised that it would be necessary to spray corn while in the silk stage to prevent ear worm damage if a quantity of corn is to be grown. Another very important phase of quality sweet corn production and marketing that was discussed was proper handling. Unless sweet corn is handled fast and put under refrigeration quickly it loses its flavor and freshness.

Fertilizer recommendations were also a major topic for discussion during the meeting. Club boys were given fertilizer recommendations that could be expected to produce good yields under normal weather conditions.

Throughout the meeting methods and means of producing and marketing quality corn were emphasized. Club boys realize that there is no substitute for quality and are planning on handling their sweet corn project accordingly. Below are listed the names of club boys who have obtained their seed and are making preparations for getting their project under way:

Collins Chapel Club — M. R. Burnette, Charles Williams, Joe Frank Bice, Askew Davis and J. W. Gore.

Union Grove Club — Charles Curtis Robinson.

Enterprise Club — Leo Headley, Jr., Albert Broadhead.

Verbena Club — Horace Sandlin and Clyde Henderson.

Mt. Pleasant Club — Eugene Oaks and Aaron Price.

Cooper Club — Leonard Moates.

SWEET POTATO BEDDING TIME IS HERE

Sweet potato bedding time is here. If you want to have sweet potato plants ready to set in the field on time now is the time to bed the seed potatoes.

Select your sweet potato seed carefully before bedding them. Bed only those potatoes that are free of diseases. Look for scars and rotten spots on the potatoes while you are moving them from the hill or potato house. If you bed poor quality diseased potatoes, the disease is likely to be carried to the field on the plants. Then from the field, the diseased potatoes will go back in storage where the result will be a loss of potatoes.

You can treat your sweet potato seed with Semesan and kill the surface borne diseases on them. Follow the recommendations on the package if you use Semesan. You can use Borax. Put one pound of borax in five gallons of water. Let your potato seed soak in this solution for ten minutes before bedding.

If you are going to use a flu heated hotbed for growing sweet potato plants clean out the old soil and put in new soil. Cover the potatoes with a mixture of one-half fresh soil and one-half rotten sawdust. (Do not use sawdust that has been burned).

After the potatoes are bedded the temperature should be raised from 80 to 85 degrees F. and kept there.

Keep the beds watered well—once or twice a week should be enough.

Cover beds in case there is danger of frost. Put cover on at night and remove in mornings.

To add charm to your living room, arrange your favorite pieces of china in a bookshelf in one corner. Displayed against a contrasting background, they will show to best advantage.

Good Reason To Be Proud!

Cy Hartman's mighty proud of his growing herd of pure-bred Holsteins. He's not only careful to keep out undesirable strains, but he's quick to isolate any Holstein that falls ill so that the others are protected. Result: he's got about the best herd in the county!

Reminds me a little of the Alabama Committee—U. S. Brewers Foundation's program of "Self Regulation." They're mighty proud of the places that sell beer—and their record of decency and good behavior. So they're awfully careful to keep out any undesirables.

And if one of them gets out of line, they're quick to act. If a warning doesn't do the trick, they call on the proper authorities to have that outlet "isolated" (or barred from business) till the fault's corrected.

Sure, it's more care and trouble to keep up "pure-bred" standards—among either dairy farms or retail outlets. But from where I sit, the result is readily apparent—and something to be mighty proud of!

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Chapel and little daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Louie Patrick and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Peterson, all of Birmingham were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Raybon and Mrs. Chas. Peterson this past week end.

Friends of Mrs. Chas. Peterson and family, sympathize with them in the loss of Mrs. Peterson's eldest son, Arthur, who passed away in a Detroit hospital last week, following a serious operation from which he did not rally. Arthur spent his boyhood days in Thorsby, having come here with his family back in the early days. He attended schools here and attended business college in Birmingham, where he was employed for a short time before going to Detroit, where he has lived for many years. In 1919 he married Miss Dorothy Bebbington who preceded him to the grave in 1943. In April, 1946, he married Miss Adena Wilson and to this union was born a son, now about five months old. Besides the widow and son, he is survived by his mother, Mrs. Chas. Peterson of Thorsby, three sisters and three brothers, also a large number of other relatives. He was buried in Detroit on last Friday.

Mrs. C. R. Foss and Mrs. Karl Peterson of Birmingham spent Tuesday and Wednesday here visiting with relatives.

Miss Julia Johnson, who has been visiting her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Hanson, is now spending some of her vacation in Miami, Fla. She will return here before going back to her home in Green Bay, Wis.

A very happy family gathering was held at the home of Mrs. A. E. Reagan on Tuesday afternoon and night, when she entertained Mr. and Mrs. Axel Solie, cousins of the Turnquists, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Crabbe, all of Appleton, Wis. They were en route home, after visiting in Miami, Fla., and stopped here to visit with their kin folks. Mrs. Reagan had as supper guests Mr. and Mrs. James Bosworth and Leonard Bosworth, Mrs. Karl Petelson, Mrs. C. R. Foss and the Turnquists besides the visitors. In the evening they were joined by Mrs. Anna Phalin, and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Howard, who also hail from Wisconsin. The cousins had not seen one another since they were children when the Turnquists lived in Wisconsin, and they really had a jolly time talking old times.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Porter and Mr. and Mrs. Dolphus Gentry spent Sunday in Birmingham visiting with relatives.

The following young ladies enjoyed a sewing bee with Miss Jimmie Claire Littleton on Tuesday evening: Misses Mary Evelyn Vines, Eloise Piper, Billy Ann Parrish and Mrs. Frank Porter.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies Guild meets at the home of Mrs. Sam Mims this afternoon. All members and friends are invited to attend.

Littleton of Thorsby, announce the engagement of their daughter, Jimmie Claire, to William R. Hill of Winder, Ga. Jimmie Claire's picture also appeared in the News.

Don't forget to attend the regular meeting of your Civic Club on next Monday night at the Town Hall. There'll be things of interest discussed, so make it your business to be there.

The price per plate is 75c and if you have not already purchased your tickets, be sure and do so now.

Clanton - Selma Kiwanians Met

The club meeting for Thursday, February 19th, was an inter-club meeting with representatives from the Selma Club and the Alexander City Club being present. The Selma Club, under the leadership of its able president, P. C. DeBardeleben, had complete charge of the meeting. They presented Miss Warren of the Albert G. Parrish High School who sang two numbers. The speaker for the evening, Dr. T. A. Young, of Selma, spoke on, "America's Responsibility In The World." His theme centered around the thought that America must be willing to share her resources with those less fortunate countries of the world and particularly with those of the Far East. These countries are in the balance and will determine soon which way they will turn. Dr. Young lived in the Far East for a greater portion of his life and has traveled through the East extensively. He spoke with authority and those present at the meeting were impressed with his knowledge and understanding of world problems as they pertain to America.

The meeting this week will be under the direction of the Vocational Guidance Committee. Rev. John R. Smith will be the speaker.

To The Voters Of Chilton County

According to our standard of government we have many offices to be filled this year. And the interest and upbuilding of our county and state are at the disposal of the voters again.

I notice we have Geo. T. S. Shoults out for road commissioner for the 3rd district in Chilton County, the same position Mr. Ousley held for a number of years.

I am personally acquainted with George, who is in the prime of life and is quite capable of the job he has qualified for. I know of no quotation that more describes his practices than the following: "When A Task Is Once Begun, Never Leave It Until Its Done; He Does The Labor Great or Small and Does it Well or Not At All."

George drove a school bus for several years in Chilton County and he knows what it is to be mired down in the mud; he knows how much good roads add to the upbuilding of a state, county and community.

George is a well balanced man with an understanding of fairness and justice; his meek and quiet spirit, gentle manners and modest way, speaks louder in his behalf than words are able to portray. Give him a break, voters, if there ever was a time we need leaders of equity, it is now, when the world seems so steeped in evils of every kind, character disregarded and life has become so cheap.

Cast your ballots wisely for the good of all people, state, county and community.

Besides a good literary education, George has been educated for many jobs in the school of practicality; from this school we get real men. He is a Number 1 electrician, and during the World War II, when the fate of our country was at stake, He was a faithful worker at the Mobile shipyards, a dependable first class welder and did many jobs no other welder could do. His conscientious ability was a mighty energy in helping to win the war. Voters, remember, his faithfulness and give him a helping hand at the polls in the coming election. He is competent. Help yourself by helping him.

Remember the job—Road Commissioner.

Remember the place—Third District, Beats 6, 7, 8 and 15.

And remember the man, Geo. T. S. Shoults, the man who is eligible and the man who deserves your vote, and the man who is whole-heartedly interested in the progress and upbuilding of Chilton County where he has always lived.—By One Who Knows Him Personally.

Gold Medal Tourney To Be Held At Calera, Ala.

Basketball will be at its best at Calera High School gym February 25th through 28th, when teams from various sections of the State make their appearance in a Gold Medal Basketball Tourney for Independents. There should be plenty of thrills when the following teams mix it up on the hardwood: Clanton Athletic Club, Clanton's W.O.W., Isabella, Thorsby and Jemison, from Chilton County; Buck Creek Cottonmill and Calera from Shelby County; the following from Birmingham: Coca-Cola Bottling Co., West End Merchants, Cresent Transit and the Great Army Team who defeated Stockholm in the Y.M.C.A. Tourney at Birmingham recently, and went to win second place, losing only to Ben Chapman's Southern States team in the finals of the tourney.

Other teams are expected to enter before whistle time of the tournament. All games will be played at night, beginning at 6:00 p.m. on the night of February 25th.

Two beautiful trophies are to be presented teams winning first and second places, with 71 individual medals for players for individual honors. All are urged to be on hand for the first game.

INSTITUTIONAL ON-THE-FARM TRAINING

From Mars Hill Community we find a eager and energetic young farmer that we would like to give special mention this week. He is R. C. Crumpton, age 26, who lives seven miles west of Jemison on the Free Springs road.

Mr. Crumpton was in the Army for more than 4½ years and of that time he spent 2½ years overseas. Since returning from service he has joined our General Farming Program and has now been with us about a year.

Mr. Crumpton has a 60-acre farm of which 25 acres are in cultivation. This year he plans to grow corn, cotton, oats, hay, watermelons, bell pepper, okra, early corn and strawberries. He also has nice plans for a home garden and a bigger and more permanent pasture.

In our interview with Mr. Crumpton we find that not only has the Veterans' Training Program helped him financially, but also has been educational and aided him in many problems. The program has encouraged him toward better management.

CRATES HARD TO GET

Sweetpotato field and storage crates possibly will be hard to obtain this year. Used crates should be repaired, cleaned, disinfected, and stored in a dry place until next fall. Sweetpotato storage houses should be cleaned and disinfected as soon as they are emptied.

Put epty spools over nails to hang clothing. This will prevent tears, and will keep rust from staining the material.

According to reports the intruder went into Mr. Brausa's side of the house first, stripped his pants, folded them back up and went through the living room leaving the door open. He picked up a rug and went to the back of the other apartment where he placed a rug over the window. The intruder was spied by occupants of the other apartment before he could do any damage.

They report that they didn't get a good view of the intruder since he was seen squatted in the window.

More Corn For Chilton County

(By M. R. GLASSCOCK)

Corn is our biggest crop in Chilton County. It grows on more acres than any other crop. We are trying to increase the yield per acre. We must make corn a big source of cash in this county because so much land grows it. Farmers who make big corn yields can have corn to sell or they can feed it to some form of livestock and sell the livestock for cash. We are conducting three kinds of demonstrations about corn growing in 1948.

The first one is our "Special High-Fertilization, Thick-Spacing Demonstration." This takes only one acre of land unless you want to use more. The main thing in this demonstration is to use 600 pounds of fertilizer under the corn and side-dress with 400 pounds of nitrate of soda or other good sources of nitrogen. Plant a good hybrid or open-pollinated corn and space thick. Spacing varies some according to the kind of hybrid.

The second big feature is our "100-Bushel Per Acre Club." All you have to do to join this club is to make 100 bushels per acre. on one or more acres, measure your yield and send the facts to the county agent's office. Members of this club will be given a membership certificate by the Extension Service.

The third feature is our "Whole-Farm Corn Demonstrations." This simply means a farmer putting his whole corn crop into the demonstration to see how high a yield he can average on his entire crop. Again it will not be necessary to weigh the crop. We furnish a simple method whereby you can get your average yield.

We are anxious to have several hundred farmers in this demonstration.

Let us have your name right away if you will cooperate on one, or more, of these demonstrations. We will send you complete methods recommended in conducting the demonstrations.

Rat Control Materials Available At Cost

Many have written concerning the control of rats. Few people realize the importance of rat control. These pests are a health hazard and they destroy enormous quantities of food and feed products annually. It is estimated that, at a conservative estimate, rats destroy $5,000,000 worth of prolucts annually in Alabama. It is particularly important that we do everything possible to combat this pest at the present time. As you know, rat control is an important phase of the current "save the grain" program in America. In an effort to help with this control program, the Rodent Control Division of the Fish and Wildlife Service, U. S. Department of the Interior has made available ready-mixed baits for use in rural rat control campaigns. Fish meal mixed with Red Squill is available at 54c per pound, f.o.b., Abbeville, La., and at the State College, Mississippi. All orders for this readymixed rat bait should be addressed to Mr. R. B. Deen, District Agent, Predator and Rodent Control Campaign, P. O. Box 395, State College, Mississippi. At current prices you cannot mix rat baits of your own at this price.

A new rat poison known as Autu is available on the market at the present time. I believe that this material can be bought from most wholesale drug firms. This material, when properly mixed with suitable bait, is very effective against the brown or Norway rat. We commonly know this as the warf rat. If the Antu is used, it should be mixed at the rate of 3 ounces of pure Antu to 4 or 6 pounds of bait.

THE LINES ARE DRAWN

[illegible] n said on the streets of Clanton and Chilton [illegible] about whether the Republican Party of the count[illegible] put out a ticket in the spring primary. Before the deadline for qualifying Monday night the two parties had a candidate qualified for each office and some of the offices had many candidates.

On the Demoratic ticket will be the names of some of the county's most prominent business men: For Tax Collector, M. C. Hayes, Howard Roper, Jim Parrish; for Tax Assessor, Pope Payne, Julius Smith, N. L. Buck Roberts; Commissioner District Four, Jim Plott, Charlie Gulledge, Robert Holley, Jim Dunlap, Johnny Johnson; Commissioner District Three, T. A. (Abney) Brown, Winston W. Culp, Archie L. Dennis, Marcus Jones, George Shoults, Neal Harrell, Welch Roebuck, E. N. Shanks; for County Treasurer, B. E. Reeves.

On the Republican Ticket will be the names of Leo Headley and Marion Easterling for Tax Assessor; Jack Mims for Tax Collector; Carlos Wyatt for County Treasurer; Johnnie Easterling, Frank Mims and Sy Foshee for Commissioner of District Four; and Charlie Wilkins and G. C. Latham for Commissioner of District Three.

Thus the line is drawn. The future of our county for the next four and six year terms will be in the hands of one of these candidates according to the office he seeks to fill. Choose well. Chilton County is only deserving of the best.

Folks and Things About Town

--By BEN

Marion Easterling owes us an apology and we owe you an apology. The other week when we ran the paragraph about Marion qualifying and making the race for county treasurer, we did so at his request. When he came into our office and said to announce his candidacy for the office, we did so in good faith and only because we were glad to do him a favor. This week Mr. Easterling announced on the Republican Ticket for Tax Assessor. In the future we will try to watch our news reporting closer—for our part in the mis-printing we're sorry.

Did you ever try to write a column while flat on your back—full of Penicillin—with your wife sitting on your chest? Weil, that is the condition that prevails this week. The Doc said go to bed. That gave the little woman a free hand to take over, and boy, can she take over.

Well, enough about nothing, let's talk about you for a while. Wonder if you are going to make the fiddling [illegible]t at the courthouse Saturday night? According to James Moatts, there will be one swell program with plenty of music.

And don't forget the Doll Show Friday night. It's for a good cause [illegible] you will get more than your money's worth. By-the-way, Mrs. Warr is going to serve coffee and sandwiches, so don't eat too much supper. Save a little room so you can patronize the ladies.

Are you keeping your eyes on that city play ground and swimming pool? Looks like there will be action there if the weather ever GIVES her permission.

Wasn't it a wonderful sight to see the business men and women of Clanton in action Monday morning after the Red Cross breakfast at the high school? They all worked like bees. There's no doubt about reaching a quota when such enthusiasm is MANIFESTED.

And did those golfers ever swarm the local golf course last Saturday and Sunday? It was perfect golf weather and the local "golf boys took advantage of it.

A boy was running down the street n a great hurry. Someone asked him where he was going. He said that a ady's dog had been run over and had his leg broken. He was told not to tell the lady suddenly, to break it to her gently, she was very foolish about that dog. "Don't worry, I won't," said the boy. "I'm going to start off by telling her it's her husband."

Things we read: Had you noticed the last two syllables in American is "I can.". . .Mississippi doesn't raise cowards. More Congressional of Honor medals were won by Mississippians in World War II than any other state. . .Back in our school days we thought the Board of Education was a shingle. . .when a man knocks a town he confesses he was, or is, A FAILURE in it.

Hot ziggety dog, we're getting cityfied. The other day we called for Barth Lumber Company, and the operator says, "I'll give you information."

FUTURE FARM INCOME TO DETERMINE WHAT PRICE OF LAND DOES

Auburn, Ala. — What land prices—now near the 1920 peak—are going to do depends largely on what happens to net farm income in the next few years, predicts Foy Helms, statistician of the API Extension Service.

Six years of record farm income have pushed prices of land on which cotton is the major source of income up an average of 80 per cent and prices of land devoted mainly to livestock up 70 per cent, reveals a spot check of several counties in the Southeast. This check was made by government experts.

Whether land prices go on up, level off, or fall will be determined by how much profits farmers make in the future, Helms believes. Many prospective buyers are showing they do not count on the present high farm income to last indefinitely. This shows up in smaller increases in land values during 1947 than in earlier years, explained the statistician.

"Land values in the country as a whole increased only one per cent during the four-month period ending last November 1. In the same period a year earlier, values increased three per cent.

"In the Southeastern states it is indicated that a generally weaker farm real estate market than recently is expected. Only 23 per cent of a group of farm real estate dealers answering a government questionnaire said they expected prices to go higher, whereas about half of them expected prices to turn downward. An even higher percentage of the reporters forecast that fewer sales would be made," concluds Helms.

A good way to avoid streaks when dyeing materials is to dissolve the dye in about one cup of warm water, then strain through a thin cloth before adding to the rest of the liquid.

STANTON

(Too Late For Last Week)

I'm sure that all of our people read with interest the write-up in the News last week about Sheldon Cook of this community. Sheldon deserves much credit for his accomplishments and he is all that was said about him in this write-up. He stands for the right and isn't afraid to have his say. He is a hard worker, conscientious and determined. His effort toward the Democratic Party have been many and he has been rewarded.

During the drive for the March of Dimes we were ever remindful of the services of one who has passed on, but one whose memory stands firm, and one who gave his best to the underprivileged — Mell Martin. He is greatly missed by many in our section and other sections as well where he was always ready to lend a helping hand. Mell Martin gave of his talents and time to this worthy cause and we pause to be ever thankful for his services in our county.

Reverend John R. Smith spoke on, "The Importance of Guidance," for our young people. He presented the problem of guidance from the viewpoint that it was a responsibility for the adults. This guidance to be effective must be an attempt on the part of adults to be guide posts for the young people. To be effective it must be continuous and by example rather than by talk.

The meeting for Thursday, March 4th, is an open meeting and is in charge of the president, Carlisle Miller.

SEED REGINNED, TREATED MAKE FOR MORE COTTON

Two definite reasons why reginned and treated cottonseed should be planted this Spring were given this week by O. N. Andrews, API extension cotton specialist.

Reason number one is that while fewer of these seed are needed to plant an acre, better stands are obtained and kept. Three bushels of reginned and treated cottonseed will plant the same acreage as four bushels of seed not handled this way, said Andrews.

Cotton can be planted a week or 10 days earlier if delinted and treated seed are used. Since early cotton usually makes highest yields, it is very important for farmers to avoid late planting, the specialist continued.

"A summary of results from agricultural experiment stations reveal that by planting with reginned and treated seed the yield was raised an average of 250 pounds of seed cotton per acre. When seed were only treated the figure was 159 pounds, and when only reginned the gain was 167, stated Andrews.

Acid delinted seed yield less than reginned seed, the specialist advised growers.

Guardsmen Don't Have To Pay Poll Tax

Attorney General Albert A. Carmichael last week ruled that members of the National Guard will not have to pay Alabama's poll tax.

Under state law, Carmichael said a member of the guard is exempt from the poll tax as long as he maintains his active membership in he guard.

"Guardsmen need only to present certificates from their commanding officers showing that they are active members," the attorney said.

Farm News

Corn Planting Time—

Corn planting time is just around the corner. Farmers are already buying seed corn and making preparations for this year's crop.

With the work that has been done on hybrid corn in the county, a great many farmers have become interested in trying hybrid corn on a limited acreage this year. In buying hybrid seed corn it is well to know the kind or type of hybrid that is being bought. There are many kinds of hybrid corn, some of which will give good results in this locality while others will not prove satisfactory. Of the hybrids that have been tried in Chilton County, Funk's 6-714 has given the widest range of good results. Most of the higher yields made in the county last year were made with this hybrid. Other hybrids may prove to be equally as satisfactory as Funk's, but until they have been tried and proven it would be well to try other varieties on strictly an experimental basis.

Hybrids can not work miracles in raising corn yields, but they can be expected to produce an increase in yield over many of the existing open pollinated varieties. Planting date, methods and cultural practices, and fertilizer treatment all play equally as important a role as does the seed itself. Unless all of these factors are taken into consideration and carried out as they should be the variety of hybrid that is planted makes very little difference.

Hybrid is not a cure-all for low corn yields in the county. However, hybrid eed along with good farming practices can usually be expected to give good results. Rather than being a cure-all or low production ills it serves as one of the many remedies used in speeding up recovery.

Better Livestock For Alabama—

Better livestock to balance with better crops for a better farm program in Alabama was the theme of a meeting on the API Agricultural Experiment Station at Auburn last Friday.

The meeting, attended by county agents, assistant county agents, and vocational teachers in charge of the Veterans' Training Program in 16 counties was one of a series being held on all the Agricultural Experiment Station units in the State. County workers will carry information revealed to them at these meetings back to farmers in their counties. Additional Experiment Station meetings in which farmers will attend are being planned.

Visitors to the Main Station here were shown the artificial livestock breeding unit established last year. This is the center of a vastly improved dairy cattle breeding program for all of the stata. W. E. Alston, animal husbandman in charge of the unit, said 17 county breeding associations with 28,000 dairy cows and heifers enrolled are already participating in the program.

At the station's poultry farm the county workers were told about new trains of chicks that have been developed for broiler production. "New Hampshires are probably the best broiler breed at the present time", advised Associate Poultry Husbandman C. J. Cottier. Facts about growing better turkeys for Alabama markets lso were given by Cottier.

On the crop side of the ledger, cotton, corn, hay crops, and grazing crops were studied by the visitors.

F. S. Arant, station entomologist, listed three new insecticides for controlling cotton insects.

Arant presented experimental data to show that 20 per cent chlorinated camphene, a mixture of benzene hexachloride and DDT, and alternate applications of calcium arsenate and calcium arsenate containing 2 per cent nicotine, are more effective for controlling cotton insects than methods used heretofore.

Grow More Corn

"Alabama farmers can grow more corn on each acre by planting good hybrids and open pollinated varieties and by using heavy rates of fertilization," T. H. Rogers, associate agronomist, declared He showed figures to prove that some hybrids and varieties are much better than others for Alabama.

High rates of fertilization and thicker-than-usual spacing also were cited as important factors in getting highest corn yields.

Experiments dealing with such feed crops as alfalfa, fescue grass, crimson clover, manganese bur clover, and combinations of clovers and grains were reviewed.

Explaining that alfalfa on areas receiving less than 400 pounds of potash per acre each year has not been satisfactory, D. G. Sturkie, station agronomist, said that the 400-pound rate is maintaining a good stand. Average annual yields for 5 years where 400 lbs were used was 4.2 tons per acre, he said.

J. C. Grimes, head of the animal husbandry department, gives up-to-the minute information on growing winter grazing crops for dairy cattle, beef cattle and hogs. "Over a 4-year period, and average of 189 pounds of beef per acre have been produced from a year-round feed and forage program," he reported. Similar results have been obtained with dairy cattle and hogs

Following this meeting an additional tour of all interested farmers will be held. A Chilton County group will visit the Auburn Station Saturday, March 13.

Peach Tree Spraying

During the past few days a large number of peach growers have asked he question, "Is it too late to put a dormant spray on my peach trees:" The answer is YES. Don't use oil Emulsion after the buds begin to swell. If you want to use a DELAYED DORMANT spray of concentrated lime sulphur. 5 gallons per 100 galons of spray will probably be safe.

Be careful in treating peach trees for borers at this time of year.

Most peach growers in Chilton County use PAN spray in their orchards during the regular season. If you are planning to use Pan spray, it is believed to be helpful to add 3 lbs. of wettable sulphur and 4 lbs of lime to the mixture on all sprays using pan mixture. Add 2 lbs. of 50 per cent wettable DDT per 100 gallons of mixture on the pink gray and the shuck off spray (when you first see the small fruit) to aid in controlling the Oriental ruit moth and grasshoppers.

Put extra sulphur sprays on peaches in the bloom stage to aid in controlling blossom blight or Brown Rot at that stage. You may spray with sulphur by its self after the regular sprays have been completed even up to picking time.

Spray peach trees thoroughly. Use a high pump pressure and fog the spray into the trees instead of "squirting" it into the tree. You can cover trees better and faster with a high pump head pressure. If you have been using 400 lbs per sq inch pump pressure and your machine will stand it; set the pressure up to 600 lbs per sq inch and see for yourself how it works. You might be surprised at the difference.

For other detailed information on spraying peaches call by the County Agent's office.

ISABELLA

There were fairly nice congregations at Mulberry for both services Sunday.

On Sunday, March 14th, Bro. Luther Woodward will begin a Stewardship revival at Mulberry. Services wil lbe each evening through Friday, March 19th. We are anxious for this revival to be well attended.

The Mulberry W.M.U. will have their regular monthly meeting at the church Wednesday, March 10th, at 6:30 p.m.

Mr. Curtis Lecroy was seriously ill last week, but is improving now.

Our community extends our sympathy to the family of Mrs. Bessie Grooms Speer who was laid to rest in Isabella Cemetery Sunday afternoon.

She was hit near her home in Ensley, Ala., last Tuesday by a street car and never regained consciousness after the accident.

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Davenport and daughter, Linda, of Montgomery, visited the former's parents here last week end.

Mrs. Wilbur Smith has been visiting her father, Mr. Clayton Edwards, and [illegible] Luda Carter, for a few days.

Mrs. Leta Smitherman, Mrs. Lucile V[illegible]y and Mrs. Dee Veasey attended the miscellaneous shower Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Billy Hayes —nee Marie Crumpton—at Macedonia.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Harris and daughter, Carolyn, of Birmingham, were the week end guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. Bessie Jones. and sister, Mrs. E. C. Lecroy.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Summers attended the funeral of the former's aunt in Birmingham Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Fulford are making their home now with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. B Mizzell.

Mrs. Amye Lecroy still remains in bed with burns received some time ago.

Homer Lecroy of Marion, Ala., was here visiting his parents Sunday.

Soil Conservation News

Old stands of Manganese Bur Clover are now being grazed. This is the first time this winter that it has had a chance to grow. W. A. Williams made this statement about his Manganese Bur Clover, "I plan on putting my two sows on my clover this week. I think the growth is good enough to carry them until my kudzu puts out." Mr. Williams is one man that has learned to grow hogs cheaply with green grazing and corn.

J. N. Dennis is now grazing his bur clover. Mr. Dennis is very well pleased with his clover. If you have planted a seed patch of Manganese Bur Clover and it looks like a failure, do not plow it up. Almost all seed patches look bad the first year.

Soil Conservation Service workers ran terrace lines on Audie L. Brown's farm last week. Last year Mr. Brown sodded the water disposal areas in sericea and kudzu. This year he was ready to build new terraces in his fields because he had established a sod or cover on the places where the surplus water from the fields were supposed to be put. The teacher of veterans taking vocational agricultural training, George Smith, assisted by Olin G. Fields, Work Unit Conservationist, held a field meeting on Mr. Brown's farm. The veterans were shown work that had been done by Mr. Brown toward completion of his soil and water conservation plan. The veteran's teachers are doing a very fine job of teaching soil conservation in their classes.

North Central Soil Conservation District Farm Plans were made last month on the farms of Charles Foshee, Albert Thompson, Mineur Williams and Shelly Wilson.

C. R. Childress has begun digging his kudzu seedlings. Mr. Childress has three acres of seedlings. They will be sold for ten dollars a thousand.

An extra muslin paw or a towel on your ironing board will help to bring out the pattern of embroidered or lace-trimmed articles being ironed.

To stretch your meat, use pop-corn in meat loaves. This will give a delicious new flavor, also.

The Fertilizer Situation

"Will I get enough fertilizer this spring?" is the question worrying most Alabama farmers. "Will I be able to top-dress my oats?" "Will I have nitrate to side-dress corn and cotton?"

Current information says that we have more fertilizer than last year. This applies to the nation as a whole. It does not mean that Alabama will have the fertilizer wanted or needed in 1948. Other parts of the country are "bidding" strong for fertilizers. The Mid-west is increasing use of fertilizer at a rapid rate. Several of these states are making strong drives to get and use more fertilizer in 1948. Demand everywhere has increased. We may have more mixed goods. But the outlook for the Alabama farmer to get the nitrogen he wants for top and side-dressing looks discouraging at this time. Very likely many farmers will be disappointed in that they will not get the nitrogen they want.

Potash is scarce. The farmer who needs it for alfalfa, pastures and other crops will likely have another hard year.

Here are things that will help:

1. Get all fertilizer as quickly as possible. This will be insurance for the farmer; it may help the fertilizer manufacturer to make more available.

2. Let winter legumes make all the growth possible where tractors are available for turning and still get crop planted on time.

3. Be alert to get any satisfactory source of nitrogen that becomes available, providing the price is in line.

The following information should clarify many questions farmers have in mind in reference to the various sources of nitrogen:

1. Ammonium nitrate — averages about 32 per cent nitrogen. It is very satisfactory. Use it if you can get it.

2. Ammonium sulphate — a good source. It is acid-forming. About 125 pounds of limestone per 100 pounds of ammonia will correct the acidity. Used in a rotation where basic slag is used freely you have no risk. Use sulphate in 1948 if you can get it and the price is in line with other sources of nitrogen.

3. Cyanamid — a good source if used right. Apply it 3 or 4 weeks ahead of planting. It is best to use it before planting rather than as a side-dressing.

4. Anhydrous ammonia — a gaseous form; gives good results; is cheap. You have to have special storage tanks with pressure equipment and special equipment on tractors for applying it. Applying anhydrous is a tractor operation.

5. The use of 10-10-0 fertilizer:

10-10-0 was approved as an emergency grade of fertilizer for 1948 by the State Board of Agriculture. This action was taken to make additional quantities of certain types of nitrogen available to Alabama farmers for 1948.

On account of the potash shortage many fertilizer mixers have more ammonia solution than they can use in fertilizers containing nitrogen, phosphate and potash. Many have superphosphate with which to mix the ammonia solution. 10-10-0 is made by mixing ammonia solution with superphosphate and ammonium sulphate. Farmers have no way of distributing liquid fertilizers.

10-10-0 should be considered chiefly as a source of nitrogen. Its use will be mainly as a side-dressing material. There are some consideration which should be kept in mind in recomending this material. The place of the crop being fertilized in the cropping system on the farm should be a consideration. For example, suppose a farmer has, or will have, some nitrate of soda or ammonium nitrate, but not enough to meet his needs of nitrogen for side dressing. He may have some small grain on which he will seed annual lespedeza, also corn and cotton which will need side-dressing with nitrogen. He should use 10-10-0 on the oats so the annual lespedeza will receive benefit from the phosphate, and use the nitrate of soda to side-dress the corn and cotton.

Such crops as small grains, [illegible] grass and mixtures of [illegible] ter legumes for seed, gra[illegible] followed by grain sorg[illegible] or other crops may be top-dressed with 10-10-0. The soda, ammonia nitrate or other sources containing nitrogen alone should be held back for side-dressing corn, cotton and grain [illegible]m.

If 10-10-0 is used to side dress corn or cotton, it should be used on corn or cotton, if possible, which will be followed by a crop planted [illegible] fall, such as winter legumes, small grain or mixtures of winter legumes and small grains to achieve best use of the phosphate contained in it.

Outing-flannel cases [illegible] the broom will make it [illegible] dust mop. The cases can be [illegible] on with a draw-string and in this way be easily removed for washing.

Mr. Shevnan says: The Zoetic Shield is a tremendous improvement over all former methods, effecting immediate results. MAKE BEST BETTER AIM

The 4-H Club motto, "To make the best better," will be applied to the 1948 state camp and shortcourse for Alabama 4-H members to be held in Auburn August 30 through September 4th.

The state 4-H Club council officers plan to make the 1948 camp the best ever held, asserts council president Claire Fraizer, Elmore County.

Every county will have six to fifteen farm boys and girls attending who will be conducted to Auburn and supervised by county farm agents and home agents and their assistants, while there.

CORN DEMONSTRATION GROW

When the Extension Service's corn demonstration program got underway in 1946, 192 growers reported results to their county agents. Last year nearly 4,000 4-H members and farmers turned in yields. Predictions are that 7,000 growers will cooperate in the program this year.

FARM WAGES GO UP 7 PERCENT IN 1947

Farm wage rates rose seven per cent during 1947 in the U. S., while farm employment on January 1 was a little less than a year ago.

In reporting this Foy Helms, API extension statistician, said wage rates for farm workers on January 1 were about three and three-fourths times the 1935-39 average.

Nationally, all classes of rates were from six to eight per cent higher than a year earlier. However, all rates except on—per month without board—declined seasonally from the October 1, 1947, level, said Helms.

PREVENT SCOURS IN PIGS

Two common causes of scours in young pigs are chilling and filth infection. To get rid of the filth threat, scrub farrowing pens with scalding hot lye-water. Mix a pound of lye with 15 to 20 gallons of water. The lye goes after the dirt and dried manure while the scalding hot water kills worm eggs.

Commission Job Vacated By Gallalee

FARMERS HOLD COUNTY WIDE MEETING HERE

Several Hundred Farmers Attend Meeting At Courthouse In Clanton

A meeting of much enthusiasm was held at the courthouse in Clanton last Friday afternoon when fruit and vegetable growers from all over Chilton County filed in. The courthouse was packed and jammed and turned away from the doors.

The essence of the meeting centered around "Better Marketing for Chilton County's Produce."

Auburn marketing specialists were present and told the farmers that Chilton County's peaches and berries were tops in the state and nation.

Local people responsible for marketing Chilton's produce also stressed the fact that Chilton County was producing the best produce found in the nation today.

Among the local people addressing the group were Mr. John Deramus and Roy Roper of the Chilco Packing Company and Mr. Nat Bentley of Thorsby. Deramus, Roper and Bentley all told the group that Chilton's farmers could get more for their fruits and vegetables only through uniform packaging and better packing.

Mr. Glasscock, county agent, stated that this year's dewberry production was expected to reach two million pounds. He also told the group that he was in contact with prospective buyers in other states.

Mr. J. N. Dennis, president of the Chilton County Strawberry Association, told the group that their strawberries would be graded by a government grader this year. He also stated that strawberry growing in Chilton County had declined some as compared with previous years but some farmers were setting new patches.

The meeting was a success throughout and farmers were told on every occasion that they could derive more money and greater profits by growing better grades of produce and by using a standard packaging system.

Menahem Pressler, Refugee From Hitler-Germany, To Be Here

Menahem Pressler was born December 16, 1928, in Madeborg. He was only ten when his family fled from Hitler-Germany, escaping by a miracle destruction under Nazism. They reached Italy, sailed from Trieste to Palestine where their lives were transformed from fear and despair to freedom and promise. Menahem says about the Holy Land: "It is a wonderful country. I owe it everything—liberty, education, cultural awareness."

In the Promised Land the boy—fair, slight, blue-eyed, always younger looking than his years—began his musical tudies. For four years he worked under Eliah Rudiakow, who gave him the great Russian pianistic tradition. Then, in 1944, he began studying with Prof. Loo Kestenborg, former Minister of Fine Arts in Germany, himself a former pupil of Busoni and a famous Lizt player. He started playing in public with orchestra and in recital in Tel-Aviv, Jerusalem, Haifa, Rehoboth, Petach, Tikwah. . He attracted the attention of Dr. Karl Salomon, music director of the Palestine Broadcasting Service, who put him on the air repeatedly, helped him musically and practically with his career.

Meanwhile, musical progress went side by side with general education. At home he had private tutors. He picked up languages with avidity. Hebrew was added to his native German, then English, Arabic and some French. He read everything he could put his hands on, from Goethe and Schiller to Racine and Corneille. An extraordinary sensitivity to every art form and expression made the growing boy much more than a brilliant young pianist—he was laying the foundations for fame based on culture and humanity as well as technique and virtuosity.

Menahem is pronounced "Men-Ah-Hem." In Hebrew it means "the consoler," an excellent name for a musician.

Menahem Pressler soloist under Stokowske with the New York Philharmonic-Symphony, March 20, 1948, in the Grieg Piano Concerto. And in Clanton, Ala., presentation of Community Concerts on March 22, 1948. Indeed a gala musical occasion for the City of Clanton and Chilton County.

FARLEY'S DRUG STORE HAS FORMAL OPENING HERE

Local Walgreen Agency Invites Chilton County People To Take Advantage Of Many Get-Acquainted Bargains

When the new, modern soda fountain at Farley's Drug Store was installed a few days ago, that new up and going place of business in Clanton was complete. And when the word complete is used it means just that. Farley's Drug Store, owned and operated by Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Farley, is strictly an asset to Clanton, Chilton County and Central Alabama.

This store, which is new from top to bottom, building and all, is proud to offer to Chilton County people this Walgreen Agency, and is fast introducing to them what Walgreen actually means. The business is locally owned in its [illegible] Farley being t[illegible] they hav[illegible] of drugs and supplies exclusively [illegible] will offer the many advantages and modern conveniences found only under the Walgreen arrangement. This agency has franchises with many of the largest drug stores in the country, and they, like Farley's in Clanton, are specially arranged for the convenience, satisfaction and pleasure of the customers.

The grand opening is set for Friday and Saturday of this week, March 12th and 13th, and Dr. and Mrs. Farley respectfully invite their friends to visit them, and get first hand just what they have to offer in the way of merchandise and service. The store has been designed and departmentalized especially for the convenience of the trading public, and it will be a privilege and pleasure to your trading with them.

Special mention should be made of the prescription department of this store, where everything is crisp and new, complete and arranged with an eye singled to super-service, efficiency and accuracy. Dr. Farley, a registered pharmacist of many years high standing in the profession, is proud of his prescription department, and has already received hundreds of complimentary remarks regarding it. After all, the prescription department is the central motivation of a drug store, and Dr. Farley has realized this in making his arrangement of this modern place of business.

Walgreen has been in operation since the turn of the century, when the first store was chartered in Chicago, Ill. Service has been their motto, coupled with personal interest, pride, and the ever-present zeal for more satisfied customers. Engineering improvements of today are combined in all Walgreen stores with the professional dignity of the past. This is the case all the way from the home office in Chicago down to this the newest store in the organization—Farley's Drug Store, Clanton, Alabama.

If it is true there is not a perfect man on earth to-day, then a lot of personal opinions are going to have to be altered.

It is much easier to live within an income than to live without one.

The only thing that keeps growing without nourishment is an ego.

Lots of people think they have an open mind when it's merely vacant.

After all, a person who doesn't know his own mind, hasn't missed so much at that.

It doesn't matter whose pay roll you are on, you are working for yourself.

MARCH WINDS AND THE NEW LOOK

Yep fellows, this is the season for March Winds—when old Mother Nature takes her broom and clears the trees of twigs and dead leaves. It's the season when the fields are swept clear of the debre of another year. But March winds won't mean the same to the fellow who hangs out in the drug store corners now with the girls all wearing the "New Look."

THE TEACHERS' ROLE IN PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Good teachers do not live apart from others. Education is concerned with the whole of life. It's activities are founded only by society. Of that society, the teacher is an architect and builder. The material of his or her craft is not sticks and stones. No one deals more intimately with the hopes and aspirations, talents and deficiencies, failures and achievements of humanity than the teacher.

Life is as real in infancy and youth as it is at any other age. Classroom walls are artificial boundary lines. The educational process reaches out at all times to the home, the church, the community, the nation and the world.

Isolation in education results in less to everybody. The teacher loses the challenge of association with mature minds. The pupil postpones adjustments that must be made later. The community loses the active membership of a citizen who is peculiarly fitted to bring the world's knowledge to the service of the world's life.

Within the limitations of their duties and interests, teacher-leaders should be encouraged to take part in public affairs. Teachers should be represented on local boards, committees, city councils, and other bodies to which responsibility is delegated for important public decision and action. Such representation may well extend to the official branches of state and national government.

Teachers have long been chosen to fill roles in public life. Some of them have permanently retired from teaching to do so. Others have accepted public office while on leave of absence from teaching positions. Six presidents of the United States were once teachers. At least four of the current governors of the states have had teaching experience. In the Eightieth Congress of the United States are nine Senators and forty-six Representatives who have at one time or another taught school.

The present Senate of West Virginia includes three members who have held positions in the schools of that state. In the West Virginia House of Delegates are sixteen educators. Almost all of the latter are actively engaged in school work at this time. They have left their positions temporarily to serve the people of their state in another capacity.

Other states, too numerous to mention here, have honored the school teacher with public office.

There is every reason why the profession of teaching should make a contribution equal to that of any other toward charting the course of government. No other profession has been delegated such a responsibility for the transfer of the American heritage; no other career is so close to the youth upon whom we must depend for the preservation and enrichment of that bequest. Teachers should not only have the highest qualifications for citizenship; they should assiduously carry out the full duties of a citizen.

Whether in classroom or in public life, the teacher has an important part in shaping tomorrow's world. The Advertising Council, which inaugurated in 1947 another notable program of advertising on the air and on the printed page, has selected for its slogan, "Our Teachers Mold Our Nation's Future". This is a deserved tribute to the importance of the teacher in the national life. It recognizes the role of the teacher in the whole of social progress. It emphasizes the fact that if we are to have first-class citizens, we must have first-class teachers.

TO The Voters Of Chilton County

You have no doubt seen my announcement in the papers for the office of Commissioner for the Third District.

I was born and reared on a farm in Chilton County about five miles southeast of Maplesville, which is about the center of the Third District. I am famaliar with the roads in the Third District, and having to haul the products of the farm to market, I am deeply interested in more farm to market roads in our county.

I have always lived on and operated my farm in Chilton County except the time I spent in the armed forces, where I was classified in the Aviation Engineers and received instructions as to Deisel Motors and heavy equipment and personally operated them. I feel that I know what this equipment is designed to do and know what to expect of it when properly operated.

I want to here and now say that if the voters of Chilton County see fit to elect me as their Commissioner, I promise each and every one of you that I will give the work my full time and discharge my duties as your Commissioner without favor and without prejudice to any person or group of people, and will do my best to get a dollar's return for every dollar spent.

I am going to see as many of you as I can, and I want to ask the voters to come to me and talk with me, if you so desire, and in this way we can discuss matters you are interested in. I will certainly appreciate your vote and help.

Yours very truly,
WELCH M. ROEBUCK.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain
Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:
1 Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion,* thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.
2 Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.

Poor Health High In Rural Counties

[illegible] with incomes of $3,000 a year or over, less than four days per person are lost annually from illness, but in families with incomes under $1,200, nearly nine days are lost from illness.

Even in a good year, such as 1941, half of all farm operators had annual net cash incomes of less than $760 per family.

Low incomes cause ill health in an area and also cause doctors, dentists, nurses, and all health services to be scarce. New physicians and other health workers have for years been settling in cities and older professional workers have been migrating from rural areas to cities.

Farmers are advised to play safe and have plenty of grain sorghum seed on hand so they will be ready to plant June 15.

BETA CLUB CONTEST WINNERS—Henry Grady Heflin Jr., and Suan Powers, both of Chilton County High School, of Clanton, won first award of $50 in the annual talent contest, held at the Beta Convention, and sponsored by the national Beta Club. They won by singing a duet.

Pope Payne Candidate For Tax Assessor

To My Friends and Voters:

I want to express my appreciation to you for the nice things that has been said of me, and the encouragement that I have had from so many good citizens of our County.

There is a goodly number of you know of my past life, and the things I have stood for, but to those who do not know I will try to give you a little of my life's history:

I have lived practically all of my life in the county. For the past 23 years I have been engaged in the hardware business at Thorsby, Jemison and Maplesville; the past eight years in Thorsby. In 1934 you elected me as member of Board of Education, serving now on my 14th year. I have always felt a deep interest in our schools, and I can truthfully say that I have served them to the best of my ability.

Up until the present I have never asked the people of our County for an office that has been worth anything to me in a financial way.

We have one of the best counties in the State, which I am glad of being apart of. You will always find me a booster of the things that which is the interest to the people and our county.

I plan to see as many of the voters as possible, but should I not get to see you before the May Primary, I will appreciate your support and influence.

Your friend,
POPE PAYNE.

You should wash walls from the bottom up. Water which runs down a wall that already has been cleaned and moistened will not stain, but when it runs down a soiled surface it will leave streaks which are quite difficult to remove.

Thorsby News

(By MISS C. N. TURNQ UIST — Correspondent)

Thorsby Institute News—

Term tests begin Thursday, March 11th, through Friday, March 12th. This marks the end of the term when the boarding students leave the school for the week end. This term there will be a spring holiday on Monday, March 1th. School will open again on Tuesday, March 16th.

Mrs. J. G. Heida, who is well versed in Home Economics, having taught it a good many years, gave an interesting talk to the girls at Thorsby Institute Monday, March 8th, the seventh period.

Miss Grace Maxwell of Union Grove near Cullman, was a visitor at Thorsby Institute the past week end. Miss Maxwell is a former student of the school.

Mary Louise Bates Street, a Thorsby Institute graduate, who made her home for some time before her marriage with Mrs. John Goddard and whose home is now in Ensley, called at Thorsby Institute Saturday. She brought some lovely jeponicas which she picked from Mrs. Goddard's bush to the Congregational Church Sunday morning and placed them on the piano which Mrs. Goddard gave to the church.

Christian Endeavor News—

The Christian Endeavor Society had a very pleasant social Saturday night, March 6th, in the dining hall of Thorsby Institute. Imogene Duke is chairman of the Social Committee. She and others on the committee planned the games very well and also the refreshments. Each one who came brought a nickel to pay for the refreshments.

The Christian Endeavor Society Sunday night was led by Mary Marcus of Clanton. At the end of the program the roll was called and each one replied with a Bible verse. It is expected to have a special candle light service Easter Sunday in which the members of the Christian Endeavor will take part.

Personals—

Mr. Earl Leary and Mrs. Agnes Abrahams visited with their father, Mr. W. L. Leary, last week. Mr. Leary returned to Birmingham with them for an indefinite stay, since he is sort of on the sick list. We hope he will soon be well again.

A number of people from here attended the concert in Jemison last Tuesday night, which was given by the Birmingham-Southern Choir, under the direction of Mr. Raymond Anderson. Those from here who attended were: Mrs. Irene Peterson, Mrs. Eva Turner, Mrs. Alpha Brown, Miss Alma Lefstead, Miss Naemi Turnquist, Mrs. A. E. Reagan, Mrs. James Bosworth and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Turnquist. This is one of the best choirs in the country and those who were fortunate enough to hear them, certainly enjoyed a rare treat.

A picture appeared in The Birmingham News last week, showing the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Peterson which was damaged in the recent high winds which struck Birmingham. It was stated that their little daughter was slightly injured from falling bricks when a part of the roof fell in over the cot on which she was sleeping.

It is with deep regret that we learn of the resignation of Miss Lois Leech, as Matron of the Thorsby Institute dining hall. Miss Leech has held this position now for nearly twenty-five years, and has endeared herself to everyone who has known her here. She will remain here during the present school term and will then leave for Demorest, Ga., where she intends to make her future home.

Last week we were happy to report that Mr. Charlie Spivey had improved from a long illness enough that he was able to be about town some. We regret to learn that he has been taken seriously ill again and is in a very critical condition.

Mr. C. D. Smith of Panama City is spending a few days here on business.

Mrs. W. M. Benson had as her guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Jake Hagan and Mrs. fida Self of Birmingham, Ala.

Mrs. Effie Robinson went to Hueytown, Ala., last week to attend the funeral of an uncle.

Miss Julia Johnson returned last week from Miami, Fla., where she visited for two or three weeks. She will resume her visit here with Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Hanson before returning to her home in Green Bay, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Turnquist, Mrs. James Bosworth and Mrs. A. E. Reagan spent Friday and Saturday in Birmingham visiting with relatives.

The P.-T.A. chicken supper which was held on Friday night was quite well attended despite the fact that the weather was very bad. Those who braved the rain were well repaid, as they certainly enjoyed a bountiful meal—well cooked and well served.

Mr. Wilbur Peterson and wife of Detroit, Mich., spent a few days here with Mr. Peterson's mother, Mrs. Charles Peterson and other relatives. Mrs. Peterson also enjoyed a visit from another son, Mr. Herbert Peterson of Birmingham.

Mrs. C. D. Gibbons and Farrell Gibbons spent Sunday in Cooper, Ala., with her parents.

The Thorsby Chapter of Eastern Stars attended a chapter meeting in Siluria, Ala., on Friday night.

Plans are now being made for the next annual Chilton County Peach Festival. A meeting was held in Clanton last week at which time the executive committee was named. Mr. "Red" Glasscock is Chairman of this committee, Mr. Donald Merchant of Thorsby, co-chairman, and other members are Mr. J. A. Ogburn, Judge W. L. Parrish, Hollis Jackson, Herman Lecroy, Delbert Collins, Harold Strickland and Grover Bice. Ben Ivey of Clanton is chairman of the program committee, with Thomas Childress of Thorsby, co-chairman. R. H. Strickland is chairman of the publicity committee, with Owen Carter, co-chairman. Plans for this great occasion are being watched with interest by every citizen of Chilton County as well as many throughout the entire State.

The regular meeting of the Thorsby Civic Club which was to have been held on last Monday night, March 1, had to be postponed on account of bad weather. It is likely that a call meeting will be held at a later date.

Mr. Edward Grenn of Brookhaven, Miss., spent several days here with his sisters and brother, Mrs. Conrad Carlson, Marie Graves and Mr. Sam Grenn.

Plans are being made for a big dance to be given by the Thorsby American Legion Post. The date is March 27th and the place is the Junior High School. Watch for further announcements at a later date.

Word has been received that Mary Evelyn Hayes, who was graduated from Thorsby Institute last year, has taken part in a music recital at Piedmont College, where she is a freshman.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Turnquist left Monday for Richmond, Va., after spending the winter here. Their many relatives and friends here regret to see them leave and will look forward to the Fall of the year when they will return again.

Mrs. Anna Phalin left Wednesday for Tuscaloosa where she will spend several days attending to business, also to visit with friends.

Institutional On The Farm Training

Mr. Marvin T. Minor, the first veteran to enroll in the on-the-farm training program in Chilton County, is doing outstanding work on his farm just south of Clanton.

This veteran is carrying out an intensive farming program which includes livestock, poultry and row crops.

He is learning from experience that it is much better to have several cash crops than to depend entirely on a single enterprise.

Mr. Minor is realizing a steady income from poultry. He has fifty laying hens from which he sells hatching eggs at a premium price.

In addition to his poultry he has one brood sow to supply home meat and lard needs and also to produce pigs for sale.

This veteran has also made pasture improvements enabling him to increase his livestock production. He has seeded his permanent pasture and planted sericea for summer grazing.

Mr. Minor plans this year to plant 6 acres of cotton, one and one-half acres of tomatoes, and in addition raise 200 broilers and 75 laying hens for his cash enterprises.

For feed crops he will depend upon 15 acres of corn, 2 acres of oats and 3 acres of hay. These crops with a year-round pasture will furnish his livestock with sufficient grazing and dry feed throughout the year.

All-in-all Mr. Minor carries out a well-rounded farming program, spending a great deal of time formulating plans for the future. He believes that, through good management, proper fertilization and planning his farm will prosper even during economic upheavals.

Soil Conservation News

Pete McCraw, J. Sam Johnson and C. R. Childress have [illegible]ed patches of Kentucky 31 Fescue Grass. Nitrate of soda has or will be applied in the near future.

Now is the time to plant Kobe Lespedeza on oats as well a[illegible] with an application of nitrogen. Scarify the top of oat-land to keep Kobe seed from drifting. Plant forty pounds per acre. Kobe Lespedeza is one of our best soil builders, and an excellent hay crop. Check the price of Kobe agai[illegible] soybeans, and see which is the highest in price. Kobe will reseed if properly managed three or more years. Clyde Burnett of Pleasant Grove Community states, "My Kobe Lespedeza hay didn't cost half as much as my soybeans."

* * *

O. A. Posey has begun building some good terraces. The water disposal areas were established last spring. His són, O. A. Posey, has started building some new terraces also. He established two sericea meadow outlets last spring also.

* * *

Cooperators planning to establish kudzu in different fields, should do this in the next two weeks. Some that have already set out kudzu are: James Lowery, Henry Coleman, R. M. Kemp, J. C. Downing and W. L. Parrish. Three weeks from now it will be rather late to set out kudzu.

* * *

Due to the weather conditions bur clover seed patches have not made the growth that is usually expected. E. B. Spivey has an exceptional patch. It looks very good. Give Manganese bur clover a chance, and it will do its part.

Last fall some farmers planted Caley peas on their land. Some were planted on sericea and some were planted on kudzu. Almost all of the plantings look very good. Willard Hicks of Maplesville planted some Caley peas year before last. Last year he let them go to seed. This year he is getting some grazing from them. Caley peas seem to be very promising as a reseeding winter grazing crop in Chilton County.

Heifer calves should not be turned on pasture until they are over six months of age.

Good Pastures Now May Be Dry In Summer

Auburn, Ala. — Will you be fooled by the good pastures that will grow so rapidly for the next several weeks? Or, will you remember to plant some grazing crops for your cows when pastures dry up next summer?

Your answers to these questions may determine your profit or loss with dairy cows this year, states C. E. Teague, API extension dairyman.

"Most pastures are good for several weeks in the spring and early summer and too many farmers get the idea that their pastures will remain good throughout the year," Teague declares.

He urges dairymen to plan now for growing crops to turn the cows on next summer when pastures may not furnish enough grazing.

"Can" a winter garden. Plant enough beans, peas, tomatoes, corn, beets, turnip greens, or other canning crops so that you can finish with canning before pests and dry weather become serious. Then if the late summer and fall are dry, you will still have a good winter garden—in cans.

Use More Fertilizer To Grow Good Gardens

Except [illegible] the lime soils of the Bla[illegible] Be[illegible]t, apply 1 ton of lime or 2 t[illegible] of basic slag per acre every 4 or 5 years.

For best root crops—beets, carrots, turnips, rutabagas—on sandy land apply two tablespoons of borax to 100 feet of row.

If Alabama producers are to receive top prices for strawberries this year it is important that a good quality produce be placed on the market. This is true for both the fresh market and for processing.

All sweetpotatoes remaining in storage should be sold at an early date. As warm weather approaches the risk of loss from decay increases. When all potatoes have been moved from the storage house, it should be cleaned and disinfected. Do not throw decayed potatoes where they may spread diseases to future crops.

Keep the Movies Clean!

Folks in our town often spend an evening down at Proctor's Theatre, enjoying the pictures with their wives or husbands. So naturally we're all in accord on the movie producers' program of self-regulation, by which they check all films to be released, and weed out undesirable screenplays.

It's only smart for an industry that serves the public to present its product in a good light — and thereby earn the gratitude and good will of its customers.

Take the brewers, for example. Like the movies, they have their program of "Self Regulation"—by which outlets selling beer are regularly checked on—to make sure they maintain decent standards.

The brewers help the authorities weed out any offenders—so that temperate people who enjoy a moderate beverage like beer can be sure of courteous and clean surroundings—just like the folks who go to Proctor's can be sure of clean and wholesome movies.

"I've heard a lot recently about increasing corn yields. I didn't realize that 100 bushels of corn takes as much nitrogen out of the soil as there is in more than 600 pounds of nitrate of soda. I decided to see what would happen if I put back that much soda in side dressings, the last one when the corn was in full silk. I made over 200 bushels on one acre."

Millers Asked To Enrich Corn Meal

Corn millers can play a big part in the health of Alabama families by enriching corn meal produced at their mills, says Mary Hulsey, API extention specialist in foods and nutrition.

Enriching means adding extra food value to the corn meal in the form of vitamins and minerals, she explains. These extra food elements are thiamine, riboflavin, niacin and iron.

Corn is naturally low in vitamins, especially each which is known as the pellagra-preventing vitamin. Niacin is found in enriched corn meal, enriched flour, enriched grits, whole grain cereals, meat, liver and poultry products.

Vitamin B1 or thiamine is needed for normal functions of the nerves. Riboflavin is necessary for a healthy condition of the eyes and skin. Iron is needed to prevent nutritional anemia.

Nutrition research has shown that approximately one-half the people of the United States eat diets which do not contain enough vitamins and minerals. Enrichment of corn meal, one of the most widely consumed products in the southern states, can do much to correct this deficiency.

Enrichment is not a new program, states Miss Barber, home demonstration agent. Poultrymen and manufacturers of baby food have been enriching their products for years. The enrichment of corn meal does not change the looks or the taste of the original product. It only adds extra food element needed for good growth and health.

The cost of enrichment for corn meal amounts to approximately three cents per bushel. This initial cost cannot compare with the good that the program of enrichment can do in improving the health conditions of 14 county families, declares Miss Barber.

Hearing Set To Determine Whether State Can Levy Tax On 1 To 15c Items

Can the state collect sales tax on items with a rental value of less than 16 cents? This question will be decided March 31 in a hearing before Judge W. B. Jones of the Montgomery Circuit Court.

The complaint that will bring about the test case was filed last week by Robert L. Windham, Clanton, Alabama. Windham is the owner of the City Grill cafe in Clanton, Alabama. Windham is the owner of the City Grill cafe in Clanton.

The complaint charged that retailers do not have the right to charge the two per cent sales tax on items under 16 cents, and that the state, therefore, has no right to collect such a tax from the merchants.

The Clanton cafe owner charged further that the State could not force him to pay sales tax on meals furnished his employees free of charge. Windham contended that this expense is figured in the prices charged customers, upon which a tay is collected.

State Basketball Tournament Set For This Week And Next

The 28th Annual Alabama State High School Basketball Tournament will get underway at Tuscaloosa on next Friday morning, Feb. 12, at 9:00 o'clock with the winner and runnerup from the eight district playoffs scheduled for first round play that day. Quarter-finals play will be held Friday evening, with semi-final and final competition set for Saturday afternoon and night, respectively.

This year's tournament will mark the first time that separate meets have been held for "A" and "B" classification schools. This week's tourney is for the "A" class schools with the "B" meet being scheduled for the following week end, March 19-20. Tournament pairings will be made on the Thursday night preceding the respective playoffs here on the campus.

The University of Alabama and the Tuscaloosa Junior Chamber of Commerce are again co-hosts to the state's basketball teams. The visiting cagers will be housed on the Northington Campus with the University furnishing rooms and meals and the Jaycees awarding trophies to the finalists in both tourneys.

An added attraction on next Saturday's schedule will be the Alabama football squad's annual regulation game between picked teams—the Reds and Whites—climaxing the Crimson Tide's spring practice. The visiting cagers will be guests of the Alabama "A" Club, sponsors of the game, and kickoff has been set for 3:30 p.m. in Denny Stadium so as not to interfere with the semi-final basketball contests, scheduled for the same afternoon.

This year's tournament is the 22nd in a row that has been held at the University of Alabama.

RED CROSS DRIVE HITS HALF-WAY MARK IN COUNTY

Chapter Calls For $3,000 More To Meet County Quota

The Chilton County Red Cross Drive enters it's second half with a little over $2,700 on hand or approximately 45% of it's total $6,000 quota.

Outside of Clanton only the towns of Thorsby and Verbena have reported. Thorsby, under the leadership of Mrs. Ella Howard Carter, has raised $354 of it's quota. While Verbena, under the chairmanship of Mr. J. B. Fort, has raised $167.00. There have been no reports from Maplesville and Jemison.

In the Clanton residential district the ladies, working under the chairmanship of Mrs. Hugh Jones, have done an excellent job in raising $477.00 of their $500.00 quota. While in the business district the workers of the Kiwanis Club have surged ahead of those of the Lions Club. The Kiwanis Club workers have reported in with $813.00, the Lions Club workers have raised $724.00. At the Alabama Mills Clanton Unit $198.00 has been raised. From the High School teachers $33.00 and from the Grammar School teachers $8.50.

Jimmie McDow, 1948 Fund Chairman, urges all the workers to complete the work in their district; also he appeals to those who have not made their contribution to do so now. If you have not been contacted by one of the workers, go to them, and fi you do not know the workers in your community, mail your contribution in to the Red Cross, Clanton.

Let's go over the top with the 1948 Red Cross Drive. Remember, 72c of each dollar you contribute, stays right here in Chilton County.

Crop Insurance Available Again

Information from the local PMA office advises us that Chilton County farmers are again offered cotton insurance on their 1948 cotton crops. It is called the "Dollar Insurance."

The old type insurance insured for a certain number of pounds of lint cotton per acre and chances were that no two farmers in the County could get the same coverage per acre. Under this new insurance, a farmer is covered for a certain number of dollars per acre and all farmers can insure for the same number of dollars per acre.

Therefore, the representative from the County P.M.A. Office advised us that they were of the opinion it is the most business like insurance that they had ever been able to offer the farmers.

Chilton County growers have only until March 31st to apply for Federal Crop Insurance protection on their cotton crops for 1948.

The P.M.A. Office is extremely anxious that every grower in the County have an opportunity to understand and apply for this insurance against all the unavoidable crop production risks such as weather, insects and plant diseases.

While they would like to be able to contact each farmer personally at his home, this is not possible. Therefore, they are urging that each of you be sure to visit the County P.M.A. Office for a discussion of what crop insurance protection offers you. If you have already been by the office or seen one of the representatives, they would appreciate your assistance in calling your neighbor's attention to the fact that the deadline date for obtaining cotton crop insurance is March 31st and that all the details on coverage and premium rates for their farms and how the program operates can be quickly obtained by a visit to the County Office.

Federal crop insurance provides protection of the investment in producing a cotton crop against the many production hazards that man cannot control. It protects your investments from seeding until the crop is harvested.

Insuring your investment is just good business. The only way that you can be sure that your investment is protected when disaster strikes is to insure it every year.

We know that Chilton County cotton growers are good businessmen as well as good farmers. You know the only way that you can be sure of having protection of your crop investment when you need it is by applying for cotton insurance protection this year and continue it each year hereafter.

Better be sure. Better insure.

After March 21st, it will be another year before you can buy protection of your cotton investment against the production risks that can strike down your best production efforts on your best land as easily as they can destroy the efforts of the poorest farmers.

Mrs. Cecil Ramsey and daughter, Peggy, spent Wednesday in Montgomery.

County Farmers Tour Auburn Experiment Station

Chilton County farmers and Clanton Kiwanians made an interesting tour of inspection of poultry marketing facility and agricultural experiment station Saturday, March 13th.

Approximately 35 individuals left Clanton at 6:30 a.m. Saturday and spent a major portion of the day inspecting work being done by the Experiment Station and leading poultrymen to improve farm production and marketing.

The first stop made by this Chilton County group was at the recently completed Poultry Cooperative Processing Plant on Parallel Street, Montgomery. As explained by Mr. Walsh, President of the poultry marketing this plant is now equipped to receive, dress, package and sell 6,000 broilers daily. Also, according to Mr. Walsh, the plant will be in a position to receive, grade and market eggs when production is sufficient to justify such a move.

At present this market is receiving only enough broilers to operate the plant one to two days per week. Any central Alabama poultry raiser that takes out a membership in this plant is eligible to take advantage of the marketing opportunities offered by it and Mr. Walsh further stated that the prices quoted by the Federal and State Market News Service determined the prices paid daily for products received.

This market makes it possible for all farmers to be able to enter into or expand poultry projects with definite assurance that they will have a ready cash market for their product.

On completing the inspection of the poultry market, the "Chilton County-Auburn Special" pulled out for the main experiment station in Auburn.

At Auburn the following points of interest were inspected and explained by the research officials of the Alabama Polytechnic Institute:

1. The artificial breeding central plant.

At present, 17 counties have 28,000 cows being served by the facilities of this plant. This plant is making it possible for small farmers to have their dairy animals sired by the best males that can be secured at a reasonable breeding fee.

2. Alfalfa and other winter grazing crops and systems.

Research officials presented green pastures with sleek cattle grazing and explained the production methods and economy of such farm practices.

In one alfalfa experiment a dairy cow has been on one acre of alfalfa for nearly two years. This cow has not received any feed in this time other than alfalfa grazed from the one acre or hay from the acre. She has produced approximately $250.00 annually in milk at 4c per pound, or over twice that of the average Alabama cow. In other grazing experiments manganese bur clover, crimson clover in combination with Johnson grass, have produced similar results in producing beef and dairy products.

An outstanding consideration brought out in discussions on this inspection trip was the fact that abundant winter crops and hay crops that produced six tons of hay per acre were produced on deep, sandy soils that are naturally very low in fertility and productive capacity. If it can be done in the Auburn area, it can be done better in Chilton.

3. Corn, pasture plant, and other crop varieties were discussed by Chas. Simmons, Head of Agriculture and Soils Department. Many new and improved varieties are being developed and proven by the Experiment Station.

4. After lunch the Chilton County group was taken in charge by Professor L. M. Ware, Head of the Horticultural Department. Professor Ware demonstrated the portable irrigation system now being used by the station. As explained by Professor Ware, through irrigation the Station has made one acre produce twice the cash income that the average farm family produces on their entire crop area in a year.

In peach production tests the experiment station has produced orchards under sod culture of lespedeza sericea that are yielding heavier crops of larger peaches than the clean cultivated orchards, and are improving soil while doing so. Soil conservation officials showing this work found an attentive group in Chilton peach growers when explaining these economical peach production methods.

This was an interesting and profitable trip. The following farmers and Kiwanians attended:

Kiwanians Hear Scout Executive

Mr. Bill Crain, assistant Scout Executive for the Selma District, was the speaker at the regular weekly meeting of the Kiwanis Club Thursday, March 11. Mrs. Ophelia Kemp sang three numbers for the club. Other guests were Mr. Breslin of Selma, B. W. Carter and W. Brenner.

The program for Thursday, March 18th, is Ladies' Night. Albert Tully of Mobile, District Governor of Alabama Kiwanis, will be the guest speaker for the evening.

Circle 3 Meets

Paid Courtesy Call To Netherlands

Marshall E. Abrams, seaman, second class, USN, son of Guy Abrams of Route 2, Maplesville, Ala., visited the Dutch seaport of Rotterdam when the light cruiser USS Spokane paid a courtesy call to the Netherlands.

Leaving war-scarred Rotterdam on a specially-arranged tour, he visited many of the small towns of the lowland country.

A highlight of the tour was a visit to the Peace Palace in The Hague. The Hague, although badly hit by the war, proved of special interest. Approaching the Royal Palace of the ruling family of the Netherlands via a wide avenue built by Napoleon Bonapart, the Spokane crewmen were impressed by the beauty that still remained despite the ravages of German conquest and occupation.

Among the many Dutch persons to visit the Spokane while it was moored on the Maas River at Rotterdam's Park Kade, was Prince Bernhardt, consort of Crown Princess Julianna.

REV. HICKMAN RADIO PASTOR

The Rev. A. T. Hickman, who lives at 301 Second Avenue, Clanton, Alabama, and is Pastor of Temple Church, [illegible] be heard over Radio Station WKLF every Mon[illegible] Wednesday and Friday at 2:30 p.m. The Rev. Mr. [illegible] has been heard each Saturday morning over this station for seven months now. His many listeners will be delighted to learn that he is now their "Radio Pastor," coming to them three more times each week.

Pastor Hickman has had much experience in radio ministry; and is well versed in microphone technique; and has a pleasing voice and radio personality. He has been well ac[illegible] by radio audiences in other areas. The people of this [illegible] much pleased with his radio ministry, and he comes [illegible]st of his many friends.

OUR FORGOTTEN MEN

[illegible] President of the United States has proclaimed [illegible]h as "Army Day" and appeals to the people of the United States for "appropriate and sympathetic obser[illegible] of the occasion as a "token of special honor to the [illegible]rs and veterans of our Army, at home and in foreign [illegible]

[illegible] people of the United States seem to have lost sight of the fact that thousands of American soldiers are now [illegible] ting in the re[illegible] assumption that no need [illegible] patriotism on the part of our young men.

If ever a group of men, belonging to any country, have become the "forgotten men" of a nation, the term applies to our soldiers now serving the cause of this country overseas and at home.

We have no idea whether Chitlon County will observe "Army Day" by any appropriate observance, but we suggest that readers of the Chilton County News, if they appreciate the services rendered to the nation by its fighting men, do some serious thinking about the steps which should be taken in the interest of protecting their liberties and the existence of their country.

We are quite sure that men in the service would appreciate such thinking on the part of their fellow-citizens and that the best evidence that we can give them, as a nation, of our support will be forthright action to adequately prepare the United States for an emergency.

Three Miles Out Birmingham Highway

Folks and Things About Town

--By BEN

Hello everybody. Should have remained abed longer but we couldn't get the lowdown on county politics, so here we are again.

* * *

Let us first thank our many friends who remembered us during our siege of "flu" and those who were kind enough to ask about us.

Dame Rumor has it that Cleveland Driver will come back to his home county soon. Cleveland and Janie Johnston Driver have been living in Birmingham since he got out of service. Had Cleveland's work not carried him to the Magic City there would have been six candidates for the Fourth District Commissioner's spot instead of five is our guess. However, he is still a young man and the bug has bit. Odds are we'll hear from him later.

The new traffic light that the city [illegible] at the A & P Corner is a good example of locking the stable before the horse is stolen. Sooner or later someone was sure to get hurt or killed at that bad intersection. Now if they will go a little further and have the cars and trucks park parallel along the curb in front of the Moore's Clinic so traffic can turn north at that corner it will be better yet.

"Oh, what a strange looking cow," exclaimed the sweet young thing from the city. "But why hasn't she any horns?" "Well, you see," said the farmer, "some cows is born without horns and never had any, and others shed theirs, and some we dehorn, and some breeds ain't supposed to have any. There's a lot of reasons some cows ain't got horns, but the reason this cow ain't got horns is because she ain't a cow—she's a horse."

* * *

The gentlemen in charge, who are building a new overhead bridge on the Maplesville Highway over the L & N tracks, must surely be in touch with the Spirits. And the Spirits that are supposed to move those people, haven't got around to moving them very much. Several weeks past a large piece of machinery was setup there for a day or so and, we believe, sank some piles for the new bridge, but since that time we haven't heard of any commotion up thataway. Maybe if a little of this spring-like weather gets into their bones that old spirit will give us a few more moves towards our bridge.

By golly, there's one candidate we can endorse without showing any partiality. We're blowing our horn for B. E. (Earl) Reeves. Earl is the only candidate running on the Democratic Ticket for the office of County Treasurer and he has the experience to fill the job. For close to twenty-five years Earl has been a bookkeeper and accountant. When he is elected the county will be getting all that experience without having to pay the office-holder for learning his job.

* * *

Robert C. Yeargan sent a dollar bill home to his dad the other day. He is in Newfoundland. The bill is very much like unto our dollar bill except a little larger. About half way between the bill we now use and the old size dollar bill. Now if you will admit you know the size we're talking about, you are getting old. Anyway, one end of the bill is printed in English (the wording) and the other end is printed in French. It was interesting and thanks to the Yeargan, Sr., for bringing it around.

The Central Alabama Gas Company has been purchased by Mr. L. E. Foshee, R. C. Williams and E. H. Bowles. With these gentlemen at the head of the concern the people of Chilton County and Central Alabama can depend on getting the best service in the lines that the company represents. For one reason or another customers have been dissatisfied with the service received by the former owners, but that can be forgotten now. The present owners are all businessmen who will see that their customers get only the best, in service, in merchandise and in satisfaction.

According to the country's best writers war and depression talk has got the whole country nervous and restive. Then why in the name of heaven don't they stop writing about it and let the people cool off awhile so they can think straight again. For weeks every daily paper you see has carried editorials and feature stories tending to keep the populace excited and nervous.

* * *

Took a nice ride down the Billingsley road Sunday afternoon and within the next few years, unless others take notice, that is going to be the prettiest highway out of Clanton, so far as homes and farms go. The farms are beginning to look better kept and more pride is being taken in the homes. And too, the location sites for homes are perfect.

in performance and economy... in ruggedness and reliability!

1 In the world's champion Chevrolet engine, the valves are located in the head of the cylindef, directly over the pistons . . . hence the name, Valve-in-Head.

2 Valve-in-Head design provides faster intake of fuel mixture . . . and quicker and more complete exhaust of burned gases . . . all of which contributes to better performance and economy.

3 Valve-in-Head design also permits a more compact combustion chamber; and this, together with Chevrolet's "Blue Flame" combustion, means more driving power for the pistons—less heat loss—and maximum economy.

Valve-in-Head engines are inherently easier to cool; and Chevrolet's individual cooling of cylinders prevents waste of power—promotes efficient operation—prolongs engine life.

CHEVROLET Automotive experts and millions of motorists agree: Valve-in-Head is far ahead because it gives an outstanding combination of performance, endurance, dependability and economy.... Chevrolet—master builder of this master motor—has proved this by producing more than 20 million Valve-in-Head engines during the past thirty-seven years—engines which hold the distinction of having delivered more billions of miles of satisfaction, to more owners, over a longer period, than any other power-plant built today! Chevrolet's World's Champion Valve-in-Head engine is another powerful reason why CHEVROLET AND ONLY CHEVROLET IS FIRST... another convincing proof that only Chevrolet gives BIG-CAR QUALITY AT LOWEST COST!

CHEVROLET and ONLY CHEVROLET IS FIRST!

SOIL CONSERVATION

Richard D. Reynolds, 402 8th Street, Clanton, Ala., was among recent initiates of the Sigma Alpha Epsolon fraternity at the University of Alabama. The initiation was held March 9, 92nd anniversary of the founding of SAE on the Alabama campus.

After the initiation ceremonies the initiates were feted at a banquet at the Tuscaloosa Country Club. Among the distinguished guests was State Supreme Court Justice R. T. Simpson, who was the principal speaker. Honored as Alumnus of the year was Mr. C. T. McCorvey, chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee.

After the banquet the new initiates were honored at a formal dance at the fraternity house.

Last week Soil Conservation technicians ran terrace lines on R. P. Kendrick's farm. Mr. Kendrick established the water disposal areas in Sericea last spring. This spring he was ready for new terrace lines to be run. As soon as possible, terrace lines will be run on the farms of Tolbert Roseberry, R. M. Kemp and others.

Last Tuesday Euell Killingsworth of Dry Valley was fertilizing his old sericea with Phosphate. Mr. Killingsworth has a very good demonstration on fertilizing and not fertilizing Sericea. The Sericea is three or four years old. The part that was fertilized at time of planting is almost free of broom sedge. In the unfertilized part, sedge has almost taken it. Mr. Killingsworth is planning to get rid of the sedge by giving the sericea a very heavy application of phosphate.

Last week observations were made over the county on reseeding winter grazing crops. Caley peas, Grandifloria Vetch. Crimson Clover and Bur Clovers are beginning to grow and furnish grazing. Dr. Nix of Maplesville is doing a wonderful job with Caley Peas. He has Caley Peas growing on upland and bottomland. It does not seem to make much difference whether the land is well drained or poorly drained, the Peas are growing well and furnishing plenty of grazing. So far. no lime has been added to the soil. The peas will grow better after lime has been added to the soil. Dr. Nix has Caley Peas growing on land in the winter where Kudzu anl Sericeas grows on the land in the summer.

A telegram received from Mrs. Dolly Holladaye, in Richmond, Va., brought the sad news of the death Sunday, February 29, of Joe M. Holladaye. The body will be brought to Brewton for burial Thursday.

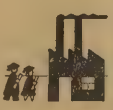
Everybody In Alabama Benefits From Industrial Development

Yes—you, we and everybody benefit from industrial development in Alabama. That's why Alabama Power Company, railroads and other far-sighted corporations maintain industrial development departments and cooperate with chambers of commerce and other groups interested in industrial development.

How does everyone benefit from industrial development?

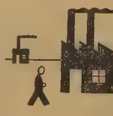
Industry pays taxes — BIG taxes. The more total taxes that are paid, the more money there is available for better schools, roads, health improvement, first-class police and fire departments, public parks and the many other public services that are paid for from taxes. Everybody benefits, directly or indirectly.

The opening of new industries means the building of new buildings, or the remodeling of old ones—workers in the building trades are benefited.



With a greater number and a greater variety of industries in Alabama, more boys and girls graduated from Alabama high schools and colleges can find employment near home.

More industries mean more people to buy things which the farmer raises—so the farmer is benefited.



The more industries there are in Alabama and the more they are diversified, the greater the number of places where the individual industrial workman can find a job—and the greater his opportunity for advancement if he has "what it takes".

An industry makes things—to make them it must have materials, either raw or partly finished. It usually buys these materials, so all employed by firms who supply these things benefit.

All industries buy many supplies and much equipment—they buy services of truckers and laundries and repairers and many others—thus a new industry adds to opportunities in those fields.

VOTE FEITHE

As a general rule, industry is civic-minded—it devotes both money and the time of some of its most able men to further worthwhile civic efforts.

There are many other advantages that result to all from industrial development. The few given here will suggest to you just how important the industrial development of Alabama is to YOU.

FARM and HOME NEWS

By County Extension Agents

A number of strawberry growers in Chilton County have already reported damage being done to their berries by the strawberry weevil.

The strawberry weevil is a reddish-brown snout beetle, 1-12 to 1-8 inch long. They become active in the spring about the time strawberries begin to bloom. The beetle punctures the strawberry buds and lays eggs in the punctured bud. She then girdles the stem of the bud where the egg was laid and it wilts and falls over. Buds that are punctured and the stems that are girdled will not make a strawberry.

CONTROL:

Dusting with arsenate of lead or calcium arsenate, one part with four or five parts of sulphur, should be done when the first blooms appear. Use two applications of 10 pounds per acre at first blooming and two weeks later.

You may use 1% rotenone derris (Surphur mixed. at the rate of 10 pounds per acre instead of the above mixture if so desired.

Poplar Springs Club met with Mrs. Jessie Mae Dykes for the March meeting. The president, Mrs. Mertice Smith, called the meeting to order.

The demonstration was given on removing paint from old furniture, and repainting or refinishing the furniture without very much cost.

It was suggested that each member send a get-well card to Mrs. Redo Popwell who is in the hospital at Tuscaloosa. Mrs. Gladys Glenn was elected reporter and Mrs. Clifton Jones secretary since Mrs. Popwell is away.

Eleven members were present at this meeting. Mrs. Dykes, assisted by Mrs. Litchfield, served delicious refreshments after which the club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Smolon Thornton for the meeting in April. All who can come are invited.—Mrs. Webster Hill, Reporter.

Two years ago late blight of tomatoes caused heavy losses to the crop. Last year there was only slight damage as a result of late blight.

We do not know whether late blight will be serious here in Chilton County this year or not. If there is lots of cool, rainy, or foggy weather in late May and June, you will no doubt have some blight on tomatoes. Long seasons of cool, foggy nights is the time that late blight causes more damage than at any other time.

Late blight control is not complicated. If you wish to use a spray, then mix the following: One quart Dithane, 1-2 pound zinc sulphate, 1-4 pound lime, and three pounds of cryolite in 50 gallons of water. It requires 75 to 150 gallons of spray to cover an acre, depending on the size of the plants.

If you wish to dust instead of spraying, then use copper dust one [illegible] and cryolite one part. Applications should be made at 10-day in[illegible]. About 20 pounds of dust wil[illegible] good coverage on an acre in [illegible].

In both spraying and dusting the cryolite is added to control the tomato fruit worms.

Make sure that the worms and blight are controlled to save the first two clusters of fruit. The first two clusters of fruit of tomatoes are the most valuable part of the crop.

Enriched Corn Meal—

For years pellagra has been the most severe nutritional deficiency disease in Alabama. The major reason is the large amount of cornbread eaten by the people of this State.

Scientists have actually shown that pellagra can be produced experiencentally on rats or dogs by feeding diets containing corn meal. For a long time it was believed that corn contained some substance that caused pellagra. We know now that this is not true. The real fact is that corn does not contain a substance that prevents pellagra.

This substance is a vitamin, commonly called niacin or the pellagra-preventing vitamin. It occurs in such foods as liver, lean meat, milk and eggs. Cornbread, fat meats and other fats, sugar and most vegetables are low in this vitamin.

Nutritionists have developed a process for adding this vitamin to corn meal, thus converting cornbread from a pellagra-producing food to a pellagra-preventing food. This process is called "enrichment" and the resulting corn meal is called "enriched corn meal."

Pellagra is not the only nutritional deficiency disease that occurs in Alabama. Many people whose diets include a lot of cornbread also suffer from deficiencies of riboflavin and iron. Some also suffer from a deficiency of thiamin or Vitamin B1. Enriched corn meal, therefore, also contains added amounts of these substances.

Frequently people are not aware of the fact that they are sufferi[illegible] a nutritional deficiency. They ma[illegible] show any specific symptoms but jus[illegible] don't feel quite up to par, or they m[illegible] have digestive disturbances, cons[illegible]tion, or other illnesses caused [illegible] lack of [illegible] proper food.

Results of Cotton Dusting Demonstrations in Alabama in 1947—

An effort was made to test the value of some of the new insecticides for the control of cotton insects under farm conditions in 1947. County agents were contacted and one or more demonstratons were located in each of seven counties. The demonstrations were located in Coosa, Elmore, Dallas, Greene, Conecuh, Houston and Barbour counties. Each demonstration consisted of one acre (check) untreated; one acre was dusted with 20% chlorinated camphene; two acres were treated with a mixture that contained 3% Gamma of benzene hexachloride plus 5% DDT plus 40% sulphur; and one acre was dusted with calcium [illegible] dusted five times at th[illegible] 10 pounds of [illegible].

Mass Meeting At Courthouse Saturday At Two O'clock

County Commission To Decide In DDT Question; All Citizens Invited

Judge W. L. Parrish, Chairman of the County Commissioners Court, has called a mass meeting to be held at the courthouse Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The meeting is for the purpose of deciding on whether the county will finance another DDT campaign against insects this year.

According to a statement Tuesday by Judge Parrish he believes that the citizens of the county have a right to have their say in this matter and he is calling the meeting so each and every one who cares to, can have his or her say in an open meeting. "And, too," stated the Judge, "We haven't had a real get-to-gether in about a year and a half and it's time we were holding a mass meeting and shaking hands again."

There will be no politics in this meeting. The whole county is invited and if you are in favor of a county-wide DDT campaign this spring, be at the courthouse Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock and help the County Commissioners decide. If you are not in favor of the campaign, be there to register your reason for not wanting the campaign.

Albert J. Tully Spoke At Kiwanis Meeting

The District Governor of Alabama Kiwanis District, Albert J. Tully, was the principal speaker at the annual Ladies Night program Thursday, March 18. His subject was, "Choosing Sides." He pointed out the necessity for citizenship responsibility and the need for those who believe in our form of government to get on the side that will uphold it. The danger of Communism being present not only in Europe, but in the United States, called for an awareness on the part of responsible citizens and a readiness to respond to the need for vigilance. The District Governor was introduced by Lawrence Buzbee, the Lieutenant Governor of the Third Division.

Mrs. Carlisle Miller favored the club with three violin numbers and Henry Grady Heflin, Jr., and Suan Powers sang a duet.

Guests at the meeting, beside the wives of the Kiwanians, were: Congressman Pete Jarman, Mr. and Mrs. S. McGowan, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gulledge, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Buzbee.

Concerts Closed On High Note With Menahem Pressler

Two seasons of Community Concerts music reached a superb climax Tuesday evening with the unforgettably beautiful music played by the nineteen-year-old pianist, Menahem Pressler. An auditorium filled to capacity with music lovers from all parts of Chilton County sat entranced as the young artist of the keyboard wove a magical spell of sheer beauty with melody and rhythm.

Community pride ascended to new heights with this triumphant achievement in musical pleasure. Pressler appeared as soloist under Stokowski with the New York Philharmonic Symphony on Saturday night. And in December an Eastern audience acclaimed his American debut with Ormandy and the Philadelphia Orchestra. Clanton can even boast a bit that Pressler gave a recital here.

Mr. Levine, Community Concerts president, in an interview with Pressler, was most impressed with his spirit of humble gratitude for the opportunities that have been his. This is a challenging thought for our Community. May we so firmly establish Community Concerts as an indispensable cultural experience that our youth may always have the opportunity of hearing, appreciating and enjoying the finest in music.

The sincere thanks of all are extended to Mr. Levine and his faithful corp of helpers as the curtain falls on the second season of Community Concerts in Chilton County.

Poultry Processing Plant For This Area, Now In Operation

Poultry Cooperative Executive Committee Letter To All Cooperative Members and Poultry Producers in the Montgomery Area—

Dear Poultryman:

Your poultry processing plant in Montgomery is now in operation and ready to receive your poultry, including broilers, hens and roosters. At the present time we are processing around 400 birds per hour. As the plant personnel becomes better trained and minor adjustments in the plant are made the capacity can be increased to 600 or 800 birds per hour. Due to the short supply of poultry we are asking the producers to bring their poultry in on Mondays and Wednesdays. This is not enough to operate the plant efficiently and profitably, and from the above estimate you can see that we will need 5,000 to 6,000 birds a day. We are calling this to your attention so that you and others interested can go ahead with your production plans.

It will be very desirable for the producer to contact the plant before bringing the birds in. This will enable us to have a steady supply of poultry for the operation of the plant and also to meet the market demands. Our telephone service has been very unsatisfactory due to the fact that we were on a party line. Therefore, we find it necessary to have it discontinued and a private phone installed. As soon as it is available we will announce our phone number.

We follow the daily price as provided us by our state market board. We pay market price for poultry the day that it is delivered to the plant. The manager, therefore, cannot say one day what he can pay the next.

The market outlets that we now have prefer special broiler birds, averaging around 2¼ pounds on foot and not over 2½. We find that the special broiler type chick grows to 2¼ to 2½ pounds within 8 to 10 weeks. These breeds can be grown more economically and marketed more profitably.

This plant is designed primarily to handle live poultry, however, we are working toward the development of a plan for marketing eggs and will keep you informed.

We would like for you to visit the plant at your earliest convenience and to observe the plant in operation so that you can better understand our problems which will enable us to serve you better.

Sincerely yours,

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE:

E. W. Norris, J. F. Stoner, Mark Johnston, John Formby, W. L. Walsh.

A new business for Clanton opens here April 1st when Mr. F. C. Bussey opens his Floyd Glass Company on Eighth Street around the corner from the Old Wadesonian Theatre. Mr. Bussey has just completed a two-year training course in glass work and will be able to handle all your glass problems.

Masons To Meet In Maplesville Soon

The Chilton County Masonic Conference is scheduled to meet in Maplesville, Ala., at 9:00 a.m., March 31, 1948.

Brother Neal Harrell, Master of the Chilton County Conference, urges all Chilton County Masons to be on hand if at all possible by 9:00 a.m. on March 31st. He is very desirous of getting the business of the conference off of hand as soon as possible.

This is very important since we are going to have some of the most prominent Masons in Alabama with us.

It is an old saying that many years ago roads in Italy led to Rome. So on the 31st of March, let the slogan be, "All the Masonic roads in Chilton County will lead to Maplesville." The Masons of Maplesville Lodge are making preparations to entertain the conference, including all visitors from the surrounding counties, on a grand scale. A barbecue dinner and supper will be served.

Chilton Asked To Raise $19,000 As Her Share Of College Quota

Within a few weeks everyone in the county will be approached by a member of the committee who is assisting in raising Chilton County's part of the $2,500,000 Birmingham-Southern-Howard joint appeal.

Chilton County has been asked to subscribe $19,000 of the State's $2,500,000 quota. Funds subscribed in the drive will be equally divided between Alabama's Christian Colleges and will be used for building and endowment purposes. At the present neither Howard nor Southern have adequate facilities to carry on the great work of Christian education that is so essential to the well being of a nation.

Even though both schools are denominational schools their doors are open to students from every denomination and every section of the state. Because of this it is our responsibility, regardless of faith or creed, to do our part in meeting Chilton County's $19,000 quota.

Methodists and Baptists over the entire county are contributing generously of their time in assisting in raising Chilton County's quota by canvassing their respective neighborhoods and communities. These are the men and women who in a large measure will do the work that is involved in the campaign. Below are listed the names of beat leaders who will contact you within a few weeks. Contribute generously when approached by these men and women and assure Alabama youth greater opportunities for Christian education:

Beat 1 — B. R. Wall, Mrs. D. W. Patterson and Clarence Vines.

Beat 2 — R. C. Shields, Leo Langston, C. C. Conway and Mrs. J. A. Peterson.

RED CROSS MAKES FINAL PLEA

Chairman McDow Reports Only Fifty Fer Cent Of Quota Reached

My report of the 1948 Red Cross Drive this week takes the form of a letter to the people of Chilton County. The Red Cross Drive enters the final week still short approximately fifty per cent of it's quota of $6,000. Those areas which have done well are Clanton, Thorsby and Verbena, although these places are still a little short of their quotas. It is my belief that the people outside these areas want to have a part in the Red Cross work, but due to a lack of volunteer workers we have been unable to contact them. Therefore, I must again appeal to them to mail their contribution to Red Cross, Clanton. The need is urgent.

Due to the grave situation facing our country today the Red Cross is having to speed up many of it's programs. For instance, the National Blood Program was originally set up to reach maturity in 2½ years. Now the Red Cross must complete that job in one year. Universal military training or some other peace time training program now seems to be a certainty. In that event the Red Cross program for servicemen must be tripled. Also in that event our work here in the Red Cross office in Clanton will be tremendously increased.

These are just a few facts to remind you that our Red Cross does have an important job to do and an important place in the lives of many American people today. Our Red Cross, yours and mine, is our insurance against many things. Let's pay the premiums on that insurance today. Remember, seventy-two cents of each dollar contributed stays right here at home for local work in this county.

Sincerely,

JIMMY McDOW,

1948 Red Cross Fund Chairman.

Those who wish to write or see Mr. Jarman may do so by contacting him there.

Who will be next automobile casualty? Always think: It could be you.

Trading in Clanton is common sense; merchants and customers should always keep that thought always in mind.

The man who engages in cutthroat competition sooner or later feels the effect around his own throat.

TEACHERS TO BE SCARCE

The nation faces a shortage of 500,000 teachers in the next decade, according to the National Education Association, which warns that the education received by millions of children will be seriously impaired unless an adequate supply of qualified teachers is available.

Despite increases in salaries that have been general all over the country, the Association reports a reluctance on the part of high school and college students to enter public school teaching. This, it says, is particularly true on the elementary grade level, where the teaching shortage is described as "appalling." One of the reasons for the unwillingness of students to enter teaching as a profession is to be found in the statement that the cost of living has eaten away the higher pay.

For many years, the people of Chilton County, like the people of the balance of the United States, have blissfully assumed that there would always be an ample supply of teachers for the public schools. There is no doubt but that a serious shortage of teachers will impair the educational progress of students and, when the condition arises, efforts will be made to persuade individuals to take up teaching as a profession. However, one should not overlook that proper training is not acquired overnight.

PROTECT OUR FORESTS

So much has been written and so many statistics have been quoted with reference to the loss through careless or deliberate firing of the forest that it seems useless to go through this again. It does, however, seem that the remaining small percentage of individuals responsible for this menace to life and property would be aware of his or her moral obligation to their fellowman and a little more considerate of posterity.

The State of Alabama, The Division of Forestry is spending a considerable sum of the taxpayers' money each year to assist you, the land owner, in securing the maximum benefits from your forest lands. This expenditure is justified in that the harvest, manufacture and transportation of forest products is the largest single business, other than agriculture, in this area. One out of every five gainfully employed persons in Chilton County is employed in one of these operations. These, of course, are in addition to the direct benefit to the landowner and indirect benefits to the various business and professional men in the community.

Since we now have very little virgin timber left, less acreage growing trees, more people demanding products made from trees and more ways to use these materials, it does seem that our better judgment would make us a little more considerate of how we conducted ourselves while in our woodland areas. Let's not through carelessness or cussedness destroy the things that make life more liveable for all of us.

Folks and Things About Town

--By BEN

Everywhere we hear the praise of Mrs. Carlisle Miller for her able directing of the Easter Cantata at the Methodist Church last Sunday evening.

We had the House of David with us Monday night. That is, the baseball team part of it. They spent the night at the Exchange Hotel heading for Crestview, Fla., where they are to go in spring training. As usual the whole bunch needed shaves and hair cuts.

* * *

Judge Parrish tells us that some mighty necessary work has been done on the vault at the Probate Office. That, we are glad to hear. He invited us up for inspection, but we haven't made it yet. You know, for the past year either we have been out of socket or the Judge has been out of socket all the time. Very few times have we both been able to be in the right place at the right time—together.

One of the fellows at the barber shop was telling the other day about a couple of young boys he knew who had been in an automobile wreck. Both boys had been drinking and after the wreck the preacher went to their home to see how they were. After listening to the account of the accident several times the pastor said: "Well, boys, the Lord was with you." "No," insisted the older of the brothers, "Weren't nobody but me and Harvey."

* * *

We suppose we were in bed at the wrong time, but we didn't get a report on that fishing trip made by Troy Maddox, Jelly Bean and others to the Gulf week before last. Was it that quiet, or is someone getting hush money?

* * *

Toby Wright has a new soda fount and it's a beauty. Guess Toby is getting ready for this spring trade at the fountain that is about ready to come up. After the winter we had we are bound to have a beautiful spring and from what we hear ninety-nine and forty-four hundredths per cent are just as ready for her to show as we are.

It would be all wrong not to say something about Bob Windham's new bakery. Bob is giving Clanton the kind of bakery we have needed all along. And folks are enjoying it. Just in case you are the type who has to be shown, go down there and stand in the center of the store and turn slowly around. Two to one you can't leave without making a purchase—and if you do, you're just plain tight.

Our vote for the best program on the air over WKLF is the Klinner Furniture Company's fifteen minutes. We believe its called Melodic Moods and comes on around 12 noon. Anyway the selections are very good to our way of thinking and certainly gives us a breather from the blah, -bam,- slam,- bang of most of our "music."

Letter To The Editor

Editor Chilton County News:

Please allow me space in your paper to express my appreciation to all the people throughout the length and breath of Chilton County, and all out in Radioland for sending in donations to Rev. Hymon Atchison to help keep him on the air and to all the good people who have not sent in yet, please do this at once.

I believe everybody is like myself—have the utmost confidence in him as a true Christian gentleman. I am really enjoying the programs. The Lord has blessed us with plenty, and I think we should give to the Cause to help promote the Gospel.

I would like to say a few words to all our candidates:

Now, you are all expecting us common people to support you, and we are expecting you all to help on all the good religious programs. We would like for every business man of Clanton to help on our religious programs. We common people trade with them and would appreciate all of them to help us keep the religious programs on the air. — A. F. Mims.

It's a good idea to have a yearly "weeding out" of worn-out kitchen utensils to save extra work and valuable storage space.

G. Marcus Jones Writes Voters

To The Voters of Chilton County:

As many of you already know that I am a candidate for Commissioner from the Third District, it is my desire and I will exert every effort possible to see and talk to each voter of the county before the democratic primary in May.

If elected your Commissioner, I shall do my utmost to improve the roads of the Third District. If you give me the honor of serving you as your Commissioner, I will be the Commissioner for all the people and not for any particular person or group.

If elected I assure the people I will stay with the job.

—G. MARCUS JONES.

Our boys of the fire department were called out several times last week, but glad to say, there were no fires of any serious damage. They were called to the H & J Grocery one night, when the motor for the meat case burned out, this being the only damage done, and that amounting to a great deal for its owner, Mr. Harold Strickland, as he was forced to buy a complete new outfit.

E. Reagan, James Bosworth and others. This was surely a musical treat, and we wish to congratulate the director, Mrs. Carlisle Miller, on the wonderful work that she did with this group of singers. We hope that she can keep this group together, and give us some more concerts. We have heard some of the best choirs in the country and after hearing the program Sunday, we believe that this one could come up to the best, so keep it up.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

1 Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion,* thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.

2 Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.

We had a nice attendance at Sunday School Sunday, and also at Bible quiz Sunday night. We hope it will continue to grow.

Don't forget the sunrise program at this place next Sunday morning. Everybody please come early and be at the church between daylight and sunrise. Bro. Hymon Atchison is assisting Bro. Crumpton in the service. This program will not keep us from having our regular 11 o'clock service. Everyone please come.

We regret that Mr. Rufus Holdrich is not any better. He is suffering from a stroke. We hope for him a speedy recovery.

For The Pasture and the Cattle Start Animals On Pasture Gradually—

Green grass, welcome sign of spring and reduced feed costs for livestock producers, should not be asked to do a man-sized job while still a baby.

Young grass, like young animals, needs a good start to reach maximum production. New plants, authorities explain, have a small reserve food supply from their seed or rootstock. Close grazing, before the leaves have opportunity to rebuild this reserve, weakens the plant and may eventually destroy it.

Good management allows pasture plants to make good growth before being grazed heavily, and supplies supplemental feed, such as cottonseed meal and roughage, for livestock. This benefits both the pasture and the livestock.

Early grazing also is too high in water content to provide nutrients which livestock require for full growth, maintenance and production. Often, for the first few weeks after pasture becomes green, it does not supply enough forage to satisfy animal's appetite; and, even when the appetite is satisfied, animals cannot eat enough to provide nutrients they need.

To supply dry matter and help prevent scouring, early pasture should be supplemented with hay, cottonseed hulls or other dry roughage.

Beef cows which are nursing calves should also be fed 2 to 4 pounds, daily, of cottonseed meal, pellets or cake until grass contains sufficient nutrients to carry them in good condition. Growing heifers, calves and stockers need ½ to 1½ pounds of protein concentrate, daily.

Dairy cows need their regular concentrate mixture and dry roughage to maintain milk production, promote growth, repair body tissues and aid reproduction. Even though young grass is high in protein content, it cannot be depended on to supply all of the protein the producing cow needs. The concentrate mixture should contain 20 percent protein until the grass loses its "washy" nature and is supplying all the good grazing the cow can eat. Then, the protein contest may be reduced to about 15 per cent.

ONE-VARIETY MEETING

Many one-variety cotton communities that have not held a meeting in 1948 plan to meet soon so that the organizations will be in good shape and all breeder seed arrangements completed.

GRAZE HOGS ON OATS

Some farmers find it a good plan to let part of their oats mature so they can graze their hogs on them in late May and June and until early corn is ready.

COTTON SEED

Cotton seed that are two years old, if properly stored, are normally as good or better than those one year old. So farmers who have a surplus of treated cotton seed after planting can store and save these seed for next year.

Broadhead - Hickman

The marriage of Miss Frances Josephine Broadhead to Mr. Andrew J. Hickman was solemnized at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon, March 19th, at the Temple Church Pastorium.

An altar was improvised of fern and vines, making a background for baskets of lovely spring flowers.

Tall branched candelabra held burning white candles.

The candles were lighted by Patricia Broadhead, a niece of the bride, who wore a pastel green taffeta dress, made with a long full skirt.

Before the ceremony Miss Gertrude Hickman, cousin of the groom, sang "I Love You Truly," by Carrie Jacobs Bond, accompanied by Miss Doris Rae Evans of Puerto Rica, a former roommate of the bride at Alabama College. The traditional wedding marches were also played by Miss Evans.

Mr. Gordon Powell, a veteran of World War II and a student of Alabama Polytechnic Institute at Auburn, served as best man.

Miss Lora Byrd, also a former roommate of the bride, was Maid of Honor. She wore a pastel green crepe dress.

The ceremony was performed by Reverend A. T. Hickman, father of the groom. The double ring ceremony was used.

The bride wore a lovely pastel blue two-piece crepe dress. Her hat was made of pink flowers and ribbon. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations and white snapdragons.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Broadhead, parents of the bride. The living room was beautifully decorated in Easter lillies and fern. The bride's table was covered in a handmade linen cloth and centered with a beautiful embossed five-tiered cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. The table was festooned with tiny bouquets of pink and white carnations and lighted candles.

Mrs. Arthur Broadhead served punch.

The bride was graduated from Chilton County High School in 1945. She attended Alabama College for two years and is now a student of the University of Alabama. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Durwood Broadhead of Clanton.

The groom also graduated from the Chilton County High School in the class of 1945. He is a veteran of World War II, and is now studying at the University of Alabama. He is the son of Reverend and Mrs. A. T. Hickman of Clanton.

After a wedding trip to south Alabama, Mr. and Mrs. Hickman will continue their studies at the University of Alabama.

Guests of the wedding included the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Broadhead, John Broadhead, Mrs. Arthur Broadhead and Patricia Broadhead; Reverend and Mrs. A. T. Hickman, parents of the groom; Rev. O. C. Hickman of Columbus, Miss.; Miss Gertrude Hickman of Millport, Ala.; Mrs. Florence Wilbanks, Mrs. Emma Jones, Mrs. G. T. Murphy and Mrs. Walter Haywood; Mr. Charles Bean, Mr. Bobby Davenport, Mr. Gene Murphy, Mr. Charles Powell and Mr. S. E. Scott; Miss Doris Rae Evans and Miss Lora Byrd.

Four days after a crop is planted, use of tooth weeders and rotary hoes on light soil and section harrows and rotary hoes on heavy soil is effective in weed control. These tools can be used profitably every four or five days until the crop has grown to a height of six inches. Row cultivation from then on will be cut down and yields increased.

We're for Dogs and People Both!

Like most home-loving communities, our town is mighty fond of dogs. So when Bing Parker's dog happened to bite the postman, it set off quite a debate.

Some folks allowed as how "there ought to be a law" requiring dogs to wear a muzzle. But cooler heads figured that a whole townful of well-behaved dogs shouldn't be penalized for the fault of one. So now Bing's dog sports the only nose piece.

From where I sit, there's a parallel in outlets selling beer. Most folks in our town like a moderate glass of beer from time to time . . . and want to enjoy it in a clean and law-abiding place. That's why they're all behind the Brewers' Program of "Self Regulation."

Under "Self Regulation" the brewers keep a careful check on outlets, see that they live up to the letter of the law, and recommend action against any retailer that gets out of line. Works, too!

Mims states, "I have put off planting meadows for two years now, and I plan to plant them this time if I have to stop everything else.

NOW IS OUR OPPORTUNITY TO REPAY OUR DEBT TO ALABAMA'S TWO GREAT CHRISTIAN COLLEGES

BIRMINGHAM-SOUTHERN--HOWARD

Alabama's two great Christian Colleges have contributed to the advancement and enlightenment of our State for a combined period of 198 years. During their long and distinguished service, they have:

- Trained a great majority of ministers who now occupy the pulpits of our Methodist and Baptist churches.
- Educated hundreds of teachers and scores of principals and county superintendents of education in our State's educational system.
- Schooled thousands of young men and women of all faiths and creeds for leadership in business, government and the professions and in making Christian homes.
- Afforded Alabama families of limited income more economical higher educational advantages than can be obtained elsewhere.
- Lifted by their spiritual influence the living standards of all our people.

THIS IS THEIR URGENT NEED

Both these splendid colleges have now reached that stage of development where they must go forward in order to survive and prosper. They are in urgent need today of $2,500,000 in building and endowment funds, to be shared equally.

The people of Jefferson County have already subscribed more than $1,000,000 of this needed fund. The General Education Board of New York has made a grant to the two colleges of $300,000 more, contingent on the entire amount of $2,500,000 being subscribed by the people of Alabama.

It now becomes the responsibility of citizens of our county and the other 65 counties in our State to answer the call of our colleges in the amount of $1,200,000.

OUR COUNTY'S PART IS $19,000

SHOULTS

We had a very nice crowd at Sunday School Sunday and Sunday night at B.T.U.

Next Sunday is our regular preaching day. Rev. Rube Bearden is our pastor.

Everyone is invited to come to our church. We would like to have 100 present Sunday. The Sunday School Rally was held at Pleasant Grove No. 2 Sunday afternoon with a good attendance. There are six churches in the rally. We are very thankful to our Master that Pleasant Grove has the largest number on roll and the largest attendance out of the six churches.

We love our neighboring churches and we ask every Christian to pray that the attendance will grow in all these churches.

Mr. Carlos Lee Smith visited his parents this week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shoults and little daughter from Craig Field. Selma; Mrs. Ollie Shoults and two sons, from Selma, visited Mr. and Mrs. Sam Shoults this week end.

The Home demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. Ila Shoults last Thursday. Nine members were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay McAfee and son, Lindsay, Jr., visited Mr. and Mrs. Robert McAfee Sunday afternoon. Miss Fannie Moore returned home with them to spend the week in Selma.

M. G. Smith and Hutson Smith who are employed at TCI in Birmingham, were home for the week end.

We are sorry to have Mr. Jeff Wallace and family to move out of our community.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Mitchell and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Robert McAfee Saturday night.

We are glad to hear that Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lawley have purchased them a new Frigidaire.

Don't forget our homecoming the fifth Sunday in May.

Marjorie McAfee attended the 4-H Club in Clanton last Friday. She reported a very nice time. Marjorie is President of the 6th Class 4-H Club in Maplesville High School.

There will be a cemetery cleaning at Pleasant Grove No. 2 next Friday. Come and bring tools to work with.

In preparing fruit-flavored gelatine salads and desserts, use citrus juice as the liquid. It will add much to the flavor of the food and make it more nutritious, also.

To The People Of The Sixth Congressional District

I hereby announce my candidacy for Representative of the Sixth Congressional District in the U. S. Congress, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary Election to be held May 4, 1948.

One of the issues before the people of the United States today is securing and maintaining World Peace. The general aims and purposes of the Marshall plan for European recovery deserve our support. In distributing the benefits of the Marshall Plan to Europe and Asia great care and prudence should be exercised to make sure that these benefits do not reach the hands of the communists and thus strengthen those who represent the greatest threat to peace. I am convinced that personal talks between the President and Premier Stalin should be renewed so that there can be no misapprehension on the part of Russia as to our desire for peace and our willingness to resist aggression in order to maintain peace.

The civil rights issues now before the congress are issues which should be left to the State Legislature for action without any encroachment by the federal government. As your representative I shall be always alert and active to prevent any such usurpation of the states' powers and prerogatives by the federal government.

As your congressman I will represent all of the people of the Sixth District and I will fight for modern flood control, soil conservation, federal aid to education without federal control, extension of federal aid for roads and hospitals, improvement and extension of our inland waterways, cheap fertilizer. continuation and extension of the present farm program, assistance to veterans in obtaining adequate housing and expansion of social security benefits. I will fight for the rights of our veterans and will remember them when making appointments.

I am for lower income taxes and simplification of income tax returns. I am for more economy in federal expenditures.

As your congressman, I will fight for the preservation of our Southern social customs, our ideals and traditions, and will fight to restore leadership of the Democratic Party to the hands of southern democratic leaders to prevent the Party from having a program inconsistent with the interests of the South.

I will greatly appreciate your vote and influence.

ON ARMY DAY, APRIL 6, there's something you can do for WORLD PEACE

Army Day is the day every American can set aside to salute the men in uniform. And this year, particularly, it is a day for every young man in the nation to consider the contribution he can make to World Peace.

Right now you have the finest 100% volunteer Army of any nation in the history of the world. But it is still below the strength authorized by Congress. Able men are needed for the Infantry, Artillery and Armored Cavalry.

You can make a contribution to World Peace by joining the National Guard or the Organized Reserve Corps. These splendid civilian components have been credited by top military leaders for much of the success in quick mobilization and actual winning of the last war. Today they are important factors in backing up the strength of the Regular Army.

Both Veterans and non-Veterans who meet requirements are eligible to enlist in the Organized Reserve Corps. Veterans retain the grade and rating earned in the Army.

In many high schools and most colleges, you can join the R.O.T.C. and get your military training and credit toward a Reserve commission along with your education.

Any one of these steps that you can take on Army Day will help toward making America strong. And it has never been truer than right now that A STRONG AMERICA IS A PEACEFUL AMERICA.

Make a point, on April 6, of stopping in at your U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station and getting the information about the part you can play toward World Peace.

ON ARMY DAY

- Display your American flag
- Wear your Veteran's lapel button
- Find out how you can make a contribution to World Peace in the Regular Army, the National Guard, the Organized Reserve Corps or R.O.T.C.
- Ask for literature at your local recruiting station.

CHILTON COUNTY NEWS

ONE OF ALABAMA'S LEADING WEEKLIES
DEDICATED TO SERVE THE CITIZENS OF CHILTON COUNTY AND CENTRAL ALABAMA

VOL. XXVI CLANTON, ALA. THURSDAY, APRIL 1, 1948 NUMBER 14

COLLEGES WILL MAKE JOINT APPEAL

Sunday, April 4th, Date Set For Beginning Program; County Quota $19,000

Next Sunday, April 4th, will mark inauguration in this and other counties throughout Alabama of the $2,500,000 Birmingham-Southern — Howard College joint appeal. Chilton County's quota has been set at $19,000.

Ministers of every Methodist and Baptist church in the county will present the cause of Christian education from their pulpits next Sunday morning. Everyone realizes that there is a great need for cultural and technical education itself, but we often lose sight of the fact that Christian education or education in a Christian environment is even more important.

Beginning next week teams of Methodist and Baptist workers from the congregations of all churches in the county will begin the canvass of their membership. The money subscribed by Chilton County as well as other counties will be divided equally between the two colleges—Birmingham-Southern and Howard. Without assistance from the Christian people of Alabama, these schools cannot continue to effectively carry on this program of Christian education, since neither school is state supported.

In giving to these colleges we are advancing the cause of Christianity in Alabama and never before has there been a greater need than now. Since both Howard and Birmingham-Southern are Christian institutions, it is the duty of the Christian people of Alabama and Chilton County to support them. In supporting the joint appeal of these two schools, we are investing in the future welfare of the youth of our state. If we forget our program of Christian training and education, we have little hope of designing and building national future as we would have it.

KIWANIS MEETING

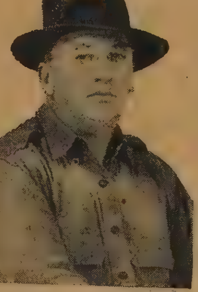
Mr. Hugh Webb of Station WKLF was the speaker of the evening at the regular meeting of the Kiwanis Club Thursday, March 25. His subject was "Advertising". He discussed the three main mediums of advertising; newspaper, magazines, and radio and the importance of tying all together. He presented statistics to show the area and population that Clanton serves and stressed how advertising serves to meet all these people. The importance of using a slogan was shown and how this one thing is remembered by people. He showed by spending at home a greater Chilton County could be built.

Mr. Earl Andrews of Montgomery will be the speaker at the meeting on Thursday April 1st.

New Radio Time

The Chilton County News radio time has been moved again. We are trying to get a time that is satisfactory to the most people and for the present your Chilton County News local news broadcast will come to you each morning at 6:10 a.m. We hope this time can be made permanent, but should we find that it is unsatisfactory for any reason, we will try until we do get a time appreciated by the most radio listeners.—The Editor.

Letter From Jim Dunlap



JAMES M. (Jim) DUNLAP

March 23, 1948.

To Everyone:

Since my formal announcement for the Office of Commissioner from the Fourth District, I have met and talked with many of you who have greeted me with mutual understanding. Needless to say, this relieves me greatly and inspires me to continue trying to see and talk with all. In my rounds I have found the road conditions to be just as so many have, in a very grave condition. I merely ask now that those I have yet to contact be patient and soon we shall match views. etc.

Sincerely,
JAMES M. (Jim) DUNLAP.

Heavy Frost Injures Fruit Crop

In checking orchards in different parts of the county, it has been found that very little cold injury to peaches has resulted from the low temperatures of the night of March 28. There may be more injury to some varieties than others depending on their stage of development.

No injury has been found or reported on dewberries from the cold.

There has been several farmers to report slight damage on strawberries, but this is most likely not to affect the crop seriously.

The tomato plantings in Chilton County are more seriously damaged than any other crop. A number of plantings have been completely killed and others suffered heavy frost injury.

Irish potatoes will most likely put out new plants, but pole beans and squash are in most cases ready for replanting.

This frost came exactly at the time of the average date of the last killing frost in the spring in Chilton County. Remember the date (long time average) for the last killing frost in this area is March 25 to April 1st.

CANCER DRIVE STARTS APRIL FIRST

Cancer Chairman Urges Support; Goal $910.00 For County

If every person contributes in the drive for funds to fight cancer, Chilton County will exceed its $910.00 goal.

The drive, Truman Luker County Campaign Chairman for the American Cancer Society, declared, begins April 1 and extends through the month.

Its aim is to raise funds to finance the most concerted effort ever made in Alabama to cut down the toll of more than 2,300 cancer deaths—from a third to a half of them preventable —in the state every year.

"Cancer is one of the most dangerous threats hanging over the heads of each one of us," Mr. Luker said. "It will strike an average of one in every six persons.

"More than 9,000 men, women and children are suffering from the disease in Alabama now, and medical surveys indicate that approximately 2,300 new cancer cases will develop within the next 12 months.

"No one is safe. That's why we want as many people as it is humanly possible to reach to have a personal part in financing the effort to bring cancer under control.

TO A NOBLE CAUSE

Baptist and Methodist denominations of Alabama—united in the common cause of religious education—will launch in April of this year the greatest educational, cultural and religious endeavor ever undertaken in our State.

This is an appeal to citizens of every faith and creed to subscribe $1,200,000 for Alabama's two church supported colleges—Birmingham-Southern and Howard.

Funds donated in the statewide appeal will be augmented by $1,000,000 which already has been given by citizens of Jefferson County and by a grant of $300,000 to be made by the General Education Board of New York when the State quota has been raised. The total of $2,500,000 will be divided equally between the two colleges and will be applied by [illegible] building and endowment purposes.

Church colleges complement, without conflicting with, publicly supported colleges. They promote the highest ideals of American life and the best of our traditions. They insure that education will be characterful, scientific and free.

The $2,500,000 Birmingham-Southern—Howard College joint appeal has received the endorsement of educators, business and professional leaders, heads of organized labor, and ministers of all denominations.

Folks and Things About Town

--By BEN

Fellow down the street the other day was complaining about the steak he had bought at a cafe. "It tasted like an old boot smeared with onions," he remarked. Another party standing near offered this: "What strange meals you have had."

Strawberries are in season and we can all get ready for those lucious strawberry short cakes that Chilton wives are famous for. While in Jemison Monday we noticed several cups on the counter at the Fred Smith store. Later Paul Moatts said he had hal a few cups earlier in the afternoon, but they didn't last as long as a strawberry in Clanton.

By-the-way, Paul got married the other Sunday. Guess he wasn't going to let his younger brother, Hoover, make a bachelor out of him. We haven't met the bride yet, but sure wish the best for them. Paul is a fine, hard working young fellow, and is the type of young business man we need to keep in Clanton.

Ralph Morrison, "Chick" Fiquette, and Kenyon Meeks have organized a new furniture store here. In a letter sent out by Morrison this week he stated that the new organization would open stores in other towns. All of their stores will operate under the trade name, "Quality Furniture Store," including the Morrison Furniture Store here. A strict policy of better merchandise at a reasonable price will be continued by the new organization, Mr. Morrison stated. The News with their many other friends, wish the new business success and prosperity.

Frank Cox certainly surprised his folks here by getting married a week or so ago. He was married a week or more before any one knew anything about it. Frank married a Miss Carolyn Fuller of Roanoke, Va. She has a pretty name, and knowing Frank, she must be as pretty as the name sounds or Frank wouldn't have married her.

Wish you folks who hollered so long for clip boards, note book covers, file folders, etc., etc., would come on and get them. The wholesalers finally got around to sending us one or two of our back orders and we now have plenty of them awaiting your pleasure.

The late William Allen White of Emporia, Kans., once went to a banquet in neighboring Missouri.

In introducing Mr. White the toastmaster said that he was reminded of the little girl who was told by her parents that the family was moving from Missouri to Kansas. The little girl went out in the backyard and looked up at the sky and said, "Goodbye, God. We are moving to Kansas."

White, after the laughter had died down, said that yes, the story was true, but that the previous speaker had got the emphasis wrong. What the little girl really said, according to White, was "Good. By God, we're moving to Kansas!"

Most pastures are good at this time of year, but too many dairymen get the idea that their pasture now will be enough for the summer, says J. R. Parrish, API extension dairyman. They should realize that they will need supplementary grazing crops. It is not too early to be planning for this extra grazing.

NATIONAL RURAL ELECTRIFICATION AWARD GIVEN ALABAMA POWER COMPANY

Ever since Alabama Power Company built one of the first experimental rural electric lines in the United States, and the first in Alabama, it often has stated its intention to make electric service available to every farm in its service area.

During 1947 it made such outstanding progress toward this goal that it has been given the Edison Electric Institute's National Rural Electrification Award, bestowed each year on the electric operating company in the United States which has made the greatest contribution to rural electrification and agricultural progress each year.

We are proud to have had a part in bringing this honor to Alabama.

To those who have applied for rural line extensions which we have not yet been able to make, we pledge continued effort toward our goal of electricity for every farm within our service area.

ALABAMA POWER COMPANY

Thos. W. Martin

President.

Rural Accomplishments and Activities

Accomplishments and activities of Alabama Power Company during 1947 which caused the Institute's Prize Award Committee to adjudge it the rural electrification leader in the United States include:

The extension of electric service to 18,043 new rural customers of which 14,095 are farms. At the end of the year 73,418 rural customers of which 61,974 are farms, were receiving electric service in Alabama Power Company's service area. Total rural use of electric service in that area increased 30% over 1946.

During 1947 the Company built 3073 miles of new rural lines, making a total of 12,927 miles of rural electric lines at the end of the year. Along the new lines built in 1947 there are an additional 4454 premises to be served when the buildings are wired.

Construction of 3140 miles of additional rural lines is under way to serve 14,700 additional applicants. When these lines are completed electric service will be available to 98% of the farms in the Company's service area.

Agricultural development activities in which the Alabama Power Company took part in 1947 and which were considered by the Institute in making the award included:

Holding wiring schools for farmers and contractors; conducting classes in the fundamentals of electricity with 97 Future Farmers of America groups, the total attendance being 12,116; conducting similar classes for 82 4-H Club groups, with a total attendance of 7368; assisting the Agricultural Engineering Department of Alabama Polytechnic Institute in the preparation of a wiring plan, specifications and bill of materials to accompany the farm building plans distributed by the Extension Service; conducting 448 meetings for rural housewives in home economics classes in rural schools with a total attendance of 18,362; cooperation with the Extension Service in staging farm and home shows in 31 counties with a total attendance of 59,330; maintaining contact with Extension Service and Vocational Agricultural representatives to keep them advised of the Company's rural electrification and agricultural development activities; cooperation with the Extension Service, vocational agricultural teachers, the State and other chambers of commerce in the promotion and staging of district dairy shows and county fat stock shows; enlarging its program of individual instruction and assistance to farmers in the profitable application of electric service to farm operations.

ON ARMY DAY, APRIL 6, there's something you can do for WORLD PEACE

Army Day is the day every American can set aside to salute the men in uniform. And this year, particularly, it is a day for every young man in the nation to consider the contribution he can make to World Peace.

Right now you have the finest 100% volunteer Army of any nation in the history of the world. But it is still below the strength authorized by Congress. Able men are needed for the Infantry, Artillery and Armored Cavalry.

You can make a contribution to World Peace by joining the National Guard or the Organized Reserve Corps. These splendid civilian components have been credited by top military leaders for much of the success in quick mobilization and actual winning of the last war. Today they are important factors in backing up the strength of the Regular Army.

Both Veterans and non-Veterans who meet requirements are eligible to enlist in the Organized Reserve Corps. Veterans retain the grade and rating earned in the Army.

In many high schools and most colleges, you can join the R.O.T.C. and get your military training and credit toward a Reserve commission along with your education.

Any one of these steps that you can take on Army Day will help toward making America strong. And it has never been truer than right now that A STRONG AMERICA IS A PEACEFUL AMERICA.

Make a point, on April 6, of stopping in at your U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station and getting the information about the part you can play toward World Peace.

ON ARMY DAY
★ Display your American flag
★ Wear your Veteran's lapel button
★ Find out how you can make a contribution to World Peace in the Regular Army, the National Guard, the Organized Reserve Corps or R.O.T.C.
★ Ask for literature at your local recruiting station.

COTTON PESTS MUST BE CONTROLLED

This will be a buggy year for the Alabama cotton grower if he doesn't take care and we don't mean the one-horse shay type either!

W. A. Ruffin, API extension entomologist, points out that while the farmer is preparing to prepare his fields, insects and diseases are massing for an attack. The alert farmer makes plans to combat pests now.

Ruffin recommends three types of poisons: Calcium arsenate and calcium arsenate with two per cent nicotine; 20 per cent chlorinated camphene; and three per cent benzene hexachloride with five per cent DDT. Choose one kind of poison and stick to it, advises Ruffin.

Producers who had red spiders in their fields last season should buy one of the above materials containing 40 per cent sulfur.

Cotton dusting will require an average of ten pounds per acre for each application. An average of six applications will be required, totaling 60 pounds of poison needed.

If calcium arsenate and nicotine are to be used for lice control, the grower should buy half his arsenate in pure form and half in the mixture. The two dusts should be alternated in application.

Apply the first poison when 20 squares of every 100 checked have been punctured. This will generally occur when the crop has been laid-by. Follow the first application with two more -spaced at four-to-five-day intervals. If rain washes off the poison within 12 to 24 hours after dusting, maek another application. After the third application, wait 10 days to two weeks before continuing dusting schedules. When, upon checking, 20 new squares in every 100 show damage, start the dusting schedule again. Ruffin advises not to dust too early. The farmer may find weevil infestation in the first six or seven squares formed, but the weevils are those that lived over winter. Dusting at this period pays little.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

Today, on the advice of my attorney, I am withdrawing from the campaign for nomination for U. S. Representative in Congress from the Sixth Congressional District. I am convinced that I am not a legal candidate due to delinquent poll taxes.

I am issuing the following public statement:

"My attention has been called to the fact that apparently I am not a qualified voter in Tuscaloosa County. For many years I have been in good faith under the impression that I was a legal voter, as the poll lists have included my name. I understood that I was exempt from poll tax on account of a physical disability.

"I have discussed this matter with my attorney and I am now convinced that I am not a legal voter. This being true, it is needless for me to continue in the race for Congress.

"I wish to thank my friends for the assurances of their support in my campaign. You may hear from me later."

Yours sincerely,
DR. H. F. WHEAT,
Tuscaloosa, Ala.

HIGHLAND

[illegible] were very glad to have several visitors from other churches and places with us. We cordially invite them to come again.

There were quite a number of our own church members who are not living in this community at present and some who have been [illegible] present Sunday. It [illegible] them at church again. Just [illegible] can come often.

We had a wonderful Sunday School lesson, and then following at the 11 o'clock hour, a very inspiring message, closely connected with our Sunday School lesson, by Bro. Bill Cox.

Surely everyone who heard this sermon went away with a more humble heart and a renewed faith in Christ.

It made us wonder if it is at all possible to comprehend such a marvelous love. It is beyond our ability to understand the very depths of His sufferings for us. So the responsibility that lies with Christians in the carrying out of His [illegible] should become a privilege when we think of God's love towards us, and what the end of our earthly existence would mean, if we [illegible] knowledge of [illegible] Saviour.

a trained group of professional [illegible]ers who are spiritual in their approach and deeply interested [illegible] quality of music given on these programs. The choir is under the direction of John D. Hoffman, and George Lee Hamrick is the organist.

This year the theme for all of the 13 broadcasts will be "The Teachings of Jesus and the Present Scene." All of the sermons will deal with a definite teaching of Jesus and a specific problem of human life. An attempt will be made to interest all people possible in the Christian way of life and to bring the teachings of Jesus to the masses of the people.

The first speaker, Bishop Smith, has recently returned from a trip to India where he represented the Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church and it is expected he will speak from the viewpoint of world-wide Methodism and the universal need for personal salvation.

THE METHODIST HOUR radio program is produced and announced by Warde Adams, Jr., and the programs are written and directed by Rev. James W. Sells. These programs are sponsored by the South Central Jurisdictional Council, Dr. Paul D. Womeldorf, Executvie Secretary and the Southeastern Jurisdictional Council, Dr. William F. [illegible]lian, Executive Secretary. Speakers for these programs were selected by the Joint Radio Committee of The Methodist Church, of which Bishop Paul E. Martin, Little Rock, [illegible], chairman and Dr. E. H. [illegible] of Gastonia, N. C., is secretary. The Joint Radio Committee is composed of one representative [illegible] copal Area in the two Jurisdictions.

You can

CASH IN ON SCRAP

STEEL MILLS NEED SCRAP METAL
FROM YOUR FARM

Supplies of scrap for the steel furnaces are critically low. The furnaces thrive on a diet of about equal portions of pig iron and scrap. More scrap is urgently needed, if there is to be enough steel for making farm implements and countless other products. More than three million tons of steel scrap lie idle on America's farms, according to the latest estimates — scrap that only litters up the place, scrap that is wasted where it is. How much is there on your farm? How about the old car body, that rusted cultivator, those old plow bottoms, discarded tools? Every bit helps — and it is needed now.

IT'S HARVEST TIME FOR SCRAP

There's a bumper scrap crop to be harvested this spring — and there's money in it for you. Your scrap dealer will pay for everything usable. You can do three good turns in one scrap harvest:

1. You make some money on what you can't use.
2. You get your outdoor spring housecleaning done.
3. You help the steel mills turn out more steel for the implements and equipment you'd like to have on your farm.

Scrap means savings to you — if you'll collect it and sell it. On the first rainy day, when you can't plow or sow or cultivate, put on your oldest clothes and get that scrap together.

HERE'S WHAT TO DO

1. Pile up every bit of iron and steel scrap on your place.
2. Take a payload into town the next time you go. You'll make more money out of it that way.
3. If you can't drive it in, call your scrap dealer and ask him to pick it up.
4. If there is no scrap dealer near you, call your implement dealer. Ask him how to get your scrap started toward the steel furnaces.

Warning! Stop The Sweetpotato Weevil

Outbreaks of this serious pest have been noticed in the state during the past few years, reports Lyle Brown, API extension horticulturist. The insect probably first invaded Alabama fields when careless individuals brought in sweetpotatoes from infested areas. The weevil has been serious in parts of Louisiana and extreme south Alabama for a long time. Alabama has laws against shipping potatoes from infested areas. The weevil is about a quarter of an inch long, dark blue on the head, snout and back, and is brick red in the middle and on the legs. The grubs from its eggs grow in the potatoes or the vines about ground level.

Brown state that this pest in a general outbreak could cause damage worth millions of dollars. Each time [illegible]ion is reported, the [illegible]artment of Plant Indus[illegible]es the area [illegible] to destroy the weevil. This [illegible] a great deal of work and expense in addition to halting sweetpotato production until the past is destroyed.

"All citizens should be careful not to bring sweetpotatoes or plants from infested areas," Brown says. "We need to be always on guard. Once the pest is too generally distributed over the state, it will be impossible to control."

AN EGG SALAD IS BETTER THAN SULFUR AND 'LASSES

If you want a change in flavor on spring days, Mary Hulsey, API extension specialist in foods and nutrition, suggests trying a combination of young vegetables from the garden and eggs. Take green onions, carrots, cabbae, spinah, and mustard greens. Chop coarsely—not fine—and mix with chopped hard cooked eggs and a tart French dressing.

If you are just learning to sew, remember that medium-weight firmly woven fabrics are the easiest to sew.

Dip the bottom of your scouring powder can in hot paraffin to prevent it from leaving rust marks on bathroom fixtures.

Annual Easter Singing At Poplar Springs

Poplar Springs held it's 42nd session of the Annual Easter Singing, although the weather was rather cold, we had a large attendance. The house was filled Sunday morning and an over flowing crowd attended Sunday afternoon. Our pastor Rev. N. E. Cook, gave the welcome address about eleven o'clock, which every one enjoyed.

Mr. O. L. Devaughn was chairman for the day. We appreciate his cooperation for the past few years. He has been faithful to help in our singing. Mr. Devaughn sang a song and dedicated it to Archie Devaughn, a home boy whom everyone loved. Archie has gone on to the Great Beyond.

The following directed during the morning: Mr. Jesse Jones, Floyd Little, Mr. Guin, Mr. and Mrs. Garrett, J. O. Jones, J. W. Devaughn, W. M. Devaughn, Clarence Billingsley, I. D. Huett, Floyd Bailey, F. I. Popwell, Mr. Culp.

Afternoon directors were: T. E. Wyatt, Mr. Smith, Jasper Jones, Ralph Grant, A. O. Boswell, Woodrow Deason, Lee J. Grant, Floy Devaughn, Lebon Eads, Orbie Devaughn, Miss Nell Devaughn, A. M. Jones, Ed Langston.

Pianists for the day were: Nell De[illegible] Clarence Billingsley, Martha [illegible] Ralph Grant, Floy Devaughn and Ruth Boswell. We had several specials during the day including quartets and solos.

Mr. W. M. Devaughn sang, "I'll Fly Away," and dedicated it to Mr. Renfro Jones, Mrs. O. L. Devaughn and Miss Ora Devaughn, who are sick and were not able to attend.

Several songs were dedicated to Mr. Marion Easterling during the day who was also unable to attend the singing.

Everyone seemed to enjoy the day just fine.

Wax, Not Water Will Save Those Floors

Spare the water and save the floor! Alice Peavy, API extension home furnishing specialist, says that too often a housewife gets the urge to drag out the scrub brush, a pail of hot water, and strong soap to scour the flour.

This wears out wood floors and removes the protective coating of wax from lineoleum and asphalt composition. If the damage has already been done, scrub again, but afterwards apply a coating of self-polishing wax Repeat a day later. Give a third coat two days following this, and the final coat in about a week. Before each application, dust the floor with a mop that has been wrung out in clear, cold water.

In the future the floor need not be re-waxed more than once a month. If scrubbing is necessary, use a mild white soap and little water as possible. Dry immediately. Then re-wax.

Plans to Meet Seasonal Demands For Farm Workers Underway

S. Fleetwood Carnley, Director of the Alabama State Department of Industrial Relations, announces that recruitment of farm workers for year-round and seasonal demands is now one of the responsibilities of the Department of Industrial Relations.

The responsibility for assisting with farm labor problems was transferred from the State Extension Service on January 1, 1948. With the setting up of a special farm placement program, through the Alabama State Employment Service, a division of the Department of Industrial Relations, the Employment Service again becomes a central clearing house for both agricultural and non-agricultural workers.

In each of the 55 Employment Service offices in the state, personnel have been given special assignment to recruitment of workers for agricultural and related industries.

Plans to meet seasonal demands for farm workers are already under way in the Clanton office, of which Mr. W. W. Allen is manager.

Throughout the state, intensive recruitment will be conducted where critical shortages are predicted. When necessary, arrangements will be made for transporting workers on a daily or weekly basis.

Mr. Carnley announced that Mr. Richard H. Hunt, a native Alabamian and former manager of the Montgomery local office, is supervising the new Rural Industries program.

As an ex-farmer and with eleven years experience in Employment Service work, Mr. Hunt is well qualified for the leadership of the state's farm program. He brings to his position a first-hand knowledge of agricultural patterns and labor conditions in Alabama.

Mr. Carnley outlined the Employment Service farm activities as providing for:

1. Year-round service to farm employers and workers.
2. Special recruitment for seasonal demands.
3. Channeling of off-season farm workers to related industries, including lumber, logging, pulpwood and food processing.

The over-all objective is to conduct a program for industry-agriculture which will most effectively use the farm workers in Alabama. The plan will permit the employment of farm workers in related industries during periods in which crop requirements are negligible and still maintain a ready source of supply for peak seasons of agricultural activity.

Famers should contact the Employment Service office, Upchurcn Building for assistance in recruiting local workers, securing labor from out of the area, and making necessary transportation arrangements. All available farm workers should likewise file application for employment with the local employment office.

GIVE HOGS GREEN GRAZING NOW

Spring days stimulate a natural hunger for early green vegetables. The same is true with hogs. They need green leafy matter in their diet.

Hogs on alfalfa, crimson clover, and white Dutch now, says G. B. Phillips, API extension hog production specialist, will supply proteins to supplement feed grains and needed vitamins.

VOTE FOR

PHILLIP J. HAMM

For United States Senator

Subject to the Action of the Democratic Primaries, May 4 and June 1, 1948.

HERE IS MY STAND:

1. I was born near Elba, Alabama; educated in public schools of Coffee County, Jacksonville State Teachers College, and graduated with BS degree from University of Alabama. I worked in the steel mills at Gadsden, Alabama; operated a store in the same city; taught and coached in public schools of Greene, Coffee and Geneva Counties for 8 years. I was Revenue Commissioner for State of Alabama from January '47 to March '48. Married Evelyn Richards of Hartford.

2. I was an enlisted man in U. S. Navy for 3 years; spent 23 months in South Pacific; worked as veteran's co-ordinator in Crenshaw, Coffee, and Geneva Counties; hold membership in American Legion, VFW, and DAV.

3. I am against dumping billions of our dollars overseas to build war machines. I favor aiding war-torn nations with bread and butter, and not with bullets.

4. I am a strong believer in states rights and local responsibility. I think that all matters of government should be settled as close to the people as possible—right on down to the states, counties, and towns.

5. I believe that all civil rights issues should be settled by the states themselves, and not by Washington.

6. I believe in the Democratic Party. It is the only party which looks out for the interest of the little man. It is the only party which has brought widespread aid to the South. I believe in cleaning out the Democratic Party, and not getting out.

7. I am opposed to Truman being the Democratic candidate for president. His civil rights stand has brought great harm to the Democratic Party; his foreign policy is crude, untimely, and too costly. He listens too much to military people and Wall Street money men. I believe in getting away from military generals, and working more for the three greatest generals of all: General Peace, General Prosperity, and General Satisfaction.

8. I believe in lowering the income tax, especially for the small wage earner, so that we can keep more of our money at home. Last year, $5 out of every $6 collected in taxes from the people of Alabama went off to Washington, and a good portion of that has already been dumped overseas. Only $1 out of $6 stayed here in Alabama to carry on our welfare program, build our roads, operate our schools, and run our state government.

9. I am for greater federal aid for education, and I believe that the states should be allowed to use this money without being hand-tied from Washington.

10. I am opposed to peace-time conscription. I believe in a strong State National Guard and National Guard Reserve, but I believe that they should be controlled by the states and not by the federal government. I believe in broader training of our young men in colleges, trade schools, and in industry.

11. I believe that the GI Bill of Rights should be changed so that it will aid all veterans, and not just those attending college, making loans, and taking special training. I believe that adjustments should be made in the veterans disability benefits program, so that all veterans, regardless of rank, will receive the same benefit for the same amount of disability.

12. I believe this nation needs more river valley programs, more rural electrification, and more co-operatives.

13. I believe in organized labor. I think that the working man has got as much right to pool his human resources, as the corporations have got to pool their capital.

14. I believe in peace; I believe there should be more planning for peace, and less promoting of war. I believe that the surest road to peace today is by putting our faith and our resources behind the United Nations Organization. I think that all of this nation's aid to foreign countries should be handled by the UNO.

Commission Candidate Announces Program

Many Chilton County voters have recently urged me to outline and publish the program under which I, T. A. (Abney) Brown, will operate should I be elected commissioner of the third district, subject to the May primaries.

It will be the duty of the elected candidate to the people of Chilton County to have a program of bettering roads in his district. This, I will do, and at the request of my many old and new friends, I hereby submit a five-point proyram that I will follow if you, the voters of Chilton County, honor me by electing me as commissioner of the third district:

(1) To construct and maintain good Farm-to-Market roads. Today machines work our roads providing fair roads for travel on sunny days, but with heavy rains like we have had in the last two months, our "County Roads" become disgraceful and impassable mud puddles. No one would rather see these roads paved more than I, but our county does not have the money for such paving. It does have enough money to surface these roads with a good grade gravel, and this I intend to do. Then in fair weather or foul you can travel our roads without getting "stuck in the mud." If I am elected, I cannot make these improvements overnight. Until I do, you will find both county employees and equipment at your service should unfavorable weather conditions make sections of the roads impassable. You pay taxes for roads, and it is not up to you to spend five dollars more to be hauled from a mud pile in the middle of our county roads.

(2) If I am elected 3rd district commissioner, I will be a servant of the people of Chilton County and promise an honest expenditure of all county funds of which I am responsible. I believe I'm a capable candidate for this office in so far as getting the most for your money in road construction and maintenance. (I was an engineer with the Alabama State Highway Department for 10 years and served with the Third Naval Construction Battalion in the South Pacific during the war for four years).

(3) Chilton County citizens' taxes pay for our county roads. If I am elected commissioner, I will employ only Chilton County citizens for road work. Furthermore, in purchasing road materials and equipment, such purchases will be made from county businesses if they can supply our needs.

(4) I will also cooperate completely with other county officials in making our county more attractive and prosperous. Present impassable, muddy roads are not attractive and offer no incentive to travelers to return to our county. Not only will I service roads for good conditions 366 days in the year, but will also strive to make our roadsides more attractive. Only after the county government does this will our residents be stimulated to improve the appearance of their homes, fences, fields and buildings. Travelers from other sections then will slow down on passing through the county, enjoy the scenery, stop and do business with our farmers and merchants and express the wish that they lived in such a beautiful community. Under these conditions, property will increase in value, business will prosper and new industry and residents will seek to move into our county.

(5) If elected I will show no partiality to any one section of the third district in the working of county roads. A commissioner's salary is only $100 per month and undoubtedly we have all heard rumors that such and such a commissioner is not adequately distributing the funds. Let me assure you here that my faith in God and my church, the good name of my wife and daughter, and my conscience would never allow me to take any funds other than my earned salary. My brother, Frank B. Brown, and I are in the hardware business in Maplesville and so long as our many friends and customers patronize our store, that will be my livelihood. Yet, as a merchant it is my desire to give the county roads service so they can be traveled over each and every day, and in that way I will gain my reward in the rural customers, who will visit in our stores when otherwise they would be isolated on their farms. Since my brother is in business with me, that will give me the time to supervise road work and not interfere with my private business.

This is my five-point program which I hope you will consider wise enough to throw your vote and influence behind my rampaign.

At this time, let me say that a third World War seems likely between our free democratic way of life and the Communists of Russia. If I am elected commissioner of the third district, I will have no more control over such a crisis than you. I make this statement to urge you to go to the polls and vote to show the world that in America we believe in our government and take an actual part in it. I desire your vote and influence, but no matter who is your choice for the office, I BEG YOU TO CAST YOUR BALLOT FOR THE CANDIDATE YOU DEEM MOST CAPABLE FOR THE JOB ON MAY 4.

Joe Minter's Success

CAMP HILL — Since Joe Minter bought a cow in 1941 as a 4-H project, he has come a long way.

This young FFA member now has 20 purebred Jersey cows which have won for him 60 ribbons and trophies and a trip to the All-American Jersey Exposition at Columbus, Ohio. During the period of January 1, 1947, to November 12, 1947, he sold 110,484 pounds of Grade A milk from these same Jerseys.

Chatom — Anybody wanna buy a rattlesnake? A four-foot rattler, three inches in diameter has been captured alive by George Sullivan. Mr. Sullivan will be glad to sell it to the highest bidder.

Chilton Asked To Raise $19,000 As Her Share Of College Quota

Within a few weeks everyone in the county will be approached by a member of the committee who is assisting in raising Chilton County's part of the $2,500,000 Birmingham-Southern-Howard joint appeal.

Chilton County has been asked to subscribe $19,000 of the State's $2,500,000 quota. Funds subscribed in the drive will be equally divided between Alabama's Christian Colleges and will be used for building and endowment purposes. At the present neither Howard nor Southern have adequate facilities to carry on the great work of Christian education that is so essential to the well being of a nation.

Even though both schools are denominational schools their doors are open to students from every denomination and every section of the state. Because of this it is our responsibility, regardless of faith or creed, to do our part in meeting Chilton County's $19,000 quota.

Methodists and Baptists over the entire county are contributing generously of their time in assisting in raising Chilton County's quota by canvassing their respective neighborhoods and communities. These are the men and women who in a large measure will do the work that is involved in the campaign. Below are listed the names of beat leaders who will contact you within a few weeks. Contribute generously when approached by these men and women and assure Alabama youth greater opportunities for Christian education:

Beat 1 — B. R. Wall, Mrs. D. W. Patterson and Clarence Vines.

Beat 2 — R. C. Shields, Leo Langston, C. C. Conway and Mrs. J. A. Peterson.

Beat 3 — Rev. R. W. Stuckey and K. L. Summers.

Beat 4 — John B. Deramus, R. C. Williams, W. E. Huddleston, A. Reedie Taylor and Joe Campbell.

Beat 7 — Noah Latham and Mr. Brown.

Beat 8 — Earl O'Neal, A. B. Jones and Bob Davis.

Institutional On The Farm Training

After nearly three years in the Army and a short period of public works, Mr. Raymond Gore has returned to farming and has shown remarkable progress.

During his stay in the Army the veteran spent 25 months in the C.B.I Theatre of War.

Later, while Mr. Gore was employed in public works, he became convinced that a much better standard of living and a greater future lay in farming.

In 1946 he returned to farming, spending his savings on a mule, cow and equipment. He rented land on halves the first two years. "All this time," stated the veteran, "I was saving all I could so I could own a place of my own one day."

During the latter part of 1947, Mr. Gore, with the aid afforded by the Veterans Institutional On-The-Farm Training Program was able to buy a farm of his own.

The 30-acre farm pruchased by the veteran already had a five-acre peach orchard and one and one-half acres in strawberries.

Mr. Gore states that he plans to enlarge both the orchard and strawberry patch and has already set out an additional acre in peach trees.

This year he plans to plant five acres of sweet corn, one-half acre of tomatoes four acres of cotton, two acres oates and hay and fifteen acres of field corn.

In addition he will have one acre in year-round home garden and sufficient chickens, hogs and cows to amply supply home needs.

(By MISS C. N. TURNQ UIST — Correspondent)

Thorsby Institute News—

The annual Christian Life Conference will be held at Thorsby Institute April [illegible] 3 and 4th. Registration will begin at Helen C. Jenkins Hall at 7:00 p.m. Friday night. April 2nd. Several out of town speakers will be present during the conference and interesting discussions have been planned. There will also be recreation. The picnic will begin at 12 o'clock on Saturday. The banquet will be held at 6:30 p.m. Saturday night at the dining hall. There will also be a sunrise service and breakfast Sunday morning beginning at 6:30 a.m. The Conference will close at 3:15 on Sunday afternoon, April 4th. Plan to attend this Conference.

The annual competitive plays will be presented at Thorsby Institute Friday, April [illegible], at 7:30 p.m. At this time the two clubs (Pushmataha and Philomathean) of the Helen Keller Literary Society each present a one-act play. These plays are looked upon as one of the [illegible] points of the school year and are usually well attended. [illegible] The admission will be 15c for those under [illegible] and [illegible] for adults.

[illegible] last Sunday they heard the screaming of the fire siren and it was learned that the home of Misses Ann and Nell Werness was in flames. People went rushing to their aid and the fire department was on the scene like a flash, but since there were no water facilities there, little could be done to save the home, but a good bit of their household goods downstairs were saved. All their clothing was burned and all their beds, since this was all upstairs, which was in flames before help could get there. Miss Ann Werness, already a cripple from being struck by an automobile about a year and a half ago, had tried to make it upstairs to save some of their clothing while Miss Nell ran for help, was caught in the flames and when found on the stairway by U. L. Hayes, she was badly burned about the face. her hair was burning and her clothes were on fire. U. L. reached her just in time to pick her up and carry her to safety, risking his own life in so doing. She was given first aid treatment by nurse W. L. Holcombe and later taken to the Jefferson Hospital for further treatment. Her condition is not believed to be serious. Miss Nell remained in Thorsby with friends. Everyone in Thorsby who was at the scene, stood with tear dimmed eyes, as they witnessed this tragic happening, and talked of [illegible] building a home for these two sisters, who seem to have faced nothing but adversity for the past few years. Already they are being made [illegible] through donations and kind deeds being done for them by kind [illegible] people. We are sure that plans will be made and provisions for these two deserving people, that they might still have some happiness through their remaining years.

Thorsby has lost one of its oldest citizens and one of the grandest old gentlemen we have ever known. Mr. [illegible] Hayes was laid to rest on [illegible] March 29th, on the date of [illegible] birthday. He and his wife attended The Birmingham News Party for those married [illegible] years or more [illegible] as he remained to visit with a daughter for a few days, he was taken suddenly ill and died on last Friday. Funeral services were held at the Cedan Grove Methodist Church, of which he was a member, and burial was in the adjoining cemetery. His funeral was said to be one of the largest ever held in this community and the great profusion of flowers, gave evidence of the wonderful esteem in which he was held by all who knew him.

The Thorsby Civic Club met at the Town Hall on Monday night for the purpose of organizing a Garden Club for Thorsby. Due to the fact that we had another meeting in town, previously planned, and due to deaths and sickness, there were not so many present, but enough that the club was organized and enrolled 17 members. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Brown of Prattville were present were present to help in organizing. The name of the club is, The Thorsby Garden Club. It's President is Mrs. T. E. Barham, Vice President, Mrs. Lloyd Howard; Secretary, Mrs. Wilbert Marcus; and Treasurer, Mrs. Harold of Strickland. The club will meet each second Wednesday afternoon of the month, at 3 o'clock, at the home of one of its members. This organization is usually made up of ladies, but we had a good many men present at our meeting, and it was decided to extend an invitation to the men of our town to become members also. Several joined last night. We also had present some of our good people from Jemison, who joined with us, with the understanding that should Jemison later form a club of their own, that they should feel free to withdraw their membership from the Thorsby Club. We will at once become affiliated with the State Federation of Garden Clubs. An invitation is extended to anyone in Thorsby or Jemison to join. The fee is $1.00 per year.

BIRMINGHAM-SOUTHERN COLLEGE OF THE FUTURE—Dr. George R. Stuart, Jr., president of Birmingham-Southern College, poses with an architect's drawing of the future layout of the Methodist college. The plans show faculty residences (background) and new buildings to be added by the college which recently acquired an 125-acre addition to its campus. Birmingham-Southern and Howard College have joined in the appeal to citizens of Alabama for building and endowment funds to help carry out their development programs.

SHOULTS

Bro. Rube Bearden brought us two very fine sermons Sunday and Sunday night. Everyone who was absent surely missed something good. Due to Easter company and cold weather, our attendance dropped off some Sunday, but we hope to have more next Sunday.

Prayer service will be held at the home of Mrs. Gin Nicholas March 31, Wednesday night, instead of Saturday night, on account of the Try-Co Singing Convention at Rehobeth next Saturday night. Everyone is invited to come and help sing in our new books.

We are sorry to have on our sick list Mr. Charlie Smith. Mr. Smith has the flu again; he has already had it one time. We hope he will soon be well again. We sure did miss Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Smith from church Sunday and Sunday night.

Carlos Lee Smith and Mrs. Heath Founting visited their parents this week end, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Calhon Garner had with them their three children Sunday.

All of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Maddoxs' children were home for Easter.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hathcock lost their horse Sunday. It died at the time they needed it most. We hope that they can have good luck in getting something to plow.

We had a cemetery cleaning last Thursday. We had a nice crowd, but only got about half of it cleaned up. If you have relatives in this cemetery, won't you please remember them enough to come help get this job completed. We realize this is a busy time of the year, but let us put God's work first, always, and then He will bless us in what we try to do for ourselves.

Rev. Rube Bearden was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Latham Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lawley and Joan, and Mrs. Bennie McAfee and Wayne, visited Mr. and Mrs. Robert McAfee Sunday afternoon.

TEEN CANTEEN

LaFAYETTE — What the young people of LaFayette wanted most of all was a Teen Canteen. And that's what they're going to get with the help of the Rotary Club and other civic organizations.

Some time ago the Rotarians invited a representative group of youngsters to give their views on better recreation. A Teen Canteen, they said, where they could gather for dancing, fellowship games and a snack bar.

Now, the youngsters, their parents and civic organizations are working toward that goal.

A Mother's Questions

After nineteen hundred and forty-eight
Will it be forever too late,
For the true to pray or the brave to fight,
For what is dear and what is right?
A cloud is rising, dark as the grave,
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.
Then what of our flag that flutters so bright?
The flag we all should love—
Must it go down under this cloud of night
Never more to wave above?
Have we been too free to cross over the sea
And take our treasures and gold?
Have we been too brave helping others to save
Their helpless from tortures untold?
Have we of our freedom been too proud?
Pride goeth before a fall.
That God will not hear though we cry aloud
As for His help we call.
Has a warning been sounded all too late,
That so many serpents have entered in
To ensnare our people with greed and sin?
To bind our nation in iron bands,
To become the vassals of foreign lands?
They have poured out their gold
And our freedom we've sold;
O! Shame to our nation to be so blind—
Our children's future to blast and bind!
God has done wonderful things for us here,
But like the Jews of old,
We have forgotten the Savior so dear,
And centered our hearts on gold.
We have forgotten what Jesus said
As he taught beside the sea.
That He would come back to earth again
Our loving King to be.
But we must follow the path He trod
And worship the Only Living God.

It may be that God will show us His power
And save us yet at the eleventh hour.
For it does not take a mighty band.
When by their side the angels stand.
Then let us hope that the brave and true
Will bow down and ask Him what to do,
And beg Him to help us conquer this foe,
And save our children from sorrow and woe.

—MRS. A. C. WELLS,

Howard College Student Activities

Howard College, Baptist supported institution, produces for our State what it will most require in the fateful years ahead—leaders of Christian character who combine trained intellectual abilities with the highest moral and religious standards. Shown here are some of the varied activities of its student body. Upper left, a friendly tug-of-war on the campus; upper right, co-ed reaches for book in college library; center left, religious training is emphasized; center, college choir; lower left, a group of student leaders; lower right, a bevy of Howard's lovely co-eds. Howard will share equally with Birmingham-Southern College in funds subscribed by Alabama citizens to the state-wide building and endowment fund appeal.

Don't Let Weather Discourage Gardening

Alabama home gardeners should not let the recent rainy weather dampen their enthusiasm.

With the exception of Irish potatoes and English peas the gardener can still plant seeds he intended to put into the garden in March, says J. C. Ford, API extension home gardening and orchard specialist. This means he can still grow beets, carrots, turnips, radishes, mustard, spinach, sweet corn, snap beans, tomatoes, sweet potatoes, cabbage and lettuce.

Other vegetables normally recommended for April include peppers, eggplant, lima eabns, edible soybeans, field peas, cucumbers, squash, orka, muskmelons and watermelons.

When ironing rayon or jerseys, always iron with the grain of the fabric.

COLLEGES TO LAUNCH GREAT PROGRAM

Baptist and Methodist denominations of Alabama—united in the common cause of religious education—will launch on April 4th the greatest educational, cultural and religious endeavor ever undertaken in our State.

This is an appeal to citizens of every faith and creed to subscribe $1.-200,000 for Alabama's two church supported colleges — Birmingham-Southern and Howard.

Funds donated in the state-wide appeal will be augmented by $1,000,000 which already has been given by citizens of Jefferson County and by a grant of $300,000 to be made by the General Education Board of New York when the State quota has been raised. The total of $2,500,000 will be divided equally between the two colleges and will be applied to building and endowment purposes.

HIGHLAND

(Too Late For Last Week)

Church attendance is improving since roads are in better condition. We've missed having church services several Sundays during the winter, because it was impossible to get over the roads leading to our church.

Now that the weather and roads are better, let's everyone endeavor to be in our place each Sunday at our church services. We not only will get a blessing, but others will be encouraged to attend church.

Everyone feels like the church is essential to the welfare of our community. So let's us show our appreciation of this privilege and our thankfulness to God, by coming each Sunday to God's House for study and worship.

"There is strength in numbers," holds true in the church just the same as in other things. If each of our members would discharge his or her duty, not for duty's sake, but because of a desire to do God's Will, what a blessing even our little church would be to the community and our country.

Bro. T. W. Billingsley preached a good sermon after Sunday School Sunday.

We were glad to have with us Sunday Mr. Frank Baker's mother. We welcome all visitors at any time.

Don't forget the Saturday night singings at Highland Church.

Come over and visit with us and help the class sing.—Reporter

GREATER APPRECIATION OF SWEET POTATOES NOTED

The sweet potato is one farm product that did not drop in price last February.

Big advertising campaigns, good sales promotion, and a better quality product this past season kept sweet potato prices at high levels. A. W. Jones, API extension marketing specialist, said that in general, "sweet potatoes are becoming more appreciated as a food." Because of this, Alabama growers have been able to keep sales moving.

It is not safe to buy land or to lend money and accept land as security without first investigating the Title of the land. Often there are unpaid mortgages and judgments or other liens, affecting the Title, which an Abstract would set out. BIGGER AND BETTER PEACH FESTIVAL

Ground Work Now Being Laid For Big Event; Will Be Held In Clanton

At a recent festival planning meeting the ground work was laid for a bigger and better peach festival this year. It looks as if Chilton County Peach Festival is well on its way to becoming the county's big event of the year. Since the county produces a peach crop valued at almost two million dollars there is every justification for recognizing and advertising Chilton County peaches. The peach festival is designed for exactly this purpose. There is no frivolous purpose for setting aside a day for a celebration of this kind. The peach festival idea was conceived and developed for the express of letting more people know about the county peach crops in an effort to create more and better market outlets for the peach crop. Last year's festival proved the soundness of the festival idea in that Chilton County received nation-wide publicity and potential peach buyers who heretofore knew relatively little of the county's peach industry were made aware of the extent of quality of Chilton's peach crop.

This year's peach festival will be held in Clanton and is scheduled to take place about July 7th. Before an event as big as a peach festival can be held a tremendous amount of work is required of a great many people. This year the Kiwanis Club, Lions Club, Thorsby Civic Club, Thorsby Business Men's Club, Clanton Chamber of Commerce, Clanton American Legion, and Thorsby American Legion are sponsoring the festival. Representatives from these organizations along with M. R. Glasscock, Chairman; Donald Merchant, Co-chairman; and J. A. Ogburn, Immediate Past Chairman, compose the Executive Committee, and are as follows: W. L. Parrish, Kiwanis Club; Hollis Jackson, Clanton Chamber of Commerce; Herman Lecroy, Lions Club; Delbert Collins, Thorsby Business Men's Club; Harold Strickland, Thorsby Civic Club; Grover Bice, Thorsby American Legion; Carolyn Montgomery, Clanton American Legion.

In addition to representatives of the various civic organizations the committees have named various chairmens and co-chairmens as listed below:

Finance Committee — Truman Luker, chairman; Roy Kendrick, Co-chairman.

Publicity Committee: R. H. Kirkpatrick, chairman; Owen Carter, Co-chairman.

Program Committee: Ben Ivey, Chairman; Thomas Childress, Co-chairman.

Exhibits: C. C. Carlton, Chairman; J. A. Ogburn, Co-chairman.

Entertainment of Honor Guests: Leo Thompson, Chairman, Rascoe Maddox, Co-chairman; Dr. W. L. Parrish.

Entertainment of Queen and Court: Mrs. H. G. Heflin, Chairman; Miss C. N. Turnquist, Co-chairman; Mrs. Erle Ellis.

Luncheon: Buddy Willingham, Chairman; Delbert Collins, Co-chairman.

Safety Committee: Luther Kendrick, Chairman; A. W. Livingston, Co-Chairman.

Selection of Queen: Carolyn Montgomery, Chairman; Mrs. W. H. Marcus, Co-chairman; C. C. Carlton.

Parade Committee: Jimmie McDow, Chairman; Thomas Hayes, Co-chairman.

Although the organization has not been completed a working nucleus has been established and is well on the way to giving Chilton County's peaches the publicity they duly deserve.

Strawberry Picking Time Just Around The Corner

Strawberry picking time in Chilton County is just around the corner. It is expected that a few berries will be picked next week.

All strawberry growers should plan to do a better job of GRADING and PACKING their fruit this year. Separate your berries so that the good ones will meet U. S. No. 1. GRADE and put them in neatly filled cups. Put the No. 2's in crates and label them as No. 2's.

The following statements were made by Mr. John Bagby, truck crops marketing specialist of the Alabama Extension Service, in regard to grading and packaging strawberries.

"A farmer brought his strawberries in to a central marketing point. They were very poorly graded and contained a good many berries which were actually not fit for food. One of the buyers picked out a handful of these culls and asked the farmer to eat them. Naturally he refused and admitted that they were not fit to eat. How could he expect anyone else to buy them?

This sort of thing happens too often with all kinds of produce. We try to sell something which we would not eat ourselves. Culls only make trouble for everyone. They take up space in the crate. This requirs buying extra crates and we must pay freight for culls just as for best quality products. Often culls spoil before reaching market. When they reach the retailer's produc counter they may stay there until they spoil and he must throw them out.

Surely the consumer is not going to pay for these culls nor for hauling them. Neither will the wholesaler or retailer. This cost must come out of the original price which the producer receives.

Keep the culls off the market for greater net returns."

John Smith, pastor of the Presbyterian Church. The guest speaker was Mrs. Ellen Walker of Tuscaloosa who is president of the Alabama Congress of Parents and Teachers. Mrs. Walker in her gracious way spoke most interestingly of P.-T.A. work in the state. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served.

CANCER GOAL TO GO OVER TOP SOON

Chilton County today has launched its greatest drive for funds to fight cancer. The county has assumed a goal of $900.00 as its share of the state's $1?7,000 campaign.

Mr. Truman Luker, County campaign chairman for the American Cancer Society, declared that he expected the local goal to be reached soon and believed Chilton County would go wll over its quota by the end of April

"This is not a charity drive," the chairman pointed out. "On the contrary, it is a campaign which benefits alike every person in the community—old, young, rich, poor—because cancer is no respector of persons. Statistics show that cancer will strike one [illegible] [illegible] from a [illegible] who develop cancer [illegible] they receive [illegible] the same [illegible] is aimed [illegible] cer out completely [illegible] covery yet to com[illegible] laboratories."

The campaign chairman [illegible] that [illegible] raised here [illegible] finance a three-f[illegible] attack [illegible] through research [illegible] and cure for all types [illegible] through service to cancer patients.

"I am confident," Mr. Luker said, "that the people of Chilton County will give their wholehearted support to this campaign. I believe they will consider the money they contribute not as a donation but as an investment in protection for themselves and their families.

A corps of volunteer workers has been organized to call on as many persons as possible during April to ask for their contribution. The chairman urged, however, that people not wait for a solicitation call. Contributions may be sent to Chilton County Campaign Headquarters, at Luker Furniture Company, Clanton, Ala.

Something New Has Been Added

Today a new sign is hanging above what recently was Morrison's Furniture Co. Ralph Morrison, "Chick" Fiquette and Kenyon Meeks are combining their efforts to form the Quality Furniture Stores, Inc. They are continuing the operation of the store here in Clanton on Second Avenue and also making preparations for an early opening in neighboring Centreville. Stressing the idea of quality merchandise at a reasonable price, they are planning a bright future with Chilton County.

Ralph Morrison has been serving the furniture needs of the people of Clanton and surrounding territory for the past two years in the present location. Mr. Morrison is still anxious to serve both old customers and new. Chick Fiquette, known by everyone in Chilton County as the successful operator of City Grocery for the past nine years, invites his friends and former customers to come to see him "across the street."

Kenyon Meeks, a native of Aliceville, in Pickens County, has lived here in Clanton since October, 1946, and has been connected with the furniture business since that date.

The people of Chilton County and the surrounding trade territory of Clanton will be pleased to learn of the merger of these business men and extend their best wishes for the success of this local business.

COLLEGE DRIVE GETS OFF TO FINE START

Several Beats Already Met Quota; County Expected To Go Over Top Soon

In the opening [illegible] to raise Chilton [illegible] the Birmingham-Southern - Howard [illegible] appeal beats 1, [illegible] 7, 1[illegible] and 1[illegible] met or [illegible]

[illegible] When one [illegible] only a relat[illegible] beat this work [illegible]

[illegible] people [illegible] Chilton County should [illegible] one of the [illegible] in the state to meet their quota. The splendid response that the [illegible] the county have made in [illegible] the appeal of Birmingham-Southern and Howard colleges prove that the welfare of our Christian youth will not be ignored or go lacking. Even when the county meets it's prescribed quota there is no reason why it should not be exceeded. A monetary investment in Christian youth now will give returns in Christian leadership in the years to come that cannot be valued in dollars and cents. If every Christian person will contribute according to their ability, Chilton County can lead the way in helping build a bigger and better Christian education program in Alabama. No one is being asked to give until hurts, but everyone is being asked to give according to their means.

Beat workers for the Birmingham-Southern and Howard joint appeal are to be commended for the excellent job they are doing. These men and women who are giving so freely of their time and efforts are in a large measure responsible for the success of this drive. Without these men and women who actually carry the program to everyone in the county there would be little hove of success. The only pay that the beat workers receive is the satisfaction of seeing a worth while job being well done. To all of us time is all important in the every day job of making a living. To lay down the tools of our various trades for a cause as worthy as that of Christian education is often difficult or seemingly impossible. Yet the beat workers over the county have answered the appeal and are giving generously of their time. The steering committee extends their most sincere appreciation to these men and women over the county for the fine job they are doing in helping Chilton County answer the appeal for Christian education.

There is a lot of talk about war to be no war.

No seller ever admits that prices are getting too high.

The "words of the wise" are, we suspect, those that one speaks to himself.

It requires a very small boom in the stock market to draw in the sucker investors.

Any problem can be solved by a person living a hundred miles from the problem.

It is now the time of the year for forward-looking organizations to plan their picnics.

There are at least five million adults ready to give the June graduates their best advice.

We want no war, especially one that catches the nation unprepared to defend itself.

When you get disgusted with the work you are doing, it is time to try some other work.

The U. S. Government, one has to admit, did some fancy stepping on the issue in Palestine.

Farming is a gamble, say the agriculturalists. We suppose it is but the millions seem to like it.

FEED THE HUNGRY

For ten dollars you can send a 22-pound CARE food package to a needy family abroad and have a part in assisting the victims of the dislocations of the recent war to secure an adequate diet.

We have called attention to the work of this organization upon several occasions. It is time to urge readers of the Chilton County News to show their sympathy for the unfortunate men, women and children of other lands by something more positive than conversation.

CARE, 50 Broad Street, New York, is a non-profit, non-political agency. It is distributing about 20,000 packages a day in fifteen European countries, including five behind the "iron curtain." These are Poland, Finland, Czechoslovakia, Bulgaria and Hungary.

It is up to us as individuals to make an effort, in the words of Mr. Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., to "reassure the peoples of areas where misery and chaos may contribute to despair and lead to unwise decisions."

"The need of Europe is now," declares Paul Camly French, executive director of CARE, who has just returned from a trip to the continent. He insists that "there is an immediate need" and points out that immediate delivery will be made from stockpiles in Europe. In addition to food packages, textile packages are available for distribution.

Any reader who will send ten dollars to the address of the organization can select the country to which the parcel will be delivered and, if desirable, the name of the donee to receive it. You will get a receipt and thus realize that you have helped someone, somewhere to understand that Americans care.

That's all right Ras Langston, we told on you Saturday afternoon when the Governor was here.

The Judge and Comissioners have done a noble thing. You know how badly they needed room in the vault and what a little room they had to store the county's valuable records. Well, that new addition is the little hallway that led from the side of the courthouse that was bricked up several months ago. They just cut a door through the back of the vault into this hall and sealed it good and now have the nicest, tightest little addition to the vault that you ever saw. Just what was needed and will care for the county records for several years to come. Who knows, maybe before it is full we can have a brand, spanking new [illegible] don't cost anything to [illegible].

There we go apologizing again. The operator (we don't know what we would do if we couldn't blame this on the operator) got the initials of Mrs. C. W. Wells wrong last week. Mrs. C. W. Wells of Thorsby, Rout One, wrote the piece "A Mother' Question" that was printed in last week's C. C. News and the operator, through error, got the initials A. C. Wells. We make apology for the mistake in the signature.

We don't think the people of Chilton County are giving enough of their time to electing Cohen Stapp as a Delegate from the Sixth District to the Democratic Convention. He will be our only representative—that is from this county—and we should all get behind him and make him a winner. Our personal opinion is that we could not send a better man than Cohen Stapp.

A wife of one of the fishermen came by and told us the other day why the fishing trip to Florida was so quiet. We mean that trip taken by Troy [illegible] Billy Bean and others, that we mentioned last week. They took their wives along. Now that explains things.

Got a complimentary ticket to a chicken supper at Jemison for April 1st. It was presented us by Mr. Leo Langston and we herewith extend our thanks. There's just one thing we haven't figured out. What to do with the wife while we eat chicken. We couldn't stand to stuff that lucious, golden-brown, fried chicken with her standing there starving to death—and Leo, the tight-wad, just gave us one ticket. If he thinks for a minute that we're hinting for another ticket—he's right.

Heard three days late that Charles (Blackie) Cox was in a Troy hospital pretty badly banged up in an automobile accident. It happened last Thursday night. You know, Charles has been attending Troy State Teachers College this year at Troy. His mother, Mrs. Arthur Cox, went to Troy last Friday and reports his condition improved. We hope the wreck leaves no lasting scars or injuries on Charles. He was a star football player for C.C.H.S. a couple of years ago.

The stranger on the bus was very sad, and it took only a couple of sympathetic remarks to open him up like an accordion at a gypsy frolic.

"Marriage," he wailed. "Marriage! That has been the blight of my life."

"How many?" asked the passenger who had primed him.

"Two," was the doleful rejoinder. "My first wife took everything I had and left me."

"Very sad," commented the other.

"Not as bad as my present plight," moaned the sad-faced victim of matrimony. "The wife I've got now has taken everything, and won't leave me."

Have you been down to the City Park lately and seen the good work going on there? It looks good and it also looks like things will be ready before long. That City Park, as you'll agree, will be appreciated and enjoyed by the residents of Clanton and Chilton County

He was sitting in the suburban train reading his evening paper. The man beside him got up and left. As he turned the pages he noticed on the vacated seat a new pair of gloves.

There wasn't a moment to lose; he snatched them up dashed to the exit, threw the gloves on to the platform.

Then he returned to his seat. But his look of faint self-satisfaction vanished when the man on the other side of the vacant seat leaned across and said:

"I say, old man—would you be good enough to tell me just why you threw my gloves out?"

To Voters Of Chilton County

Hello! Friends and Neighbors of Chilton County:

Most of you know I am a candidate for Commissioner for the Third District.

Now to those who don't know me personally, I live on my farm near Maplesville, and have farmed most of my life. and know the problems of the farmer and I know he needs a good road to town and market. I am the father of three children, a Sunday School teacher in our church and a leader in our B.T.U.

I have had 3½ years of road experience, some of it under the supervision of Mr. Joe Cox and the other with the State Highway Department in black topping.

Here are a few things I stand for:

1. More farm to market roads.
2. More and better graveled roads in the Third District.
3. Full eight hours on the road. No idleness, but not a slave driver.
4. Checking and graveling red slicks places that gave us trouble this past winter.
5. Coorporating with you farmers who are bothered with public road water.
6. Cooperating with the other commissioners and the Judge, for a all-over better roads in Chilton County.

Now it is my desire to serve you as your next Commissioner and I have my full time to devote in this work. I will see that it is done and will spend the county's money—your money—as wisely as if I was going out to buy my groceries.

I have seen most of you and it was a pleasure to meet you and talk with you, and I expect to see lots more of you. So, I'll say, your vote and influence will be greatly appreciated in the forth coming election.

Yours for better roads in Chilton County,—GEORGE SHOULTS.

Friends of Miss Ann Werness will be glad to learn that she is recovering nicely from burns received in a fire which destroyed her home last Easter Sunday. She is recuperating at the home of her sister, Mrs. Carl Langville in Ensley, Ala. Miss Nell is staying with friends in Thorsby.

Plans for rebuilding a small home for the Werness girls, got under way Saturday with Mr. Tommy Maddox soliciting funds. labor and material toward same. Quite a nice little sum was realized as a beginning. A nice donation came from Clanton, Ala., and will be applied on the building fund. Anyone wishing to make a donation to this worthy cause, please contact Mr. Tommy Maddox at the Family Cafe in Thorsby. An erroneous report was circulated around that these girls had plenty of money, which is certainly a false report, as these girls are not "Misers" and even stand ready to give to charity if they have a dollar to spare, just as their mother did, whom most everyone in Chilton County remembers as Mrs. Martha Grothy, and the charitable work that she did during all her years spent in this county. We know that anything done for these unfortunate people is well deserved.

Mrs. A. E. Reagan, Miss Alma Lefstead and Miss Naemi Turnquist motored over to Selma on Sunday afternoon.

Out of town visitors this week end who attended the Christian Life Conference at the United Protestant Church were: Mr. Harry Reynolds, a guest of Mrs. J. O. Johnson and Miss Ruth Ford of Birmingham.

Miss Elizabeth Jean Collins of Alabama College is spending Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Akins Collins.

Miss Charlene Williams of Piedmont College visited at home this past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Williams.

We are happy to see up and about again Mrs. G. S. Burnett (Aunt Millie), who has been on the sick list for some time.

Mrs. B. L. Davenport is reported to be ill at the home of Mrs. Effie Robinson with whom she lives. We hope she will soon be well again.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bosworth and Mr. and Mrs. John Brothers motored to Mitchell Dam last Sunday and finally motored on down to Montgomery where they visited a while with the Tom Wingfields.

Mr. Bryan Johnson and Billy Gene Davenport of Auburn, spent the week end at home with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ogburn enjoyed a visit from Mr. Ogburn's uncle for a few days, Mr. W. A. Waldrop and two children, Eural and Martha Sue, from Alexander City.

A picture of Grandmother Primm appeared in last Sunday's Birmingham News, which was taken on her 90th birthday. A party was given for her on that day and a big number of her family enjoyed it with her. It had been her wish that she might live to enjoy her 90th birthday and to have her picture in this paper. We are glad that her wish was granted and we wish for her more years and good health.

One of the most colorful and delightful affairs to be held this season was that of the regular meeting of the Thorsby Chapter of Eastern Stars on last Thursday night at the Masonic Hall. At this meeting two members were initiated into the Chapter, Mr. Hans Karl Christiansen and wife, Mrs. Lola Christiansen. Among the visiting chapters represented were: Siluria, Montevallo and Clanton. The hostess chapter wore evening gowns and the hall was beautifully decorated in spring flowers, which made for a very beautiful and impressive meeting. Mrs. Lota Mae Marcus and Mrs. Herman Robinson furnished music during the initiation.

After the ceremonies, delightful refreshments were served to about 60 people.

STANTON BAPTIST CHURCH

(Too Late For Last Week)

We welcome every one at Sunday School each Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. The second and fourth Sundays are our regular preaching days. Bro. E. C. Hand, our pastor, brought two wonderful messages last Sunday, his text for the morning service was takened from the 20th chapter of John. The subject, "The Risen Christ." At the night service the 8th Psalm was read and text takenedP from Romans 4:24. "Christ Our Lord," was the text. There was large crowds attended each service and enjoyed these two messages very much.

Our next preaching day will be the second Sunday in April, and at the morning service we will observe "The Lord's Supper." and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon of that day, Bro. Jessie Smith wil be ordained as deacon of our church. Bro. Hand, with the help of a visiting preacher, will have charge of the service.

We were happy to have Bro. Hand's son-in-law, Mr. Mack Hayes, and his son, Mr. Edgar Hand, both of Prattville, with us for the morning service. Other visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davis of Clanton; also Miss Ruth Chism of Birmingham.

It is with regret that we lose one of our faithful young members, Mr. Julius Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Davis. Julius is a faithful worker in our church and we will greatly miss him. We understand he has joined the U. S. Army and wil lbe stationed in Texas.

The W.M.S. will meet at the home of Mrs. Early Parnell on Tuesday at 2 o'clock. after the second Sunday in April. All ladies are urged to be present.

We are going to get a library for our church real soon. There is a committee appointed to select and order the books right away. We already have a nice book case ready for them.

Come to our services each Sunday, everyone who possible can. You are needed in the services, and we need [illegible] the services every Sunday. To fail [illegible] —Reporter.

Robert F. Holley Candidate For Commissioner 4th District

Since my formal announcement for Commissioner of the Fourth District, I have met and talked with many of you, who have greeted me with mutual understanding. Needless to say, this relieves me greatly and inspires me to continue trying to see and talk with all of you.

As stated in my first letter I have followed construction work for better than twenty years. I have done some of all kinds of road and road construction work. I know the great need for better roads in Chilton County. A bigger and better Chilton County depends upon better roads, and more permanent type roads. A vote for Robert F. Holley is first a vote for better roads.

If elected Commissioner I promise the following:

1. A clean, efficient and honest administration.
2. For every dollar spent I promise a dollar value in return.
3. I have no political ties and I will not be obligated to anyone if elected.
4. I will devote my full time to looking after the roads in the Fourth District, and the other duties coming before the Commissioners Court.

If any voter has any doubts of my fullfilling any of the foregoing promises, I want you to make a thorough investigation and inquiry of my qualifications. If after you have done so and you think I am a capable candidate, and will carry out these promises, I then ask you to vote for me and try me as your servant as Commissioner.

If elected your Commissioner, I assure you that I will look after the moneys of Chilton County as I would my own, and I assure you that Chilton County's funds will be honestly expended.

ROBERT F. HOLLEY.

DR. J. MANNING POTTS

In the midst of the most successful period of advance ever made by The Methodist Church, Dr. J. Manning Potts, associate director of the Crusade for Christ, will bring to the listeners of THE METHODIST HOUR Sunday morning, April 11th, a fresh report of the conquests of Christ i this hour.

He will speak on "The Supreme Purpose of Christian Teaching and Living." Since the major emphasis of this fourth year of the Crusade for Christ is church school attendance and enrollment, Dr. Potts will discuss the church school as a means toward the end of teaching "the masses the way of the Master."

This sermon of Dr. Potts is the second in this series of 13 broadcasts which will be heard over an independent network of 65 radio stations. These stations all make free time available to the Southern Religious Conference for religious broadcasts sponsored by the members of this Conference.

ALL THE METHODIST HOUR broadcasts may be heard in this area over stations WBRC, Birmingham, at 7:30; WFSA, Montgomery, same time Sunday mornings.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our deep appreciation to our many friends during the illness and death of our husband and father, E. G. Caldwell, of Pletcher, and for the many beautiful flowers.—Signed, Mrs. E. G. Caldwell, Miss Elsie Caldwell, Mrs. R. B. Kennedy, William Caldwell.

HIGHLAND

We appreciate our visitors and invite you back. Everybody has an invitation to come each Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock. We especially ur[illegible] all singers to come sing with us.

Our Sunday School attendance is growing steadily now, and is about up to average attendance.

We were very happy to have [illegible] visitors too. Come back again [illegible], won't you?

It was good to see such a large adult class Sunday. I'm sure everyone got something good out of the lesson. We should have that number each Sunday. It could be our average attendance of the adult class, because there are several in th community who were not present who could and do attend occasionally. Surely there is not anyone who attends church services, but that feels better for having done so. Each of us have a duty to discharge and a service to render unto God.

It will be a great encouragement to the young folks to attend church, wherever they see and know the adult Christians are regular in their attendance of th study and worship services of the church; to see that they are sincerely trying to learn more of God's will for them and trying to live a purer life.

If ever the young people needed something stable to hold on to, it is in these days we are living in. Let's not fail them now.

We have many faithful young Christians, but there are some who are seemingly unconcerned. Let's show them we are concerned about them and want them to attend church.

Come to church Sunday. Even though you are not a member of the Baptist denomination, you are always welcome at Highland.—Reporter.

THE STUDY CLUB

The Study Club met on Friday, April 2, in the home of Mrs. A. B. Foshee. The business session was directed by the president, Mrs. F. N. Scott. A most interesting program followed on, "The Influence of Art." Mrs. Joe Moore discussed "Folk Arts" and Mrs. J. E. Gowan read a paper on, "Growing Appreciation of Art."

Then the hostess, assited by her little daughter, Margaret, and Mr. Clemon Henley, served a delightful plate to each of the club members and the following guests: Mrs. C. C. Fiquett, Mrs. Leo Thompson, Mrs. Lillian Simpson, Mrs. J. C. Miller, Mr. R. K. Gaylor and Mrs. Clemon Henley.

No, Our Town's Not "Slow"

When they put up the new "Slow" and "Stop" signs along Main Street, local drivers were "warned" at their first violation —and given a ticket on the second.

That first warning was generally enough. Because folks in our town are law-abiding citizens, eager to comply with any sensible regulation. (Only violator was an out-of-towner, who claimed he thought that "Slow Down Here" was a description of the town itself!)

Yes, with sensible folks, a warning's generally enough—as the brewers have found with their "Self Regulation" program. Under it, any outlet selling beer, and failing to meet high standards of good conduct and lawful practice, is warned. If that warning isn't heeded, proper authorities are notified.

From where I sit, "Self Regulation" is the reason 99% of retailers selling beer are law-abiding places (and the reason why the wayward one per cent won't last long!)

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. J. L. Teel entertained 24 children at her home Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, with a birthday party, honoring her little daughter, Janice, on her seventh birthday.

Games were directed by Mrs. Gertrude Calloway and everyone had a wonderful time.

The children were given little favors and served ice cream and cake around the dining room table which was centered with a lovely birthday cake holding seven candles.

Those enjoying this lovely party included: The honoree, Janice Teel, Joyce Fowler, Mariam Golden, Sherry Frith, Beth Smith, Vicky and Virginia Rath, John Hollis Jackson, Henry Bell, Buddy Powers, David and Carol Popwell, James Lee Polk, Mary Mel Martin, Judy and Cathy Wade, Glory Ann Deason, Sandra Ellison, Ann Thompson, Hilda Cobb, Sandra Murrah, Patsy Owens, Ted Payne, Tommy Wyatt and John Howard Morgan.

You should keep a small box of ordinary rubber bands on the shelf in your kitchen. These come in handy for holding wax paper around the top of cartons or dishes; for closing up packages which refuse to stay closed; and for holding wrappings in place on foods.

Everybody Loves To Square Dance

"Swing your opposite lady, now your own sugar baby." That is the figure the above Montgomery group is dancing preparing for the Southern Farmer's Square Dance Show and Callers School. In the inset, Governor Folsom is swinging his partner around the grand circle in the "Shoe Fly Swing." This all day school for square dance callers will be held in the City Auditorium in Montgomery this coming Saturday, April 3rd, starting at 10 a.m. All people interested in square dancing are urged to attend. Admission to the school is free. The program will be climaxed that evening with a big Square Dance Show in the City Auditorium featuring two bands, Hank Williams and the Strawberry Pickers

POWER REFUNDS

The Alabama Public Service Commission last week issued orders which provide for reductions and refunds totalling more than $100,000 in the wholesale cost of electricity sold by the Alabama Power Company to several Alabama cities which own and operate their own electric systems. Several REA cooperatives which purchase their electricity from the power company at wholesale rates were also affected by the orders of the commission.

Commission President Gordon Persons said that the savings involved in relation to the cities will amount to $29,471 a year. Persons said that the affected cities will also receive refunds for approximately that same amount, "inasmuch as the new rates are retroactive for almost a year."

The commission president said that the city saving and refund would be approximately the same in each case. The cities listed are: Opelika, $6,460; Dothan, $6,442; Foley, $4,507; Tuskegee, $4,127; Sylacauga, $2,053; Piedmont, $1,657; LaFayette, $1,367; Lanett, $1,142; Alexander City, $707; and Hartford, $609.

The total reduction to the REA cooperatives will amount to $22,708 annually and the units will receive refunds amounting to a total of approximately $21,000. The co-ops listed are (savings and refunds listed respectively): Black Warrior, Demopolis, $3,587 and $3,25[illegible]; Central Alabama, Prattville, $3,229 and $3,229; Pioneer, Greenville, $2,719 and $2,719; Dixie, Union Springs, $2,191 and $2,191; Wiregrass, Hartford, $1,935 and $1,935; Tallapoosa, LaFayette, $1,642 and $1,477; Southern Pine, Brewton, $1,614 and $1,614; Tombigbee, Guin, $1,393 and $1,393; Clarke-Washington, Jackson, $1,337 and $1,337; Pea River, Clayton, $1,111 and $1,111; and Coosa Valley, Talladega, $1,349 and $596.

Chilton County's income from fruit and vegetables alone amounted to over $3,800,000. Is $19,000 too much to ask in supporting of our Christian schools?

What's been happening in the village lately? As far as I can find out its been mighty quiet. Everyone seems to be staying home and very few have been having company. Reserve Retirement Pay Bill Passes House

A bill offering military reserve retirement pay to hundreds of veterans in Alabama has passed the House of Representatives and stands an excellent chance of being enacted into law during the current session of Congress, the Veterans of Foreign Wars here announced today.

Long urged by the VFW as one answer to keeping reserve forces at authorized strength, the measure offers a lifetime retirement from age 60 to those who qualify, according to Dewey Williams, commander of Post 3193 here.

It affects all branches, including the National Guard, Army, Navy, Air Forces, Marine Corps and Coast Guard reserves, Williams declared.

In addition, he pointed out, all prior active service—wartime or peacetime—may be counted toward the 20 years total of active and reserve duty the bill calls for. It includes both officers and enlisted personnel, both male and female.

Williams listed pertinent points of the bill as follows:

The candidates must reach age 60 before payment of retirement begins. It continues for life.

To be eligible, the candidate must [illegible] a combined total of 2[illegible] active and reserve service. If, at time of passage of the bill into law, (this date is [illegible] unknown) the candidate had less than five years service, before becoming eligible he must serve [illegible] years of active duty.

[illegible] will be worth two [illegible] of base pay [illegible] year of inactive [illegible] one-half of one [illegible] and longevity. A maimum of 75 per cent may be reached.

Base pay will be that of grade attained upon completion of service. Williams reminded that promotions are possible while in a reserve status.

For example:

John is a veteran with four and one-half years active service on the day the bill becomes law—assuming it does. Since he had less than five years on that date, he must have two years more of active duty. He has one alternative to this: He may let 12 months of reserve duty count as one month of active duty and thus eventually meet all the requirements. He takes the first choice, and comes out with six and one-half years full active duty.

For the next 13½ years he remains in the reselve. At the end of that time he is a Master Sergeant, or equivalent in another service, entitled to maximum longevity. Base pay and maximum longevity for this grade is $214.50 per month.

His six and one-half years active duty have earned him 16¼ per cent of this, or $34.86. The 13½ years reserve years supply six and three-quarters per cent, or $14.48.

Life retirement beginning at age 60 thus would be $49.34 per month.

Soil Conservation News

(By OLIN G. FIELDS)

A visit to Claude Glass's farm found Claude still a firm believer of Kobe lespedeza, kudzu and sericea. Claude has harrowed his old kudzu, and set two acres of new kudzu. He has an excellent stand of Kobe lespedeza. Claude plans to start grazing his sericea lspedeza this week.

* * *

Farmers of the Enterprise Community are trying to get their land prepared for spring planting. William Wilkins, C. L. Wilkins, Russell Gray, and Lee Boockholdt are examples. And these farmers were interested in some conservation. For example Lee Boockholdt was interested in pasture, C. L. Wilkins grazing sericea, Russell Gray kudzu and sericea, and William Wilkins a conservation farm plan.

Last week terrace lines were run on Raymond Giles and M. F. Campbell's farm.

* * *

O. H. Slaughter and M. J. Robinson are in the process of sodding the dam of their fish pond. A meadow outlet was staked off on M. J. Robinson's farm.

Luther Kendrick has started developing a livestock farm. His pasture will consist of sericea, crimson clover, White Dutch and Kentucky 31, Fescue, Kudzu and Caley Peas. Pine trees are to occupy the steep and rough area.

* * *

Did these [illegible] rains last week break your terraces? Now is the time to start thinking about what can be dose to prevent such a thing. A kudzu or sericea meadow will shorten the length of your terrace and this will doubel the strength of your terraces. Now is the time to plant kudzu and [illegible]. Terrace line can be built this fall. A good terrace system is the first step to a sound conservation program and a permanent agriculture; and meadow outlets or a water disposal system are a must.

Letter To The Editor

Editor Chilton County News:

I notice with a great deal of interest that Jim Plott is a candidate for the Board of Commissioners in your county. It is the writer's opinion that no man in your county is better equipped to serve in that position than Jim Plott. Mr. Plott stands well with the State authorities, which is always of advantage when it comes to getting things done. His honesty and integrity cannot be questioned, and certainly the people of the Fourth District would be well represented. Mr. Plott has always fought for good clean government and Chilton County would be very fortunate to have his services for four years in the Fourth District as Commissioner.

Yours very truly,
DAVE BIRMINGHAM.

PROTECT Your FREEDOM!

YOU have been kind indeed to permit me to serve you in Congress during a most historic period. I appreciate it and have diligently attempted to justify your confidence by reflecting the views and ideas of the majority of you and by conducting myself in such a way as to be a credit to the people of our District.

We have gone through perilous times together. We have conquered ruthless enemies. We are again being challenged by new enemies from without. We are also being assailed by enemies from within. It is of paramount importance that we realize both threats to our freedom are dangerous and must be dealt with wisely and intelligently.

My battle field service during World War I and my service on the all-important Foreign Affairs Committee of the House during World War II, during which I have specialized on efforts to win the war and thereafter preserve the peace, cause me to know the heartaches and sacrifice which occur during war.

I also realize the threats from within our nation—subversive elements are boring into the vitals of our Democracy. To combat this danger, you must have a representative in Congress aware of them, unwilling to compromise with them and with the experience and intellectual stamina to help combat them.

Your investment in my experience can be of greater value than ever before in helping you protect our Democracy, in helping preserve our honored Southern traditions and ideals and in helping overcome these perils which gnaw at the foundations of our great nation.

Let us be on guard together against the enemies who would destroy us!

Farmers Looking Forward To Better Corn Yields

This year, more than any other previous year, farmers are looking forward to making better corn yields. Last year 4-H Club boys and adult farmers who planted hybrid seed and used high rates of fertilizer found that they could make much better and higher yields at a more economical cost per bushels than they had been able to make in the past using conventional practices and methods of corn production.

Let's look at some of the records that club members and farmers used in making some of the county's outstanding yields. Probably the first consideration is the selection of seed. Where high rates of fertilizer are to be used a hybrid is being recommended. The selection of the hybrid is of the utmost importance. A great many of the hybrids are not satisfactory for cribbing corn because of their softness. Too often these soft hybrids are so badly damaged by weevils that they are hardly useable by spring. Funks G 714 is being recommended for Chilton County due to the fact that it has given very good results over a period of three years. and is hard enough that weevils do not damage it any more than our common open pollinated varieties. Until other hybrids are given more extensive tests it is advisable to use Funks G 714 until other hybrids have proved their selves here in the county.

Regardless of the seed or planting date used, the yields can be no better than treatment the plants themselves get. Fertilizer is all important in making high yields. On land that has not been badly eroded, 600 pounds per acre of a good complete tertilizer (6-8-4, 4-10-7, 6-8-8) should be put under the corn in advance of planting if possible. This amount of fertilizer under the corn make it grow rapidly and will provide enough phosphate and potash to carry the plant through to maturity. On badly washed, hilly land, high fertilizer rates are not recommended because the soil does not hold sufficient moisture.

Most hybrid matures a little earlier than open pollinated varieties. Because of this, planting dates are a little later. Hybrids should be planted from May 1-15. Planting at this time allows the corn to shoot and tassel when the July rains normally are expected.

Spacing is also very important in producing high yields. Regardless of how much fertilizer is used or how favorable the rans fall. it is impossible to make good yields if you don't have enough corn on the ground. Three and one-half foot rows give the best results. Wider spacing cuts the yield down, however, if recommended rates of fertilizer are not used this spacing is not recommended.

Farmers and 4-H Club boys who are turning good crops of winter legumes are indeed fortunate this year because they don't have to worry about using soda for their corn. Those who are planning to supply nitrate for their corn in a commercial form should use 400 pounds of nitrate of soda per acre about 35 days after planting. When late applications of commercial sources of nitrate are made, corn never gets the full benefit. When winter legumes are not used, a side dress of commercial nitrate is a must. Farmers using hybrid seed, thick spacing and high rates of fertilizer will award by having to do less work in making his corn. Highly fertilized, thick spaced corn should be layed-by early. Corn results in the county have proved that it is not necessary to work corn but twice if it is properly fertilized and spaced.

The champion corn producers of the state have made this recommendation for better corn yields—plant it too thick, use too much fertilizer, and work it too little.

Better And More Okra For 1948

(By C. L. ISBELL, Horticulturist. Alabama Agricultural Experiment Station)

Auburn, Ala. — Clemson Spineless and Louisiana Green Velvet are two relatively new varieties of okra that will give gardeners better results under Alabama conditions according to results obtained at the A.P.I. Agricultural Experiment Station, Auburn.

These new varieties produce good quality and a large quantity of okra that is practically free of the objectionable spines, which are abundant on pods of other varieties. The plants of Clemson Spineless are more spreading and not as tall as those of the Louisiana Green Velvet.

Okra pods are produced on new growth. Therefore, it is necessary to maintain the fertility of the soil with heavy applications of commercial fertilizer that is relatively high in nitrogen to insure fruiting over a long season.

The roots of okra are very susceptible to injury from nematodes which are very small worms that cause the roots to become knotty and eventually die. Injured plants lose their leaves and die before the normal fruiting season is over. To avoid this trouble, okra should be planted in soil free of nematodes. If this cannot be done, three or four plantings made two or three weeks apart should give a continuous supply of okra over most of the season.

To produce a maximum crop of high quality okra, all pods should be harvested young and tender, usually th[illegible] to five days after the bloom appears. If kept harvested, the plants will yield about three times as many pods.

A few heavy fruiting, disease-free plants that produce pods of normal size should be selected for the production of okra seed for home use, rather than to allow a few pods to mature on several plants.

Alabama Cotton Has Improved In Quality

Auburn, Ala. — Alabama farmers are growing much better cotton than they were a few years ago.

As described by J. C. Lowery, API extension agronomist, here are the facts:

One - variety cotton communities which started in 1931, have: (1) made it possible to produce large quantities of uniform cotton, (2) enabled ginners to do a better job, (3) produced large quantities of good seed of adopted varieties for other farmers in the county.

The number of varieties grown has reduced from about 50 in 1931 to 3 which composed more than 85% of acreage in 1947.

The yield per acre increased from 196 pounds in 1930 to 291 pounds lint per acre in 1947.

In 1930, 6.2% of Alabama cotton was 15-16 inch and longer. In 1947, 98.2% was 15-16 inch and longer in staple length.

Alabama's Idle Acres Should Be Reclaimed

Auburn, Ala. — Alabama's income can be greatly increased by farmers reclaiming several million idle acres which are now bringing in no income.

This belief is expressed by J. B. Wilson, extension agricultural engineer, who reports that erosion, poor soil management and loss of labor from the farm are responsible for this land being idle.

"It may not be possible to put all of these acres into production in 1948, but a good start can be made this spring," says Mr. Wilson.

Answering the question, "How can this be done?" he says, "In many instances it can be done by clearing the land and planting perennial legumes such as sericea or kudzu.

Use of heavy machinery may be necessary. Gullies must be filled, stumps and trees removed. This has been demonstrated and found feasible in several counties in the state.

There are 79 heavy track type units of equipment in the state that are equipped to do land reclamation and drainage. These units should be kept busy reclaiming idle acres.

Records reveal that in 1947 Alabama farmers produced and harvested 15,248,000 pounds of blue lupine; 1,623,350 pounds of Caley peas;; 1,293,000 pounds of crimson clover; 805,790 pounds of hairy and smooth vetch; 207,534 pounds of white clover seed; and 147,756 pounds of Willamette vetch.

Grain sorghum is proving popular with Alabama farmers. Last year the acreage totaled 134, 858, most of which were planted following winter legumes from which seed had been saved.

Masonic Conference Convened At Maplesville

The Chilton Count Masonic Conference convened at Maplesville, Ala., March 31, 1948.

Neal H. Harrell, Billingsley, Ala., Master, opened the Conference promptly at 10:00 a.m.

The first order of business was the election of officers.

Donald Merchant, Thorsby, was elected Master of the Chilton County Conference for the next coming year. Mr. C. C. Conway, Jemison, was elected Senior Warden; B. E. Reeves, Junior Warden; R. L. Duffey, Mt. Creek, Secretary.

The Chilton County Conference had the honor of having the first three officers of the Grand Lodge of Alabama as our visitors: Brother Ervin E. Farmer, of Fort Payne, Ala.: Grand Master, Brother Wm. At the last three Masonic Conferences held in Chilton County the ladies of Jemisos, Thorsby and Maplesville did their full share in making all three meetings an outstanding success.

One hundred and fifteen masons in Chilton and three bordering counties attended the conference at Maplesville.

The next Chilton County Masonic Conference will be held at Billingsl[illegible] Ala.

Winter Grazing Has Increased In Alabama

Auburn, Ala. — Grazing progress has been made by Alabama farmers in growing winter grazing crops.

This is definitely shown in facts presented by D. R. Harbor, API extension agronomist, who presents the following facts:

In 1937 there were practically no Caley peas in Alabama. In 1947 farmers planted 100,870 acres. The acreage of crimson clover for grazing increased from 27,183 acres in 1943 to 42,152 acres in 1947. The acreage of crimson clover and small grain or grass mixture for grazing increased from 20,413 acres in 1943 to 49,783 acres in 1947. The acreage of small grain mixtures increased from 79,582 acres in 1943 to 115,330 acres in 1947.

Alabama now has about 20,000 acres of alfalfa. Farmers report that it is becoming most popular.

VOTE FOR

PHILLIP J. HAMM
For United States Senator

Subject to the Action of the Democratic Primary May 4 and June 1, 1948.

HERE IS MY STAND:

1. I [illegible] University of [illegible] Gadsden, Ala[illegible] taught and coached in public schools of Green[illegible] and Geneva Counties for 8 years. I was Revenue Commissioner for State of Alabama from January '47 [illegible] March '48. Married Evelyn Richards of Ha[illegible]

2. I was an enlisted man in U. S. Navy [illegible] spent 23 months in South Pacific; worked as veteran's co-ordinator in Crenshaw, Coffee, and Geneva Counties; hold membership in American Legion, VFW, and DAV.

3. I am against dumping billions of our dollars overseas to build war machines. I favor aiding war-torn nations with bread and butter, and not with bullets.

4. I am a strong believer in states rights and local responsibility. I think that all matters of government should be settled as close to the people as possible—right on down to the states, counties, and towns.

5. I believe that all civil rights issues should be settled by the states themselves, and not by Washington.

6. I believe in the Democratic Party. It is the only party which looks out for the interest of the little man. It is the only party which has brought widespread aid to the South. I believe in cleaning out the Democratic Party, and not getting out.

7. I am opposed to Truman being the Democratic candidate for president. His civil rights stand has brought great harm to the Democratic Party; his foreign policy is crude, untimely, and too costly. He listens too much to military people and Wall Street money men. I believe in getting away from military generals, and working more for the three greatest generals of all: General Peace, General Prosperity, and General Satisfaction.

8. I believe in lowering the income tax, especially for the small wage earner, so that we can keep more of our money at home. Last year, $5 out of every $6 collected in taxes from the people of Alabama went off to Washington, and a good portion of that has already been dumped overseas. Only $1 out of $6 stayed here in Alabama to carry on our welfare program, build our roads, operate our schools, and run our state government.

9. I am for greater federal aid for education, and I believe that the states should be allowed to use this money without being hand-tied from Washington.

10. I am opposed to peace-time conscription. I believe in a strong State National Guard and National Guard Reserve, but I believe that they should be controlled by the states and not by the federal government. I believe in broader training of our young men in colleges, trade schools, and in industry.

11. I believe that the GI Bill of Rights should be changed so that it will aid all veterans, and not just those attending college, making loans, and taking special training. I believe that adjustments should be made in the veterans disability benefits program, so that all veterans, regardless of rank, will receive the same benefit for the same amount of disability.

12. I believe this nation needs more river valley programs, more rural electrification, and more co-operatives.

13. I believe in organized labor. I think that the working man has got as much right to pool his human resources, as the corporations have got to pool their capital.

14. I believe in peace; I believe there should be more planning for peace, and less promoting of war. I believe that the surest road to peace today is by putting our faith and our resources behind the United Nations Organization. I think that all of this nation's aid to foreign countries should be handled by the UNO.

Complainant claims title to said lands by virtue of a deed from I. N. Langston and wife, [illegible] Langston, and dated July 15, 18[illegible] and recorded in the Office of the Judge of Probate of Chilton County, Alabama, in Deed Record 52 at Page 2[illegible] and the title to said lands stands upon the records in the Office of the Judge of Probate of Chilton County, Alabama, in the name of the complainant, J. TO THE LOYAL DEMOCRATS OF CHILTON COUNTY

As we all know the time is drawing near for another important election, and as a whole we have a fine group of candidates for several important offices to elect a nominee for our general election.

Being busy with lots of work to do, I have met the most of them canvassing in our section of the county. Am glad to say it seems as if they are all fine fellows. I'm listening to them relate the things they advocate, and are promoting through the help and cooperation of the good citizens and neighbors. It denotes that they would like to see our good county continue making progress, and keep the good principles our foster parents fought for and left here for us to carry on for the interest of all concerned.

I'm hearing the good people discussing their opinions, they say they want to be instrumental in keeping a democracy that George Washington and Thomas Jefferson laid the foundation for. So where these interwoven and diversified competition arises, they will be able to keep democracy and bring back happier and brighter days in Christianity, education, industry commerce and agriculture in our county, state and nation.

Very respectfully,
J. SHELTON COOK.

MRS. M. E. PARK

Mrs. M. E. Parks, mother of Mrs. O. N. Esco, departed this life on March 8th, 1948. Mrs. Park was the wife of the Rev. John Park, for many years a leading minister in the North Mississippi Conference of the Methodist Church. She is survived by her two daughters, Mrs. O. M. Esco of Clanton, and Mrs. Leonese Robinson of Memphis, Tenn.

A pastor friend, who conducted the final rites for Mrs. Park in Houston, Miss., had this to say of her: "Sister Park was one of God's saints. She walked beside her husband and worked in the church with him. She played the piano and organ and sang in the choir. She taught music. She had that fine artistic nature which enabled her to do many of the fine things of life. She painted pictures. She was deeply spiritual and always witnessed for her Lord and Master. Even down to the last she would ask her doctors and nurses if they were Christians. So as w think of this beautiful life, this beautiful scripture comes to our minds: Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints."

Certainly it is true that Mrs. Park showed to all who knew her the unflagging faith and courage of those who trust God through all things. It was her lot to suffer great pain for many weeks prior to her passing, but through it all she was an inspiration to her loved ones, to her pastor, and to her friends.

A great soul has gone from among us. She was among those who have builded better than they knew. May succeeding generations be worthy of the heritage bequeathed by such a splendid Christian.—By Rev. Carlisle Miller, Methodist Pastor.

As told by Mr. Ross the two men went to the home of Oliver Murphy about six o'clock and borrowed a rain coat to go to town to return within a short while. They did not return and when the investigators examined the scene they at once suspicioned Chatman who had been discharged by the store the previous week. Mr. Ross stated that nothing was disturbed around the office and the prowler knew exactly where to look for the money. Eighty-six dollars and some change was missing.

The officers after questioning around learned that Chatman was at Maplesville and drove there and arrested him. The other suspect, Holzclaw, was found by Oliver Murphy, who is a shine boy at the Service Barber Shop next door to the store and who aided much in capturing the culprits.

"The Defense Of American Freedom Is Our First Consideration"—Mark Tucker

1870 - 1942

A BUDDING STATESMAN

It is the honest belief of this writer that Phillip Hamm who is campaigning for the office of U. S. Senator is one of Alabama's most promising young statesman.

He has to his credit youth, intelligence, ambition, clear thinking, and many other assets not the least of which is honesty of purpose. That, today, is what so many politicians profess and what so few possess. No matter what the promises may be if our elected officials are dishonest in their purpose we cannot hope for a government of the people.

In an editorial in the Dothan Eagle which appeared Mon-[illegible] March 22, 1948, the editor had this to say about Mr. [illegible] opponent, John Sparkman:

"[illegible] happened was that John finally got it through [illegible] for him to run in Alabama as a pro-Truman [illegible]itical suicide. He didn't want to commit suicide. [illegible] about face. He got in tune. He disowned the [illegible] he had been campaigning. He lost no time [illegible] for a place on the bandwagon.

"[illegible] has Alabama been treated to a more degrading [illegible]acle of man in high public office turning into an un[illegible]ed political, philanderer, revealing himself so unques[illegible]bly disloyal to principle, without intellectual honesty, [illegible] expediency and anything to get elected. This is the man who was elevated two years by the people of Alabama to the United States Senate, the greatest deliberative body in the world where the members are supposed to be men of ability, integrity, and devotion to principle, where statesmen trod, not where chamelons flash their colors.

"This 'Johnny-come-lately' may pick up some votes since he caught up with Alabama thinking and acted accordingly. But in so doing he has unveiled in all its nakedness the low [illegible]bre of Alabama's representation in the Senate. He has [illegible]scored Alabama's Senatorial bankruptcy.

"[illegible] nest differences of opinion that Senator Sparkman [illegible] have [illegible]ard about the South leaving the Democratic [illegible]doning President Truman could have been [illegible]s such. But this odorous leap to the [illegible]ifice of principle to expediency, this [illegible] Alabama expects of men it sends [illegible]ning that those people who do [illegible]st hold their nose and swallow [illegible]"

The editorial was two columns long and went on and on, but we believe that we have shown you the true picture of a man more interested in being elected than in honesty to his people.

Thus the people of Alabama will be wise in our estimation to go to the polls on May 4th and cast their vote for Phillip Hamm. To have confidence in our government, we must first have confidence in our elected officials.

POLL LIST IN THIS ISSUE

The Chilton County list of qualified voters appears in this issue of Chilton County News. There are 6,700 voters on the list which means there are more qualified voters in the county than ever before. The turn-out on May 4th should be the largest in our history.

The News has printed extra copies of this list and you can get one by calling by the News office.

HISTORIC APRIL

The month of April has long been associated with the [illegible] the United States, but it also brings the anniversary [illegible]ther rather important events.

[illegible]sary of the beginning and the end of the [illegible]es, which began on April 12, 1861, in [illegible] and ended four years later, on April 9th, [illegible] also gives us, on the 6th, the anniversary [illegible] of war upon Germany in 1917, when the destiny of [illegible] United States carried its armed forces across the Atlantic.

In co[illegible]tion with other wars it should not be overlooked that President McKinley, on April 11, 1898, called upon Congress to intervene in Cuba and that war has inaugurated two weeks later by a formal declaration. The War of the Revolution began at Lexington, in Massachusetts, on April 19th, 1775. Eight years later cessation of hostilities was proclaimed to the American Army and the war came to an end.

The other anniversaries to which we refer include that of the first pony express, which moved out of the frontier settlement of St. Joseph, Missouri, on April 3rd, 1860. The first formally organized government in the Northwest took place at Marietta, Ohio, on April 7th, 1788, when forty-seven veterans of the Revolution, under General Rufus Putnam, founded the city on the river bank.

Other events of considerable importance in the history of this nation, occurring during April, include the birth of Thomas Jefferson on the 13th, the death of Abraham Lincoln on April 15th, the landing of the first permanent English settlers at Jamestown, on April 26th, 1607, and the inauguration of George Washington as the first President of the Republic on April 30th, 1789.

Folks and Things About Town

--By BEN

People know less about more things. The other day a party came by and wanted us to mention to Chas. Tucker, down at the Bus Station that his posted schedule didn't agree with the schedule of the busses. Now don't you know that we are not going to tell Charles that he should keep that schedule up-to-date. After all that's between he and the bus company and the customers. After all, we use freight trains.

Mrs. Orange is worried because it seems she can't get her radio time and the title of her program straightened out. A friend's wife told him the other afternoon when he arrived home that the cook had quit because of the way he had [illegible] over the telephone that [illegible]. "Gosh," he said, "I didn't know that was the cook I was talking to, I thought it was you."

About the poll list this week: The first name on the list is Jack P. Arant, the last is Grady Wyatt. The longest name is Bernie McNeil Killingsworth, Junior. The shortest was Ira Cox. The hardest name we noticed was Stone and the softest was Hay. Well, that's about all we noticed except that setting more than 6,700 names in type is quite a lot of names. But, there are quite a lot of candidates to divide the names between.

Letter To The Editor

Verbena, Alabama, April 12, 1948.

Editor, Chilton County News
Clanton, Alabama.

Dear Sir:

Attention has been called to some reports that I did not support in the Senate, legislation for "Old Age Pensions," increased salaries for teachers and capital outlay for schools. I challenge any one to show any bill favorable to either of these three that I did not actively support. The following letter from Senator J. Broughton Lamberth, Governor Folsom's Floor Leader in the Senate and chairman of the Senate Welfare Committee, is proof of how I stood on the question of "Old Age Pensions."

Yours truly,
W. A. GULLEDGE, Senator
15th Senatorial District.

SENATE CHAMBER
Montgomery, Alabama.
31 March, 1943.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

To the people of Chilton County I wish to inform you that the Honorable W. A. Gulledge, State Senator representing Autauga, Chilton and Shelby counties, and Vice Chairman of the Public Welfare and Correctional Institutions Committee, which is a Standing Committee in the Senate, was a staunch supporter of the Old Age Assistance for Alabama, which is commonly referred to as "Old Age Pension."

The Senator and I were probably the two outstanding members of the Senate who advocated $45 per month for every one who reached their 65th birthday who could qualify under Federal laws.

(Signed) J. Broughton Lamberth,
Senator 10th Senatorian District.

VERBENA SCHOOL NEWS

The Senior III Class offer as their play this year "A Poor Married Man." with the confidence that their audience will be delighted with a play combining the best elements of comedy with the action and movement of pure farce. It is not a "sit down and talk" play, it is decidely a get up and do the play. The refined comedy scenes of the innocent old country doctor and his modest little daughter are in sharp contrast to the ludicrous adventure of the newly married college professor and the antics of his negro servant who thinks himself poisoned. Action is the dominant keynote of this play.

College boys and girls: Betty Jo Sharp, William Irvin, Carson Dennis, James Pierce, Margaret Mann.

Jim Dunlap Writes To Voters

"For Better Roads"

Greetings All:

This week finds me better acquainted with more of you voters and non-voters, but still doesn't mean I am stopping, even now. There are quite a few seeking various offices and since the season is at hand for all farmers to be busy, I don't believe in taking so much of your badly needed time. There isn't much time left for personal contact, so what there is I will try to use it wisely, and not onconvenient anyone.

In the beginning I told you earnestly I wanted to be your Commissioner from the Fourth District; would put my full time looking after the office, etc., and I have found most of you agree that when one is so interested, he will make the best man for the job. Anyone who personally knows me will vouch for me in this respect.

Again, thanks for the ever-so-nice response.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. (Jim) DUNLAP.

We also especially want to thank Mrs. Marlar of Billingsley, who so faithfully nursed him 'til the end.

May God's richest blessings abide with you all is our prayer.—The Martin Family.

ATTENTION VETERANS

The diligent attempt to mislead veterans prompts one who has long been somewhat ac[illegible] in veterans affairs and is familiar with the gr[illegible]er activity of CONGRESSMAN JARMAN to comment:

I saw COMRADE PETE JARMAN sev[illegible]al hours after he was wounded in action during World War I. He was elected first Post Commander of his and my Post of the American Legion at its organization meeting while still in France and later served as State Vice Comander and State Commander of the Legion, having lead the Paris National Convention Parade in 1927. He has also served the Legion in numerous other capacities and has long belonged to VFW, DAV and Purple Heart. He frequently attends Post meetings, his interest in his comrades of all wars never having waned.

He is generally recognized as the veterans best friend in the Alabama Congressional Delegation, not only having voted for all veterans legislation, the benefits of which many of you are enjoying, but having manifested keen interest in his comrades at all times in his appointments and otherwise. He spends much time assisting veterans with their claims and other business.

Certainly his record of accomplishments for veterans stands out and makes ridiculous irresponsible charges to the contrary and promises of the opposition. Compare it in this and in all other respects with that of his opponent. I urge you young veterans to inquire about PETE of your comrades of World War I or of any veteran who has requested his assistance.

Do not permit the success of the effort to selfishly use you against a devoted comrade and friend, but help keep PETE JARMAN in Congress.

Every year the Pushmataha and the Philomathic clubs each give a play at Thorsby Institute. Next Friday, April 16th, at 7:30 p.m. these plays will be given. There is a good deal of rivalry as to who shall win the point for the better play. Admission will be 25c for those over twelve—and 15c for those under twelve.

The seniors of Thorsby Institute went to Tuskegee Thursday. They were shown around the Institution by a most courteous guide. Dr. Carver, the noted scientist in the past, gave talks to the Seniors about his work.

Mrs. E. W. Butler, whose husband was treasurer of Thorsby Institute for twenty-five years, is visiting at Thorsby Institute.

AFFILIATE OF THE KEYSTONE BROADCASTING SYSTEM

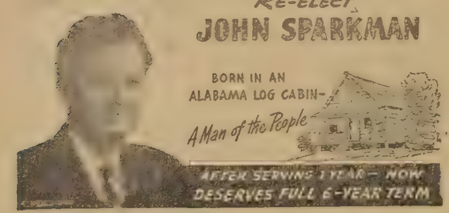
for UNITED STATES SENATOR

RE-ELECT

JOHN SPARKMAN



BORN IN AN ALABAMA LOG CABIN—
A Man of the People
AFTER SERVING 1 YEAR — NOW DESERVES FULL 6-YEAR TERM

Senator Sparkman's re-election May 4 will be in accord with time-honored Democratic custom to give a full-term to a man who has served a part-term. Senator Sparkman, with marked success, has served 10 years as a Representative in Congress—one year as senator. His most recent votes were to over-ride presidential veto of income tax reduction and for federal aid for education without federal control. He has called on Truman to withdraw as presidential candidate on account of the Truman "Civil Rights" program. When elected for a full term of six years, Senator Sparkman's ability and experience will make his services even more valuable to the people of Alabama.

Sparkman's Platform In Condensed Form

★ Marshall Plan to defeat Commuism and maintain U. S. Exports.
★ World Peace and United Nations.
★ Veterans Welfare.
★ Labor's Welfare.
★ Federal aid to Education.
★ Agricultural Progress.
★ Better Housing.
★ Old Age Pensions.
★ Social Security.
★ School Lunch Aid.
★ Farm-To-Market Roads.
★ Local Airports.
★ Rural Electricity.
★ Tennessee Valley Authority.
★ Rural Telephones.
★ River Development.
★ Soil Conservation.
★ National Defense.
★ Control of Monopolies and Encouragement of Small Business.
★ Right of Labor to organize and bargain collectively.

J. J. (Johnnie) Johnson Writes To Voters

It has been some four or five weeks now since I made my formal announcement as a candidate for Commissioner of the Fourth District of this County, in the coming May Primary, and as yet I have not come before you with a statement of my views on road work and my argument as to the qualifications of a successful Commissioner.

I am, therefore, coming to you in this way, not altogether because of my own desire to reach you in this way, but, "also" because I have been asked by some of my most ardent supporters.

1st. I would have you know that my entering the race as a candidate for commissioner is not the results of an overnight dream, as I have had the desire for some time to ask the people of the County to allow me to assume the responsibility of commissioner for some time, but, as I have been working for the County in a position that was to me, more or less a school of preparation, in that it has been my privilege to work for and with each of the four commissioners of the County for the past twelve years I have felt all the while that I was getting considerable training as I discharged my regular duties as gasoline and oil distributor and have on many occasions served more or less as service man for the four districts of the County.

2nd. It has been my earnest desire on every occasion to gain a knowledge of road work that would be worth something to the taxpayers of this County and I am frank to say that through the epefience I have gained over the past twelve years, I feel that it has given me an undisputed qualification to come to you and ask you that I be entrusted with so great a responsibility.

I have been very careful to observe the most successful as well as most defeated accomplishments of each of the four districts of the County for the last twelve years, and I do feel that I could sit in your Commissioners Court on any occasion and have a fair knowledge, as bills, accounts and demands were made upon the Court, as to whether the taxpayers of the County were getting ample service, merchandise, etc., for the demands that were being made on the Court.

I feel that I have lived, neighbored and worked with you people in Chilton County long enough that you have no doubt as to my stand on roads, but in the event that you would like to have a new statement from me on this matter, let me say just now, that it has been my opinion since I grew into manhood, that a real progress in roads, schools and religious standards were three of the essential duties of any County, State, City or Community in regards to making progress, and making the Country that we lived in a better place for the children that we some day leave behind us to carry on with.

It is definitely my opinion that we should make considerable and immediate progress in our roads of this county, in every church, school and trade center area, as well as always strive to acomplish as much permanent road work as we can without neglect to the community roads of the county, but under no circumstances do I feel that we should forget the community roads as it is necessary for every community to have one as a means of getting to market or getting their mail or getting their family doctor, or getting their children to school or getting to the church of their choice on the days of the religious worship.

It is also my opinion that a successful Commissioner would necessarily need be a man who had the whole county at heart and not just the District in which he was serving, not however, to try to run any other Commissioner's business, but rather to be able to help him bear any burden that may come upon him at an unexpected time as a result of floods, storms, etc.

It is also my honest opinion that a Commissioner would necessarily be a man free of any unselfishness, that he may give and take as the majority sees fit to vote.

I assure you I make the statement as humble as a man could when I tell you that I feel that I can meet these qualifications, and should you see fit to nominate me as your Commissioner in this Primary and later elect me in the General Election, I assure you that I shall accept it as a challenge to prove to you that I can and will do as I have just told you.

May I thank you and each of you for the kind and considerate manner in which you have accepted me and my plea thus far in my campaign.

I feel that I am unselfish and Democratic enough to always be satisfied to abide by the majority and as I ask you again to allow me to share your vote and influence on the 4th day of May, I again assure you that I shall greatly appreciate same and shall prove myself by always serving you in your community, be it large or small, so go to the polls on the 4th day of May and cast your vote for J. J. (Johnnie) Johnson, for Commissioner in the Fourth District of Chilton County.

J. J. JOHNSON.

"Talk about VALUE," says America "CHEVROLET and ONLY Chevrolet IS FIRST!"

You'll get much better performance with economy from Chevrolet's world's champion Valve-in-Head engine. It has the finest record of dependability of any automotive power plant! And Valve-in-Head engines are exclusive to Chevrolet and more expensive automobiles.

You'll find that new front-end styling—new colors—new and even more luxurious interiors add still further to the Big-Car beauty of Chevrolet's Bodies by Fisher. They're the world's finest bodies, found only on Chevrolet and higher-priced cars.

Yes, from one end of the country to the other, public enthusiasm for the new 1948 Chevrolet points to a great public conviction that CHEVROLET AND ONLY CHEVROLET IS FIRST in all-round value as in popularity. More people drive Chevrolets, according to official nationwide registrations and more people want Chevrolets, according to seven independent nationwide surveys than any other make of car. Your own judgment will tell you that this is because Chevrolet gives more value . . . because it alone offers BIG-CAR QUALITY AT LOWEST COST!

CHEVROLET

You and your family will have Big-Car safety, too. For Chevrolet brings you the three-fold protection of Fisher Unisteel body-construction, the Knee-Action Ride, and Positive-Action Hydraulic Brakes—another combination of features found only in Chevrolet and more costly cars.

As you know, public demand for new 1948 Chevrolets is at the highest level in all Chevrolet history. For that reason, we urge you to keep your present car in good running condition, pending delivery of your new Chevrolet. Come in, get skilled, dependable service, now and at regular intervals.

To the People Of the Sixth Congressional District:

A congressman by his votes and actions in congress is supposed to reflect the views of the majority of his constituents, especially if sentiment of the District is overwhelmingly in favor of or against some measure pending in congress. Whenever a congressman sets up his individual views against the overwhelming views of his people, it is because he thinks he is wiser than his people. He thinks he knows better what they need than they do. He does not express their views. He is out of tune with his people. When congressmen are retained in office for many years they often think they are so politically secure that they do not have to reflect the views of their constituents.

This is aptly illustrated by a recent article by Mac Lowry, writing from Washington in terms meant to be praise of our present congressman, in the Atlanta Journal. Lowry stresses his "political security" which enables him to represent in his own words "the best interests of my whole country." "When his convictions are stirred," the writer says, "Jarman scorns the silent gentlemen running for re-election at his side." In other words, Jarman is so politically secure in his own estimation that he not only scorns the "silent gentlemen running for re-election at his side" but he also apparently scorns the sentiment of the people of his district.

Lowry says Jarman is a "Congressman's Congressman"

—would it not be better to be the "Peoples Congressman"

—close to them and expressing their views?

Jarman voted against income tax reduction, although he knew the overwhelming sentiment of his people was in favor of it. Do you want a congressman who will be close enough to you to know your views and express them, or a congressman who will continue to tell you what your views should be?

If you send me to congress I will represent the people of our district.

Your vote and influence will be appreciated.

Frost Helped In Some Peach Orchards

In checking peach orchards in different parts of the county it has been found that fruit is growing very fast.

A few peach orchards were damaged by frost, but others were actually helped in that the cold helped to thin the crop. Some varieties do not have a full crop and others need thinning by hand.

Peach thinning demonstrations will be held in the different parts of the county next week. At these meetings a few new ideas will be given to speed up the thinning process. A schedule of demonstrations will be sent to all peach growers, announced over the radio and published in the paper next week.

It is very important that all peach growers do a thorough job of spraying their orchards for insects and disease control at this time of the year. Spray information can be had upon request at the County Agent's Office.

FARMERS NETTED $25,075.50 MONDAY; AVERAGE $7.12 CRATE

Strawberry picking is now in full swing in Chilton County. On Monday, April 19th there were 3,522 crates of berries sold by the three Strawberry Marketing Associations. These berries brought a total of $25,075.50 on the fresh market or an average of $7.12 per crate. This is a good day's business for Chilton County farmers.

Strawberries this year are very good in quality and it appears that most growers will get a good yield from their plantings.

One strawberry buyer stated that he could use three times as many crates of berries at the same price. The people of Chilton County can grow berries that are as good as any you will find.

It is true that strawberry production is hard work, but few people mind hard work if they receive good pay for it. Money at this time of year comes in at a time that most farmers need it to buy fertilizer and seed.

Every buyer that is buying strawberries here now wants more than he can get.

"THOU SHALT NOT KILL"

Most of us who have embraced the Ten Commandments as our standard of life regard the Fifth as the easiest to keep. Our prayerful inventory is taken with only passing interest in the divine law, "Thou shalt not kill" because we are sure we could never be guilty of this unthinkable crime.

We are wrong. In their 1948 book of street and highway accident data, The Travelers Insurance Companies make it sickeningly clear that the Fifth Commandment is a precept for every driver. In the book's foreword, Jesse W. Randall, the companies' president, suggests a definition that moves our annual traffic tragedy squarely within the orbit of the Decalogue: "Thou shalt not kill" means that nothing on earth can be so important that a man's life should be risked for it, unless in the very risking of life the man becomes better equipped for eternity."

In 1947, 32,500 Americans were killed in traffic accidents. In each case, the vehicle involved was a weapon. In each case, it killed with the same cold finality of a gun or a knife.

Yes, safety is a sermon. If the appeals of self-protection or common consideration are not enought to stay the dangerous driver, perhaps the Fifth Commandment is.

WALK SAFELY AND LIVE

The number of highway accidents that take the lives of Americans constitutes something of a reproach both to drivers of automobiles and to those who walk along the highways.

A surprising number of pedestrains are killed by automobiles and, upon many occasions, the driver of the motor vehicle is not to blame. Pedestrains can adopt proper practices for their own protection and it might be a good idea for those who use the highways on foot in Chilton County to remember the following rules:

(1) Carry or wear something white at night—this will help the drivers of motor vehicles to see you. Remember that, very often, when two cars approach at night, the vision of the drivers is affected by the lights.

(2) In municipal and suburban areas, cross the highway only at cross-walks and, when using a highway in the rural area, look carefully for speeding cars before getting into the road. Moreover, watch traffic signals, especially [illegible] look twice both ways before crossing.

Another rule, which may save your life, is not to go into the highway from between parked cars. This is the cause of numerous accidents, particularly in urban areas, when pedestrains attempt to cross streets in the middle of the block.

For those travelling the rural highways, where there is no sidewalk, it is wise to walk on the left side, facing the oncoming traffic.

These rules have been given considerable publicity, but, because people are prone to forget them and sometimes inadvertently violate them, we give space for their republication.

Folks and Things About Town

B. N. Studdard and his Gulf Distributors are off this week to Montgomery where they will join other Gulf Distributors in holding a State Convention. According to "Ben" the convention activities consume the whole day but what they do that night comes under the head of their own business. Who, me? We ain't asking questions —we just having fun.

We keep hearing talk of a depression. They even say it will be much worse than the last one. If that be true, it certainly will be a champion, and brother, we speak with authority.

Ah, Spring. And that lazy feeling. Now we are going to tell you about this but we must have read it somewhere, it sounds too industrious for us: You know, everybody appreciates the beauties of spring. The flowers, the birds, etc., etc., but most of us overlook the fact that we could be a big help in making our city and county more beautiful when springtime arrives. If everyone who reads this paragraph would make it his or her business to make at least one addition to the plant life of this county you can see what an increase that would be. Probably two or three more beautiful plants than last year. But no kidding, if that was done for a few years, it would add immensely to the enjoyment of all of us when spring comes each year.

Leo Langston reports their chicken supper at the Jemison High School a big success. Seems that Leo told Rev. Carlisle Miller that we had called him too tight to give us another complimentary ticket so the preacher decided that both Leo and the Editor was too tight so he said he would buy a ticket for the wife. Well, Leo then says there isn't a thing doing. He said he wasn't fixing to let the Methodist Preacher buy that tight newspaper editor a ticket, so there Leo clipped us again. We never did get another free ticket to that chicken dinner. Anyway we're glad that it was a big success and we surely compliment the people of Jemison on their public spirit and their ability to get together and get things done.

One morning when an undertaker came to work he found a dead donkey lying in front of his place of business. Not knowing what to do about it he went and asked the policeman on the beat. "Bury it, you dope," said the officer, "you're an undertaker, aren't you?" "Sure," answered the mortician, "but I thought I ought to notify his relatives first."

Clark Headley, our good right arm, who has been with us for the past two years, has resigned to take up the free and easy life of the gentleman farmer. He took leave of absence more than a month ago to rest and it felt so good he decided to continue resting. We hated to see Clark go, but we are sure he will be more satisfied improving his farm.

If the old saying that the best years of our life are our childhood years, there are a lot of kids who will long remember Ed Edwards. He spends a mighty lot of time entertaining kids by letting them enjoy riding his saddle horses.

We were supposed to run Archie L. Dennis's picture last week with his announcement, but it was left out through error. As we told Archie, it sure wasn't intentional, but because there are a couple more candidates in the races this year, considering the state and national races and we sometimes forget what we promised who.

VOTE FOR

POPE PAYNE

FOR TAX ASSESSOR

Chilton County, Alabama

Subject to the Action of the Democratic Primary in May

Your Vote & Influence Appreciated

(Pd. pol. adv. by Pope Payne, Thorsby, Ala.)

Thank You My FRIENDS

The unselfish interest of the thousands of citizens who have worked for me in the past and are working for me now, many for the first time, will never be forgotten. YOU — the everyday folks of the Sixth District — who want to protect our Democratic ideals and Southern traditions and who do not want to see domination by any group or faction are now being challenged.

I ask that you review my record of service to YOU — to veterans, to farmers, to labor, to business. I ask particularly that you remember my work for those things which help protect and preserve America.

I have never been shackled in my service to YOU by obligations to any group. I have tried to approach every issue with one idea alone: "What is best for my country, and the majority of the people of our District."

I am naturally opposed to President Truman's "Civil Rights" program, which I do not believe to be for the best interest of any group in the South. This attitude, plus my desire for Alabama to participate therein, prompted me to vote against a school lunch bill after the passage of an amendment to it, by the representatives from the Harlem District of New York, which would have prevented Alabama and other states which have separate schools from receiving one penny. Despite the attitude of certain outside influence opposing me, I am surprised at my opponent's positive statement that he would have voted against the interest of our district for this purpose. I naturally voted for it when it returned from conference without this amendment. This is but illustrative of the irresponsible charges which have occurred and will continue. Pay no attention to them.

I have been called upon to steer important legislation through the House tending to preserve peace, which responsibility I accepted with pleasure.

I ask that the majority of our people stand again with me against cliques and factions, against domination by any special interest and FOR those enduring principles of good American Democracy which have made ours the greatest nation in the world. I sincerely thank each of you.

To The Voters Of Chilton County

I don't believe in a lot of campaign promises. As most of you remember, my campaign promises thus far have been only a few. In fact, they have been only those which I felt were entirely possible in fullfilling and carrying out honorably any duty or service expected of the road commissioner of the Third District in Chilton County.

I feel fully qualified to handle any job or decision which might confront me. The varied experience that I have had in industry, applied later under a variety of conditions, is there to back up that confidence. Being a farmer myself, I well know the value of good roads to a farming community, which I consider District Three to be. It is toward such an end that I propose to apply my experience.

On the job, I believe that more of the permanent type of work should be done, both in construction and maintenance: I favor a logical and systematic method of working schedules. when perfected, I feel that such a system would hasten the day when Chilton County will have a godly number of farm to market roads.

Within the past few weeks I have tried to see and talk with as many of you as possible, but of course I could not see you everyone. Perhaps I will see you before the Primary. If not, I invite your questions as to my qualifications and intentions.

In closing let me make you a sincere and definite promise that if you elect me, I will do my very best to carry out the duties expected of this office in a respectable and efficient manner. I give you my word that no party or parties will interfere with my aim of justice in road improvement; and the same goes for any other interest which may confront District Three or Chilton County as a whole.

Respectifully yours,
WINSTON W. CULP.
(Pd. pol. adv. by W. W. Culp, Clanton)

Our church extends its deepest sympathy to Mrs. Thelma Ramsey, a teacher in Stanton School, who lost her father last week, Mr. Mitch Wright, of Plantersville.

The family of Mr. Lee Ousley of the Alpine Community, celebrated his birthday with a barbecue dinner last Sunday, April 11th, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Stella M. Gregg. All his children were present and many other relatives and friends. We wish Mr. Ousley many more happy birthdays.

To The Voters Of Chilton County

ARCHIE L. DENNIS

Folks, here I come again for your Commissioner of the 3rd District of this county; as we all are well aware of our county elections, also some state officials. Now is the time to get down to straight business and clear thinking; to give our prosperous county our deepest consideration to all concerned: our love for humanity and well being of our country in selecting our men of our choice—which mean a lot.

My desire for Chilton County is to have leadership in all walks of life regardless of where you are concerned, equal to anywhere else. I am 35 years of age. I have a wife and two children of early school age, which calls for more interest in our county by all means. I have an interest in the public from all angles of life in regard to better ways of living, to the extent of reason.

As you all might well known, it will be quite impossible to see every one in regard to my race. Take it this way, folks, If I don't see you in person. inquire, help a fellow that's ready to help you. My time will be devoted to said job, if elected, to give good plain reasonable assurance of reason to the public as a whole. I believe in each district having its share of money allotted for each district; also fair dealing to our other Commissioners in regard to cooperating with each other, which is to be deeply considered. I would like to add, to do an adequate job, a fellow must not have, in my opinion, not a handful of jobs; if so, some might go slack.

I wish to thank all teachers, committeemen and all concerned in our meetings and banquets for us candidates to be better known to the public. It is my desire as a strictly sober citizen of Chilton County, to serve the people in a nice, clean, American way, which assures the people the rights of our democracy.

Thank you all for your vote and influence.

ARCHIE L. DENNIS.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

1 Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion,* thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.

2 Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.

VOTE FOR

PHILLIP J. HAMM

For United States Senator

Subject to the Action of the Democratic Primaries, May 4 and June 1, 1948.

HERE IS MY STAND:

1. I was born near Elba, Alabama; educated in public schools of Coffee County, Jacksonville State Teachers College; and graduated with BS degree from University of Alabama. I worked in the steel mills at Gadsden, Alabama; operated a store in the same city; taught and coached in public schools of Greene, Coffee and Geneva Counties for 8 years. I was Revenue Commissioner for State of Alabama from January '47 to March '48. Married Evelyn Richards of Hartford.

2. I was an enlisted man in U. S. Navy for 3 years; spent 23 months in South Pacific; worked as veteran's co-ordinator in Crenshaw, Coffee, and Geneva Counties; hold membership in American Legion, VFW, and DAV.

3. I am against dumping billions of our dollars overseas to build war machines. I favor aiding war-torn nations with bread and butter, and not with bullets.

4. I am a strong believer in states rights and local responsibility. I think that all matters of government should be settled as close to the people as possible—right on down to the states, counties, and towns.

5. I believe that all civil rights issues should be settled by the states themselves, and not by Washington.

6. I believe in the Democratic Party. It is the only party which looks out for the interest of the little man. It is the only party which has brought widespread aid to the South. I believe in cleaning out the Democratic Party, and not getting out.

7. I am opposed to Truman being the Democratic candidate for president. His civil rights stand has brought great harm to the Democratic Party; his foreign policy is crude, untimely, and too costly. He listens too much to military people and Wall Street money men. I believe in getting away from military generals, and working more for the three greatest generals of all: General Peace, General Prosperity, and General Satisfaction.

8. I believe in lowering the income tax, especially for the small wage earner, so that we can keep more of our money at home. Last year, $5 out of every $6 collected in taxes from the people of Alabama went off to Washington, and a good portion of that has already been dumped overseas. Only $1 out of $6 stayed here in Alabama to carry on our welfare program, build our roads, operate our schools, and run our state government.

9. I am for greater federal aid for education, and I believe that the states should be allowed to use this money without being hand-tied from Washington.

10. I am opposed to peace-time conscription. I believe in a strong State National Guard and National Guard Reserve, but I believe that they should be controlled by the states and not by the federal government. I believe in broader training of our young men in colleges, trade schools, and in industry.

11. I believe that the GI Bill of Rights should be changed so that it will aid all veterans, and not just those attending college, making loans, and taking special training. I believe that adjustments should be made in the veterans disability benefits program, so that all veterans, regardless of rank, will receive the same benefit for the same amount of disability.

12. I believe this nation needs more river valley programs, more rural electrification, and more co-operatives.

13. I believe in organized labor. I think that the working man has got as much right to pool his human resources, as the corporations have got to pool their capital.

14. I believe in peace; I believe there should be more planning for peace, and less promoting of war. I believe that the surest road to peace today is by putting our faith and our resources behind the United Nations Organization. I think that all of this nation's aid to foreign countries should be handled by the UNO.

Jemison Athletic Association Banquet At Jemison—

One of the most delightful affairs we have ever attended in this county was that of the banquet held at the Jemison High School on last Friday night. The banquet was sponsored by the Jemison Athletic Association. The High School Auditorium was beautifully decorated and tableh were set, banquet style, for about 300 people. A bounteous chicken dinner was served, during which time a program was enjoyed. Mrs. Erle Ellis of Clanton led in group singing with Mrs. Percy Pitts at the piano. Mr. Fred Smith of Jemison gave an address of welcome and Mr. Leo C. Langston was master of ceremonies. Mr. Langston introduced each of our candidates, who were special guests of the banquet and Mayor Cooper Green of Birmingham was guest speaker for the evening. Mrs. Green was also in attendance and was introduced to the audience. We have never seen a better example of cooperation in a community than was evidenced at this meeting. There were people from all over the county as well as adjoining counties. There were people present from Verbena, Billingsley, Maplesville, Clanton, Calera, Thorsby, Montevallo, and all the adjoining rural communities were represented. The ladies from various communitis donated the delicious food, and how they all must have worked to make it an affair that will long be remembered by those who were fortunate enough to be present. We want to congratulate the good people of Jemison and also wish them every success in the work they are trying to do. With such cooperation, who could fail.

The first week in May was designated for this work. Everyone is urged to get ready to clean up their premises and let's all help in this work, as this will be the first step toward beautifying Thorsby.

To The Veterans Of Chilton County

I have always voted for Congressman Pete Jarman, but will not do so this time. A Congressman that cannot be depended upon to vote on important questions should be retired.

I am a World War I veteran, and I have been unable to see where our Congressman has made much effort to help us. In fact he seems to believe the veterans will vote for him anyway, and he has been giving a large portion of the jobs to non-veterans. According to my information he has appointed either 10 or 11 postmasters in Bibb County since he has been in [illegible] and only about three of them are veterans. If he would not help the World War I veterans secure jobs, he [illegible] can the veterans of World War II depend upon him for anything. Look around at his appointments and you will see that I am right.

Every day I hear World War I and II veterans state [illegible] representation in [illegible] district. I am one [illegible] who will vote for a change this time I believe that Mr. Edward de Graffenried will give our district much better representation in Congress than we have been receiving. He is a World War I veteran and has sons who served in World War II.

The veterans do not feel that they should have every job that comes up, but they do believe in receiving a fair deal, and they haven't even received a 50 per cent break under Pete Jarman.

I urge all World War I and II Veterans to give this matter their careful consideration, as this will mean much to the future welfare of all veterans.

Little Lynn Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Williams, celebrated her fourth birthday anniversary with a candy land party Wednesday afternoon. The invitations read as follows:

"Come to Lynn Williams's birthday party,
It'll take place in Candyland,
At 3:30 p.m., so don't be tardy,
And bring this key in your hand.

With Candy canes and lollipops,
Every minute will be gay,
1006 2nd Ave., No., is your stop,
On April 21st, a happy day."

The key was made of white cardboard and striped with red to resemble candy and was used to "unlock" a big Candyland book. Other [illegible] enjoyed and prizes of candy were [illegible]en.

Two large sticks of candy marked the entrance to the house. The birthday table held a large cake with four candles, surrounded with red stick candy. Ice cream was served with cake and favors were given of balloons and cellophane bags of candy. The little hostess greeted her guests, wearing a long party dress of pink taffets. Those enjoying this delightful courtesy were:

Larry Culpepper, Jimmie Minshew, Robert Hays, Jeffry and Linda Pilgreen, Claudia Fields, Joan Johnson, Richard Ellison, Anne Kemp, Mary Kate Tucker, Betty Gillespie, Rebecca Hayes, Linda, Cathy and Julie Wade, Alec Jones, Cloria and Curt Deason, Nicky Nivens, Paula Campbell, Jenny Lee Polk, Clarice and Becky Mullins, Henry Bell, Linda Wingard, Robert Traywick, Larry and Wayne Satterwhite, Faye Daily, Norman Roberts and Carolyn Moore.

CIRCLE TWO, WOMANS SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE

Hall and Mrs. B. L. Jones. Contributions to the Cancer Drive were made. A splendid program on the "Importance of the Rural Church," was directed by Mrs. L. E. Diefenderfer.

MORE ABOUT MASONIC CONFERENCE AT MAPLESVILLE

In the article written up on the Masonic Conference held at Maplesville, Ala., March 31, 1948, the election of Brother C. D. Foshee to serve as Junior Deacon was unintentionall left out.

Also the fine report made by brother W. E. Glazner, Superintendent of the Orphans' Home, maintained and supported by the Masons of Alabama, was not given the credit it justly deserves. Then, again, the home takes care of Masons and their wives who are not able to support themselves.

This important work that is being done by Brother Glazner deserves the highest commendation and hearty support of all the Masons in Alabama.—J. L. Johnson.

"That's Why It's Gone!"

Pete Swanson was bewailing the "good old days" in Sam Hackney's general store the other day.

"I even miss the old spittoon, now that it's gone," says Pete; and Sam replied: "You always missed it, that's why it's gone!"

Which, in a sense, is how Sam runs his store. He keeps it homey and comfortable, but he has his standards! And a privilege abused is a privilege removed.

That's how it is with all well-operated businesses . . . like retailers selling beer, for instance. If any of them abuse the privilege—by failing to maintain clean, orderly surroundings—the brewers take action to correct the fault or report it to the authorities.

It's what the brewers call their "Self Regulation" program—and from where I sit, it's the reason that outlets selling beer today are clean, and orderly, and homelike—proud of their privilege, and meaning to be worthy of it!

Financially, the net proceeds amounted to $477.52. The program and publicity committee of the Jemison Athletic Association again express their thanks to every person who participated in making the endeavor a successful one.

To the Editor Chilton County News:
Clanton, Alabama.

It has come to my attention that some parties are stating that I am seeying the County Commissioner's Office for the purpose of building a paved road to my camp on Mitchell Dam Lake. Such statements are most ridiculous and unfounded. My camp is one mile off Verbena and Higgins Ferry road which road is more than 100 years old. I built and do maintain my road, with exception of about twice a year the county machines scrape same for me.

If I am elected I will give the roads in my district my personal attention, seeing that all roads have equal attention regardless of their location. I will not allow politics or anything else to enter into my duties to the people of my District and Chilton County. I will endeavor to promote all state and county approved roads.

OUR CONGRESSMAN AND INCOME TAX REDUCTIONS

The Editorial Below Appeared In The Centreville Press April 8, 1948

The war has been over approximately two and one-half years, yet Congress only got around to reducing income taxes last week. We all know that during time of war we must all pay high taxes, but during the past two years there has been a general feeling among the people that expenses of our government should be reduced and taxes should be reduced, especially on the small wage earners, such as farmers, saw mill workers, store clerks and others who must earn their living the hard way. With the greatly increased cost of living, small wage earners cannot afford to pay high income taxes, yet for the past two and one-half years our Government has maintained high income taxes on the small wage earners, as well as everyone else. The fact is that the entire country needed tax reduction. The business people of the United States did not have much desire to create new jobs and increase production on account of high taxes. Many people who had money to invest in business would not invest it on account of high income taxes. Thus we found out in two and one-half years that high taxes were a hindrance rather than a help to our Government and its people. With lower income tax rates on businesses and with income taxes eliminated from the small wage earners we can expect our country make much better progress. Business will produce more and the Government will likely collect just as much money in some other form of taxes.

There is a great need for increased production in the United States, but high income taxes has caused the business people and workers not to have much desire to increase production.

What has our Congressman from the Sixth District done to relieve the people of his district from high income taxes? Last year the Republcians sponsored a bill to reduce income taxes, but our Congressman voted against it. This year the Republicans sponsored another bill to reduce income taxes, and our Congressman failed to vote. It makes no difference to the people of the Sixth District who is responsible for reducing taxes, whether it be the Repubicans or Democrats, just as long as they are reduced. A Congressman making approximately $12,500 a year with his wife on the payroll making several thousand a year can afford to pay high taxes, but the small wage earner who is hardly making enough to live on, must deprive himself and his family of some of the necessities of life in order to pay his taxes.

Other Alabama Congressmen voted for income tax reductions last year. They also voted to reduce income taxes this year, but our Congressman was not there when the roll was called. It is true that he was in the district conducting a campaign for reelection, but other Alabama Congressmen had campaigns to conduct, but they went back to Washington to vote to reduce income taxes.

Our Congressman has established a record for failing to vote on important bills that come before Congress. A true representative of the people should be on the job most every time the roll is called. A Congressman who cannot face the issue and vote is not of much benefit to the people of his district.

Since the above editorial was written official statistics from Washington have been received showing that our Congressman receives $12,500 salary, plus $2,500 per year expenses (expense money is tax exempt). His wife draws $585.20 per month, or a total of $7,022.40 per year, making a total of approximately $22,000 per year for our Congressman and his wife.

Since 1937, through 1947, our Congressman has received $112,500.00, and his wife $49,012.31, or a total of $161,512.31. These figures include salaries, but no dot include the 20c mileage for his automobile.

THE PEOPLE OF THE SIXTH DISTRICT ARE PAYING A HIGH PRICE FOR THE TYPE OF REPRESENTATION THAT THEY ARE RECEIVING!

Mr. de Graffenried has promised not to employ his wife as an executive secretary. He also promises to employ all of his office help from his district, which has not been the case with our present Congressman.

NOW IS THE TIME TO MAKE A CHANGE

A VOTE FOR

EDWARD DE GRAFFENRIED

WILL BE A VOTE FOR

He Will Stay On The Job And Vote For The Interest Of The People Of This District

This is a paid political advertisement by J. W. Oakley, Editor of The Centreville Press, Centreville, Alabama, who has been a supporter of Pete Jarman for ten years, but who now believes that this district is in great need of a new Representative in Washington.

OUR TRIP TO MOUNDVILLE

Our class to Moundville State Monument went,
But not before writing to the gent,
Who has those findings all in charge,
From the tiniest tool to Mound B large.
He graciously met us at the door,
Where classes, many, have entered before.
Then into the museum where he guided through,
Telling us interesting facts and true
About the Moundville Indian life,
Their customs, environment, freedom from strife.
An interesting race of the far distant past,
Were portrayed in the counters and cases we passed.
Then into the north and south wings led the way,
And showed us the skeletons as they lay;
Some heaped in their burials, carelessly thrown;
Some stretched out full length and others quite prone.
The lunch hour came as a treat to us all,
And we hurriedly clambered over Mound P, tall
Then down on the ground by the side of the lake,
We happily ate sandwiches and cake.
Then skirted around the lake's grassy bank,
And stood by the Warrior where Moundvillians drank.
The mounds for their meetings we were eager to see,
But found none so huge as stately Mound B.
'Twas here we entered the cars for our homes,
But my mind on those findings continues to roam.

—LOUISE GOLDEN.

MOUND STATE MONUMENT

To Mound State Monument my class did go
To see those skeletons lined in a row;
Arrows, spears, bones, and things,
From copper fish hooks to silver rings.
And when we were hungry, we walked o'er P Mound
Until we came to the picnic ground.
When we were through eating and munching cake,
We threw our crumbs to the fish in the lake.
Then we wandered over the ground
And finally came upon high B Mound.
The paths, I know, were more than three,
And from the top what a sight we could see!

— LARRY MINOR.

MY TRIP TO MOUNDVILLE

One day our school teacher asked the class how we would like to visit the museum at Mound State Monument. We were overjoyed and we began to plan our trip. We wrote to the Mound State Monument keeper to find out what day would be convenient for us to come.

He replied, "Just any time would be all right." So we began to set our day. We set our date to leave April 2, 1948.

Five mothers and one father volunteered to take us in their cars. Dr. Golden let us use his car; Mrs. Nivens drove Dr. Golden's car.

We left our school at 8:30 a.m., and we got to Moundville, Ala., about 11:30 a.m.

When we got there, we went into the museum. They had some cases of Indian skulls and Indian houses. Then we went into North and South pits, where we saw some Indian skeletons.

Then we went to the picnic ground. Thre we ate our lunch. When we ate our lunch, we went to the lake and river. We fed the fish in the lake.

We went back to the cars and went to Mound B, which is a mound about fifty-eight and one-half feet high. The Indians used the mounds for temples. There were forty mounds. I went up on Mound B about six times. One time I ran down it, I nearly fell on my head. I finally caught myself before I fell.

Then we went to Smith Hall at the University near Tuscaloosa, Ala. There we saw some rocks and petrified wood. They had a petrified tree which they thought was about three million years old. We saw an Alaskan bear which two GI boys killed.

Then we went home. We got here in Clanton, Ala., about 5:30 p.m.

—MAVIS COOK.

OUR TRIP TO MOUNDVILLE

On the morning of April second every member of The Better Speech Club came to school with a packed lunch and a heart full of laughter.

At long last we were to make the trip to Mound State Monument in Moundville, Alabama, that we had planned for and dreamed of for weeks.

When everyone was ready, we boarded the cars and with a last look at Clanton Grammar we drove in the direction of Moundville.

When we reached the woodlands we found the highway lined with beautiful dogwood, crab apple, and other flowering trees.

After many long hours we arrived at Mound State Monument. My heart kept skipping beats every time I looked at all those mounds!

When we walked toward the building, we were welcomed by kind Mr. Wimberly, the archaeologist of Mound State Monument. Here before the entrane into the historic monument Mr. Wimberly gave us a short history of the ancient Indian race and the development of the fascinating park.

Once inside the monument our attention was attracted to two skulls. One a female, the other was a male definitely different in shape. There were many other interesting things in th museum, map of Indian migration, replicas of their thatched huts, pottery, tools, and ornaments.

After we had observed the museum, Mr. Wimberly led us to the left wing. We had expected to see the bones of som early Indians, but not all those skeletons lying just as they had been placed probably 1,000 years ago! I suddenly felt cold and a little weak in the knees as I stood gazing at them. Then we went to the right wing in a silent trance where we found a similar display.

We thanked Mr. Wimberly for his kindness to us before leaving to climb Mound P over to the picnic grounds.

When we had eaten our lunch and had enjoyed feeding the fish, we left to climb Mound B the highest of the mounds.

Our journey was continued on into Tuscaloosa and out to the University where we visited Smith Hall. There were many beautiful rock collections there that impressed me.

After we visited the three floors, we were led to the basemnt by the guide, Mr. DeJarnette. There on a table was a stone tree found in a coal mine near Jasper, Ala.

As we were leaving the hall, Mr. DeJarnette told us that he would send us a rock collection for our museum.

—MARTHA MAYO.

MOUNDVILLE TRIP

April 2 was a warm and sunny day, just the kind of day for a trip. And that is what our class was doing. The trip was being made to Mound State Museum, Moundville, Ala.

Early that morning the class had boarded the car we were to go in. Everyone had a feeling of excitement.

Whn we reached the museum our guide told us the history of the Moundville Indians. The Indians built their mounds five feet at a time. A house was then built. When the house was of no use, five feet more were built. Then a house was made. This was a surprise to the class.

After our guide finished talking, we went into the museum. There we saw Indian ornaments, tools, and pottery. How skillful the Indians must have been to make such beautiful pottery.

In the north and south wings were the urials. Altogether there are fifty-seven urials. One was of a baby probably born dead, or died when a day old.

We went to the picnic area after leaving the museum. Chattering like chipmunks everyone gaily ate lunch.

After eating we drove to Mound B. It is fifty-eight and one-half feet high. How hard the Indians must have worked to build this mound! With energy to spare we happily climbed Mound B. Some of us made new trials around the sides.

We then started home. On the way back we visited Smith Hall at the University of Alabama. On the ground floor we saw a collection of marble from countries and states in the United States. On the second floor we saw many kinds of stuffed animals. There were different kinds of rock. How beautiful some were!

In the basement was a fossil tree found in a mine at Jasper, Ala. It is from 300 to 40- million years old, so scientists say.

We had an exciting, educational and entertaining trip, and I should like to go again.

—JOHN SCHMITH.

THE BETTER SPEECH CLUB VISITS MOUND STATE MONUMENT

Earlier in the year our class, The Better Speech Club, during social studies period, was studying about fossils being unearthed in Central America and Mexico. Mrs. Themas, our sponsor, suggested the fact that fossils and skeletons had been unearthed in recent years, in Moundville, Ala., and that her classes in previous years had made trips to this historic place.

We received literature of Mound State Monument from Mr. Steve B. Wimberly, the archeologist.

We decided that it would be convenient and less expensive to ride in cars and we chose April second as the date for this woderful trip.

After weeks, yes, months, April second finally came! We boarded the cars that we were assigned to and were off.

At the end of a long drive we reached this wonderful place!

We got in squads and went into the museum. I didn't think I would find anything that would interest me, but, to my surprise, I found I was enjoying it thoroughly!

Moundville was probably inhabited by the Choctaw or Creek Indians about 500 years ago. The mounds were used as temples or meeting houses where thy all come together. No one knows if they inhabited Moundville before the last glacial period or not. These people were probably the real discoverers of the New World.

The homes of the Moundville people were constructd of small logs placed upright in trenches, pulled together at the top and covered with canes, grass, and sometimes plastered with mud.

They were very superstitious people, so, when they buried their dead under their floors, they left their homes for a period of time so the spirits could have their dead and haunt their homes while they weren't there. They would return when they thought the spirits had gone.

We learned that the difference between a man's and a woman's skull is that a woman's skull is smaller, smoother, and doesn't have deep ridges. A man's skull is heavier, rugged, and has deep ridges.

We went into another part of the museum, where we saw skeletons of Indians.

Afterwards, we climbed Mound P to the picnic grounds.

We had a beautiful view overlooking a lake which drained into the Warrior River.

After lunch we climbed into our cars and went to Mound B which is about fifty-eight and one-half feet high. It is so high that it seems to touch the sky.

About 2:00 o'clock we found ourselves hurrying to the University. There we visited Smith Hall where we saw many rock formations and we learned that Alabama is one of the richest mineral states in the United States.

On the third floor I found this information, DeSoto began the trade with the Indians of Alabama in 1540 on his celebrated march. He once exchanged thirty mirrors for thirty women baggage carriers.

The guide took us down in the basement where we saw a petrified tree. The tree is believed to be about three to four millions years old.

On our way home, we went by Bryce Hospital for the insane.

The drive home seemed so short!

I think it is the most interesting trip we have made this year.

—SARAH LANE MAYO.

OUR TRIP TO MOUNDVILLE

On one beautiful Friday morning The Better Speech Club started on the trip we had planned for a long time. There were forty-six people making the trip. We went in six cars.

About eleven o'clock we arrived at Mound State Monument. Our guide came shortly afterwards. Then we went in. We saw some of the skulls, hancrafts, and miniatures of the huts these Indians lived in. Then we all went into the rooms at the end of the museum. The rooms were graves that the bones hadn't been moved from. I felt very mysterious. These skeletons were buried there many years ago. After we came out of these rooms, we walked to the picnic ground. We walked over one of the mounls to get there. It was a beautiful place between a small lake and the Warrior River. When we had finished with our lunch, we went to the highest mound and climbed it. Some of us climbed it many times, but I climbed it two times and that was enough for me! This mound was fifty-eight and one-half feet high.

On our way home, we went through Tuscaloosa, and stopped at Smith Hall at the University.

In this museum we saw beautiful stones, handcrafts of the South Sea Islanders, stuffed animals, preserved snakes, and a recently found fossil tree. It was found in Alabama near Jasper in a coal mine.

As we left the University, on our way home, the Denny Chimes chimed out four o'clock. It was a good way of saying, goodbye.

It was a very enjoyable trip, but we were glad to get home.

—BETTY KEMP.

WE VISIT MOUNDVILLE

The Better Speech Club of Mrs. Thomas's room visited Mound State Monument, Moundville, Ala., April 2, 1948.

When we got to Mound State Monument, we had to wait for a few minutes for the guide, who carried us through the museum.

In the museum, we saw where the Indians had been buried. They were uncovred and left just as they were found. We saw the houses in which the Indians lived. We saw some of the pottery the Indians made.

When we got through, we went to the picnic grounds where Sarah Lane Mayo offered prayer, before we ate lunch. When we got through eating our lunches, we did as we wished until all got through eating their lunches. Then we got into the cars and went to Mound B where we had the most fun climbing up to the top of the Mound.

—LOIS JEAN WILLIS.

OUR CLASS VISITS MOUNDVILLE

With dancing hearts and sparkling eyes, our class got into the cars leaving for Moundville April 2, 1948.

As we traveled, some of the children read books; others drew pictures of the trees along the road or played games. When we got to Centreville, we stopped at a filling station and got drinks, candy, and other things to eat. Again we stopped to get drinks for our lunch, and some of the children exchanged their hot drinks for cold ones.

We soon came to Tuscaloosa, where we turned off to a small road that led us to Moundville. From there we turned into another small road that led us to Mound State Monument, a very pretty museum located in a well kept park. Our guide at the museum was Mr. Wimberly, a very kind gentleman. After we were through looking at the museum, we went over what I thought was a very huge mound. On the other side of the mound there was a beautiful lake, and the grass was very green and pretty. There we had our lunch. When we were through with lunch, we all got into the cars we belonged in. We followed the drive way around a curve, and there stood Mound B, the larger of the thirty-nine mounds.

Leaving the beautiful park, we went to Smith Hall at the University. There we saw diamonds, some of which were as big as a fifty cent piece, and others as large as a pin point. The most interesting animal in Smith Hall was the big old bear that could jump two stories high. After I was through looking at the bear, the leader of my squad, aula Nivens, called the squad members together and we went down some stairs, where every eye was sparkling as we gazed upon a fossil tree that was found last year near Jasper, Ala.

The thoughts of Moundville and Smith Hall still linger in my mind.

—PAT BROADHEAD.

THE BETTER SPEECH CLUB VISITS MOUNDVILLE

Friday morning, April 2, everyone came to school as usual, but Friday was a special day. We were going to Moundville. We had our lunches and were ready to start.

As we were riding over we saw many lovely dogwood trees and some crab apple in full bloom. The scenery was, indeed, beautiful.

We stopped at Centreville for a few minutes where some of us got candy, cold drinks, and other things.

When we arrived at Moundville, the guide met us at the door of the museum. He told us how large the park is and some interesting facts about the Indians who once lived there.

Inside the museum the guide led us from case to case explaining the articles that were in them. One of the things that we saw was the difference between a man's and a woman's skull. Another thing was a lovely picture of a Moundville girl. We saw some of the pottery of the Indians. The guide told us that when a member of the Indian family died, they buried him under the house with food and water in the grave with him. Then they left the house for several months and let the spirit of the dead person take charge of it. All this seems very strange to me, but I suppose that was just one of their customs.

On our way home we stopped by the University of Alabama, where we went through Smith Hall. The most interesting thing we saw there, I thought, was a petrified tree. The tree was found in a coal mine near Jasper, Ala., by our guide and his uncle. As we left the University we heard Denny Chimes strike four o'clock.

We reached home about six o'clock, a tired but happy group.

—JEAN THOMPSON.

MY TRIP TO MOUNDVILLE

For weeks, even months, The Better Speech Club had been studying about the many different kinds of rocks, fossils, and skeletons in our science work. Mrs. Thomas, our teacher, told us about historic Moundville. We all became very much interested in making a trip to that historic place.

We left for Moundville about eight-fifteen, April 2, 1948.

When we arrived at the museum, our guide, Mr. Wimberly, told us a few facts concerning the size and history of the place before we went inside. He told us that the mounds were used for worship by the Indians and that they were about 500 years old.

Then we went inside the museum. He told us the female Indians lived to be about twenty-five and the male Indians about twenty-four years of age.

Toy vessels were usually buried with the children.

Food and water were placed in vessels and put in the graves. Their jewelry was made from stones, bones, bear teeth, and shells. The Indians cultivated squash, beans, and pumpkins. The skeletons have not been moved since they have been found. Th Indians buried their family in the yard or under the house.

The men were about five feet in height. Some of the vessels we saw were about 500 years old. The graves were uncovered about 1937

In the cases we saw their type of architecture, the kinds of homes they lived in; their ceremonial customs, the kinds of graves they have; their costumes and dresses that the men and women wore; their agricultural crops, the kinds of food they ate; their fishing and hunting equipment; and tobacco and smoking customs, the kinds of pipes they used.

When we got through looking at the museum, we went down by the lake and river to eat our lunch.

After lunch we rested a while before climbing Mound B, the largest mound, fifty-eight and one-half feet high. It covers almost two acres.

We visited at the University of Alaama where we saw the many different kinds of rocks in Smith Hall

We left for home about 3:30, and we arrived in Clanton about 5:30.

In the Circuit Court of Chilton County, Alabama, in Equity.

TO: Ed Rebinson, address unknown; Katis B. Robinson, address unknown or, if deceased, the unknown heirs, devisees, legatees or next of kin of Ed Robinson and Katie B. Robinson, and to any and all persons claiming any interest in the lands described herein:

Notice is hereby given that in the Circuit Court of Chilton County, Alabama, in Equity, there was filed and is pending a verified Bill of Complaint by J. M. Tuesday's Election Holds Interest Of County

Candidates For State, District And County Offices Make Plea

Election time comes around again and intense interest in all of the various races seems to be the order of the day in Chilton County.

Eight democratic candidates for the office of County Commissioner, Third District, wind up their campaign for election this week. They are: Winston [illegible], Abney Brown, J. N. Shanks, N[illegible]rrell, Welch Roebuck, George Sh[illegible] Marcus Jones and Archie L. D[illegible].

[illegible] race for Commissioner of the [illegible] District are: J. J. Johnson, J[illegible] [illegible]arlie Gulledge, Jim Dunlap [illegible] F. Holl[illegible].

[illegible] Collector's race has three candid[illegible]. The encumbent, M. C. (Jack) Hayes, Jim Parrish and Howard Roper. Mr. Roper is now serving as County Commissioner from his district.

For Tax Assessor is Buck Roberts, who is the encumbent, Pope Payne, who is now serving his tenth year as member of the County School Board, and Julius Smith.

Mr. B. E. Reeves, candidate for County Treasurer, has no opposition.

That is the major offices being sought in the coming election. In each case there will be a run-off as no one candidate has generated enough power to get a majority of the votes cast, it appears. In fact it has been more difficult to determine even which candidate in each race is the more popular this year than ever before. Only Tuesday can tell.

WE'RE SORRY — BUT IT CAN'T BE HELPED

Several correspondents sent in community news this week that reached us too late for this edition. We're sorry, but there is a time limit involved in publishing a newspaper that just cannot be ignored. If the copy fails to reach us Tuesday, it is impossible for us to get it all in the paper Wednesday afternoon, when the News goes to press. If it is possible for you to get your news in earlier it will be greatly appreciated.—The Editor.

A Word To The Voters And Election Officials

I wrote a word of caution to the voters in the County before the Amendment election, because by some mysterious means a number who had been on the qualified list for years were not on the qualified list, not even a card for you in the Probate Judge's files. We are sorry about this. We have corrected all that has been brought to our attention. We are eager to have the others back on the list, but it may be necessary that you vote a challenged vote at this election. If you do have to vote a challenged vote we ask you to please come by the office and check with us to see what was the trouble or why your name did not appear on the list so that we can clear the records for you.

TO THE ELECTION OFFICIALS: Every voter who has been issued an absentee ballot will be checked on the margin of the qualified voters list opposite their name with red pencil. Should a voter appear in person at the polls he cannot cast a ballot without first returning his absentee ballot to the officials of the election.

So you see, Mr. Voter, if you decide you will be in the county, carry your absentee ballot and return to the managers of the election at your respective place of voting and vote as you would otherwise.

Trusting the above is clear to all, I am very sincerely your friend,

W. L. PARRISH.
Judge of Probate.

COFFEE DAY FOR CANCER DRIVE

It's Coffee Day in Chilton County and all Alabama on April 30! America's favorite beverage will be offered without charge throughout the State by restaurants displaying a red and white sign stating that they are cooperating in the "Coffee Day" observance in the drive for funds for the American Cancer Society.

Chilton County coffee-drinkers ca[illegible] have their coffee and carry on their personal fight against cancer at th[illegible] same time, because every penny they give for coffee at "coffee against can[illegible]" restaurants on April 30th will go toward stopping thousands of deaths caused by cancer in Alabama and throughout the nation.

The price for a cup of [illegible] on Coffee Day? Whatever [illegible] give, be it ten cents or ten dollars. Each Coffee Day eating place will give the buyer a ticket with his coffee which will be turned in, in place of regular payment when he deposits his contribution in a receptacle provided for donations.

The funds collected by eating places in Alabama on Coffee Day will be turned over to the local campaign headquarters of the American Cancer Society, to help finance the year-round program of education, research, and medical aid to combat the killer which accounts for more deaths than any other single disease.

Coffee Shop, Willingham Hotel, Clanton, Ala.

Coffee Shop, Exchange Hotel, Clanton, Ala.

Dixie Cafe, Clanton, Ala.

City Grill, Clanton, Ala.

Clanton Lunch Room, Clanton, Ala.

Coney Island Sandwich Shop, Clanton, Ala.

The Rebel (Bus Station), Thorsby, Ala.

Jemison Cafe, Jemison, Ala.

CONCERT SATURDAY NIGHT

The Deep South Quartet, Vernon Lackey, manager, of Birmingham, will appear in concert at the courthouse Saturday night, May 1, at 7:45 o'clock. Their appearance is sponsored by the Chilton County Singing Convention and regular admission will be charged.

Over $100,000 Grossed On Strawberries So Far

Chilton County Strawberries grossed over $100,000 so far this season. There has been $99,829.70 worth of berries sold through the Clanton, Thorsby and Jemison Berry Growers Association plus local market and roadside stand sales. The total number of crates sold through the association is 13,420 for an average of $7.47 per crate.

The three associations are doing an excellent job of marketing this fruit. Thanks should be given to the association managers, Mr. J. N. Dennis, Clanton; Dave Childress, Thorsby; and [illegible] A. Langston, Jemison, for their [illegible] efforts in aiding Chilton C[illegible] farmers.

Through Saturday, April 24th, most of the berries have gone to fresh market buyers, but it is expected that frozen food buyers will buy heavy this week.

Some of the buyers that moved large volumes of strawberries this year are as follows: Hyman Schwartz-Schwartz and Linder, Dayton, Ohio, who has been buying berries in this county 13 years. Mr. Schwartz says he wanted more berries than he could get this year. Hybels Produce Company, Kalamazoo, Mich., also bought a huge amount of berries. Mr. Hybels has been coming to Clanton and Chilton County about ten years; Mr. H. A. McCord, of Bateman Frozen Foods in Macon, Ga.; Mr. B. J. Phillips, of Southern Frozen Foods, Montezuma Ga.; Ed Smith of Cullman; Charlie Wade, of Nashville, Tenn., and Birt L[illegible]amp, Kalamazoo, Mich.

All bu[illegible] want more [illegible]. This should be a challenge to [illegible] farmers in Chilton County that are not growing berries.

Automobile Accident Injuries Six

An automobile wreck at the Chilton-Bibb County Line early Sunday morning put six people in the hospital. Raymond Sansom driving a 1939 Ford Coupe and Boling Crockett in a 1947 Plymouth Coupe collided, inflicting serious and painful cuts and bruises on several passengers.

Besides the drivers, those hurt in the accident were: Fritz Scoettlin, Mrs. Susie Scoettlin, Virginia Scoettlin and Ed Donaldson. State Highway aPtrolmen Kendricks and Braswell investigated.

July 7th Date Set For Peach Festival

The peach crop is far enough along to make more definite plans for the peach festival. The date of the festival has been set for July 7th. At this time Elbertas will be ripening and the peach season should be at its peak.

This year's peach festival can be expected to be larger than last year and will be accompanied by as much or more colorful fanfare.

Through the peach festival the County and its peach [illegible]

Farmers of the County have and will continue to set a tremendous acre[illegible] to open new markets there may be a time when the volume of [illegible] can [illegible] market outlets. [illegible] it seemed advisable to start making new market contacts along with improving the quality of fruit by doing a better job of growing and grading. The peach festival was specifically designed to encourage and aid along both the lines of production and marketing.

The results of last year's festival clearly indicated that as much time and effort as would be required in holding a successful festival would pay big dividends now and in later years. Unless buyers know you have a product to sell it is a certainty that they can't buy. Through the peach festival it is going to be possible for buyers all over the entire country to become acquainted with Chilton County peaches.

One of Alabama's Leading Weeklies

What's all the fuss about giving the credit of the Eisenhower boom to some big politician when the little fellows in our county who don't claim to be smart started talking Eisenhower months and months ago.

Bonnie Hand, editor and publisher of The LaFayette Sun, was a visitor last week end. Bonnie says Chambers County is using voting machines this election. A few of those machines is what Chilton County needs. When the polls close, punch a button and the votes are counted.

REGARDLESS OF HOW YOU VOTE — VOTE

This is an annual plea, we'll agree, but make it your business to go to the polls next Tuesday and vote. It is our duty to remind you, and it is your duty to vote. The American people have a habit of letting a small percentage of the people elect a man to office and then spending the next four years griping because he was elected. If the people will go to the polls and cast their vote for the candidate of their choice we would have better public officials, or at least we'd have the man preferred by the greatest number of the people.

A NEW CONGRESSMAN?

WILL Mr. Edward de Graffenried unseat Mr. Pete Jarman in the congressional race on May 4th? That seems to be the consensus of opinion here in Chilton County.

Mr. Jarman's old friends and supporters have fallen out with him on several matters recently.

One is that he has failed to vote on important legislation that affected his District and the South some 61 times since he has been in Congress.

Another is that he voted to send fertilizer to Europe when the farmers in the South were suffering for the want of fertilizer for their crops.

It is of record that Mr. Jarman voted against lowering the income tax when public opinion in his District was overwhelmingly for passage of the income tax reduction legislation.

We have heard much talk of the local voters going to de Graffenried because Mr. Jarman takes the attitude that his own importance will elect him and he does not need the support of the little man anymore.

All in all it looks like the Sixth District is due for a change of Congressman. The voter feels that he is not getting the right kind of representation in Washington. He feels that the present Congressman has been there long enough. He [illegible] Mr. Edward de Graffenried, of Tuscaloosa, would [illegible] be much closer to the farmer and the [illegible] of the District.

It is that small businessman and farmer that elects the officeholder in the Sixth District. When he marches to the polls on May the 4th and cast his vote, from where we sit, it looks like he will cast that vote for Edward de Graffenried.

"HOW FUR YOU GWINE, CAP'N?"

Walking along a roadside near our home on a day in late winter, a drizzle came up. . .suddenly a somewhat dilapidated Ford stopped by us, and a middle-aged Negro we did not know but who had a kindly face looked out.

"How fur you gwine, Cap'n?" he inquired. "I might keep you from getting wet on a col' day."

That was a little thing, of course. But we mention it because it is one of those little things that help keep friendship strong between the best white people of the South and our best colored people—no matter how much violent demagogs, Northern and Southern, may try to do to break down such kindly relations. And just such little things are occurring each day. For example, when a member of our household had to go to a hospital for a week, a Negro servant who had been working half time voluntarily came whole time and could not be made to take any pay for the extra time and work, saying, "I shouldn't feel like a Christian if I did." Again, the writer's wife this week was one of the women from half a dozen white churches who not only raise funds for the nearest Negro hospital but join in a once-a-week work-meeting to make bandages, towels, and everything [illegible] can for it.

[illegible] Texas subscriber suggested that we [illegible] "Good Will Day" when every [illegible] to do some good turn for a Negro, [illegible] some white person. To this the reply [illegible] should not be thought of as something [illegible] but regularly. Right now we [illegible] urge the cultivation of such friend[illegible]tions there are men and women who [illegible] the South policies of compulsion that would [illegible]. In the South we have leaders who treat the [illegible] with such neglect as to make other sections [illegible] national interference is justified. As Ralph Mc[illegible] recently in the Atlanta Constitution: "We wrote [illegible] to say that while the races were to be separated, we would provide 'separate but equal' educational, travel, recreational and other facilities. This we have not done." But this we must do. As the Arkansas Gazette wisely suggests, while we of the white South must oppose vicious forms of outside compulsion, we must accept the special responsibility that falls upon the dorminant race—giving the Negro proper educational, economic, and other opportunities" not because we are forced to, but because we recognize his right to them." — (Reprinted from The Progressive Farmer, April, 1948).

Dry Leader To Speak Here

Mr. Virgil C. Finnell, of Winona Lake, Indiana, Chairman of the Prohibition National Committee and Editor of the "National Prohibitionist," is to speak in this city on the topic, "GOD SAVE AMERICA."

This address will be delivered at a meeting to be held at the First Baptist Church, Clanton, Friday, April 30, at 7:30 p.m.

Mr. Finnell is well qualified to deal with any phase of the liquor problem. He has been active in moral and social reform work for a lifetime. His lectures on these lines have taken him into 46 of the 48 states where he has spoken in schools, colleges, churches and before lyceum, chautauqua and convention audiences again and again. You will be pleased with his sane and informative presentation of this subject.

Church and temperance leaders point out that the demand for National Prohibition is growing by leaps and bounds due to the increase of drinking by women and girls, the higher taxes due to costs of caring for the results of drink and the mounting deaths from highway accidents.

When packing cake in waxed paper, sprinkle the paper with powdered sugar before you wrap the cake. The frosting will stick to the cake then, and not to the paper.

Methodist Youth Banquet

Members of the Methodist Youth Fellowship of the Clanton First Methodist Church were guests at a banquet last Friday night.

The banquet table was arranged in the basement of the church to seat fifty guests. Lovely spring flowers decorated the table and the room. The MYF emblem and covenant was placed at the end of the room facing the banquet table.

The object of this banquet was to encourage the boys and girls in their attendance and purpose of the MYF.

Parents and friends of the boys and girls were responsible for this lovely party and the MYF members and their counselors greatly appreciate their kindness.

A LARGE PART OF THE CROWD

THIS IS A VIEW of the large crowd of 4-H'ers who attended the 4-H Club Rally at Clanton. They are watching one of the contests.

SERVICES NEXT SUNDAY AT VERBENA BAPTIST CHURCH

Next Sunday, May 2nd, at 11 o'clock, the pastor, Rev. J. W. Jones, will speak on a subject in keeping with the Mother's Day spirit. This sermon will be preached next Sunday since the pastor will be unable to be at Verbena the following Sunday, which is actually Mother's Day. There will be Sunday School at 10 o'clock, as usual.

At night the pastor urges all to [illegible] on the subject of "What I would do in Verbena if I were the Devil. What would You do?"

PRE-SCHOOL ROUNDUP

There will be a pre-school clinic at the Jemison School Auditorium May 4th, at 9 o'clock. We are anxious for every child who will be six years old on or before October 1, 1948, to have Dr. Moore and his nurse give them a check-up.

Then we hope the parents will have the necessary medical attention given the child by the doctor of their choice. This will help the child be ready to enter and stay in school next fall.

SCENES AT 4-H CLUB RALLY

In the picture above is a scene of the high-jump contest. Officials of the day can be seen from left to right: L. D. Fretwell of Mt. Pleasant School; Hudson Williams, Cooper; Rascoe Maddox, of Thorsby, and G. C. Weldon of Mt. Pleasant.

STOP RUSSIA!

– Says Senator Sparkman –

To Preserve WORLD PEACE And WORLD TRADE

Senator Sparkman always has been a strong supporter of the present United States Foreign Policy. His foresight and wisdom in this respect now are proved by the world-wide outcry against the spread of communism.

The main fight against our Foreign Policy today is being made by Henry Wallace, the Communist Party and Senator Sparkman's opposition in Alabama.

"The Marshall Plan for European relief is far more than a humanitarian program to feed the starving people of Europe," says Senator Sparkman. "It also is insurance against another war—and protection for the people of the United States against a business depression caused by communistic stoppage of world trade. If we don't stop Russia we face again the possibility of 5-cent cotton and 30-cent corn."

QUICK FACTS ABOUT SPARKMAN

• • •

Attended 1-room, 1-teacher rural school.

Walked 4 miles morning and night to High School.

• • •

Entered University of Alabama with $75 borrowed on his own cotton crop. Worked way through University by doing odd jobs and graduated an honor student.

• • •

Lived on farm for 21 years—still greatly interested in farming and now owns his own Alabama farm.

• • •

Veteran of World War 1, serving as a private.

• • •

First elected to Congress in 1936, re-elected 5 times and selected "Majority Whip" by fellow congressmen, one of the highest honors in the House.

Resigned as U. S. Representative when elected to United States Senate in 1946 to fill the unexpired term of the late Senator John H. Bankhead.

• • •

Believes in principles of States' Rights and opposes the so-called Truman "Civil Rights" program. Has always opposed and still fights AGAINST all federal legislation relating to poll tax, to anti-lynching, to FEPC or to race segregation. Has always been a champion of States' Rights.

• • •

Believes harmony and UNITY necessary for continued success of Democratic Party—but that such unity can and must be achieved without sacrificing principles of Southern Democrats.

They're going places, the young men who fly the planes of the U. S. Air Force. They're getting the best aviation training in the world . . . training that is preparing them for interesting and profitable careers in aviation.

You can join them by becoming an Aviation Cadet. Under skilled instruction, you learn to fly the nation's finest and fastest planes. You draw $75 per month, plus food, quarters, uniforms, medical and dental care.

After successfully completing the 52-week course, you are commissioned a 2nd Lieutenant in the Air Force Reserve and assigned to active flying duty. Your monthly income jumps up to $336 (including flight pay) and you have a chance to apply for a Regular Air Force Commission.

You can qualify for this unusual opportunity if you are single, between 20 and 26½ years old, have had two years of college (or can pass an equivalent Air Force examination). Get all the details at any U. S. Army or U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station. Or write to Headquarters, U. S. Air Force, Attention: Aviation Cadet Branch, Washington 25, D. C.

Pilot training classes start July 1 and October 15, 1948. Most Air Bases are equipped to give complete qualifying examinations.

Thank You

While it has been my great pleasure to see many of YOU it has naturally been impossible to see YOU all. I will appreciate YOU who I have missed taking this as my personal solicitation of your support.

As the campaign closes additional rumors and charges will doubtless occur. PAY NO ATTENTION TO THEM in the realization that they are most probably without foundation or at best half truths.

I invite your careful consideration of my record of service to the people of our District, with which so many of YOU are familiar. I request your vote and influence on that basis and assure you in advance of my constant best efforts to always remain worthy of your confidence.

I wish to again express my deep gratitude to the many friends who are doing such an excellent job in my behalf and urge each to continue your fine work until the election. Then I urge that YOU not only vote yourself but be sure to see that other JARMAN friends do so. Regardless of the number of our friends, votes not cast do not count. Therefore despite the nearness of the election a very fertile field still lies ahead of which I will appreciate each of YOU taking full advantage.

THANK YOU, THANK YOU from the bottom of a very appreciative heart.

Sincerely,

PETE JARMAN

NEWS FROM

Alabama Mills, Inc.

MRS. B. L. VENABLE, Corres. Phone 116-R

This week we have six members of the Alabama Mills family who are receiving service pins and certificates along with a letter from Mr. Paul A. Redmond, president of the company, for their continuous service with the company. Two of these have fifteen year awards and four the five year awards.

Those receiving the fifteen year awards are Mr. Richard Middleton Robinson and Mr. James Randolph Neeley.

Richard Middleton Robinson

Mr. Robinson began work with this company as helper in the machine shop and later was promoted to Master Mechanic of this unit. He has remained on this job since that time. Mr. Robinson is a very good natured fellow and liked by all the employees. We are very proud of Mr. Robinson and the service that he has given the company during the fifteen years he has been connected with this unit.

JAMES RANDOLPH NEELEY

Mr. Neeley began work here as a quill man in the weave room and has remained in this department during the entire fifteen years. Mr. Neeley is now experienced in many jobs in the mill, and is a competent and efficient employee. We congratulate Mr. Neeley on his excellent service to the company.

Included in the four who received the five-year awards are Mrs. Alice Armstrong Atchison, Mr. Wallace Reid Clark, Mr. Floyd John Little and Martin Nixon.

We want to thank each of you for the loyal service you have given the company and we hope that you will remain with us for many years to come.

Just a brief history of the service each of these employees have given the company show that Mrs. Armstrong began work here as learner in the drawing room and is now an experienced drawing tender. Mrs. Armstrong is well known among the employees and well liked.

Mr. Wallace Clark came here without experience in the textile field. He is employed in the cloth room as folder. Mr. Clark has made many friends in this section since he has been with the company.

Mr. Floyd Little is employed as frame hand in the card room. He also came to work here as a learner and has spent his entire five years in the card room. We are glad to present him with the service pin and certificate.

Martin Mixon is one of our colored boys and works as a yard hand and in the cloth and cotton ware houses. Martin has been faithful to his work. He is always on the job and always seems willing to do what ever job is allotted him.

We are glad to have so many loyal employees with this unit. It is the faithful service of each employee that makes this a pleasant place, and we do believe we have a most pleasant place to work and one that has a friendly atmosphere.

$12,168.75 Bonds Bought In April, Says Hollis

Chilton County has bought $12,168.75 in United States Security Bonds since April 1, County Chairman John Hollis, announced today.

These purchases mean that our county has bought 10.14 percent of its Security Loan quota of $120,000, Mr. Hollis said.

"Our county is being organized so that the banks, the schools and the business concerns will all take an active role in this great peace time effort to increase personal and national security," the county chairman said.

"We have until June 30 to put our county over the top so that it will stand shoulder to shoulder with the other counties of the state and nation as having done its part to 'keep the peace.'

An easy way to oil doors, clocks and sewing machines is with a feather dipped in oil.

From The Third District

The day is near at hand for us all as citizens of our progressive county and peace-loving America to realize the importance and duties of ourselves to select the men of our choice to represent our county for the allotted years. Let's have better roads instead of high power politics. People, consider a man who can and will devote his time to his said job, if elected, which is to be considered.

I truly hope that my letters to the public has in no means offended any one whatsoever. I have been asked many times as to where I live. I live on Verbena Route 1, near Enterprise School and Community.

Your vote for me will be a vote for reliable assurance of dependability to all.

Thank you all,
ARCHIE L. DENNIS.

M. C. "Jack" Hayes Writes Voters Of County

To the People of Chilton County:

I wish to express my sincere thanks to each and every one of you for the courteous and warm reception which you have given me during my campaign. I have seen many of you and shall continue to see as many of you as possible before May 4th, but should I fail to see you before this time, please consider this a very personal appeal for your vote and influence.

So that you people might be well informed of how your Tax Collector's Office has been taken care of and as evidence of my campaign slogan, "A Good Record is Better Than Campaign Promises," I submit two letters below, one from the Chief of Examiners for the State of Alabama, and the other from the Office of the State Comptroller:

LETTERS

March 17, 1948.

Hon. M. C. (Jack) Hayes,
Tax Collector,
Chilton County,
Clanton, Alabama.

Dear Mr. Hayes:

An audit of your poll tax receipt books has been completed and your books were compiled in a most excellent manner. They were legible, correct in every particular, and the amount of $5,713.50, collected from the issuance of these receipts had already been remitted to the State Treasurer. Not a single receipt had been voided, which is evidence of the fact that these records were handled in a most capable manner.

Permit me to thank you for the efficient and commendable way in which your poll tax receipts were issued, and the excellent condition in which your books were found when received in the Comptroller's Office.

Yours very truly,
E. D. GILMER,
Comptroller's Office.

April 14, 1948.

Honorable M. C. "Jack" Hayes
Tax Collector
Chilton County
Clanton, Alabama

Dear Mr. Hayes:

As requested by you in your letter of April 12, 1948, I am pleased to write you in regards to your office and the manner in which you have conducted it as reported by the examiners making the audits.

The examiners stated in their 1944-1945 report:

"The general conduct of the office was excellent, and all records were neatly and accurately kept in a commendable manner."

In the 1946-47 examiners' report they state:

"The records and accounts reflect that the Tax Collector has conducted his office according to requirements of the law and records are kept in a neat and orderly manner. Your examiners find the conduct of the office commendable."

As you can see from these reports, you have managed the affairs of your office above the average, and I congratulate you.

If at any time I may be of service to you, please call on me.

Very truly yours,
RALPH P. EAGERTON,
Chief Examiner.

On this record, I solicit your vote and influence.

Sincerely,
M. C. (Jack HAYES.

To The Voters Of Chilton County

As a candidate for Commissioner for the Third District, I want to thank all of you for the nice reception you have given me in my candidacy.

As the time is drawing near for the election, I urge all of you to go to the polls and cast your vote wisely, give it careful consideration, as this will mean much to the future welfare of your roads.

I am a hard working dirt farmer with a fair success of my own. I have three and one-half years of road experience—not pencil work, but on the job. If you elect me I promise to keep your school busses and private cars and trucks rolling over smooth roads, saving you and the county lots of dollars in repair bills.

I will stay with the job, and for every dollar that's spent, I will do my utmost to get full value in return.

I ask you to talk with business men and farmers whom I have had dealings with.

Now is the time to do some straight thinking, and get down to business, and if you see fit to support me I will appreciate it.

Sincerely yours,
G. T. (George) SHOULTS.

World War II Veteran Writes County Voters

Mr. Brown is a verteran of World War II having served four years with the Third Navil Const. Batt., in the Southwest Pacific Previous to his military service he spent 10 years with the Alabama Highway Department in road engineering and construction. In a letter Monday he stated:

"To My Friends; I wish to express my appreciation to each of you for the splendid cooperation and encouragement you have given me. To those of you that I have failed to see, I want you to consider this as a personal appeal to you for your vote and influence."—Sincerely T. A. (Abney) BRAWN.

To The Voters Of Chilton County

Next Tuesday you will see my name on the Democratic ballot as candidate for delegate to the Democratic Convention. This is going to be a very important convention and I would like very much to be one of the two delegates from our Congressional District.

In order for a vote for me to count, you will have to vote for two delegates. The only other candidate for delegate from the Sixth District, whom I know stands for the same principles as I do, is Mr. Coleman Long of Uniontown. He and I are basically and traditionally "States Rights Democrats" and, if elected as delegates, will fight to the last for exclusion of Mr. Truman's so-called "Civil Rights" program in the democratic platform. We will resist with all our ability and power the nomination of any and all persons who advocate or favor the so-called "Civil Rights" program.

I assure you that I will appreciate a good vote in Chilton County and that if elected I will serve you to the best of my ability.

COHEN E. STAPP.
(Pd. pol. adv. by C. E. Stapp, Clanton)

To The Voters Of Chilton County

I wish to express my appreiation to my friends for their confidence, support and influence in my behalf, in the race for County Treasurer, and to let them know, that due to a new law passed recently, I am automatically nominated for that office, on the Democratic Ticket, as an un-opposed candidate's name is not printed on the ballot in a Primary Election. I appreciate also the honor from the Democratic Party at being un-opposed.

However, I wish to ask those with whom I have not talked personally, to consider closely my qualifications for this office in the General Election in November, and will appreciate your electing me to the office of County Treasurer, as I have the experience nessary to th proper handling of that office.

Thanks, very much.

Sincerely,
B. E. REEVES, Clanton, Ala.

JIM PLOTT THANKS THE PEOPLE

Since this is my last chance to thank the people of Chilton County for their interest in my campaign for the office of Commissioner of District Four, let me say that I thank you from the bottom of my heart for your encouragement and cooperation during the past few weeks.

I will not make you folks a lot of promises. I will make only one and that is I will do the work required by the office to the best of my ability and give the office my full time.

As most of you know I have been a Democrat all of my life. I have never voted anything but a straight Democratic ticket. I want the Democrats of Chilton County to get behind me in this race and elect me their County Commissioner.

Again I thank you and will appreciate your vote on May 4th.

Sincerely,
JIM PLOTT.
(Pd. pol. adv. by Jim Plott, Verbena, Ala.)

VOTERS

I would like to take this opportunity to sincerely thank each and every one of you for the courtesy and encouragement you have given me during my campaign for the office of commissioner of the third district.

Although I have seen quite a number of you, I am sorry to say, many of you I have not had the pleasure of talking to. Whether or not I have seen you, I want you to know your vote will be very deeply appreciated.

I am a veteran of World War II and with exception of the time spent in the armed forces, I have lived all my life in Chilton County.

I am particularly interested in the welfare of our county and if elected as your commissioner, I assure you I will devote my full time to the work and will do my best to get a dollar's return for every dollar spent.

If you, the voters of Chilton County, see fit to elect me as your Commissioner, I want you to feel perfectly free at any time to come to me and I will always lend a tentive ear to any suggestion you have for the betterment of the welfare of our county.

Sincerely,
WELCH M. ROEBUCK.
(Paid Political Adv.)

Seeks Office As Tax Collector

I humbly ask the support of the voters in Tuesday's primary. I have never held public office, but feel that I am qualified to make you a good Tax Collector. I will give the office all of my time and assure you, the taxpayers of my county, fair and impartial administration. I hope I can count on your vote Tuesday.

Sincerely,
JIM PARRISH.
(Pd. Pol. Adv.)

Winston Culp Writes To All The Voters

This is my last opportunity to ask for the support of you voters that I have been unable to see during the campaign. As I stated in my letter last week I will not make you a lot of campaign promises, but will endeavor to serve one and all to the very best of my ability and feel that I am qualified to do so.

If you can go to the polls Tuesday and vote for me it will be appreciated but whether or not you can vote for me, go to the polls and vote.

Sincerely,
WINSTON W. CULP.
(Pd. Pol. Adv.)

Robert F. Holley's Final Appeal

I want to thank each of the voters for their kindness and expressions of support and confidence in my ability to carry out the promises made if elected Commissioner in District Four next Tuesday, May 4th. I promised in the beginning, first, to run a clean campaign, and second, to devote my entire time to the duties of road commissioner if elected. The first of these promises has been fulfilled, and I assure you now that if elected the second one will be fulfilled. I have made no political ties or connections and if elected I expect to be the Commissioner of all the people.

Chilton County covers a large area and I haven't been able to call on each voter personally. I have done my best in the short time to see all of the voters, whether I have seen you or not I will appreciate your vote, support and influence.

Respectfully,
ROBERT F. HOLLEY.

To The Voters Of Chilton County

Would like to saw some things in behalf of Mr. Jim Plott, one of the candidates for Commissioner from District Four, on the Democratic Ticket.

Mr. Plott has always been a good, loyal Democrat. All of his life since becoming of age to vote, he has always worked hard in the interest of Democracy. He, with two other friends, were responsible for Chilton County getting the first chart for the Alabama State League of Young Democrats of Chilton County, and it took lots of hard work, time and patience to do it.

All of his friends says he has been honest and faithful and should be rewarded with the office of which he now seeks. Mr. Plott has never run before for any of the local offices.

He endorses labor and old-age pensions, more pay for school teachers, farm to market roads, the common man. He and his friends have never had a Commissioner in his beat.

The time has come to help elect Mr. Plott in District Four as Commissioner and divide with them the courtesy and service the people are entitled to receiving and help enable him to give the people in his district some of the good service he has always give the county.

A FRIEND,
(Pd. pol. adv. by Friends of Jim Plott)

To Voters Of Chilton County
